0 8 minutes read

Autumn

“Oh, my head,” I reached up touching my forehead. Slowly opened my eyes but squinted at how bad my head was hurting. Letting my eyes travel around I see the white ceiling and walls.

I take in more of the room when my eyes land on Reins sleeping in a very uncomfortable position in a chair that is too small for his big frame.

No one else was there and by the darkness out the window, it must be night but I wasn't sure what time.

“Reins,” I call softly even though I'm not sure how loud I actually am shutting my eyes from the pounding feeling in my head but my throat felt super scratchy

He didn't move crap I'm gonna have to call his name louder. Wait where is the little button that's normally on the beds? I started to feel around I couldn't sit up and look for it with how bad my head hurt heck it took everything to keep my eyes open I see the door open slowly walking in was an older nurse. She sees me awake hurrying she comes straight to the side of my bed.

“Your awake sweetie, how are you feeling?” She was talking slowly so I could read her lips.

When I tried to talk my throat got that scratchy feeling again which caused me to cough a bit which didn't help my head.

She quickly grabs the small pitcher pours some water into a small cup places a straw in it she holds it up for me to take a drink.

“Here, it's cold it will help your throat,”

Taking a drink feeling the coldness it felt good when I let go of the straw I got a stinking feeling on my lip causing me to hiss just a bit reaching up and touching my lip I could feel it was swollen but dang did it hurt.

Looking at her I see her begin to talk.

“Careful you will make it bleed,” She touches my hand stopping me from feeling anymore.

She freezes looking over me with wide eyes.

Looking over I see Reins jumping up he was by my side.

“How do you feel? How long have you been awake? Are you in pain? Do you need anything? Do you remember anything?” I think that was what he had said I was having trouble keeping up with reading his lips.

He looks up at the nurse.

“Why didn’t you wake me when she woke!”

I could tell he was yelling cause she flinched stepping back.

“Reins,” I call him he touches his hand he looks back at me.

“I just woke up she just came in she didn’t get a chance to wake you she came straight in and started helping me, so please don’t yell at her,”

His face softens at my words.

“Sorry, I see him say while he rubs my hand with his thumb.

He looks up at her so I glance over I see her start talking but again she talks slowly.

“Alpha I was just coming to check her vitals when I saw she was awake I gave her a drink of water that’s when you woke to see her awake, I apologize for not waking when I came in,” She tells him she bows her head down when she was done talking so not looking at him. I glance back at him I see him He rubs his face letting out a sigh.

“It’s alright I shouldn’t have yelled at you, please continue with what you were doing,” He tells her while he keeps his eyes on me I think it was so I could tell what he was saying to her. His eyes move to her again so I do the same just as she started talking.

“Alpha I need to inform the doctor she is awake he will want to check her,”

He just nods at her she spins on her heel and walks out closing the door.

He looks at me tucking a strand of hair behind my ear.

“Autumn, do you remember anything?” He asked making sure to talk slowly I can see the worry on his face.

“Yes, someone had grabbed me when I was walking to the restroom,” I said hoping I’m not talking too loudly.

“Can you tell me what all happened?”

I take a minute to replay what happened.

“Umm, I was walking to the restroom by the cafeteria when someone grabbed me from behind, He covered my mouth I couldn’t tell or scream I tried struggling but he was stronger than me, he lifted me so my feet didn’t touch the ground before I knew it I was outside, I remember kicking him in his leg he dropped me then he,” I trailed off when I remembered he punched me I lifted my hand to touch my cheek.

Reins grabbed my hand kissing it.

“He..he hit me,” I felt the tears start to build and then slip down my cheek I tip my head down.

I feel his fingers under my chin lifting my head to see him.

“Shhh, It’s ok you don’t have to say anymore,” I felt the bed dip as he sat on the edge.

He now had both hands in his one as he gently wiped my tears.

“I remember falling to the ground then Kelly was holding me,” I sobbed out not caring if I was loud this time just remembering how that guy hit me and how scared I felt when he was forcing me to go with him.

I looked at him sitting in front of me I could see the anger in his eyes. He started to talk.

“It was Oscar, he tackled the guy causing him to let you go, Kelly said you passed out soon as she had pulled you away from the guy,”

“Why did he grab me I don’t understand,”

I see him start to say something when he snapped his head towards the door. I see a doctor poking his head in.

“Ah Alpha I see our patient is awake.”

He says as he walks into the room followed by the nurse from before.

He comes to stand on the side of my bed.

“So young lady how do you feel? Any pain dizziness nausea?” He looks at me talking the same way the nurse did which helped with my head hurting it was making it hard to follow their lips.

