

After Prison 381

Chapter 381

“Which way are we going?” Severin looked at the front and asked Larry.

While trying to suppress his shocked heart, Larry pointed to the right. “To the right. They are not as quick as you because they must drive along the road. We can go from here straight to that hill. There’s a lake at the front of the hill. His mansion is just beside the lake.”

After that, he still had a hard time calming down his heart. Based on Severin’s speed, he must have reached that level. The level beyond the profound master.

A mansion near the lake had its door opened. Two men were apprehending Diane in the mansion and escorted her to where Rufus and Manuel were.

“Mister Rufus, here’s the woman you requested!” one of the men in a formal suit reported.

Rufus took a look at Diane who looked furious and nodded. “Good, very good. Haha. Don’t worry. I’m going to reward you two heftily after we go back!”

“Thank you, Mister Rufus!”

The two men continued to apprehend Diane by grabbing her hands behind her.

“Rufus Chavez! It’s you! You jerk! What do you want with me?”

Diane gave Rufus a ferocious glare with her vicious eyes.

At that time, she noticed there were many bodyguards standing around and surrounding the mansion. All of them were elite fighters hired by the Chavezs.

“What do I want?” Rufus sneered and walked toward Diane. He then used his finger to raise Diane’s chin and said, “What do I want? You seriously don’t know what I want? I like you so much. I have been pursuing you but you have never given a damn about me! And your useless husband even hit me! Hmph! But I get it now. If I can’t have your heart, I might as well have your body first!”

He paused and continued expressing his shameful thought, “After all, I should at least get something out of you, right? Haha!”

“You jerk!” Diane cursed and looked at Manuel who had been keeping quiet all the time. Mister Manuel, you are the head of a second-tier upper-class family. Why are you allowing your son to do such a despicable thing? Why are you allowing your son to commit such a treacherous crime?”

Since Manuel continued to stay silent, Diane continued, “Mister Manuel, have your son free me now and we can all pretend this never happen. Otherwise, you can goodbye to your family!”

Manuel stood up and chuckled. “Haha, really? Diane, do you really think this is a good time to threaten me? I really have no idea what you’re thinking of!”

“It’s true that your family is a second-tier upper-class family. And there is a difference between my family and your family. But don’t forget about this. I’m the General Manager of Shanahan Corporation. If anything happened to me, my family is not going to let you guys go easily. Think about the losses you are going to suffer!”

Chapter 382

At this point, Diane paused for a while before continuing to speak. “Besides, my husband is on good terms with Draco Hall and good friends with Miss Sheila. If you dare to do anything to me, sooner or later, they are going to find and destroy you and your family!”

“Haha. Oh, I’m so afraid after hearing that!” Manuel laughed evilly after hearing that. “But do you think I never think about what you said before I capture you here? Too bad, my son likes you too much. We have done much planning before kidnapping you here today. All they are going to find out is we brought you out here. They are not going to find out who’s the one who did it. Do you think they are going to continue to look for you when they had no information about your location many years later?”

Manuel laughed hysterically. “We have a secret passage in here, and at the end of the secret. passage is a basement. We’re going to lock you inside. My son can come over to find. you when he’s free and have you become the mother of his son!”

“Diane, this is never what I wanted to do. You and your husband are the ones who forced me to come out with this plan. Why do you rather be together with that imbecile who was in prison before and not me, a rich kid? My dad told me, if I don’t act boldly and cruelly, no one will give a damn about me. That’s why I decide to do this!” Rufus said.

“Rufus Chavez! You!!! I didn’t know you are this kind of person!” Diane gritted her teeth angrily.

Based on this situation, she knew it was going to be a hard road ahead for her to escape. Nevertheless, she was not a stupid person. After some thinking, she said, “Aren’t you afraid my bodyguard is going to capture the two men you two sent to capture her attention? They might confess the mastermind when they could not take the torture!”

