Chapter 2073

"But, how's that possible?" no one could believe there was such a thing!

Nothing is impossible! Well, since all of you find it so hard to believe, I shall let Miss Thompson here demonstrate the effects of the Cleansing Pill!" Leon replied calmly.

After spending so much time with Roanne recently, he could tell that Roanne was just as talented in martial arts as Ruth was!

Since he and Ruth achieved such amazing effects from ingesting the Cleansing Pill previously, what was to say that Roanne would not achieve the same if not a better effect?

In that case, it would be the perfect demonstration of the Cleansing Pills' power!

On the other hand, since he did not yet have much connection in the Southern region, it would no doubt be a difficult feat for him to summon any Semi Almighty or Almighty Warriors to join his forces.

The only way he could attract their interest was to demonstrate his alchemical skills in hopes that they would be tempted by this and choose to join his side!

This was also another reason why he chose to display the Cleansing Pills' ability and put them up for auction!

With that, he took out one of the Cleansing Pills from the jug and handed it to Roanne.

With that, Roanne swallowed it whole and sat down cross- legged on the ground, beginning to undergo her training and utilizing the pills' power.

"I wonder how President Wolf is going to let Miss Thompson demonstrate this."

"Could the Cleansing Pill possibly allow Miss Thompson to break through her plateau once again?" the audience exchanged incredulous glances.

The Cleansing Pills' effects were so remarkable, but they were unmeasurable nor even visible to the naked eye; it would certainly be difficult to evaluate their validity.

The only exception to that was if Roanne was able to prove that she attained another power level with the Cleansing Pills' help!

However, Roanne just did so a few minutes ago, and it was certainly foolish to hope that she would be able to achieve the same thing again within such a short time!

However, when they all recalled that Leon helped her successfully level up from the Advanced Overlord State to the Semi-Emperor State, they all began to second-guess themselves and wonder if they should have believed Leon in the first place.

After all, Leon already managed to nurture so many master martial artists, and it would not be unreasonable to think he would create another miracle!

Time began to pass as the audience gazed at Roanne in anticipation.

After a long time of no activity-not even so much as a peep -the audience began to rustle and murmur among themselves.

"I knew it! I knew that there was no way Miss Thompson could attain a new power level again after having done so just a few minutes ago!"

"You're right! I'm guessing their experiment must have failed. N

The audience exchanged mutters of disagreement and disappointment.

None of them were willing to believe that there existed such a miraculous pill that could help one enhance their martial arts prowess so easily, and now, seeing that nothing happened to Roanne, they all began to suspect that Leon conned them!

Even if the Cleansing Pills did indeed work as they were supposed to, their effects would be minimal at best- certainly not as good as the Supreme Pure Energy Pills!

The audience were not the only people thinking this; even the Southern Boss and Devon were thinking the same!

The better Cynthion Group's sales were and the bigger their reputation, the more disadvantaged the Spears and the Hiltons would be!

Therefore, neither of them hoped that the Cleansing Pills would work as Leon claimed to!

However, what happened next shocked them to their core!
