

An Understated Dominance by Marina Vittori Chapter 2015

Chapter 2015

Compared to the excitement of the people around him, Margaret's eyebrows were deeply furrowed and her eyes were full of disappointment.

When she learned that the Sky Eyes were sensitive, she was full of expectations and felt that the energy of the dragon source would most likely be hidden in this underwater palace.

However, now, after searching inside and outside, except for some gold and silver jewelry, there is no trace of the dragon's source of energy.

After struggling for so long, the result was nothing.

For her, this result was obviously unacceptable.

"Dustin, are the eyes still sensitive?"

As if thinking of something, Margaret turned around and asked.

"Yes, and it's very strong." Dustin nodded.

"Although these collection items are precious, they shouldn't be considered rare treasures, right? Why do the Sky Eyes have such a strong response?" Margaret was a little surprised.

She had carefully looked at the gold and silver jewelry in the two bronze coffins several times.

For ordinary people, every treasure here is enough to provide them with food and clothing for a lifetime.

However, in her eyes, these things were not able to produce a strong sensation in the eyes of the sky.

“Based on these things alone, it is true that they cannot be regarded as rare treasures, but the sensing of the eyes of the sky will not be wrong. I can be sure that the rare treasures are hidden in this tomb. Let’s look for them carefully.”

Dustin said as he said , his eyes began to scan around, trying to find some clues.

“Everyone listen to the order and search the tomb carefully to see if there are any secret compartments.”

Margaret waved his hand and gave the order directly.

Although the guards were a little jealous of the gold, silver and jewelry in the coffin, they had to restrain their greed and searched everywhere.

“Miss Margaret, I’m a little curious, what are you looking for?” Kevin Snow asked abruptly.

Since entering the palace, they have found a lot of treasures.

However, Margaret was not interested at all, as if he didn’t pay attention to these treasures at all, which was really strange.

So he was curious, why did the other party come?

“Brother Kevin, I told you that you can take any of the gold, silver and jewelry here. I only want one or two of them. As for what they are, please forgive me for not telling the truth.” Margaret shook his head.

The Qi of Longyuan is related to the fate of the country. Naturally, you cannot tell others this kind of thing easily.

“I understand, I understand.” Kevin Snow smiled.

Everyone has their own secrets, and it’s hard for him to get to the bottom of it.

“Miss Margaret, since you are not interested in these treasures, then we can divide them equally!” Lily Zhang said with shining eyes.

If these treasures are brought back to Yuanyangmen, it will be enough to ensure expenses for the next few decades.

And she can also use this great achievement to become the heir to the head.

“If you want it, just take it and don’t worry about me.” Margaret smiled lightly.

“Miss Margaret is indeed kind and righteous, so you won’t be polite to us!”

Lily Zhang clasped her fists symbolically, then stopped talking nonsense, ran directly to the coffin, and began to select various treasures.

The luminous pearl the size of a fist, the Hetian jade the size of a face, and all kinds of rare treasures were the first to be collected by him.

“Hurry! Go and choose the treasure!”

Seeing this scene, Leo Alexander immediately became anxious. He immediately led several members of the Black Scorpion Team and began to compete with Lily Zhang.

Anyway, these are ownerless things, and they belong to whoever robs them.

“Hey! Leave some for me!”

Kevin Snow, not to be outdone, ran forward with several Golden Blade Sect disciples to search for various collections.

The treasure inside the bronze coffin is obviously a higher level than the treasure outside, so it is the priority.