Manuel crackled evilly. “Those two men suffer from a terminal illness. I hired them especially for this because they don’t have much time left in this world. I gave them some money so their family could have a better life. All they needed to do is attract your bodyguard away from you. When your bodyguards captured them, they would kill themselves!”

“Bang!” Rufus made a pistol gesture with his hand. “That’s how they die. They never worked. as our bodyguards. Do you think your people can find any information related to us from them? We have also sent their family away to another country. Haha!”

Manuel felt pleased with himself. “What do you think? Am I smart? I was the one who curated. everything!”

“Alright! You two. Let go of Miss Diane. She’s a smart woman and knows she’s not going to escape. She’s going to be my wife from now on. My woman! Remember to treat her with respect when she’s being captivated here. Do you understand?”

Rufus thought for a while and asked the two men to let Diane’s hand go.

“Rufus, do you think this is worth it? You have my body but never my heart. I will hate you and loathe you eternally. Do you still think this is a good decision?” Diane took a step forward and glared at Rufus angrily.

“Haha! Yes, it is worth it.”

All Rufus did was laugh out loud after hearing that.

“We can slowly build our relationship. I will come to find you, take care of you, eat and drink with you, and enjoy what men and women like to do the most. I believe as time pass, you will fall in love with me. What is that saying? Love grows over time. I believe that’s going to happen to us!”

“That’s right! Didn’t you and Severin first have a kid before you two are together?” Manuel nodded and said, “Miss Diane, I know my son is not that handsome. But you will get used to it and find out he’s not that bad. Love will come in time when you spend more time with him and have a baby with him. Don’t worry. We’re going to treat you nicely if you behave!”

Chapter 383

“B*llshit!” Rage quickened Diane’s blood. She spat at Rufus. “In your dream!”

“B*tch!” The two bodyguards took a step forward and wanted to teach Diane a lesson.

However, Rufus raised his hand and said, “Step down!”

After the bodyguards stepped down, he tamped down his frustration and smiled like a pervert. “This is my wife’s saliva. I don’t think it’s dirty!”

He even used his tongue to lick his lips as if he enjoyed it very much. “Hehe. Not bad. Her saliva tastes so delicious!”

Diane was speechless. Just looking at him had Diane feel disgusted. She looked to her left and right and was ready to run away!

However, the two bodyguards immediately stopped her and the other bodyguards quickly glared at her.

“Miss Diane, stop fighting. It’s useless!” Manuel said. “Come on. Don’t force my men to do anything to you. Come, follow me to the basement!”

All of a sudden, a huge banging sound went off. The door was kicked open. Severin and Larry strode in.

“What? Severin? Dad! How did he find us?”

When Rufus saw Severin, he was so scared that his voice was trembling. After he was beaten by Severin numerous times, he suffered a phobia every time he saw Severin. Not to mention, they had kidnapped Diane this time. There was no saying what Severin would do to him this time.

“Mister Larry, why are you guys here?” Manuel’s face looked terrible when he saw Larry was together with Severin. Same as his son, his heart was filled with fear.

If Larry was here, it meant the members of Draco Hall could be here in just a second. By then, they would be doomed.

“Severin!” Diane was going to run to Severin when she saw him.

A bodyguard quickly took a move and grabbed Diane.

“F*ck off!” Severin flicked his finger. His eyes were full of viciousness and anger. A flash of light appeared and hit the bodyguard’s chest.

The bodyguard felt like a bullet hit his chest and blood was flowing out of his chest. He looked down to take a look and dropped dead to the floor.

“Ahh!” Diane shouted in fear and finally ran to Severin.

“Diane. Don’t worry. No one is going to leave this place alive. The Chavezs are going to disappear from Brookbourn from today onwards! None of them is going to get away from this!

Severin said with a cruel face and embraced Diane into his arms.

“But...”

As a matter of fact, there were many bodyguards in the mansion. Probably a little less than twenty. Rufus and Manuel did not expect Severin and Larry could find this place.

It was surprising Severin and Larry arrived so quickly just after they kidnapped Diane here. Everyone doubted if Severin had already foreseen this was going to happen. Otherwise, it just made no sense why Severin and Larry could find this place so quickly.

