0 5 minutes read

Alpha Darrel

I was angry at that bastard because he wasn't answering my calls. I had ransacked my office my beta was too scared to even come in here.

Once he saw my state he high-tailed it out of there.

Downing another glass of Whiskey I threw the glass across the room.

Just as the glass hit the wall my phone rang.

"What!" I yelled into the phone.

"Is that how you greet everyone who works for you?"

His voice held a lot of sarcasm in it.

"Where have you been I've been calling you!" I growled through the phone.

I heard him chuckle he actually chuckled.

"How dare you!" I yelled at him this guy was pissing me off even more.

"Cool your jets Alpha, remember you came to me for help, not the other around,"

"Fine! What news do you have?"

"Not a lot for I have only observed her for a day, but I can tell you this is gonna take some planning this will not be a snatch, and run Alpha Reins runs a tight ship,".

"I don't care! It just needs to be fast I'm running out of time I have waited too long for her I'm done waiting!"

"Then have one of your goons do it, Oh that's right they have failed too many times that's why you called me."

I could hear the smugness he was gloating.

“Just get it done,” I bellowed at the phone slamming it down on the desk.

I walked over and poured another glass of whiskey I heard my phone chime taking the glass with me I grabbed my phone and see I have a picture text. I got the button to open it and there I see a picture of her being carried by that Alpha.

“She is quite stunning,” the caption said.

I let a loud roar out throwing the drink I had in my hand.

How dare he touch what is mine!

Autumn

I was up in Kelly’s room I was laying on my belly on her bed my books open in front of me we were working on our homework. I couldn’t focus though my mind kept drifting back to him. The way he carried me and how he held me to him. The way he held my hand I could feel tingles running up my arm just the though my face heated up.

Suddenly I feel the bed dip and all my books bounced. Looking over Kelly was laying there she had this smile on her face.

“What has you blushing,” She signed to me.

“Nothing,” I quickly signed back.

I looked back at my book not wanting her to see my face. She snatches my book from me.

“Hey!” I say out loud I reach for the book but she smacked my hand away and then threw it on the floor.

“Kelly!” I yell her name.

“I bet it has to do with a certain guy,” She signs then wiggles her eyebrows at me.

I could feel my cheek heating up again.

“No!” I sign to her she busted out laughing she rolled on her back and then sat up.

“Autumn it’s okay that you like him,” She signed to me.

“I don’t,” I tell her.

“Yeah right!” She signs

I grab grabbing her pillow and covering my face.

I feel the pillow get ripped off my face she is standing up on the bed now.

“You like him!” She mouthed to me while laughing.

I jump up to grab the pillow yelling at her.

“I do not!”

She hit me with the pillow jumping off the bed.

“Oh yes, you do!” I see her mouth again.

I jump off the bed chasing her she throws the pillow and then runs around the room. Her room was huge we made four trips around the room.

I finally tackle her we both fall on the bed laughing. Letting go of her we lay on our back looking up at the ceiling. When I feel her get up she goes over to my backpack she grabs my implant walks over she hands it to me.

“It will be easier,” She mouthed to me

I smiled taking it from her and putting it on.

She sat down next to me turning so she was facing me. She seemed to have a serious look on her face.

“Kelly what’s wrong ?” I asked her grabbing her hand.

“Autumn, have you ever seen that guy before that bumped into you at the mall?”

“Um no, that was the first time, why?”

“He seemed kinda weird, Oscar definitely didn’t like him,”

“Yeah, I guess your right, but he wasn’t being rude or anything I think he did accidentally bump into me, And Oscar reminds me of Zach always looking out for me,”

“Yes, Oscar is like that with his friends, when I met Brad he went all big brother crazy on him,”

We both laughed at that.

“I can see Oscar doing that,” I laughed.

“Mr. Reins is the same way,” She said.

I stopped laughing and just stared at her just the sound of his name and I can feel my cheeks heat up again my heartbeat sped up I felt all flustered.

“Autumn do you like Mr. Reins,”

“Um I’m not sure,” I said looking down at my hands and fidgeting with my fingers.

“It’s okay you can tell me the truth I won’t say anything,”

Letting out a sigh I look back up at her.

“Truthfully I’m not sure, I was scared of him the first time I met him, but he’s been nice this whole week I’ve become comfortable around him, even today when he took me out of the mall I didn’t feel the need to fight him off I felt this pull towards him I wasn’t scared or afraid I felt I could trust him,”

Kelly was smiling from ear to ear.

“He would never hurt you, Autumn, I can tell you he likes you too, he’s never acted that way with anyone,”

“What how can you tell? Do you think he knows I like him!”

“Ha, I knew you liked him!” She says while slapping my arm.

“Kelly!” I yelled at her she stopped laughing.

"No, I don't think he realizes you like him, but I think you should let him know,"

"Kelly he's my dad's boss I can't like my dad's boss it's so wrong!"

"No, it's not,"

"He's so much older than me,"

"How old do you think he is?"

"He's got to be at least close to Thirty?"

She busted out laughing falling back on the bed she held her belly while laughing.

"What?" I said to her.

She sat back up wiping her face.

"Autumn Mr. Reins is only twenty-five,"

I just started at her was he really that young he acted much older though.

"I thought he was older,"

She shakes her head no.

"He has been running the family business for a while now his dad passed it to him at a young age,"

"Where are his?"

"Who? His dad?"

I shake my head yes.

"Oh um, his parents were killed in an accident like eight years ago,"

"Oh, I'm sorry to hear that,"

I see Kelly turns looking at the door.

“It’s open!” She yells I turn to see Brad open the door stopping in the doorway

“Hey Autumn, your dad is looking for you,”

He says from the doorway.

“Oh okay thanks,” I say standing up and grabbing my book from the floor placing it in my bag I sling it over my shoulder.

“Here I’ll walk down with you,” Kelly says as she stands walking with me.

“Thanks, I say,”

We walk down Brad was in front of us he turned heading to the kitchen we followed along when we reached the kitchen no one was in there. I thought that to be odd normally people are always in here working.

Brad open the back door for me letting me walk out in front of them.

Soon as I stepped out I saw the lights were off just as I was about to turn the lights came on.

“Happy Birthday!”

