

Arabella 131

Chapter 131

"How about you punish me?" Romeo clung to her, saying, "As long as you forgive me, I'll do whatever you say." Arabella's eyes lit up at his words. "Really?"

"Yep." Romeo nodded earnestly, waiting for whatever punishment she would dish out.

"Then I sentence you to two days without contacting me. I need some time alone."

She desperately needed some alone time. She had a lot of things she needed to take care of by herself.

Recently, she had been unable to get anything done because of this guy constantly clinging to her!

This was a great opportunity

"Bella"

This punishment was too harsh for Romeo!

but he still managed to plead, "Can we change was speechless. "Didn't you say I could choose?"

I can't do it." Romeo looked at her honestly and sincerely and said, "How could I possibly not look days, keep your not

Romeo; he tried to negotiate, saying, "Can't you punish me in some other way? Like hiring for it?"

too much time on your hands?"

few days; make me

had enough;

I was just talking to Romeo. Why

I do have anything to do with you?" Arabella raised her eyes dismissively, her superior you make me kneel for three days and nights,

Arabella looked at Serena with a dismissive tone and said, "It's our business, none of your business."

Romeo

I

turn her gaze to Romeo and say, "Romeo, you can't always spoil a girl like