“Dad, what should we do? What should we do? We’re doomed!”

Chapter 384

Rufus was no longer the imposing person he was just now. Severin’s eyes were too scary and he knew Severin was not joking this time.

There were eighteen of them here in the mansion. Most importantly, three of his men were their family’s guardians. They were all profound masters. Although they were just level one. profound master, they were unbeaten, especially to normal people.

“What’s wrong? The two of us are not enough?” Larry frowned and clenched his fist tightly.

“Haha! It’s really just the two of them. Don’t be scared of them! They’re not going to beat us! Fight!” Manuel was pleased to know it was just Severin and Larry. He immediately ordered his bodyguards.

“Kill them!” The bodyguards quickly charged at them.

“Diane. Wait for me. I’m going to kill these sons of bitches!”

Severin let go of Diane and charged at those bodyguards.

Larry was a strong fighter. It only took one punch from him to kill one bodyguard. Within moments, he had killed at least seven or eight bodyguards.

When he looked back, Severin had killed all the others including the three guardians. Dead bodies were all over the floor.

“What-we’ve made a mistake! Please forgive us!”

What happened just seconds ago had terrified Manuel. He knelt on the floor and begged for mercy from Severin and Larry.

“Miss Diane. Please, I beg you. Please forgive us!” Rufus begged Diane,

Diane looked at him and recalled how arrogant he was before. She had always been a soft-hearted person. Clenching her fist, she said, “If you had known it would come to this, you shouldn’t have acted this way. I already warned you when you guys kidnapped me. But did you listen to me? Why are you only begging me now when you know your life is about to end?”

Diane continued when she saw both Rufus and Manuel broke into tears. “Those are crocodile tears. They are fake and insincere!”

After that, she refused to witness the brutal scene and walked out. “Severin, Mister Larry, I’m going to wait outside!”

“No!”

“Miss Diane! I beg you! We’ve known each other for so many years...”

What followed was Rufus and Manuel screamed for mercy and help.

“Rufus Chavez, I’ve forgiven you every time you caused trouble to me and I never thought about taking your life. Then you did this. Kidnapping my wife. Don’t you know you’re the one who brings this to yourself?”

Severin sighed and slammed his hand on Rufus’ head. Rufus spat out a mouthful of blood and dropped dead.

As Manuel looked at his son’s dead body, he finally realized what he had done. He wept. “My son! I was the one who did this to you! I spoiled you too much!”

Same as Rufus, Severin gave Manuel a smack on the head to end Manuel’s life.

After that, he stood up and said to Larry. “Clean up this place and destroy the Chavez. Don’t let anyone of them go. Disperse the servant but not the Chavez. Let the servant and bodyguards leave if they are willing to surrender. And send someone to take over their business and assets!

“Supreme Leader, that’s going to be a huge thing because they are a second-tier upper-class family. If we just take over like this, I don’t think Brookbourn Mansion is going to be happy with this,” Larry expressed his concern and frowned.

Severin sneered. “Don’t worry. Just take over it first. If they are not happy with it and look for your trouble, ask them to come and deal with me. I will explain it to them!”

Larry nodded and gazed as Severin walked out of the mansion. Later, he looked at Manuel and the others' dead bodies and lamented. "Mister Manuel, what an idiot you are. Why do you think you can survive after crossing him? Why did you dig your own grave?"

Chapter 385

When Severin left the mansion, the sky was getting dark.

He looked at Diane who was looking at the lake quietly. He walked over and wrapped his hands around Diane's waist. "Diane, how are you feeling? Were you scared?"

Diane smiled faintly. "Luckily you and Mister Larry got here just in time. Otherwise, it's not going to be easy for you to find me if I got locked up."