Autumn

I let out a scream when everyone jumped out and the lights came on. Holding a hand over my heart it was beating so fast.

Dad was in front of me holding his hands up.

“Sorry Autumn we didn’t mean to scare you,” He says thank God I still had my implant in so I could hear him cause I was so startled I wouldn’t be able to focus on my hands moving.

Looking around I see a lot of people Kelly comes up next to me grabbing my arm.

Mom walks over smiling she hugs me.

“Hope you are not upset dear Mr. Reins decided to have us throw you a surprise party here so there would be more room,”

I didn't say anything I looked around seeing that they went all out for this whoever decorated did a great job it had streamers hanging with lights and they even had a happy birthday banner.

Tables were spread across the lawn there was a small dance floor with lights crisscrossing above it I noticed a full table of food on the one side then the other side had someone playing music.

I couldn't keep the smile off my face.

” It looks beautiful,” I say

Just then Zach comes up hugging me wishing me a happy birthday.

A bunch of people came up wishing me happy birthday I didn't know who they were but I smiled and said thank you.

I see Mr. Keaton walk up to me I see he has a lady with him.

She was absolutely gorgeous tall slender long blonde hair. She seemed to be young looking.

She looked to be kind and the way she walks she was very confident.

I wonder if she is his wife he smiles at me I return the smile.

“Autumn let me introduce you to my wife, This is Sophie, Sophie this is Autumn,”

She extends her hand to me.

“It's lovely to meet you,”

I take her hand, “Same to you,”

“Would you like us to introduce you to some of the other people?” She asked.

“Oh um sure that be great,” I tell her I instantly felt comfortable with her.

She smiled taking my arm and looping it with hers.

She kisses Mr. Keaton on the cheek and then pulls me along with her.

I see Mr. Reins standing off to the side with Oscar and Nick. He smiles and then waves at me. I couldn't help but think back to this afternoon about my and Kelly's talk. I feel my face heat up feeling all flustered. I quickly look away before he notices my face.

I walked around Sophie introduced me to a lot of people I don't even remember half of their names.

We stopped at one table four girls were sitting around it.

"Girls I'd like you to meet Autumn, Autumn, this is Morgan, Rachel, Lisa, and Torie," Sophie held her hand out to each girl.

"Hi, it's nice to meet you," I say with a small wave.

The one girl Morgan stood up holding her hand out to me,

"It's nice to meet you," I shake her telling her the same.

The other three just glared at me I think one even rolled her eyes. I hear a small noise but it was too low for me to make out I noticed the girls looking toward Sophie, I look over to her she just smiles at me.

"Why don't we move on," Sophie says to me I nod my head looking back at the girls.

"I hope to see you around Autumn," Morgan says to me.

I just nod at her she smiles and waves.

Walking back over Sophie leans closer to me.

"Just ignore them, other girls they are stuck up,"

We both laugh at that.

Making our way back over to Mr. Keaton he steps up wrapping an arm around Sophie pulling her close to him. I see a small blush show on her cheeks.

Kelly comes up next to me.

“Hey, you want to get some food?”

“Yeah, I’m starving,”

She grabs my hand pulling me to the food table we grab plates loading them up making our way to an empty table.

I tell her about the three girls she rolls her eyes saying they are completely b!tches.

Mom and dad along with Zach joined us at the table we all sat there laughing.

Sitting there the wind blew just a bit when I smell something that was like pine needles and rain. I squint my eyes looking to see if someone was close that had perfume or cologne on.

I feel a tap on my hand I look over seeing my dad getting my attention.

“What’s wrong?” He asked with a confused look.

“Someone has a perfume or Cologne on and it smells good,” I tell him

His face pales a little I see him swallow and then look at my mom. She had the same look as my dad.

“What? Why do you two have that look?”

Dad shakes his head a little.

“It’s nothing sweetie,”

I was about to say something when Brad came over he asked Kelly to dance. She smiled taking his hand and walking with him to the small dance floor.

Zach stands up holding his hand out to me.

“Come on birthday girl,” He says I smile grabbing his hand.

We go to the dance floor Zach spins me we begin to dance he’s being a goof he starts acting like he’s the one singing making faces as he sings making me laugh,

That smell from before hits my nose it's stronger this time I look around when Zach stops dancing turning my head back to face him I see Mr. Reins standing there.

"May I cut in?" he says to Zach.

Zach smile stepping back he holds my hand out to him. I take a breath holding it in.

Mr. Reins takes my hand sliding his other one to the small of my back and pulling me closer to him.

He starts to move slowly my body moving with him like he was a magnet and I was stuck to him.

I felt tingles all up my arm from where he was holding my hand. I finally let the breath I was holding out taking in another from how nervous I was feeling when I smell that lovely smell again.

I then realized it was him it was his Cologne I closed my eyes taking another deep breath in.

When I open my eyes he was smiling at me. "Are you alright?" he asked me.

I didn't trust my voice right now so I settled for nodding my head.

"I hope you like the party,"

I nod my head again like an idiot who forgot to speak.

"I know I owe you an explanation for my actions earlier, "

"Yes," I managed to say lowly.

"Well, I would like to explain now if you want,"

I look up at him. "Sure,"

We top dancing he places my arm in the crook of his elbow he walks us off the floor I see my parents standing there with Zach.

We stop at them he lets go of my hand and he steps back a few steps he looks over at Zach nodded at him.

Zach nods back stepping out to stand next to him.

I feel an arm go around me I look and see it's my dad's arm.

"Autumn," Mr. Reins calls me.

I look at him.

"I need you to keep an open mind, once we show this we will explain everything to you as you will have lots of questions."

I scrunch my forehead I was confused at what he was saying I thought he was gonna tell me why he acted like that today.

"What?" I say to him.

He didn't reply he just closed his eye I'm not sure what happened next it happen so fast but standing there where he was just a few seconds ago stood a huge black wolf.

I didn't even get to let out a scream when Zach was replaced with a grey wolf.

And that's when everything went dark.

Autumn

Slowly I peeled open my eyes just a bit only to see a white ceiling.

I felt warmth on my hand with an ever-so-light tingle going through my whole hand.

I can also smell that cologne again. The smell makes me feel so calm with the warmth on my hand I could close my eyes and sleep again.