“My head hurt a lot, and my cheek and lip are a little sore, but no dizziness or nausea,” I looked to Reins hoping he says if I was speaking too loud. he simply nodded at me I’m taking it that I was good.

He takes out a light from his coat pocket out holding it up to my eyes.

“Follow the light please with your eyes, not your head,” He says waiting for me to understand what he said.

“Okay,” was all I said.

He moves it from side to side then up and down.

I did as he asked it made me feel a little sick to my stomach so I shut my eyes quickly.

Feeling a hand on my shoulder I opened my eyes and looked over at the doctor.

“What happened,” He see him asked.

Shutting my eyes again I was hoping it would help settle my stomach.

“I feel sick to my stomach,”

I felt Reins squeeze my hand lightly so I open my eyes to look at him he tips his head towards the doctor so I move my head slowly to see the doctor.

"That's normal, you have a concussion so moving that's too fast will make you feel that way,"

I give a very small nod at him.

He continued checking my vitals along with my lip and cheek.

I see his hand move to get my attention so I turn my head to face him.

"Your lip will be swollen for a few more days I'll give you some suave to put on it that way it keeps it moist, your cheek will be black and blue for about a week or two it's gonna start to look worse before it looks better," He stays looking at me to see if I understood him. He looks over at Reins so I tried to turn my head but it made me feel like I was gonna throw up so I just shut my eyes.

Reins

"What about her concussion?" I asked

"Yes well that will take a little longer I will give some medicine for her headache but she is to be on bed rest and not overdo it for at least a week then she can do some light stuff but no strenuous work or stress for another week I want to see her in two weeks for a check-up,"

Autumn didn't open her eyes again so I just let her stay like that. The doctor looked at the nurse telling her to go get some medicine for her head.

"You can leave in the morning I'll get all the paper ready and leave them at the desk just stop and grab them on your way out, Do you have at questions?" He asked me I shake my head.

"No doctor I think we are good,

I squeeze her hand she opens her eyes looking at me.

"Do you have anything you want to ask?"

I keep my word slow I know she having a hard time keeping up with reading our lips.

"No, I'm okay,"

That was all she said then closed her eyes again.

“Alpha,” I hear him say with a bow as he turns to leave the room.

Just as he went out the nurse came back in with a small white cup.

“These are for her headache,”

I tap Autumn’s hand she opens her eyes I point to the nurse she turns her head when she sees her she goes to sit up but she winces so I quickly help her adjust the pillows to hold her upright.

The nurse hands her the small white cup, Autumn tip it up taking the pills in her mouth the nurse hand her another cup with a straw Autumn takes a drink swallowing the pills.

“Thank you,” I hear her say trying to give the nurse a small smile but stopping when it hurt her lip.

“You’re welcome, now try and rest Alpha do you want us to bring in a bed for you?”

“No, thank you I’ll be staying awake the rest of the night,”

She gave a nod as she turned to leave us.

“Get some rest I’ll be right here,” I say to her as I sit back down in the chair.

“Reins you can’t stay awake all night plus you don’t fit in that chair,” I hear her say.

“At least lay here,” She pats the bed next to her.

I just look at her.

“Reins, please I don’t think I will sleep everything keeps running through my head right now all I know is I just need you to hold me it makes me feel safe,”

My heart filled with happiness hearing her say that so she is feeling the pull of the bond.

I stand up stepping closer to the bed she slides over I lay down wrapping an arm around her she snuggles down against my side laying her head on my chest.

I hold her tightly against me I can feel my wolf purring in my head at the closeness of his mate.

Alpha Darrel

“I don’t care what happens to that moron!”

“Alpha we can’t just leave him there they will kill him, plus they may get information out of him,”

“That’s not my problem not, is it? He didn’t follow orders now he’s caught he can just stay there and rot!”

“Alpha, please we need to do something anything! He knows too much he has been tailing them since the start if her father or brother see him they will know he one from the hotel,”

“ENOUGH!” I slam my hand on my desk.

“I’m NOT GOING TO DO ANYTHING TO HELP HIM I Don’t CARE IF THEY KILL HIM OR GET INFORMATION OUT OF HIM!”

Yelling at my Beta who stepped back clearly afraid, I was losing my patients that dam scout should have never entered the school he got himself caught I could care less if he tells them anything I’m not afraid of Reins I’m not even gonna give him the pleasure of calling him Alpha he has what is mine so he is my enemy.

“Find Roberts, Now!”

“Yes, Alpha!” He says with a bow then practically running put my office.