After that, a question popped into her mind. She asked, "Oh, how did you get here? I didn't see your car when I came out. And how did you know Rufus was the one who kidnapped me?" Severin looked back and discovered there were some cars parked outside. He thought of some excuses to answer those questions. "Oh, Mister Larry was the one who drove me here. Mister Blade and the others are going to be here soon. Abigail told me that you were kidnapped and I asked them to look into the surveillance around that area. Then we discovered you guys were headed here. I thought about it and realized the only people I have offended were either Edward, Rufus or the others. Combining the information in my hand, I found this place."

Diane turned around to face Severin. She smiled. "You're so smart! I know I'm going to be safe with you!"

She lifted her head slightly and closed her eyes. It was obvious what she wanted. Severin saw it and was happy. Immediately, he walked up and gave her a kiss. Both of them were immersed in the loving emotion that they had forgotten Larry was still in the mansion.

When Larry was about to leave the mansion, he saw them kissing each other. Full of embarrassment, he took a few steps back and stood at the door knowing that he might disturb Severin and his wife.

Two minutes later, one car arrived one after another and disturbed Severin and Diane.

"Mister Blade and the others are here!"

Hearing the car engine's sound, Severin was actually reluctant to let Diane go. Diane took two steps back. Her face was flushing red. She noticed her heartbeat was pounding. Blade had arrived here together with the members from Draco Hall and Abigail. They also drove. Severin's and Diane's car over here.

"Mister Severin, how is it? Is your wife alright?" Blade asked after he arrived.

Severin nodded. "She's fine. There would be no Chavezs anymore. I have told everything Mister Larry what to do. It's getting late. Take care of this place. I'm going to head back with my wife now."

"Sure thing! She must be so scared. It's best for her to rest for at least two days at home!" Blade smiled.

Abigail came over and apologized. "I'm sorry, ma'am. I was too careless and fell into their trap!

Diane smiled faintly. "It's alright. You have done your best. You didn't know they were so sneaky. Lillie was going to come pick me up too but I refused. If both of you were around, then they won't have this chance."

"Thank you for your understanding and forgiveness. We will be extra cautious in the future!" Abigail saluted.

"Abigail, can you drive Diane's car? She's coming with me. I'm worried she's still in shock so she can't drive right now!" Severin said.

"Yes, sir!"

Chapter 386

Abigail nodded. Diane passed her car key to her.

"Drive safely, Mister Severin!"

Larry, Blade, and the others watched as Severin and Diane left the place. After that, Larry instructed the members of Draco Hall to go settle the dead bodies in the mansion. In the meantime, he also sent people to the Chavezs to kill them and took over their businesses and assets.

Once he had given all the instructions, Larry lamented, "That's our Supreme Leader. He's really very strong. We have got ourselves strong support in the future!"

"Boss, do you know what level is our Supreme Leader? We got here so much later than him. even though we were driving. I even ran through many red lights. When I was finally out of the city, I was driving at the fastest that I can!"

Blade was impressed. "Maybe he has surpassed the profound master. But can someone actually reach that level?"

Under Blade's hopeful eyes, Larry nodded. "Yes, I'm sure he's there. He was able to attack his enemy with spiritual energy by flicking his finger. His opponent dropped dead instantly. A profound master could never do that!"

"Gosh, he's really something. No wonder the Old Supreme Leader would pass Dracodeus Temple to him!" Blade was astonished.

Larry smiled. "Old Supreme Leader was his teacher so the apple doesn't fall far from the tree. I just didn't expect him to be so strong at such a young age. With a talent like his, the sky's the limit!"

Blade thought about it and said, "Yes, he's really very strong. But what is Brookbourn Mansion going to think when they found out we've destroyed the Chavezs? What are they going to do to us? I mean they just tried to weaken us and here we are, destroying an upper-class family."

Larry could not help and smile bitterly. "Yes. I'm speechless too. But they were the ones who bullied our Supreme Leader and kidnapped our Supreme Leader's wife. They were the ones who dug their own grave!"

He continued, "Supreme Leader already told me. If anything happens, tell Brookbroun. Mansion to settle it with him. He only asked me to take over Chavez's business and assets. Let's see what sort of arrangement he had once we do that."

