

The Princess and the Pauper (Arabella)

Chapter 28

Chapter 28

In order to protect Yoli and to help Arabella find her home as soon as possible, without Grace Murphy's knowledge, the two of them posted Arabella's information on the family search site. One day, Arabella's family finally called to say they wanted to take her home.

When Grace found out, she was so shocked that she had to be hospitalized.

During Grace's absence from home, Arabella smoothly left the Murphy family.

"Grace is probably getting a bit senile in her old age. She treats a stranger better than her own granddaughter!" Olga complained, "Now I'm just worried that if Arabella doesn't leave, she might get some improper ideas, like fighting Yoli over Zachary Panter..."

The Panter family was much better off than the Murphy family!

Zachary was kind and sensible. He treasured Yoli and treated her very well..

Not only was Yoli beautiful, but she also had a gentle and kind personality, which was why she could firmly grasp Zachary's heart.

"Attlee, shall we go and find our primary doctor, Dr. Caden, and ask him to arrange a transfer procedure for us?"

"We have no other choice, Attlee sighed.

"Let's go." Arabella followed behind Romeo, phone in hand, replying to messages one by one.

She had been to an auction in the afternoon, performed surgery on Phillip, and still had a lot of messages that she hadn't replied to in time.

Just then, someone pushing a wheelchair came around the corner, nearly bumping into Arabella.

Romeo pulled her to his side in one swift motion, "Be careful."

Arabella reacted, her face flushing again. In the car, Romeo noticed that Arabella seemed a bit listless. So, he pulled over.

"Wait for me à moment."

He got out of the car and walked into a dessert shop.

Not long after, he came out carrying several bags.

Inside were small cakes, bread, milk, juice and other things, as well as some cute-looking candies.

"Girls are supposed to like this stuff, he handed them over.

Having performed surgery on his grandpa for so long today, Arabella was probably hungry.

As Arabella was about to say something, looking at all the food in front of her, Romeo leaned in and opened a bottle of milk, sticking a straw in it for her. Arabella, I'm not hungry."

"Eat more." Romeo handed her the milk.

Arabella took the milk and took a few sips. Even though it was pure milk, she didn't expect it to taste a bit sweet.

On the other side.

"Dr. Caden, what do you mean the approval was denied?" Olga found Caden Newton, and as soon as she brought up the transfer, Caden's face turned cold.

"Grace should stay at Hope Hospital in her condition."

"Isn't there a better hospital?" Attlee couldn't help but ask.

"Hope Hospital is the best hospital in the country."

"We know, everyone can see the medical standards of Hope Hospital, but..."

Before Attlee could finish his sentence, Olga stepped in, "Dr. Caden, we have no choice. If we don't transfer my mother, I'm afraid someone will keep disturbing her and affect her recovery..."

Caden gave her a cold look. Was she talking about Arabella?

Ungrateful indeed.