Rolling my head to the side I see someone sitting in a chair blinking a few times trying to make out who it was I move my head a bit to look around some more I noticed people on a couch along the far back wall.

Where am I?

I look down at myself when finally my eyes adjust I see I'm in a hospital bed. I go to move my hand when I feel a small squeeze moving my eyes quickly I see Mr. Reins is the one holding my hand. I look back to the wall of people and see my parents and Zach all sitting on the couch.

Dad has his head tipped back while mom's head is laying on his shoulder and Zach is leaning over on the armrest all asleep.

What happen? Why was I in a hospital room and why is Mr. Reins holding my hand?

I reach over with my other hand I slowly try and pull my hand out of his but he only tightens it. When I try again his eyes fly open he looks straight at me.

His eyes meet mine he jumps from the chair.

I see his mouth moving but he's talking too fast. I hold my hand up making him stop. I point to my parents hoping he understands me.

I see him nod he lets go of my hand and walks closer nudging Zach's foot causing him to startle awake.

I don't know what was said but I see Mr. Reins point over his shoulder when Zach looks toward me I give a small wave.

He jumps up I assume yelling cause I see my parents jump awake. All of them leaped off the couch and rushed toward me.

I look at around at them they all had worried expressions on their faces.

Lifting my hand I began to sign.

"What happen?"

They all look at each other then the three look to the side following their move I see Mr. Reins standing there.

He nods his head at them I see dad look back at me he lifts his hands.

"Do you remember your birthday party?"

Birthday party? Oh, that's right they threw me a surprise party,

Shaking my head yes.

Dad starts again.

“What all do you remember ?”

I don't answer right away I try and think back. I remember meeting Mr. Keaton's wife she introduced me to some people. Then I was with Kelly My parents and Zach we all sat and ate. Next, I was dancing with Zach, and then Mr. Reins cut in then... I felt my breath hitch I could feel my blood drain from my face.

It hit me the wolves!

I quickly signed to my dad,

“Wolves!” I point to Zach and then to Mr. Reins.

My breathing picked up my heart beating faster.

Moving my hands again.

“They were wolves! I saw them they changed!”

My chest raised and fell as I kept breathing in harder.

Zach sucked a breath in while Mr. Reins looked calm.

Mom moves to grab my hand but I pull it away I see the hurt in her eyes.

She looks at dad with sadness on her face.

“There is a lot that we need to explain, but what you need to understand is we would never do anything to hurt you, yes we have kept a secret from you and we should never have, we really need you to understand all of this and hopefully you will forgive us as we thought we were doing the right thing,”

I see a single tear run down my father's cheek. My mother stepped next to him hugging him. I have only ever seen my father cry once that was when my brother died.

My heart ached at the sight of my father has always been my rock he is our family's strength.

Closing my eyes trying to calm myself when I feel a hand resting on my shoulder then a sudden calmness spread through me opening my eyes I look to see whose hand it is when I see it, Mr. Reins.

Third person

I watched as he walked over took her from the other guy and began to dance with her. My blood boiled again for the second time today I was out front earlier when he came back with her in his truck.

When they finally stepped out of the truck the way he held her hand and looked at her instantly made me mad.

Then he goes and throws this party for her!

When she was brought by our table earlier I wanted to rip her apart. Sophie had the nerve to scold me through the link. Ha as if I care what she says.

I have been trying hard to get his attention of him. How can this plain dull girl grab it?

Looking to the dance floor again I see him leading her off heading towards some other people.

They stop at a guy and a woman they must be her parents, I see the resemblance.

“Everyone stay where you are no one is to move, Alpha orders!”

I hear the beta call through the link.

What the hell is going on?

Suddenly I hear a scream we all stand trying to see.

There Alpha is in his wolf form along with another wolf that I don't recognize.

The girl goes completely limp the guy next to her grabs her before she hits the ground suddenly the Alpha howls.

It's a howl that happens when your mate is hurt.

Mate his mate that girl is his mate,

Dam it he found his mate!

Autumn

I wasn't sure what to say I was so confused I didn't know what to believe either. My parents have never lied to me so what did my father mean to forgive them?

I also didn't understand why Mr. Reins was here and why was he having such a calming session on me by just placing his hand on my shoulder. Plus he looked like he has stayed here with my family but why?

I felt a tap on my arm looking over I see my mom.

She begins to sign to me.

"How about we see if you can leave then we will go home and talk everything out,"

I can see her eyes pleading with me.

I shake my head yes then reach out grabbing her hand she held it with the other hand with tears in her eyes.

I know I hurt her feelings when I flinch away when she tried touching me.

"I'm sorry," I mouthed to her.

Smiling she reaches out cupping my cheek. Leading forward placing a kiss on my forehead.

She looked up to Mr. Reins he nodded letting go of my shoulder which I had forgotten his hand was still there. I instantly felt the calmness leave me.

He walked out then just a few seconds he came back in with a lady. She came to the side my mother moved out of her way.

She smiled at me.

"I'm gonna check you over quick so you can leave," She says slow enough I could read her lips.

"Ok," I spoke. She looked a little shocked to hear my voice.

She checks my eyes and listens to my heart. She then asked if I had any pain in my head I told her just felt like a small headache.

Turning to my parents she was speaking to them I was trying to see what they were saying when I felt a hand grab mine.

Turning my head I see it was Mr. Reins.

He smiled at me and then winked. I could feel the blush on my face.

What was odd was I didn't feel the need to pull my hand back I felt comfortable letting my hand in his. And I could still smell his cologne. Which I found made me want to be near him. That was another thing I couldn't understand.

My mom was back at my side making me look at her.

"They said you can leave but are to take it easy for a few days," she signed to me.

Nodding to her quickly I let go of his hand flipping the blanket off me when I realized I was in a hospital gown.

Suddenly I was wrapped in a blanket and pulled against a hard body. Looking up I saw it was Mr. Reins looking at my father and brother.

What the heck?

I put my hands up to push against his chest when I felt a vibration come from him.

When he looked down his eyes were almost black. Taking in a sharp breath I froze I just sat there looking at him.

I see someone to the side it was my mom holding her hands up her lips was moving but I couldn't make out what she was saying. Feeling a little panicked I looked for my dad and brother but they were no longer in the room.

I felt his hold loosen a bit he stepped back letting my mom grab the blanket he was holding.

