Boss Chapter 1781

Chapter 1781 Bite the Bullet

Logan suddenly understood at this moment why Nicole personally came over. It was not to give Luke Youngblood a chance. Nicole came to give Luke an ultimatum. Nicole's tone was light, warm, and sweet.

"Mr. Youngblood, Stanton Corporation lost the advantage on this project, but we've done more long-term preparation and have measures to deal with all kinds of problems after going online while you don't. You have nothing but a head start.

Are you really sure that you can make it to the end? Luke's face was glum when he raised his eyes to look at Nicole. He did not have the gentleness he had in the beginning. "What if I just don't want to sell to Stanton Corporation?" Nicole laughed and slowly sighed in relief.

'Luke's anxious now!! She slowly picked up the cup of coffee and put it to her mouth. Just when she was about to take a sip, Logan reminded her with a heavy cough. Nicole really was careless.

Nicole froze and put the coffee down again. She glanced at Logan, who stared back at her without a change in expression. Naturally, Luke did not understand Nicole and Logan's tacit understanding.

Luke was still thinking about his current passive situation as he waited for Nicole's reply. "You don't want to sell to Stanton Corporation? Mr. Youngblood, with all due respect, if I didn't value talent so much, you would've already received a letter from my lawyer.

No matter how much money you spend, you won't be able to settle this case. I will sue you until you go bankrupt. I believe that no other investors would invest in a lawsuit-ridden project. By then, will your company still be worth $200 million?" Perhaps even $20 million might be considered too much then.

O Seeing the sudden change in Luke's expression, Nicole smiled. Her tone eased a little. "I could've kept this from you and waited until you sold the company to someone else before suing you.

Then, when the investors suddenly withdraw their capital, your company will truly be hopeless. The profits brought by this project will be short-lived. By then, Stanton Corporation can strike again and there won't be a place for you in the market." Nicole was very straightforward.

For this kind of person who had just started a successful business and tasted some sweetness, the best way was to let him recognize the problems in reality.

DS She had countless ways to make his business fail silently, but Nicole really took an interest in his company, which was why she wanted to acquire it.

Of course, if Luke insisted on refusing her, then there was nothing she could do. Anyway, she had given him an opportunity. Luke's tone was cold and solemn. He was suppressing his anger. "Ms. Stanton, are you threatening me?" Nicole laughed.

"Mr. Youngblood, if you take this as a threat, I'll only think that you're too naive and that you haven't seen the ways of the world. A real threat will be to wait for you to fail, then add insult to injury. Now, I'm just being nice to give you some advice."

She looked at Logan, stood up, and pushed the file in front of her to Luke. "Mr. Youngblood, think about it. Don't be swayed by your personal emotions. It's hard to start a business, and not everyone can become Bill Gates.

When opportunities and challenges coexist, you should know how to pick." 3 Nicole sighed, turned around, and headed out. Before she reached the door, Luke's voice suddenly rang out. "51% is too much. I won't agree to this since I must have the final say in my company.

Even if it's not for my sake, I can't let my friends do some much work in vain. Ms. Stanton, if you want me to admit defeat, you must at least give me a little decency, right?" a Nicole's footsteps paused. She raised her eyebrows. The moment Luke called out to her, he had already conceded defeat. Luke was a smart man and knew that he had no better option.

Chapter 1782 I Choose Her

Nicole turned back to look at Luke and sized him up seriously for a few seconds. a She smiled. "Fine, since you're so decisive, I'll compromise.

49% is the least I'll take." a Seeing Luke's dissatisfied expression, Nicole said in a calm voice, "Mr. Youngblood, you should know that nowadays, although there are many entrepreneurial platforms and entrepreneurs, no company that just emepreneurs, no company wat just emerged has been acquired for $200 million.

I didn't ask for much, and you want a lot. Don't you think that your company will only go further by standing on the shoulders of the Stanton Corporation?" O The acquisition of Z Technologies was said to be a win-win situation, but it was still a loss for Stanton Corporation.

Thus, even if Luke was dissatisfied, Nicole could only compromise so much. jooo She had already offered him whatever she could. If Luke continued to argue,

Nicole might as well give up the acquisition and go back to prepare for the lawsuit.

Luke froze for a moment and nodded his head. "Okay, but I have to meet with my partners to discuss it first." Nicole smiled. "Sure, I'll wait for your answer. You can contact my assistant directly once you've decided." After that, she opened the door and walked out.

The people outside who were in a lively discussion suddenly lost their voices. Everyone had not had time to return to their seats. They looked at Nicole in shock. Nicole smiled and nodded, then left with Logan.

"OMG! That's really Nicole, my goddess! She just smiled at me!" "Nonsense, she was smiling at ME!" "She's so beautiful! She's even more gorgeous than those photos online.

