

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Boss Chapter 1914

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Boss Chapter 1914 Don't Bully Her

Lumi wanted to hear it from Kirsi. She wanted Kirsi to explain to her.

Kirsi opened her mouth. She lost her composure and bit her lower lip, not knowing what to say.

On the side, Samuel stepped forward and dragged Lumi away.

“I'll explain it to you. Let's talk in the car...”

Lumi stumbled two steps and almost fell.

She was annoyed and shook off his hand. Her voice was harsh. “Let go of me! What are you afraid of? Are you afraid that people will hear you, and it'll affect your career and reputation?”

Lumi suddenly turned around and looked at Julie and Nicole for two seconds. Her eyes were red.

“Did you guys already know? Have you been hinting at me just now?”

Julie pursed her lips and did not say anything. Nicole hesitated for half a second and spoke frankly.

“I didn't tell you because I was afraid that you'd be upset. But I think that you'd be even sadder if you were kept in the dark like a fool.”

Nicole took a deep breath and looked at Lumi. “You'd better ask them yourself. Sometimes, what you see is the truth. It might not be a misunderstanding...”

Samuel gritted his teeth. A trace of panic crossed his face.

Nicole ignored him and was not at all scared of his threat.

She shrugged her shoulders. “I don’t want to meddle. It’s just that you’re Lumi’s husband that supposedly loves her the most, and Kirsi is her favorite sister. You guys shouldn’t bully her like that...”

After saying that, Nicole did not care about the expressions of the other two people and only glanced at Julie. The two of them then walked away, one after the other.

As soon as Nicole said that, Samuel’s and Kirsi’s expressions changed dramatically.

It was already a known fact that they could no longer hide.

Lumi closed her eyes as if she had just received a major blow. She glanced at Kirsi, and then at Samuel, like it was the first time she knew them both.

She turned around and wanted to leave.

However, she suddenly thought of something and turned back again.

Kirsi wanted to follow, but she was stopped by Samuel.

“Don’t worry about it. I’ll explain to her.”

Kirsi squatted on the ground F<] xJ5PR picked up the snacks that were crushed on the ground. Her eyes instantly reddened.

The surrounding staff saw this scene and did not dare to go forward to comfort her.

They should have expected it when Kirsi lost her composure earlier.

Those who were close to Kirsi knew about the relationship between her and Samuel. It was just that they did not expose it.

Kirsi did not look as arrogant as before. Now, she just looked like a beautiful puppet with tears in her eyes as she squatted there.

Lumi, Kirsi's half-sister whom she hated and loved at the same time, had never been wary of her.

Kirsi recalled how Lumi painstakingly persuaded her to eat and personally made her nutritious meals back then when she was on a diet.

The person who was the nicest to Kirsi was Lumi. Lumi was also the person that Kirsi was always jealous of.

Nicole and Julie were talking when Lumi suddenly barged in.

Lumi's eyes were very red, but she tried her best to control her emotions.

"I don't believe them anymore. I want you guys to tell me everything you know!"

Lumi was trying not to have an emotional breakdown and was almost hysterical.

Julie hesitated and looked at Nicole.

"I just happened to see them going in and out of the hotel together. Yesterday, Samuel went to the hotel where Kirsi was staying at... Clayton also saw Samuel and Kirsi attending a social event together."

Lumi's face gradually paled.

She felt like she was trapped in a suffocating enclosure that even breathing felt extremely painful.

Samuel rushed over. He frowned at Julie and Nicole and wanted to speak.

“I said that I’ll explain everything. This has nothing to do with Kirsi. I was the one who kept pestering her before, but she kept rejecting me.”

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Boss Chapter 1915

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Boss Chapter 1915 Agree to Anything

Lumi stood there in a daze. Her body was stiff, and she did not turn back.

Nicole looked over from her angle and saw that Lumi looked dumbfounded without any changes in her expression.

Lumi did not react to Samuel, which made him a little nervous.

He looked at Nicole and Julie.

“Will you please give us some privacy?”

Before Nicole and Julie could say anything, Lumi moved. Her lips turned pale.

“Why should they avoid us? Are you afraid that the lies you made up won’t match up to what they told me?”

Samuel opened his mouth and was a little surprised.

Lumi's reaction was beyond his expectations.

He used to think about how Lumi would react if she found out. He thought that she would just cry and make a huge fuss about it.

When the time comes, he will just give her more money to set things right. That was not difficult. But now...

He was a little speechless.

Julie and Nicole went to the next room. Although they were out of sight, the sound insulation here was not great, so they could hear Samuel and Lumi's conversation clearly.

"I knew Kirsi when she first started out as an actor. I was the one who single-handedly promoted her. She concealed her identity at that time and was just a D-lister that had a hard time surviving in the circle. I didn't know you at the time, and I was just... Fooling around with her." Samuel's voice was deep and hoarse. He sounded like he was speaking with difficulty because he did not want to mention too much about the past. However, Lumi let out a light laugh.

"Oh. I've heard about your many flings before our marriage and that you like to fool around with actresses. It turns out that Kirsi was one of them?"

Once this kind of relationship was exposed, it would more or less be somewhat awkward. However, these were facts no matter how unseemly they were.

It was just that it was a little hard to hear. Samuel's expression was not great either. He just frowned when he heard those words and did not argue.

After all, that was indeed the situation at the time. They each had their own motives.

Lumi's tone was mocking.

“What happened after? When did you find out that she's a Makinen? If you knew, why didn't you marry her instead? Are you guys deliberately toying with me?”

Lumi gritted her teeth and lost her composure. She clenched her fists tightly.

Samuel said, “I just know that I have a marriage alliance with a Makinen, but I didn't know who my partner was. I didn't care either. I just agreed to it after my dad showed me your picture. I only knew who Kirsi was at our wedding. But I've already broken up with her before our wedding.” Lumi froze for a while before she slowly spoke.

“So, you two have been hooking up with each other behind my back since our wedding? She's the reason you got so drunk on our wedding day?” Samuel pursed his lips. He knew that he was guilty, and he felt sorry for Lumi.

However, that was the truth.

“I was resentful at first. I hated her for deceiving me, and I hated that...”

Samuel hesitated for a moment, but Lumi spoke. “You hated that we're both from the Makinen family, yet you had to marry the one that you didn't love. Now, you regret it, right?”

Samuel closed his eyes and stayed silent when Lumi exposed his inner thoughts. After a moment, he spoke in a low and hoarse voice.

“I’m sorry... I was just confused for a while, but Kirsi ignored me during that time. I hate that she lied to me, and you’ re so important to her. I knew that this would hurt you the most...”

Lumi was sobbing.

“You knew. She also knew, but you both still hurt me anyway! If you’d told me from the beginning, I wouldn’t have married you at all! Even if we were married, I would’ve divorced you so that you two can be together. What about now?”