Chapter 2461

"What? Dad, how can you?" Shocked, Hugo gaped at Josiah in disbelief.

He did not expect his father to side with Jayden and doubt him.

This completely caught him off guard, but before he could process the situation, Josiah's voice rose once again." Father, Jayden wants evidence, and it's simple. The southern region isn't that far away from here. We just need to send a few men to the southern region to look into this company's background. That way, we'll know if Hugo is telling the truth right away!" Josiah said calmly.

"Yeah. Dad's right! Grandpa, if you don't believe what I said, you can send someone to the southern region to investigate. That way, you will know for sure!" Hugo beamed, realizing that his father was backing him up indirectly.

"Josiah's right! Instead of debating here, we might as well just send someone over to conduct a detailed investigation on Cynthion Group! That's the safest option!"

The elders nodded and agreed with Josiah's suggestion.

After all, what was true could not be changed.

If Cynthion Group was truly as great as Hugo claimed, it should not be difficult for them to investigate and prove it.

Once they confirmed everything, they would be able to make a swift decision of whether to work with Cynthion Group before they lost the opportunity.

"Good! I have no objection!" Jayden sneered.

He never believed that Cynthion Group had much potential and was pleased that Josiah proposed to look into Cynthion Group's background.

"Sure! It's settled then! Third Elder, one of you will lead a team to the southern region to look into Cynthion Group's background.

Once you find something, report back to me immediately!" Seeing as everyone agreed with Josiah's suggestion, Caleb placed the order decisively.

"Yes!" The third elder said, before leaving for the southern region.

"It's a good thing that we are at least trying another approach," Hugo sighed a breath of relief as the third elder left.

Due to Caleb and the elders' overconfidence and Jayden's arrogance, the collaboration with Cynthion came close to being destroyed.

Thankfully, with Hugo's tireless effort, something changed.

His father, Josiah, skilfully handled Jayden, who posed most of the challenges.

Hugo couldn't help but agree that his father was far more experienced than he was.

If everything went well, the third elder would look into the background of Cynthion Group and Caleb would make the right call to work with Cynthion Group.

All problems would be resolved and the effort he put into this deal would not go to waste, as he did his best to defend his family's gain.

"Alright, that's the end of the discussion for now! Regarding the collaboration with Cynthion Group, we will place it on hold until the third elder returns. You may all go!" Caleb said. With that, the debate ended and everyone left the main hall.