"I'm sorry," he mouthed to me then walked out of the room. I watched him leave closing the door behind him.

I suddenly miss his presents and his cologne I had this feeling that I wanted him to come back.

I looked at my mom with a confused look.

"We will explain it all when we get home," She mouthed to me.

She let go of the blankets so I could stand up. She walked over to the couch they were sleeping on a few minutes ago I see her pick up a bag sitting on the floor next to it. Walking back over she placed it on the bed next to me opening the zipper she pulled out some clothes for me along with my hair brush.

Taking the clothes I gave her a big smile showing her I appreciate it. Jumping off the bed and going into the bathroom to get changed quickly.

Once I was dressed and brushed out my hair I came out to see it was only mom still there.

She grabbed my bag holding her hand out for me to take smiling I grabbed it and we walked out the door.

There were dad and Zach and Mr. Reins standing in the hallway.

Mr. Reins step forward placing his arm around my back and setting his hand on the small of my back. Mom let go of my hand.

She walked to dad looping her arm with his. Mr. Reins began to walk slightly pushing me forward my parents followed behind us as well as Zach.

We walked out the front door and I see Mr. Keaton standing by Mr. Reins truck holding the door open and smiling at us.

I stopped at the car looking back at Mr. Reins he held his hand out and gestured for me to get in the car. I looked past him at my family.

“Go ahead, we will be in the car behind you.” I saw dad sign to me.

Oh no that means I’ll be alone with Mr. Reins. I still wasn’t sure what or why he was this way with me but I didn’t feel afraid it was the complete opposite.

I stood there not moving when he stepped in front of me.

“Please get in Autumn,” He mouthed to me.

I climbed in letting him close the door he spoke to Mr. Keaton then walked around to the driver’s side and got in looking in the side mirror I saw my parents and Zach get into the car behind us once they were in we all drove off.

Reins

She sat quietly looking out the window I saw she kept glancing in the mirror I guess she wanted to make sure her family was still there.

I didn’t say much in the hospital her parents felt they needed to explain it to her seeing how they were the ones who kept it from her.

I was relieved when she didn’t flinch or pull away from my touch I see her once in a while taking a deep breath in I think she can pick up on my scent.

I noticed at the party she kept looking around I know my scent was reaching her I made sure to stand downwind.

We were heading to the pack house my scout inform me that there were men camped close to their home again. Plus with Roberts on the loose, I wasn’t letting her out of my sight.

My beta had gotten information that their old Alpha had hired him and that the person wanted to meet with me he said he could stand by and watch him do this anymore.

She had her hand in her lap fidgeting with her fingers. Reaching out I grabbed one of her hands her head snapped up to look at me but she didn't pull her hand away. I gave her a wink seeing a small blush appeared on her cheeks. I smiled to myself knowing I had an affected on her. I'm thinking her wolf isn't as dormant as they thought.

Pulling up to the pack house and shutting the truck off I jumped out going around to open her door. Helping her out I hear Keaton pull in behind everyone stepping out and walking over to us.

She turns to her dad I see her hands going he answers her back with signing.

He looks at me.

"She asked why we were here and not our home, I told her it would all be explained,"

Nodding to him I place my hand on her back again having her walk along with me.

I open the door and walk in we head straight to my office.

I see some of the pack members watching us as I still had my hand on her back and her walking next to me. Some of the women I noticed glaring I know it's because I'm showing her attention there's been a few that have been trying for a while but I don't break my rule never sleep with the pack women I didn't want trouble when I found my Luna but I can already see some brewing. But right now I need to handle business with my mate and then I'll deal with them.

Reaching my office I pushed the door open letting her walk in first I followed behind than everyone else piled in. I grabbed her hand leading her to the sitting area she sat down on the chair while her parents sat on the couch.

Zach and Keaton stood off the side while I stayed next to her.

You could feel the tension in the air her parents had worried looks on their faces while her brother held a hurt look.

Her dad straightens up he turns to his wife.

“Give her the implant,”

She reaches into a small bag pulling out an object handing it to Autumn.

Autumn took it I watched as she places it on her ear then a circle piece stuck to the side of her head.

Nodding at her dad.

“It will be easier if you wear that so we all can understand the conversation,”

“Okay, dad,”

Letting out a sigh he rubs his face with his hand.

“Autumn, I’m sure there are a million questions you have about what happened at the party, First off Yes werewolves are real and we are all wolfs, well all except your mother,”

He looks at her waiting to see if she was gonna say anything. But she didn’t she just bobbed her head a little.

She didn’t say anything again nor didn’t she move blinking anything. I heard her heartbeat pick up again placing my hand on her should I could feel she was tense. Letting my hand rest there I could feel her shoulders slowly relaxing.

I gave him a small nod signaling for him to continue.

“All the times we have moved I said it was due to my work,”

“Yes,” was all she replied but you could hear her voice was strand just a bit she was barely holding on and not completely freaking out.

“Well, that’s not completely the truth, we um moved a lot because of um well um,”

He put his head in his hands he was lost at how he was to explain that someone is after her and she is a rare wolf I felt bad for him he has spent so long protecting her from the truth and now it was right in front of him.

Her mom placed a hand on his back rubbing circles helping him.

I stepped up and sat on the table in front of her. She looked at me then looked back at her dad who still couldn't look at her. I took her hands in mine so she could feel calm.

"Let me try and explain this to you, your dad is very upset but believe it when I say to you he did all this to protect you,"

She paused for a moment,

"Protect me from what?" She asked.

"Well, you are what some would call very rare, as you now know your family is werewolves as am I and all the people living here in this house, but you my dear are a werewolf too but you are not just an ordinary wolf, you are what they call a silver wolf and there are a lot of people who want to take you because they believe you have special powers,"

She didn't say anything she just looked at me with her eyes locked with mine.

"Why now? I mean why tell me this all now, and what do you have to do with all of this how come you turned to a wolf first? Why didn't one of you guys show me heck even you Zach! You waited till he did it first!" She was yelling by the time she finished. Her parents just hung their heads the guilt weight on them hard her mom was crying and her dad look broken.

"Plus if I'm a werewolf like you say then why haven't I changed into one?"

"Autumn, I wanted to," Zach started to say but I held my hand up stopping him.

