

The Princess and the Pauper (Arabella)

Chapter 1005

Chapter 1005

Being chosen as Oswald's sole apprentice was like finding a shortcut to success. With his guidance and her talent, she could become a rising star in the violin world.

Fame, fortune, and pursuing a life of dreams, all those were right in front of her. All she had to do was say yes.

But she refused!!!

Oswald was taken aback. There were countless people begging him for tutelage, none of whom he deemed worthy. But this girl, she dared to say no?!

"You can still pursue your medical studies while honing your violin skills. They don't have to be mutually exclusive. With your talent, you can definitely make a name for yourself in the world of violin," Oswald suggested, leaving everyone astonished.

He was actually pleading with her! Pleading with a seemingly ordinary first-year student!

And not just any student, but one from Westerly College!

Not Summerfield College, not Helgen College, but Westerly College!

His insistence was shocking to everyone. Especially to Alma, who couldn't believe that Arabella's talent could make Oswald go this far!

After all, her parents had tried everything, even pulling strings abroad, but still couldn't convince Oswald to take her as a true apprentice.

Usually, Oswald would only give her some guidance, never fully sharing his secrets!

But Arabella had indeed caught his eye!

"Thank you, professor, but I believe one can't serve two masters."

Not to mention, she had multiple things to manage, including taking care of Grandpa Tanner's feelings.

After all, Grandpa Tanner had hinted for years that she should inherit his legacy.

If she were to become Oswald's apprentice now, she could already imagine Grandpa Tanner's explosive reaction.

"I'll want to dedicate all my energy to medicine. I'm sorry to disappoint you."

Arabella politely declined.

Not only Oswald but everyone else was also shocked that Arabella had once again refused!

Unbelievable.

Now, Alma was convinced that not only was she crazy, but she was also seriously sick.

But Oswald still didn't want to give up on such a promising talent. He smiled and said, "If you ever change your mind, feel free to find me at, or I can add you on WhatsApp later."

Everyone was once again shocked.

And Alma was green with envy. What made this Arabella so special.

Though her violin performance was indeed a bit better, it didn't warrant such high regard from Oswald. Could it be because of her looks?
