

Chapter 813 The New Home

---

After looking around the house for a while, Julie took out her phone to dial her mother's number. "Mom, please contact the moving company now. Ask them to transport all our belongings to Nightingale Villa Area Number One." Surprised, Yesenia asked, "The Nightingale Villa Area? Have you actually bought a villa?"

Julie replied cheerfully, "Yes, it's a bit complicated to explain over the phone. Just come here first."

With that, Julie ended the call.

Despite harboring a multitude of questions, Yesenia felt elated.

Nightingale Villa Area was a renowned neighborhood in Salem. It was a great satisfaction for her to live in a villa better than the Cortez family's.

Hence, Yesenia promptly contacted the moving company. After that, she took Asher, and hailed a taxi to get there.

Standing in the opulent villa, Yesenia sighed, "It's so luxurious. I've never resided in such a magnificent house before."

Julie smiled and said, "Mom, this is our home now. You can stay here as long as you want."

However, Yesenia was perplexed. Aware of her daughter's financial situation, she knew this villa was worth millions, far beyond Julie's means.

Did Liam purchase it?

Intrigued, Yesenia pulled Julie aside and whispered, "Tell me the truth, how did you afford this villa?"

Julie recounted everything that transpired in the sales office.

Feeling relieved after learning the truth, Yesenia chuckled and remarked, "Thank goodness. I thought Liam had bought it. It seems the owner of the Nightingale Villa Area has recognized the potential of your company. It has nothing to do with Liam."

She praised Julie, "Thanks to you, I get to live here. Unlike Liam, who only knows how to boast."

Julie frowned. "Mom, please don't say that. We're family, remember?"

Seeing Julie's displeasure, Yesenia refrained from further comments, but she looked down on Liam more in her heart.

As dinner approached, Julie and her family sat around the table, having their first meal in their new home.

Glaring coldly at Liam, Yesenia grew increasingly dissatisfied. She sarcastically commented, "Some people are just incompetent and idle all day. And now they shamelessly live in this fancy villa with us."

In retaliation, Liam replied, "There's no need for sarcasm. Let me tell you, Nolan did this for my sake."

Unconvinced, Yesenia scoffed, "For your sake? Who do you think you are? You're no longer the young master of the Hoffman family. Now you're just a failure. For your sake? What a joke!"

Julie's expression darkened. She wasn't entirely sure how they acquired the villa, but she didn't want her family to quarrel over it.

"Mom, stop it. Regardless of how we obtained this villa, we're already here. Shouldn't we celebrate? Why argue about this?"

Julie firmly intervened, causing both Liam and Yesenia to fall silent.

Sighing, Julie turned to Liam and gently proposed, "Liam, since you're free now and the Pearl's business is thriving, how about helping me manage it? I don't want you to quarrel with my mother at home every day."

Liam nodded in acceptance of the proposition. However, when Yesenia heard that Liam would be joining the Pearl's business, her displeasure was evident.

Despite her reservations, Yesenia chose not to voice her concerns. She opted to purse her lips in silence, seemingly letting the matter slide given the importance of the day and Julie's words.

However, inwardly, she started plotting to remove Liam from the equation and seek a more influential husband for Julie, aiming to elevate their family's status into Salem's upper class.