She looked at me and then at Zach I could see she was trying to put things together,

"Autumn," I called her name lowly.

"Your wolf is dormant because the head injury you received as a child caused your wolf to go dormant, as for my part you are my mate my other half, just like your mom is your father's mate, that is why I acted the way I did when we first met and when I came for you at the mall,"

She pulls a hand from mine rubbing her forehead and closing her eyes.

I can tell she is feeling overwhelmed

Her breathing is becoming harder and quicker her heartbeat is rapidly getting faster.

“Autumn, you need to calm down, or your gonna,”

I didn't even get to finish when she went limp falling forward I quickly grab her pulling her towards me.

Autumn

Stretching my legs out then grab the blanket pulling it up around my neck and snuggling down when the scent of rain and pine filled my nose.

Snapping my eyes open I see I'm in a bed but it isn't my own. Sitting straight up I started looking around the room no one is in here but me. The room is extremely large. The decor was grey with white trim it was a nice room.

Rubbing my head a bit trying to figure out what happened.

Then it was clear party hospital Mr. Reins office, my dad trying to explain things then Mr. Reins talking to me telling me different things and yep me passing out.

Just then my bladder decided I had was out long enough it needed a break.

I noticed a door to the one side I wonder if that was a bathroom.

I slide to the side of the bed pulling the cover off me and swinging my feet off the side getting down out of the bed. Walking to the door I opened it slowly peeking in but I found it was a closet.

It was full of men's clothes and the smell of rain and pine was super strong here.

Closing the door I looked around finding another door I made my way over to it pulling it open.

Jackpot! I say to myself going in I did my business, going to the counter I wash my hands when I'm done I turn to go back out.

“Ahhh!” I squeal.

Standing there was Mr. Reins.

He held his hands up toward me placing my hand on my chest and covering my mouth with the other.

“Sorry,” I see his mouth to me.

Taking a breath to steady myself. I wasn't expecting anyone to be there let alone him.

I wanted to ask where my parents were and why I was there. He must have read my face.

“Your parents and Zach went back to your place to get some things, you passed out again so I brought you here to rest,” He talked slowly so I could read his lips.

Wait they left? Why would they leave me alone? What things were they getting?

He must have thought I was gonna panic again he started waving his hand in small movements.

“Don't worry they will be back soon, please why don't we sit down for a minute,”

He held his hand towards the chairs that were on the other side of the bed sitting in front of the fireplace.

Nodding my head I started to step forward he sidestep step letting me pass him I walked over and took a seat.

He walked to the end stand picked something up then walked over sitting down in the other chair.

He outstretched his hand toward me looking down I saw it was my implant.

I looked back up at him.

“I wasn’t sure if you wanted this, I promise I’ll learn to sign,”

Reading his lips I felt a warmth come over me at the thought of him learning to sign. Would he really do that?

I smiled reaching out and taking it from him I placed it in my ear making sure the magnet was in its right place.

“Thank you,” I tell him.

“You’re welcome,” His face lit up a little.

He seemed so nervous sitting here with me. But for some odd reason, I wasn’t.

Maybe he was worried I’d hit the floor or freaked out again,

I think he wanted to say something but he was unsure. Well, I guess I can break the ice first.

“Um, how long was I out for?”

He seemed shocked at first but he composed himself quickly.

“About two hours,”

“Oh. How did I get here ?” I asked while twirling my fingers and gesturing to the room.

“I had brought you here, it’s very quiet and no one will bother you in here, this is my room so no one but Aunt Anna is allowed in here when I’m not here,”

Oh God, he brought me to his bedroom, his personal bedroom.

I was freaking out on the inside. Get it together Autumn for crying out loud.

“Why? I mean um I could have just rested on a couch or stayed in the chair I was sitting in,”

His eyes darken at those words. sh!t good one Autumn now you have managed to piss him off great,

He shut his eyes taking a few deep breaths I watched as his chest move up and down. When his eyes snapped back open they weren't dark looking anymore.

"Autumn, Do you remember anything we talked about before you passed out?"

"Um." I stop letting my mind drift back to the conversation It was kinda all foggy.

"Uh, something about me being a wolf too and that people were after me and then."

I stopped again trying to recall.

Wait people were after me!

"People are after me!" I almost yelled feeling some panic kick in I slid to the end of the chair feeling like I should run.

He held his hands up.

"Autumn, calm down no one can get you I promise you are very safe here."

I heard him but I was looking all over as if I was looking for an escape hatch.

He got up kneeling in front of me taking my face in his hands.

"Please calm down I don't want you to pass out again, trust me when I say you are completely safe here I won't let anyone hurt you,"

I don't know why but his touch brought comfort, I believe what he said by the look in his eyes,

His thumb ran back and forth on my cheeks feeling little tingles erupt all over my face.

"Are you okay feel better now?"

"Yes thank you," I say to him feeling a lot calmer than I was a few minutes ago.

He moved to sit back down in the chair keeping his eyes on me the whole time.

“What else do you remember?” He asked his voice low and calm.

“Mates?” I said out loud.

Reins

“Mates,” My heart filled with warmth when she said the words out loud.

“That’s right, mates,” I say to her

“I don’t understand all this,” She rubs her fingers across her forehead.

“Maybe I can explain some things to you maybe break it down for you,”

Putting her hand back in her lap she begins to fidget with her fingers.

“You can as anything,” I tell her.

I was hoping and pleading in my head she says yes I want to just sit here and spend time with her letting her see she can trust me.

“Umm, Okay,” She paused for a moment I can see her trying to pick what she wanted to ask me.

” Am I really a werewolf?”

“Yes, You really are one,”

That was all it took for twenty-one questions to start. She asked everything from why her parents hide everything from her to the silver wolf and her being one why her wolf had gone dormant.

She took in everything I said and never did she get upset her heartbeat stayed steady.

“Last one I promise,” She holds her hand up laughing just a bit.

“Ask away,”

“Ok.” I see her look down at her hands she was fidgeting again I notice she does this when she is nervous.

“What is a mate?” She peeked up through her lashes.

I could see a small blush on her cheeks.

Smiling to myself I loved how cute she looked when she was shy.