Blade nodded. "Guess that's it. Their business is totally different from what we used to do. It's going to be a pain in the head once we take over!"

"Diane, did I scare you when you see me kill so many people?"

While Severin was driving back home, he looked at Diane and asked.

Diane smiled faintly. "Why would I be scared? I'm actually mesmerized by how heroic you are!"

She paused and expressed her admiration. "I heard some people had the ability to train in a special way to become so strong. I guess you're one of those people. I have no idea you are so amazing! Too bad, I don't know anything. Otherwise, I can also be powerful so I have the power to defend myself!"

Severin extended his hand out to hold Diane's hand and said seriously, "Don't worry. I heard there are many treasures in this world. There are some that could change your physique and let those who could not train have the ability to possess the body to train. I will work hard to obtain it for you!"

"Really? It's going to be fantastic if you can find it!" Diane smiled. "But I think it's going to cost a lot. Maybe you can't even be able to buy it with money!"

"I don't know but I remembered the old wacko told me before." Severin smiled bitterly. "I will work hard knowing there's a slim chance!"

After that, she remembered something and asked, "You were already asleep when I went back last night. Umm...do you think we can sleep together tonight?"

Diane blushed hearing that. She looked to the other side and answered softly, "Yes."

Chapter 387

"Oh, yes!" Severin was very excited to get Diane's approval.

"Calm down. Drive slowly!" Diane rolled her eyes. "Sigh. I have been quite busy lately. Why don't we eat out later? It's been a long time since we eat out!"

"No problem!" Severin smiled.

Very soon, they arrived at home.

"Mom, mom!"

When Severin and Diane were back at home, Selene came running happily at them into Diane's arms.

Diane carried her up and kissed her cheek. "Have you been a good girl today?"

"Yes. Mom! Dad brought me to the amusement park this morning. It was so fun!" Selene said innocently.

"That's great!"

Diane was very satisfied to see the relationship between Selene and Severin was getting better. It looked like she had made the right choice and her persistence was worth it. Especially after what happened today. She knew she could count on Severin to protect her and Severin was never a common person. Little by little, she had totally entrusted herself to him and accepted him.

"Dad, Mom. Diane said we're going out for dinner!" Severin smiled and informed Judith and Maurice.

"Haha! Great! What about pizza? We haven't had pizza in a while!" Maurice laughed and suggested.

Judith gave her husband a look. "Just look at your face. Do you really want to eat pizza that much? Diane should be the one who decides what to eat!"

Diane heard that and smiled. "Dad, Mom. Let's have pizza. I haven't eaten that for a while. I'm craving for it too."

"Did you hear that? Diane wants to eat pizza too!" Maurice said happily.

After that, the Feuillet went out happily to get their pizza.

At the same time, Edward returned home looking dejected and depressed. His face was pale. Not to mention, he was fairly drunk too.

"Edward, what happened to you? Why did you get yourself drunk?" Dominic asked when he saw Edward was back at home.

Dominic was also the head of the family. Edward smiled bitterly. "Dad, we're finished. Finished!"

"What do you mean?" Dominic's heart pounded vehemently and was scared when he heard that.

"We're going to be broke!"

Chapter 388

Edward smiled bitterly again. "When Diane terminated the contract with our company this morning, I knew something was wrong. Why would they terminate the contract with us when the project is actually making profits? Now I know she must have known about it before us!"

"Edward, what are you saying? Why are we going to be broke?"

Dominic's face looked sullen. He believed in his son and his ability. All these while, he had let Edward be in charge of the family business. Thus, he had never expected to hear this from Edward.

Edward explained, "Dad, the Zelankos, the Longhorns, and Brookbourn Mansion are joining together to oppress us. They stop cooperating with us and add insult to injury. Our suppliers are demanding to pay them now. We don't have enough cash at all!"

Dominic felt like a slash of thunder had struck him. He was dumbstruck. This was a rare situation. It was not normal for those businesses to do this even when they were promised some benefits in return.

"When did you offend these people? Why did you offend the Ballards, Zelankos, and the Longhorns?"

