

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2078

Chapter 2078

"What happened, Roanne? Why did you lose to Rodney so easily?" Angus asked in a low voice.

"I don't know," Roanne replied rather sheepishly, looking a little remorseful. Since she was never in a real fight before, much less a duel, she still did not know how she managed to lose to Rodney within minutes!

"Um," Seeing that not even Roanne could provide an answer, Angus and Yuri exchanged nervous glances.

They all watched from beneath the stage and thus did not manage to witness the fight.

All they saw was that Rodney unleashed just one attack, which took down Roanne as easily as ABC. However, none of them knew that Rodney secretly ambushed Roanne with a second attack disguised within the first one!

However, the same could not be said for Leon!

He and Cynthia were onstage when it happened, which meant they were in closer proximity to Rodney and Roanne.

Not only that, but Leon was so worried about Roanne that he was watching Rodney carefully throughout.

When Rodney first unleashed his attack, Leon could already feel another surge of powerful energy emitting from his punch at the exact time as the first one.

This second attack was far more powerful than the first, and from Leon's judgment, it was an attack of at least the Advanced Emperor State or perhaps even the Peak Emperor State, which was how he managed to defeat Roanne so easily!

"You've lost, Miss Thompson! This proves that your training is all fake and that all of this is just a part of you and Leon's trick!"

Just as Leon was immersed in his thoughts, Rodney let out a triumphant cackle that reminded everyone of the objective of this duel in the first place.

"It turns out the Southern Boss was right; Cynthion Group was just messing with all of us!"

"Yes, since Mister Spears is only at the Initial Emperor State, and yet Miss Thompson could not even counter one of his attacks, it means that all of this was just a hoax. I'm afraid she's not at the Emperor State at all, perhaps not even the Semi-Emperor State!"

"It seems that we've all fallen for Leon and the Thompsons' trick!"

The audience was outraged at this realization and immediately directed their anger at the culprits-Leon and the Thompsons!

If Roanne was only at the Semi-Emperor State, this meant that not only had the Cleansing Pill been a hoax, but that Leon lied about the Supreme Pure Energy Pills too!

All in all, this meant that Leon and the Thompsons cooperated to stage this act and trick them as though they were children!

One could only imagine their rage at this discovery!

"Hahaha! Leon, the truth has been revealed, so what more do you have to say for yourself?" seeing that everyone began to direct their anger toward Leon, Rodney cackled and looked down at Leon from his towering height. His expression was that of contempt and triumph.

However, he was not the only one cackling in glee; the Southern Boss, too, was smirking at this victory!

"Rats! How did this happen?" Angus and Yuri's hearts sank at this realization. Although they did not stage this act with Leon, there was no denying that Roanne lost to Rodney!

Now that the Southern Boss and Rodney managed to rouse everyone's doubt in them, there was nothing the Thompsons could do to prove themselves innocent, as much as they wanted to do so!

However, in contrast to their worry, Leon appeared as calm as a cucumber.