Why is this so dam hard to get the girl was all they had to do but no this it acted before thinking could have cost everything if the others had gone with him,

This is taking too long she was to be here how long ago? If her dam parents didn't take off and hide her from me I wouldn't have to be here waiting for these other brainless people to bring me what's mine.

Maybe I'll just take things into my own hands and do the job myself, at least then I know it will be done right.

Reins

I woke to whimpering along with small twitching. Looking down Autumn has her eyes shut she is still asleep but she has her face scrunched up a sweat building on her forehead her head j.erks slightly while a small whimper comes from her.

"No," She says so low if I wasn't a werewolf I wouldn't have heard it. She fisted my shirt pushing against me.

Dam she's dreaming most likely of what happen. I wrap my arms tighter around her pulling her on top of me and laying her head on my c.hest.

K!ssing the top of her head I just held her to me. I could feel a small aura coming from her. It wasn't super strong but it was there. I could feel my wolf trying to push forward could it be her wolf?

I let my wolf come forward a bit but kept my control.

I feel him let out a small purr my c.hest vibrated I could feel my aura pushing out.

He was trying to comfort his mate he knows autumn can't hear us so he is reaching out for her wolf.

She suddenly stopped whining as well as twitching she lay still her whole body relaxed her small fist let go just laying flat out on my c.hest.

"Mate," I hear my wolf call.

"Yes, our mate," I think to myself.

She rubs her face against me earning another purr from my wolf.

I rub my hand up and down her back letting my wolf calm her along with my touch. She lets out a small sigh and then snuggles closer to me pulling her tighter against me as if it was possible.

I just lay there just looking at her she was so beautiful her fair skin with her long hair pushed off to the side.

That crazy Alpha thinks he's gonna get her he has another thing coming, which I needed to go talk to that wolf Keaton said he was from that pack, but wouldn't give up any more information we will see how fast he sings when I get done with him.

He hurt my mate and tried to take her from me he definitely wasn't gonna be living long just long enough for me to break.

Autumn

I felt warmth throughout my body it wasn't a feeling hot making me burn up or make me want to get up instead it made me want to sink farther into it a nice comfortable warm feeling.

Rubbing my face against the warmth I could smell rain with pine mixed in there which seemed to suck me in even more I rubbed my face again.

When my pillow suddenly vibrated.

Wait why is my pillow moving? Sliding my hand up to feel but it's not soft like a pillow should feel instead it's firm.

I feel arms go around me tightening and pulling me hard against.

Oh my God is that a body!

I snap my eyes open to find Reins looking straight at me.

That's when I realized I'm laying on top of him I instantly feel my face heat up.

I tried to move off him feeling awkward about our position I see his eyes darken and his arms tighten more.

Moving one arm off me he lifts his hand to brush some of my hair away from my face. Then he cups my face rubbing his thumb against my cheek.

I couldn't help but lean into his touch I could feel these small tingles all over where his touch was.

I look up at him I see his eye look down at my lips I subconsciously lick my lips.

He looks back to my eyes I see him leaning his head down towards me he didn't look away. Finding myself lifting up to him letting my eyes close when he got closer then before I knew it I felt his lips graze against mine. His lips were so soft but firm.

I felt fireworks all over my lips along with the butterflies that erupted in my stomach.

His hand slid to the back of my head holding me where he wanted letting my hands slide up his chest tangling my fingers in his hair.

I felt his chest rumble when I did that he kissed me harder I felt his tongue pass along my lips. Parting them he slid his tongue into my mouth tasting every inch.

I had no idea what I was doing I'd never been kissed before I tried mimicking his movement.

Suddenly he flipped me so I was on my back with him above me. He held his weight on one arm while the other hand kept a hold on the back of my head pulling me harder against his lips.

I couldn't help the small moan when he bit and sucked on my bottom lip. I pulled on his hair when he bit my lip it took me by surprise.

I felt something hard poke against my lower half. Wrapping my legs around his waist grinding myself against him.

The next thing I knew he was off me standing against the far wall.

I sat up not understanding what just happened. I could see his eyes were pitch black his chest rising and falling he was breathing heavily.

Before either of us said anything he was out the door.

What was that did I do something wrong? Pulling the blanket back up I laid back down curling into a ball.

That was my first kiss and the person ran away,

Reins

What the hell was I thinking?

I left as fast as I could I didn't miss the look of hurt on her face. But I couldn't stay in the room any longer or I would have taken her right there my wolf was so close to taking control.

We could smell her arousal when she pushed herself against me I almost lost control of him. God her lips felt great the fireworks that broke out across my own lips when we touched hers. I could still feel tingles lingering yet. The way her body reacted to my touch I could tell she was inexperienced but that only made it better I would be her first for everything and that made my wolf want to claim her even more.