“A mate is our other half, one created for us by the moon goddess When we find our mate our instinct kicks in, and we feel this pull and want to be with our other half our life our world becomes all about our mate,”

“And we are mates,” she says moving her finger at me and then at herself.

“Yes,”

“And how are you so sure we are?”

“Well, there is your scent,”

“My what? Omg, do I stink?” She looked scared for a moment. Looking all over like she wanted to just vanish into thin air.

“No no,” I held my hands up to her. “It’s not that type of scent it’s a scent that draws you to your mate you smell wonderful,” I quickly blurted out.

She froze with eyes wide.

“So I don’t smell bad?”

I chuckled, “ No you smell rather great,”

She relaxed back into the chair again getting that calm look at her.

“What do I smell like?”

“Like Daisies,”

“Daisies?” She whispers. She doesn’t say anything else but I can see her thinking about something.

I reached out touching her hand I instantly felt the sparks.

She jumped just a bit I knew she felt them too.

“What was that?” She said touching her hand where I just had.

“That’s one more thing when we touch our mate we felt these sparks and tingles that erupted when our skin makes contact,”

“Oh,” She looked down at my hand and then at hers.

“Here you can try for yourself,” I held my hand out toward her she stretch her hand forward I could see a small shake but it wasn’t from fear she wasn’t afraid of me she was so nervous. It made me think she didn’t have much interaction with people. She slides her palm on top of my hand touching it like it was going to break. Her skin felt so smooth and soft that the tingles ran up my arm.

I heard her take a breath in but she didn’t pull away. Her hand looked so small compared to mine I rolled my hand over so we were palm to palm I traced my finger against the underside of her wrist.

Her hand fit perfectly in mine.

“Um, this is um I’m not really sure how to explain it,”

She reached out with her other hand she began playing with my hand and fingers.

“Does it always feel like this?”

“Yes, it gets stronger as our bond grows,”

She played with my hand just her touch was driving me nuts I could hear my wolf purr in my head.

” Autumn,” I call her name.

” Yes,” She looks at me but kept playing with my hand.

” Can I ask you something?”

" Yeah, of course, I've asked you so much already,"

She stilled her hands but didn't let go of mine.

" Do you like me?"

Bold I know but I needed to know her feelings I know she feels something just by how nervous she is around me and her heart beats faster when I'm close plus I know the night of her party she picked up my scent just by how she kept looking around and the way she felt while we were dancing.

She started to let go of my hand but I grabbed hers.

"Please don't let go,"

She blushed just a little but I saw a small smile. She looked down at our hands I could tell she was trying to put the words together.

"I'm not sure how to explain what I feel, Truthfully I've never had anyone interested in me or even been on a date, but I do feel a pull to you I'm not afraid of you or feel you would hurt me, With everything that has been just dumped on me I'm not sure what to think, but I would like to get to know you better and try to understand this mate thing with you,"

I couldn't help but get the biggest smile across my face my chest warmed with her words.

" I would love to get to know you more as well, and I would be happy to help you with all of this that you just found out, we can help you learn everything you need to know about being a mate,"

I rubbed my thumb over the top of her hand she smiled at me.

"That sounds like a deal, Mr.Reins,"

" Oh no, it's just Reins to you,"

"Reins," She says so softly.

God my name sounded so good coming from her.

Just then I hear my betas voice coming through the link.

“Alpha, Luna’s parents are back but there was a problem,”

” What happen?”

” They have been attacked the brother is hurt I had him taken to the clinic her parents are fine just a few scr.apes.”

” sh!t okay, I’m with her now meet me in my office.”

“Yes Alpha,”

“Oscar,” I call through the link.

“Yes Alpha,”

“Come to my office I need you to watch Autumn her parents and brother were attacked I don’t want her to know anything just yet,”

” Yes Alpha,”

“Reins,” I hear her sweet voice.

I looked at her she seem confused.

“Sorry someone linked me,”

“Linked?”

“Yes we can mind linking each other, I will explain it when we have more time there’s a issue that needs my attention,”

” Oh okay, I understand you have work I can go find Kelly or Oscar,”

” I have already called Oscar he will meet us at my office you can go with him,”

I stand up pulling her up with me she is standing in front of me. I had to look down she was short compared to me. I felt the need to k!ss her right there but I was afraid I scare her.

So I settled for a smaller gesture I lifted her hand that was in mine placing a soft k!ss on it.

Alpha Darrell

“Where is Roberts? “

I yelled as I slammed the phone down swiping my arm across the desk and scattering all the papers on the floor.

“We trying to find him Alpha,”

“He should have called by now!”

I slammed my fist against my desk.

“What do you want us to do Alpha?”

“Send out more scouts, I want to know where he is and what is taking so long,”

It’s been three days since he reported saying that, that dam Alpha had held a party for Autumn he also reported they had told her about being a werewolf.

But not before he sent photos of him dancing with her.

My bl00d boiled when I saw those pictures of his arms around her holding her close to him. You can see how she looked at him. She’s not supposed to look at him like that I’m to be the one holding her with her looking at me like that.

He then went on to say how he hasn’t left her side. He explained everything that happened at the party and how she ended up in the hospital and how he drove her back to the pack house.

He was gonna make a move he tried to kidnap her parents the plan was to use them to get her to leave the safety of the lack house but that dam brother of hers got in the way, and now Roberts hadn’t called.

Roberts

Clicking my phone off I tossed it on the bed. I went back to the bathroom to finish patching myself up. I wasn't expecting that boy to be that strong seems that rotten Alpha left some information out.

I thought with them not belonging to a pack all these years they wouldn't be so trained but damn was I mistaken, The father put up a good fight but he was trying to protect his mate which I had already knocked out. I was able to get him knocked down and out as well but that boy got some good hits in.

Which has led me to stand in this hotel bathroom cleaning my wounds.

I seriously need to come up with a different one now. I figured if I jumped them at their house it be easier seeing how it's far enough away from the safety of the pack house.

I hissed when I started to clean the wound on my stomach. He got a swipe on me now I have three claw marks right across my stomach.

Taking the bandage I begin to wrap around myself. It will take a day or two to heal fully they are kinda deep. Finishing up I toss everything in the trash can and walk out grabbing my phone off the bed before I lay down. Looking at the screen I see I had a sh!t ton of missed calls from Alpha Darrell. God this man is working on my last nerve I told him I'd call him when I had something.

