

An Understated Dominance by Marina Vittori Chapter 2008

Chapter 2008 "Brother Dustin! I didn't expect you to be so powerful. That sword strike just now was so majestic!"

Walking in the passage of the palace, Kevin Snow was still in high spirits and marveled.

He knew Dustin was powerful, but he didn't expect him to be so powerful. His strength and cultivation were even better than the desert dragon Billy Ruso.

It's incredible!

"Yes, Senior Brother Dustin, you can kill the black dragon with one sword and shock all forces in the southwest and northwest. From now on, you will definitely be famous all over the world!"

Lily Zhang smiled sweetly, and the look in Dustin's eyes became particularly hot.

Kevin Snow can be called excellent, but he is only her alternative.

Now that there is a peerless genius like Dustin around her, she naturally knows what to do.

"I was just lucky enough to find the flaw in the black dragon." Dustin said with a faint smile.

"Brother Dustin, please stop being modest. No one but a martial arts master can break the Black Dragon's defense. You cut off the Black Dragon's head with just one sword strike. I have never heard of such a heroic act!" Kevin Snow praised without hesitation. Discourse.

"Brother Shi, please stop praising me. I'm a thin-skinned person and I really can't stand it." Dustin said.

Hearing this, Margaret rolled his eyes, obviously disagreeing.

"Hahaha... With Brother Dustin's talent and strength, he deserves any praise." Kevin Snow laughed.

"Senior Brother Dustin, you are so powerful, can you give me some pointers? My Yuanyang Sword always feels like it's not very powerful." Lily Zhang said delicately.

While speaking, he also winked, with a somewhat ambiguous air.

However, Dustin didn't even look at it and said calmly: "I am a sword user and I know only a little about sword skills. However, in this aspect, you can learn more and communicate with Brother Shi. I believe you will make rapid progress."

"Although Senior Brother Shi is good at swordsmanship, he is still far behind you in terms of realm, so I have to rely on you, Senior Brother Dustin, to teach me about martial arts." Lily Zhang put on a weak look.

"Let's talk about it then." Dustin said simply and perfunctorily.

He had seen Lily Zhang's previous behavior of crossing the river and destroying the bridge, abandoning his friends and running away.

So he doesn't have a good impression of this kind of green tea at all.

"Hmph! What's so great?"

Seeing that Dustin was so popular and attracting so much attention, Leo Alexander, who was walking at the back, looked a little gloomy and his eyes were full of jealousy.

Since understanding Dustin's strength, he now doesn't even have the courage to approach Margaret.

Everyone held torches and walked along the passage of the palace.

In order to prevent triggering the mechanism, the team walked slowly and cautiously.

Fortunately, there are no mechanisms in the passage, so it can be said to be unobstructed.

But then I thought about it, with a dangerous creature like the black dragon guarding the place, setting up traps and so on was completely unnecessary.

After walking through the passage, what appeared in front of everyone was a spacious and magnificent hall.

In the main hall, there are various gold, silver, jade, jewelry, and rows of strange-shaped terracotta warriors and horses.

Half of them are cavalry figurines riding horses and holding spears.

The cavalry warriors are arranged in a charging formation, looking majestic and unstoppable.

As for the other half, there are figurines of various exotic animals.

There are tall armored bears, black birds that breathe fire, centaurs with weapons, white tigers with wings, and so on.

There are all kinds of strange things.

"Oh my God! There are so many gold and silver jewels. Now we are prosperous!"

"Hahaha... God is blessing us... God is really blessing us!"

After seeing the treasures all over the hall, the big man said Some people got excited.

As long as they take all the treasures here out, it will be enough for them to be prosperous for the rest of their lives.

Sure enough, wealth can be found in danger.

Looking at the mountains of gold, silver and jewelry, they suddenly realized that all the suffering and danger they had encountered were worth it.

"Miss Li, you decide how you should divide the treasure here." Kevin Snow said with a smile on his face.

"It's up to you to see it. It doesn't matter to me how much you can take."

Margaret glanced around, seeming to be looking for something.

It was obvious that her thoughts were not on the jewelry at all.

"Have you all heard this? Miss Li has spoken and asked everyone to take whatever they want!" Kevin Snow laughed loudly.

"Thank you, Miss Li!" Everyone clasped their fists and saluted.

Then he no longer cared about being polite and started searching the ceremony.

There is simply a lot of treasure, but there will be no looting.

Looking at the entire audience, only Dustin and Margaret did not move.

One is the crown prince of West Lucozia and the other is the princess of the Dragonmarsh Kingdom. They are both rich and powerful people, so naturally they don't have much interest in these ordinary jewelry.

The two of them have only one goal, the energy of dragon source.

"Dustin, are the eyes of the sky sensitive?"

Margaret glanced around and found no clues.

"There is a feeling, and it's very strong."

Dustin took out the eyeball from his pocket and showed it in front of Margaret.

It can be seen that the eyes of the sky are filled with light and vibrating continuously.

This is enough to prove that there is some strange treasure hidden nearby.

"Can you feel the specific direction?" Margaret asked tentatively.

"Let me try."

Dustin held the Sky Eye in his hand and began to walk around the hall.

The closer the Sky Eye is to the exotic treasure, the more obvious the reaction will be.

He can use this to determine the approximate location of the treasure.

After walking around for a few times, Dustin finally stopped in front of a mural.

The mural depicts a pattern of people worshiping gods. It blends in with the surrounding scene, and there is nothing unusual about it.

But the closer he got to the mural, the more intense the vibration in the sky eyeball in Dustin's hand became.

The white light emitted also became brighter.

"That's it!"

Dustin suddenly raised his head and said with a sonorous tone: "If you guessed correctly, the rare treasure is hidden behind this mural!" "

Huh?"

Margaret raised his eyebrows: "You mean, this There is something else behind the mural."

"That's it so far."

Dustin nodded.

As long as the sensing of the Sky Eyeball is correct, then everything is inseparable.

"Come here! Destroy this mural!"

Margaret didn't waste any time. He gave an order and directed his escort to start smashing the wall.