Heading out of the clinic I go straight toward the woods I was needing to let some steam off.

I didn't stop to take my clothes off I just shifted,

Letting out a hard growl we took off letting my paws dig into the ground we felt the wind blow against our fur. We dodged trees jumping over limbs that lay on the ground. Letting out all my frustration as well as my wolf he was certainly feeling some.

I'm not sure how long I had run when I came to a small clearing this is still part of my territory it is one of the farther parts. Stopping at the small stream and getting a drink I flopped down next to it laying my head down my wolf feeling a little more relaxed after that.

"Alpha!" Keaton's voice ripped through the link.

"Keaton, what is it?"

"I've been trying to link you for two hours! Where are you!"

"Calm down Keaton I went for a run I'll head back,"

“Just a warning Luna’s dad is looking for you, he didn’t seem too happy,”

Well, I figured that one I’m sure her parents had stopped to check on her seeing as she can leave the clinic today.

“Alright, I’ll be there soon have someone bring clothes to the clinic, please”

“Yes Alpha,”

I cut the link getting up we take off again heading back.

Autumn

I didn’t fall back to sleep I just laid there replaying what had happened.

Did I do something wrong? Could he tell I didn’t know what I was doing?

Well, of course, he did I’m sure he’s had plenty of experience in that area I mean seriously just look at him anyone would want to be with him.

Just the thought of him with someone else made me feel hurt a small ping of sadness in my chest.

I know we had talked about being mates and I read a lot in the book Kelly gave me I also read where one mate could reject the other is that what he was thinking?

I had gotten so lost in my thoughts I hadn’t realized my parents had come in until mom touched my hand.

She saw my face and instantly worry came across it.

“What’s wrong sweetie? Why are you crying?” She signed to me.

Was I crying? I lifted my hand touching my cheek and sure enough, I had tears running down my face.

Dad stepped forwards I see him sniff the air his eyes snap to me.

I see him lift his hands.

“Did Reins do something?”

Oh God, how do I explain what just happened to them, I’m sure they don’t want to hear how I just had a make-out session with him, just as much as I didn’t want to tell them.

“Autumn!” Dad’s hands moved fast he was becoming angry.

I see mom place her hand on dad’s arm rubbing circles slowly.

She then turns to me.

“You can tell us if something happen did he try to force you to do ?”

Mom signed slowly I could tell she was trying to keep the mood light seeing as dad looked like he was about to explode at any minute.

“No, he didn’t force anything, we k!ssed but I must have done something wrong cause he left abruptly and that was a while ago,” I sign to her she only nodded a little while dad’s face became red.

Suddenly dad turned and storm out of the room slamming the door and making mom jump.

Just as the door closed it swung open to Zach walking in he didn’t look happy he came straight to me grabbing my chin lifting it turning my head like he was looking for something.

I pulled away smacking his hand from me.

“What’s wrong with you!” I signed rather angry he just did that.

“I was making sure that dam Alpha didn’t do anything!” He was signing the same way dad was. He was mad.

“I already told mom what happen! I don’t see what business it is of yours!” This time I yelled instead of signing I know I was loud but I didn’t care I was starting to feel aggravated by all of them.

I see Zach’s face soften he took a breath closing his eyes.

When he opened them he lifts his hands.

"I'm sorry, I just don't want you to get hurt I didn't mean to upset you, you are my sister and I will always want to protect you,"

I felt the anger I had toward him melt away with those words.

I know he would protect me he did that all through high school that's one thing I loved about him being my brother is he was always for me no matter what.

" I know you would and I would tell you if anything bad happen,"

He smiles at me leaning down he places a soft kiss on my head.

"When did they say you could leave?"

Mom asked me.

"Oh, today the doctor last night said I have paperwork at the front desk he also said I have to be on bed rest for a week, but I don't want to miss that much school,"

" Autumn maybe that's a good thing right now we can always get your schoolwork brought here, especially with what happened at school,"

Before I could say anything mom and Zach snap their heads toward the door Zach rips the door open taking off out it mom right behind him slide out of bed walked over pull the door open.

Stepping out I see people running down the hall I look at where they are going and following them I see a commotion moving through the people I finally reach my mom she was crying I look at what's going on and there across from us is Zach is being held down by Mr. Keaton moving my eyes to the people behind him what I see made fear hit me so hard I thought I would crumble.

Reins has my father pinned against the wall holding him by his throat his face inches from my father's.