Setting my phone on the stand I roll so I stay on my back resting my hands behind my head I let my eyes close I just need to think and come up with a different way to get to her. After all this trouble I may just keep her for myself she is definitely cute enough for me. With that thought I let myself drift off to sleep.

Riens

"Keaton, any more information about Roberts we're about and why he attacked Autumn's parents?"

We were sitting in my office looking at anything we had her dad told us what happen up till he got knocked out.

Zach filled in the rest he is still in the clinic resting. I will say that kid put up one heck of a fight he had some wounds to his upper body along with a broken arm.

We ended up telling Autumn they had a car accident, Her father ain't want her to know what happen till we knew who it was.

By the description, Zach gave im certain it was Roberts. But why go after her parents, I'm gonna have to keep a close watch Zach said he injured him as well so that means he will lay low for a few days.

I don't want her out of my sight but with her school, it's kinda hard. Oscar and his group keep an eye on her when they are there she always has one of them with her at all times.

She goes and sees her brother then she comes here to my office afterward. This is something she started doing on her own it made my wolf jump for joy in my head when ever she came in.

When she comes in she comes straight to me I grab her hand laying a soft k!ss on the top. She blushes every time we talk for a few then she goes over to the couch and starts to work on her school work.

I know she is starting to feel more of the bond and now I'm sure her wolf isn't so dormant. I can feel the present closer now then I did before.

"We tracked him to a local hotel the scout found bl00dy bandages and stuff to patch himself up but nothing after that, they are still looking,"

Keaton explains as he is reading over some papers.

"Dam it, alright have them keep looking I don't like this he's planning something,"

"I already told them that," He says with a h.uge smile like he won something.

"Have Matt come up here I need to discuss something with him,"

"Yes Alpha,"

I looked back to the paper I was reading which was all about that Alpha Darrell and I must say this man is crazy, There are reports that he had k!lled his mate.

What the hell is wrong with this man? His pack is having financial issues. I see he drained the last of his accounts which I sure that's how he paid Roberts.

There was a knock at the door.

"Come in," calling out while I kept reading. The door opens and in walks Matt.

"Alpha you wanted to see me?"

Laying the papers down I look up at him.

"Yes Matt, I have something I wanted to talk to you about,"

"Of course Alpha,"

"We seem to have lost the trail on Roberts, he seems to be hiding and waiting I do not like this so I wanted to talk to you about pulling Autumn out of school and having tutors here for her,"

Autumn

The last few days have been kinda crazy with my parents and Zach being in an accident plus Zach being in the clinic here. Then my dad drops the news that we are to be moving to what he called the packhouse which I didn't fully understand but he said it was for safety reasons. I didn't push I was still trying to process everything that happen over these last few days it's not every day you find out you're a werewolf and so is your whole family, Oh, and let's not forget that I'm supposedly mated to the Alpha.

Which I have learned is the lead person in what is called the pack and that person just so happens to be Reins,

Kelly had given me a book to help me understand all this going on around me. I was thankful for that I know Reins had explained a lot to me that day we talked in his room but reading it for myself gave me the time to take it all in without freaking myself out.

I've been reading about mates and how you are drawn to one another by our scent which is why I smell rain and pine when I'm near him. It also said how we long to be near our mate that it's what they call the mate bond, I found myself doing this week after I check on Zach I go straight to Reins's office the first day I hadn't even noticed where I was walking I was so lost in my thoughts I ended up standing in front of his door. So now every day after school I stop to see Zach and then go straight to his office.

The other thing was marking this made me a little nervous reading about it. Apparently, when marking your mate they bit your neck! And this is supposed to happen during a very intimate time. I have never had a boyfriend and I'm supposed to have se.x with my mate oh my God that part did cause a minor freak out but thank God I was alone so no one could see me beet red with embarrassment,

Suddenly there's a hand waving in front of my face. Snapping out my thoughts I look at the owner of that hand.

I see Oscar laughing I go to swat his hand away completely missing his hand.

"What were you dreaming about? Your face is red," He says while winking at me.

"Oh, we know who she thinking about,"

Kelly starts to say when I glare at her she stops pressing her lips in a thin line.

"I'm not thinking of no one," I quickly blurt out while trying to hide my face with my hands.

"Yes cause the lunch here is so great it has you flustered," Nick chimes in trying not to laugh.

I grab a French fry and throw it at him only for him to catch it and stuff it in his mouth.

"It's okay Autumn we all know you were dreaming about me," Oscar says as he steals one of my fries and I smack his hand.

"Why would she be dreaming of you!" Nick asked while raising an eyebrow at Oscar “Why wouldn’t she look at all this goodness!” He says while stretching his arms up and gesturing to his body.

” Ha, you overrate yourself! She is definitely dreaming of me, I’m way better looking than you,” Nick says while waving his hand around his face.

“Keep dreaming lover boy,” Oscar comes back at him and the two start their argument about who better looking.

While they are going on about that

I see Kelly’s hand tap on the table I look at her she starts to sign.

“You were thinking about Alpha weren’t you?” I see her smirk at me.

I could feel my cheek heat up again.

“No,” I sign back.

“Yeah right, you’re becoming smitten,”

She lets out a small giggle.

“What! No!”

“Hey Hey no talking with your hands it’s not fair for others!” Nick says while grabbing my hands so I can’t say any more to Kelly.

“Yeah, none of that!” Oscars says while pointing at Kelly and me.

Kelly sticks her tongue out at Oscar.

“Brad can’t you make your mate behavior!”

Oscars whines to Brad.

“Nope sorry man,” Brad says while wrapping an arm around Kelly.

“Ha!” She laughs at Oscar.

I stand grabbing my tray.

“I’m going to the bathroom,”

"You want me I go with you?" Kelly asked

Shaking my head. "No, I'm good I'll meet you back here,"

"Autumn are you sure, I'll go and wait in the hall," It was Oscar this time he was about to stand up. I hold my hand up to him.

"I'll be fine really it's just the restroom I'll be five minutes,"

I see he's not too happy he's like my shadow never leaving me alone he sits back down Nodding his head at me.

I go to grab my bag but he stops me.

"You can leave it here I'll keep track of it,"

He tells me.

