

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2094

Chapter 2094

"Mister Wolf, one Cleansing Pill is far from enough! The Thompsons are willing to pay more. Can you please sell all four of them to us?" Angus stepped forward hesitantly.

He could tell that Yonas really wanted a Cleansing Pill. If the Thompsons were only allowed to purchase one pill, the pill would not end up in Yonas' possession.

Since the Cleansing Pills had the effect of cleansing the internal circulation of younger individuals and enhancing their flexibility, it would be ideal if the Thompsons could purchase all four of the pills.

"But..." Leon froze.

Before he could say anything, Alan's shout resonated in the entire hall.

"That won't do! Angus, my grandson Darius needs a Cleansing Pill as well! If the Thompsons take all four of them, my grandson won't get any!" He said.

The younger generation of martial artists was the hope of all families. Since the Cleansing Pills could cleanse the internal circulation of younger individuals and enhance their flexibility, Alan was determined to purchase one pill for Darius.

The more capable Darius became, the brighter the future would be for the rest of the family.

"The Westwoods, too! My grandson Raphael needs one Cleansing Pill as well!" Elder Westwood shouted as well.

"Us, too..."

"We need the Cleansing Pills as well..."

The others from different families agreed along.

"But..." Angus was rendered speechless.

He did not care about other families, but the Westwoods and Hughes were different.

Raphael was Angus's nephew, and Alan was an ally of the Thompsons.

Leon, too, found himself in a dilemma.

He only had five Cleansing Pills. Since Roanne had taken one earlier, he was left with four.

With all families fighting for a chance to purchase the pills, the supply would hardly be enough, even if he included the Cleansing Pills he kept for himself.

"Mister Wolf, the Thompsons need at least two Cleansing Pills..." Resigned, Angus compromised and pleaded.

Since Roanne had already taken one Cleansing Pill, it would be inappropriate for him to only purchase one pill for Yuri and leave Yonas of the second bloodline out entirely.

Hence, he had to purchase at least two Cleansing Pills for both Yuri and Yonas.

"Um... How about this? I will give two Cleansing Pills to the Thompsons, one to the Hughes and another one to the Westwoods! Don't worry about paying. Consider the pills as my gift to you..." Leon said thoughtfully.

The Thompsons had been his most reliable ally, and the Hughes had been an important business partner for the Elegante Group. On top of that, Alan had also helped Leon out on multiple occasions recently.

Taking everything into consideration, there was no way that Leon could refuse Angus's and Alan's pleas.

As for the Westwoods, Raphael was the very first friend he had in the southern region, and they had maintained a great friendship.

In the end, Leon decided not to sell the Cleansing Pills at all and gave them out as gifts to the ones who helped him in the past.
