

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 1955

Chapter 1955

"What if I am crossing the line?! I'm warning you, you'd better know your place! Either you Scammells hand Leon over today, or you'll be destroyed! It's your own choice!" Eliam said with a sneer. He had his hands behind his back and looked like he was far above everyone else. It was as if Patrick stood no chance against him!

Of course, that was precisely the case!

The Scammells were just an ordinary ancient martial arts family in the Southern region. They were nothing compared to the Golans in terms of power and wealth!

With the power of the Golans, it would be a trivial matter to get rid of the Scammells!

The Golans even had the Hiltons behind them!

There was no way he would see Patrick and the Scammells as a threat!

"Impossible! Elder Golan, stop trying to scare me! Even though the Scammells aren't that powerful, you should know that we have ties with the Thompsons! The Thompsons stand at the helm of all the families in the Southern region. They are responsible for monitoring all the other families! If you dare to pull anything, the Thompsons won't just stand back and watch!" Patrick said stubbornly.

He knew that the Scammells stood no chance against the Golans and the Hiltons, so he was forced to try and use the Thompson name to try to push Eliam and the Golans back!

"Who do you think the Thompsons are?! Others might be afraid of them, but we, the Hiltons, are not! Old man, I don't mind telling you this. Even if the Thompsons are very close to your family. Even if the Thompsons force their way into this matter. They won't be able to do anything to the Golans!" Joel said proudly. He stepped forward and looked at Patrick in disdain.

"What? How dare you, Hilton!" At that moment, a furious laugh was heard.

Right after that, Yuri, Leon, and the others walked over from the inner yard. They quickly arrived and stood with Patrick and the Scammells.

"Yuri, it's you!"

Joel, Eliam, and the others were shocked at Yuri and Leon's appearance!

It was obvious that none of them expected Yuri to be there!

It caught them off guard completely!

However, Eliam deliberately asked Joel and the other Thompsons over precisely because he wanted the help of the Hiltons against the Thompsons so the Thompsons would not be able to help Leon!

They were already prepared. Even if Yuri was there, it would not change much!

Joel in particular was there to seek justice for Seth. He had the perfect reason to be there!

If Yuri decided to interfere, then he would take the chance to teach Yuri a lesson as revenge for Yuri injuring him before!

"Leon, you came at the perfect moment! You broke my legs and crippled my power. It's time for us to settle the score! I'll make sure to turn you to ash today. You'll be begging for mercy at the end!" Seth said venomously. He glared right at Leon in the wheelchair, looking like he wanted to rip Leon apart!

The moment he said that Joel, Eliam, and the others all looked at Leon with murderous intent!

Leon was immediately the center of attention!

"With just you guys? What a joke!" Leon sniffed. He sounded weak, but he was still firm and left no room for disbelief!