Finally, Dominic asked that question as he glared at his son. He believed those families would never do such a thing if his son did not offend them.

Edward was stunned too. "Dad, I don't understand and I don't know how I offended them. I scared the sh*t out of myself this evening when I found out. Immediately, I brought gifts and tried to pay them a visit. But they refused to see me!"

"Then did you offend anyone recently?"

Dominic was speechless. He just could not figure out why this happened. If this continued, their business would plunge. Not to mention, they would have to declare bankruptcy if they had insufficient cash flow. They could become paupers overnight. Not long ago, they had just expanded their business by building new factories and opening new retail shops. How were they going to survive this?

Edward thought deeply and got an answer to that question. "Dad. There's only one person that I offended lately. Severin! Diane's husband. Other than him, I really didn't offend anyone else!"

"That's impossible! Can he have such a strong connection with those families that they are willing to help him?"

Once again, Dominic was dumbstruck.

He thought and said, "Come on. Let's go and apologize to him now! Maybe he will forgive you and there could be still hope for our family!"

Edward shook his head. "I'll never apologize to him. Besides, maybe it's not him. Besides, the Shanahans had made themselves very clear when they terminated their contract with us. We're bringing insult to ourselves if we showed up at their doorsteps!"

"Sigh. Then let's go grab our cash and valuable items and hit the road before our debtors come. to find us. Maybe we can make a comeback if we go somewhere else with the money!" Dominic

"Run? Dad, I-I can't accept this!" Edward shook his head and had a hard time accepting his

How could the young master of the Horsfield have to resort to running away one day?

"Do you know Helen of Troy? I don't get what's so good it is about Diane Shanahan. You have lost your mind because of a woman who is already a mother! Look at what you have done! You have destroyed our family. Let's just go. Then there's life, there's hope!"

Dominic gritted his teeth and pulled Edward back into the house. Soon, their family packed up and drove their luxury cars out of the city with some of their servants and plenty of cash, gold bars, and valuable items.

"Diane, you-you're so beautiful!"

Currently, Severin was sitting on the bed and looked at Diane who just finished her shower. She had put on a sexy nightgown and came out of the bathroom. Severin swallowed his saliva.

"Severin, do you want it?" Diane bit her sexy red lips and asked shyly with rosy cheeks.

"Of course I do. But I'm worried you're not up to it!" Severin's heart pounded quickly as he looked at Diane's shy face.

Diane took off her sexy nightgown by pulling it off the side of her shoulders. Instantly, the black sexy nightgown fell to the floor.

Chapter 389

"Diane, you're so beautiful!"

The fair and delicate skin of Diane had set Severin on fire. He stood up and quickly went over to carry her to the bed. After being back for many days, Diane finally let down her guard and accepted him now. She got nervous when Severin hugged her. She grasped him tightly and said softly, "Be-bet gentle with me!"

"Don't worry. I certainly will!" Severin smiled faintly and fell to the bed.

"You're like a bottle of wine that deserves to take time to enjoy and taste it!" he said.

"You're so bad!"

Diane blushed and looked to the other side. Using that opportunity, Severin kissed her neck. Quickly enough, the room was full of romantic ambiance.

It was late in the morning the next day when Severin woke up. Diane was still sleeping beside him. He kissed her and woke up her.

Diane opened her eyes and smiled sweetly. "You were so mean last night. We did it twice and I'm so tired now that I can't even stand up!"

It embarrassed Severin. "Well, my wife is just too beautiful. I had a wonderful time last night. and couldn't help myself from doing it one more time. Actually, I'm even thinking of giving it another go again now!"

Diane was shocked and said nervously. "No! It's late now and I have to get up soon. I think there's nothing much to do in the company today. I'm going to stay at home and get some rest. I can also accompany Selene too!"

"Okay. I get up too then!" Severin took a look at the time. It was ten o'clock in the morning. He got out of bed.

The six packs on his abdomen mesmerized Diane. "Hey, you. I can't tell you're so muscular when you have your shirt on. I was surprised to see your body without your shirt."