Her face is truly flawless...?) "Yeah! How does she maintain her skin? She looks as young as a teenage student!" "Goddess Nicole actually came to talk in person! If I'd known earlier, I would've gone in to serve them coffee.

This is such a good opportunity for me to approach The Goddess!" "Don't be silly! Didn't the boss say that our company is going to be acquired and that Stanton Corporation is also interested in us? If the acquisition is successful, then we'll become Goddess Nicole's people!" "This is awesome! I wonder if she's really interested in our small company...) o After sending Nicole away, Luke sat alone in his office in silence for a long, long time.

When it was almost time to get off work, Luke's girlfriend knocked on the door and asked him what he wanted for dinner. Only then did Luke respond. "Is everyone still outside?" Luke's girlfriend shook her head. "We're all waiting for you. Was it a success?" Z Luke was silent, and his gaze was gloomy.

2009 O His girlfriend thought that the talk fell through and sighed. "Don't be discouraged. Let's look at other companies. There are plenty of rich people. It's not like we can't live without Stanton Corporation, right? Last time, didn't a foreigner offer $100 million?" Coo Luke pursed his lips. His voice was low.

O "Set up a meeting with everyone outside." Luke originally thought that he held a big advantage and wanted to fight for more benefits for himself and the company. However, it seemed like it would not work anymore.

No one in the company besides Luke knew how to manage a business. Although the others had excellent abilities, they were merely technical people. Regarding the future direction of the company, they did not have any useful opinions.

However, out of respect for his peers, Luke still had to hold a meeting to listen to their opinions. It did not take long for Luke's office to be filled with people. Everyone was looking at Luke anxiously as if they could not wait to know about the news, yet they were worried about failure. Luke let out a bitter laugh.

The company that he had poured his heart and soul into did not look like it could go very far without Nicole. Then, he should not be too greedy and take what he could get.

Chapter 1783 The Biggest Beneficiary

Luke stayed silent. His girlfriend coughed. "Luke, just tell us. Everyone's mentally prepared." Another person spoke up. "Yeah, don't scare us. Did Goddess Nicole not like our small company? I thought there was a chance since she came personally..."

OS O "Sigh... I thought I had the opportunity to approach The Goddess again, but it turned out to be a failure..." Luke pursed his lips. He mustered up the strength and smiled. "Since you guys know that the person who came earlier was Nicole from Stanton Corporation, then I'll tell you the result of today's meeting."

Luke paused, and everyone pricked up their ears to listen. "Nicole agreed to make a one-time payment of $200 million to acquire our company, but she'll take 49% of the shares. I personally feel that she'll get too many shares, so I wanted to discuss it with you guys first." After he said that, everyone fell silent.

Luke wrinkled his eyebrows. o DOO Everyone looked dumbfounded and did not react as he expected. Did they agree or disagree? Luke coughed. "If you guys have an opinion, I can talk to her again.") One of his buddies tentatively asked him.

"$200 million? You're not joking, right?" The other guy also stared at him in surprise. "Goddess Nicole wants to acquire us for $200 million and only wants 49% of our shares? Did a pie just fall from the sky?!" a Although Luke's girlfriend was also excited, when she saw Luke's reaction, she spoke for the opposition.

"49%? Isn't that a bit high?" Luke looked over and was interrupted by a buddy 3 O "How is 49% too much? I've asked someone to inquire about our company's market value. Our company is worth $5 million at most. Even if our development is smooth and we expand operations, our value will only reach $20 million within three years.

Don't even think about hundreds of millions of dollars!" Everyone immediately looked excited. "Of course, we agree! Boss, this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity! Hurry up and say yes! Don't let them backtrack!" Luke was speechless.

He could not carry this group of companions no matter how capable he was. At once, Luke felt that he was a bit naive before. He lowered and shook his head, then smiled as he looked at them. 3 "In that case, you all agree?" Everyone nodded their heads.

Luke said, "Okay. If you guys agree, then I'll contact them about the next steps. But there are some things that I must say upfront. Stanton Corporation will take 49 % of our shares. The remaining 51% will be split among us equally.

Once any one of us has a different opinion, then the biggest beneficiary will be Stanton Corporation." After that, everyone fell silent. Finally, they understood the meaning of Luke's words. "That is to say, in the future, Stanton Corporation will be the one calling the shots in our company?" Luke nodded his head.

"Then... Boss, what are you going to do? What will we do without you as our boss? We only trust you..." "Yeah, Boss! We followed you, so we believe in you." Luke bowed his head and smiled bitterly.

His voice was dull as he said, "Don't worry, I'm not leaving. I'll also become another employee who works for Stanton Corporation. In the future, if there are no accidents, Stanton Corporation will have a special team come over to take over this place. Or they'll move us to a better place. The company will only get better." Luke just would not have the absolute say anymore. However, the company would definitely face a lot less difficulties and resistance on Stanton Corporation's platform. Luke could not deny this fact.