" Thanks," I say to him only to get a "Hmmm," in return.

Turning I walk to dump my tray then lay it on top of the trash can and walk out of the cafeteria.

Heading to the restroom I was once again lost in my thoughts when I'm grabbed from behind a hand over my mouth and another around my waist I'm lifted off my feet.

I start kicking and thrashing trying to get free but the grip on me only tightens.

I was fighting against the person that I wasn't paying attention to where I was being taken. I kick again this time I hit him right in the knee earning a grunt from him.

The next thing I know I'm dropped to my feet the person spins me to face them before I could look at him he punches me right in the face. Everything starts to spin and black dots form I feel my leg about to give out but someone grabs me throwing me over their shoulder.

My arms dangle and sway as the guy walks faster my head bobbing around my head is spinning even more now that I'm hanging here.

He stops I feel him fidgeting with his one hand I know he's saying something cause I feel the vibrations but I can't hear him with all the struggling my implant fell off.

Suddenly we are tackled from the side I hit the ground hard gr0aning I'm trying to get my bearings but I'm too dazed when I feel arms around me pulling me back the person sits down holding me when I look up I see it's Kelly. I can see her lips moving but I just can't make out what she is saying. She keeps hold of me I feel her wipe my lip I flinch from the pain it caused.

My head is pounding and I'm still dazed when I start to see black spots more now I can't fight it I give in the the darkness.

Reins

"This is why I wanted to have her do her schoolwork here!" I yelled at everyone in the room. They all flinched taking a step back Autumn's mom lets out a small gasp while Matt holds her Zach had heard about what happened he left his hospital room and is waiting with his parents.

Spinning I punched the wall near me letting out a loud growl.

Keaton steps closer.

"Alpha, please you need to be calm it's not their fault,"

Placing my palm on the wall I hear what he is saying but my wolf is on edge with how close that was she could have been taken.

"Alpha I'm sorry I shouldn't have let her go alone," Oscar says.

Dropping my hands I turn to face him he has his head down hands behind his back. I can feel he's holding himself accountable for this but he did get to her in time.

Taking a breath I pinch the bridge of my nose closing my eyes I need to calm down.

“I know Oscar, I’m not blaming you or anyone you did well at reaching her in time, and you caught the guy,”

I tell him patting his shoulder I see him relax just a bit.

“Now tell me how did that wolf get into the school?”

“I contacted the principal he sent me the video footage from what I see he came in by the gym there’s no footage of him in the school but you can see him coming out the same door and heading to the parking lot,” Keaton tells me.

“Where is he from?”

Keaton doesn’t say anything I see him swallow as he shifts from foot to foot.

“Keaton!” I growl at him.

“He is a scout for Alpha Darrell,”

He says as he takes a few steps back from me.

I feel my body heat up my wolf is pushing to come forward. When I let out a hard low growl my body begins to shake.

“Alpha,” Keaton says holding his hands up. “Calm down, please we have him he’s locked up he can’t get to her now, she is safe here with you,”

I hear him but I can’t focus just the thought of that Alpha sending someone to take her and they were almost successful.

“How dare him how dare he try and take what’s mine, he is a fool for thinking he can just have my mate, I will k!!! him!”

My wolf is so close to the surface I know my eyes are glowing blue my voice is low and harsh.

Suddenly I get a whiff of my mate. I start looking around but she was not there feeling angry cause she was nowhere in sight but her smell is faint.

I snap my head back front there I see her mom holding what looks like a hoodie she slowly hands it to me taking it from her I bring it close to my nose taking a deep breath.

Her scent fills my nose I can feel myself calming my wolf starts to retreat back.

When I feel all the tension left me I look back up.

“Thanks,” I say to her mom she just smiles at me.

“Alpha,” I hear someone call me I turn to face the voice it was the doctor.

I spin giving him my full attention.

“Is she alright? Can I see her?”

I start popping off questions to him.

He holds his hands up.

“Slow down Alpha, please. She is going to be fine she has a concussion along with a busted lip and her cheek will most likely be black and blue, but other than that she will be just fine,”

“Is she awake?” It was her mom who asked she was looking around me at the doctor.

“No not yet but she should be waking up soon, she will need rest it will take a few days for her concussion to go away, so no strenuous activities for about a week,”

“Can I see her?”

He looked at me and then at everyone else standing there.

“You Alpha yes along with her family but everyone else will have to wait till tomorrow,”

He steps back to open the door he pushed it open holding it so we could go in. I look to see her laying on the bed the nurses were finishing hooking her IV up and pushing a button on the machine.

I got straight to her side grabbing her hand feeling the spark spread through my whole palm.

The nurse steps away as her parents and Zach come to the other side.

“Oh my baby,” I hear her mom say reaching forward she brushes her fingers over her forehead.

She starts to cry as Matt comes to wrap an arm around her shoulder giving her support.

“Let’s go, my love, she needs rest,” Matt says to her as he kisses her temple.

I can see the pain on Matt’s face as he tries to comfort his mate.

He looms at me giving me a nod. “Alpha,”

He turns with his mate in his arms walking her out.

I look at Zach who is standing at the foot of her bed he hasn’t said much I know he’s still healing from the fight with Roberts, but he has a look I know he’s planning something in that head. He cares a lot for his sister as she does for him and with the loss of his other sibling he’s very protective of her. I saw that the first day we met how he shield her from me knowing I could easily take him down.

“Zach,” I call his name he takes his eyes off her to look at me and I see revenge in them.

“Don’t you go thinking of stupid things boy,” I growl at him but he doesn’t even flinch he just looks back down at his sister.

“That man needs to die,” He finally spoke his voice deep and hard.

“He tried to take her, he’s been hunting us for as long as I can remember and it needs to stop,”

“Zach look at me!”

He moves his eyes to me but still has that same look.

“He will get what is coming to him, but you are not to do anything until I say so,”

I use my Alpha command on him and he lowers his eyes and now his head.

“Yes Alpha,”

“Good, Now get back to your room and rest you still need to rest when you’re all healed come see me we will make a plan,”

“Yes Alpha,” He says giving his sister one more look he spins on his heel walking out of the room.

I reach over sliding the chair next to the bed I sit down keeping her hand in mine I place soft k!sses on her knuckles.

“He won’t get to you again,”
