

Alphas Deaf Mate Chapter 14 - Tips

0 7 minutes read

typing away on her computer.

“Aunty D,” Oscar calls to her.

She looks up with a warm smile..

“Oscar my boy, How have you been? You have a good summer?”

“I’m good, Aunty D, My summer was good I brought you someone,” He says as he places his hand on my shoulder.

She looks to me keeping that same warm smile.

“This is Autumn Collins, She new this year,”

“Hello my dear,” She greets me standing up she hold her hand out to me.

“Hi,” I say reaching out to shake her hand .

She lets go reaching over to the side picking up a bunch of paper clipped together. She lays them down in front of me.

“This is your class schedule,” She holds the paper for me to see.

“Also a list of teachers that can do sign language for if you ever need help other then what class your in, I’ve also included a map of the school just in case you get turned around in here and you code to your locker,” She hand me all the papers.

“Thank you,” I tell her.

“It was very nice meeting you dear welcome to Woodlands High, If you have any trouble please come see I’m always available,”

“I will thank you again,” I say to her.

We start to turn to walk.

“Bye Aunty D, ” Oscars says with a small wave to her.

“Here let’s see what your first class is,” Oscar leans over reading my schedule.

“Hey look we have the first three classes together,” He points to the paper.

I look up at him nodding my head.

“She’s your aunt?” I asked as we walked together,

“Yeah, She my mom’s sister she never married or had kids so me and my sister are her adopted kids,” He says.

“She seems very nice,”

“She is she works here cause she loves kids so here gives her the chance to be around them,”

I smile at him you can see how much she means to him.

“All the seniors lockers are all on the second floor let’s go find your’s then we have enough time to get to our first class,”

As we made our way down the hall more and more kids were filling the hall’s.

Trying to keep track of which way we were going so I would be able to back track if needed but by the third turn I was completely lost.

Finding my locker I put my code in popping it open I took out what I needed and tossed my bag in the locker closing the door.

Oscar lead me to our first class which was English walking in everyone was staring at me I was use to these looks with always being the new kid.

Oscar pulls my arm walking us to the back of the class I see Kelly sitting there she smiles up at me.

“Oh my God I’m so excited your in this class with us,” She says while reaching out grabbing my hand pulling me to sit next to her. Oscar sitting down on the other side of me.

She turns alittle to face me.

“Are you okay sitting back here? We can move so you can see the teacher better,”

I shake my head no.

“I’m fine back here, I can hear them as long as I wear the implant, I don’t want to be treated differently,” I tell her.

“Okay, Well if you need any help let me know,”

Nodding my head at her.

The teacher walks in everyone takes their seats as he begins the class.

The class went by quickly before I knew we were walking out to the hall.

“Autumn what your next class?”

Kelly asked.

I showed her my schedule as we walked.

“Here look we have English, Math, History together,” She points at the paper.

I was looking at the paper and not were we were walking when suddenly I smacked right into a solid c.hest. Stumbling back I fell into Oscar who was standing right behind me. He caught me before I ended up falling on my a.ss.

Looking up to see who I walking into I see this tall guy with a smirk on his face.

“Well who do we have here,” He says while looking at me.

“You must be the new girl,” He’s eyes look me up and down and his smirks grows even more across his face.

Oscar holds my arms making sure I’m steady on my feet. He then steps next to me placing a his arm across the front of me.

“Back off Dan,” Oscar face was stern.

The tall guy looks to Oscar with a amused look.

He then looks to me.

“New girl got a boyfriend already,” He leans closer to me I feel Oscars stiffen.

“Hmmm that’s a shame, when your tired of him come look me up,”

I was about to say something when I was pulled quickly behind Oscar. I glanced over to Kelly but instead of seeing her it was Brad then I felt someone on my other side looking over there Nick stood.

Hands grabbed my arms pulling me backwards. I look over my shoulder to see Kelly she then stepped in front of me.

The tall guy smiled he kept looking at me.

By now there is a group gathering around all waiting to see if a fight breaks out.

He holds his hands up.

“See ya around new girl,” He winks at me then turns walking away.

The guys turn to look at me I was so confused at what just happen.

“Who was that?” I asked Oscar who still had a hard look on his face.

“His name is Dan, He is next in line for um to take over the family business,” Kelly says to me. Oscar gave Nick and Brad a look like they were having a conversation with their eyes. It’s the same look that Dad and Zach give each over.

“Oh,” was all I said.

“Autumn you need to be careful stay away from him, If he bothers you tell us right away,” Oscar tells me.

I nod my head. Dam first day of school and already I’m caught up in drama.

The rest of the morning was uneventful thank God. After our history class Oscar said he needed to go to the office. Now it was time for lunch walking with Kelly we headed to the cafeteria. Kelly walks in heading to the far side I followed behind her I see Brad and Nick sitting at a table.

Brad stands up taking Kelly's books placing a kiss to her forehead. Setting my stuff down I turn getting ready to go grab some food when I see that tall guy from earlier looking at me.

I see he has a girl hanging on his arm trying to hold his attention. When she sees him looking at me she lets out a huff standing up and storming out the cafeteria.

He just smiles then winks at me.

Kelly grabbed my hand pulling me up to the line.

"Autumn seriously be careful he's not good news," She says with a worried look on her face.

"Don't worry I have no interest in him, Don't want to know him," I tell her.

Reins

I sat in my office Going over paperwork checking my emails when my cell rings picking up I see Oscars name.

Quickly answering it

"Oscar,"

"Alpha I wanted to call we had a small issue at the school this morning,"

"What happen? Is Autumn alright?"

"Yes Alpha she fine, We sorta had a run in with Alpha Brett boy Dan,"

Growling, "Did he do anything?"

"No Alpha, but I don't trust him,"

"Don't let her alone that boy is just like his father,"

"That's the thing Alpha the afternoon classes none of us are in,"

"I'll handle it,"

"Yes Alpha,"

I cut the call,

“Keaton my office now!” I yelled through the link.

Not even five minutes and my door flies open to my Beta with a frantic look on his face.

“Alpha, You called”

“Yes I need the number for the school office and I want five warriors sent to the school now!”

“What’s going on?”

“Alpha Brett little sh!t head boy is what’s going on,”

“Dan, He do something to Autumn,” He asked while digging through the papers looking for the schools number.

“Oscar called said they had a run in with him, I don’t trust that boy anymore then his father,”

“Here, I’ll go down and pick five warriors I’ll have them come up to you,” He hands me the number for the school, I dial the number while I nod to Keaton he walks out closing the door.

I just hung up the phone when I heard a knock.

“Come in,” I call out

The door opens and Keaton walks in with five men behind him.

The guys line up in front of my desk.

“Alpha,” They say together.

“I’ll make it simple, You are to go to the school I want You to keep track of Alpha Brett boy Dan, If he even comes close to this girl,”

I hold up a picture of Autumn.

“You let me know if he tries anything you are to intervene, He is not allowed near her,” I growl out the last part.

“Yes Alpha,” They bow then turn to walk out.

Keaton sits down in the chair.

“Do you think he will try anything?”

Rubbing my forehead.

“I’m not sure but I’m not trusting him, Did you find anything out about her old pack?”

“Some, I have people looking into it farther but what I do know is that Alpha is completely crazy,”