

Chapter 837 Seeking An Apology

Klein typically treated matters frivolously, especially regarding the family order, which he saw merely as something related to business affairs. Uninterested in such formalities, he had never bothered to acquaint himself with what was deemed the highest family order.

However, when confronted by Nolan's anger, Klein couldn't bring himself to admit his indifference. He replied, "Dad, I've been incredibly busy lately and haven't had the chance to read it."

Then he asked cautiously, "Dad, I just haven't read the order. Why are you so upset?"

Observing Klein's callous demeanor only fueled Nolan's fury. He scolded him, "Of course, you're busy! Busy chasing after girls!"

After delivering multiple slaps, Nolan scolded, "You disgrace! You're the ruin of our Murray family!"

Terrified by the barrage of slaps, Klein cowered. Seeing his goal achieved, Nolan ceased and disgrace! You're the ruin of our Murray family!"

Terrified by the barrage of slaps, Klein cowered. Seeing his goal achieved, Nolan ceased and sternly instructed, "You've offended Mr. Hoffman. Go and apologize!"

Feigning distress, Klein replied, "He's just the former CEO of Kingland Group. You didn't have to hit me so hard because of him! I'm your son!"

Nolan felt a pang of headache. He knew Liam's identity was a closely guarded secret. Revealing it now might upset Liam.

Assessing Liam's cold gaze, Nolan pondered how to resolve the situation.

Nolan was astute enough to understand that Liam had a positive impression of him due to their previous encounter in the Nightingale Villa Area. Otherwise, Liam wouldn't have summoned him.

Considering Liam's current status, he held the power to destroy the entire Murray family with a single decree. However, summoning Nolan here meant giving him an opportunity.

After contemplating, Nolan avoided further conversation with Klein. He forcefully brought Klein to Liam and demanded, "Apologize to Mr.

Hoffman!"

Cornered by his father's anger, Klein reluctantly apologized, "I'm sorry."

However, Liam remained impassive. Seeing this, Nolan glared at Klein and urged, "Is that your idea of an apology? Be sincere!"

Intimidated by his father's pressure, Klein reluctantly apologized again, "Mr. Hoffman, I'm at fault. I offended you. Please forgive me."

Acknowledging the apology, Liam turned to Nolan. "That's better."

Relieved, Nolan was about to drag Klein when Liam interjected, "Is that all? My son was terrified because of your son's behavior."

Upon hearing Liam's remark, a fleeting expression of embarrassment swept across Nolan's face. This unexpected comment made him feel a tad uncomfortable, causing a subtle undercurrent of dissatisfaction within him.

In fact, Nolan resorted to slapping and scolding Klein primarily to display this act before Liam. Given that Klein was his only son, Nolan spoiled him.

Nolan believed he had already shown considerable respect to Liam. However, he didn't anticipate Liam's continued insistence on the matter. This unexpected persistence left Nolan feeling somewhat frustrated, but considering Liam's status, Nolan could only transform his frustration into a sense of powerlessness.

Struggling internally, Nolan gritted his teeth and pushed Klein, making him kneel.

He then lowered his head and apologized, "My failure as a parent led to this. I apologize once more for my son's behavior. Please forgive us, Mr. Hoffman."

Reluctantly, Liam forgave them, telling Nolan, "Take care of him. Ensure strict discipline, or the consequences won't be as lenient next time!"

Nolan hastily complied, "Yes, Mr. Hoffman. Thank you. I'll ensure strict discipline going forward!"

After that, he left with Klein.

Nevertheless, Klein's heart brimmed with bitterness at that moment. He had been raised in opulence since childhood and had never experienced such humiliation before. This newfound sense of shame fueled a deep-seated resentment within him.

Chapter 837 Seeking An Apology

+120 Points at most

Indifferent to Liam's identity, Klein was resolute in seeking revenge for the humiliation he had endured.

AD I want no ads >