"How is it? Do you like my body?" Severin smiled sweetly.

He remembered the first time their bodies bonded together he was drunk and could not remember anything the next day.

Although Selene was nearly four years old, last night was actually the first night their body had bonded together perfectly and touched each other.

Severin was not sure if being a person who trained with special techniques was the reason for him to behave and had the energy of a beast. He lasted for more than one hour every time and they did it twice last night. That was why Diane felt so exhausted tonight.

Diane continued to sleep for a while before she had the energy to get out of bed. Before she went downstairs, she changed into a set of casual attire.

After breakfast, the couple brought Selene out.

Chapter 390

At the same time, it was a hell situation in the Loughs.

Trevor clenched his fist angrily. "Damn it! Damn it! The Horsfield ran away last night! They haven't paid me! What am I going to do about that?"

The Loughs had nearly a hundred million dollars in total assets today. Quite a remarkable achievement for a business family. They had to thank the Horsfields because they had earned that money from the Horsfields by being their Original Equipment Manufacturer. Now that the Horsfield had left town, what were the Loughs going to do? Most importantly, the Horsfield owed the Loughs quite a large sum of money.

"Dad. What happened? Why would the Horsfield suddenly leave the city?"

The news came shockingly to Easton too. His cash flow was insufficient because he had to pay the fee for hiring assassins. At first, it relieved to know it was going to be the due date for the Horsfield to pay his family and he was going to get some money then.

However, the Horsfield actually left the town last night. Did that mean his family is going down together with the Horsfield too?

“For some reason, the Longhorns, the Zelankos, and the Ballard went after the Horsfield. Many suppliers who were very close with the Zelankos and the Ballard terminated their contracts with the Horsfield too. The Horsfields bankrupted and they left the city last night!”

Trevor gritted his teeth. Suddenly he thought of something and said, “Easton, what should we do? Can we afford to pay the salary with the money we had currently? If not, we need to leave. the city too!”

While Lucy was going down, she overheard their conversations and got shocked.

Her mood had been bad lately because she felt like she was a widow since Easton had not fixed his body yet. Having heard this news, it infuriated her vehemently.

She dashed over. “What? We’re in a situation where we need to leave the city? Dad, are we really broke?”

Suddenly, Trevor looked over at Lucy with angry eyes. “It’s all your fault! You’re a jinx! If it weren’t for you, we will never be in this situation!”

Lucy felt innocent. “Dad, what do you mean? Why are you blaming me? You guys were the ones running the company. How can you blame me?”

“What the hell do you know? Ever since you are with Easton, our family never had its peace and quiet! Especially after Severin came back here. Our family was being targeted again and again. It looked like those families were after the Horsfield but they are actually after us too!” Trevor said.

“Severin! It must be him. Dad, he must be the one who did this!”

After thinking about it, Easton clenched his fist tightly. “That son of a b*tch! F*ck him! I’m going to bring some men with me and kill him!”

After that, fury roared through his mind as he was about to go. However, Trevor reached his hand out and grabbed his son, and slapped him in the face.

Easton touched his face and looked at his father with a dumbfounded expression. “Dad, why did you slap me?”

Trevor glared angrily. “Easton, do you really think I don’t know you have been secretly taking money from the company? If you didn’t do that, at least we still have that cash to survive for a while. See what you have done! Now that the Horsfield left, we don’t have any cash with us! It’s all your fault!”

He paused and continued. “I heard you and Lucy talking about hiring an assassin. Did you take that money to hire the assassin? I noticed Severin was very close with Mister Henry when he came to cause trouble the last time. I told you to stop going after him and just suck it up. But you didn’t listen to me! Look at what you have done to us now!”

Easton touched his face and his eyes became red as he gazed at Trevor. “Dad, he broke my finger! Was I wrong to take revenge for myself? And there’s something you don’t know. He did something and I lost my manhood! Why can’t I take my revenge? I swear that I will not rest until he’s dead!”