Reins

I could hear people yelling and moving I heard someone cry out. But my wolf had taken over he was in a rage he felt disrespected there was no way I could control him.

The moment her father threw that punch soon as I came through that door he was on me I figured he would be mad but his wolf was in a protective state I could see his wolf at the surface it wasn't her father but either way his wolf needs to know his place.

Keaton had tackled his boy seeing how he felt the need to defend his father these two are strong but my Beta is strong he comes from a long line of Betas he could take over as an Alpha but he chooses to stay loyal to me.

Letting out a growl I see his wolf starting to retreat back he bares his neck the best he can seeing as Im holding him against the wall by his neck.

I'm only inches from his face when I let out a hard growl when I feel a hand on my arm.

My head snaps toward the person it's my little mate standing there I can see fear in her eyes but she stays standing there her other hand comes up she wraps both hands around my arm but she doesn't pull the sparks dance all over my arm from her touch.

"Please," She whispers then I feel a soft aura coming from her it's the same I felt when laying in the room with her.

I feel my wolf pull back my rage slowly coming down. My grip loosens I let go of her dad he falls to the floor. I turn to face her reaching out I wrap both arms around her pulling her to me I bend bury my face in her neck breathing her scent in.

She stays relaxed in my hold she wraps her arms up around my neck I stand up lifting her off the floor keeping my nose pressed to the side of her neck I feel her shutter a bit.

When I feel that my wolf has calmed down and I have complete control over him again. I lift my head to look at her keeping her held up against me she doesn't try to let go. Looking at her eyes I see they are slightly glowing yellow,

I could feel her wolf ever so faintly she was reaching out to my wolf calming him. I couldn't help but lean down placing a soft kiss on her lips feeling those fireworks all over again even with the smallest touch.

"Mate," I heard my wolf call out again.

I see her cheeks turn the slightest pink her eyes change back to her normal color holding her with one arm I reach up brushing a small strand of hair away from her eyes and tucking it behind her ear.

"Thank you," I mouth to her I let her slide ever so slowly down the front of me till she was standing on her own two feet.

Sliding my arm around her waist and pulling her to my side I turn to look at her father. I see Keaton let her brother up and her mother was beside her father now.

"Keaton," I call for my beta.

"Yes Alpha,"

"I want you to escort Matt and Zach to my office and wait for me,"

"Yes Alpha,"

He steps back holding his hand out.

"Please you heard the Alpha,"

They bow their heads and walk out with Keaton.

I felt Autumn go to take a step so I tighten my hold and look down at her. Her eyes looked scared she moves her head looking towards where her family stood a minute ago then back up at me.

I know she was silently asking to go with them.

I shake my head no at her.

“Let’s get your stuff and your paperwork then I’ll take you to rest.” I mouth slowly for her to understand me.

She doesn’t argue I turn us walking back to her room to get her bag.

Once we grabbed her bag we headed back out stopping to get her paperwork she don’t say anything just let me lead her.

I took her back to the pack house I took her straight up to my floor heading to my room I open the door leading her in I set her bag on the chair she stood at the door fidgeting with her fingers.

I walk to her taking her hand and walk her to the bed she looks up at me I see she is hesitant but she’s not afraid.

“You need to rest I’ll be back in a little,”

She rubs her forehead I know her head has to be hurting by now her concussion is still fresh and with all the excitement she is sure starting to feel it.

“What’s gonna happen to my dad?” She asked me I can see she was worried about what was going to happen.

Cupping her face with both my hands

“Nothing I’m just going to explain what happened between us I’m sure he has the wrong idea and I don’t want him to he needs to know I would never hurt you,”

I talk slowly so she’s not struggling to understand me.

“What did you leave? Did I do something wrong?”

I pull her to the bed and sit down pulling her next to me.

“Sweetheart you did nothing wrong I left because I was having trouble controlling my wolf, and if I didn’t leave I would have mated you right there,”

I see her thinking then it must have dawned on her what I was talking about.

“And as much as I would love to that wasn’t the right time or place and you are injured I don’t want to hurt you more,”

I see her look up from my lips

“So you want to be with me?”

Smiling I lean down close to her but far enough so she can see my lips move.

“Yes, my little mate I want nothing more than to make you complete mine claim you mark you let everyone in this pack know you are mine,”

Her face goes bright red at my words I know Kelly gave her a book to read about our kinda she knows what I mean by claiming her and marking her.

“You would want someone who is inexperienced I’ve never even had a boyfriend, That was my first time even kissing someone,”

She drops her head not looking at me.

Lifting her chin so I could see her eyes.

“I’ve always wanted my mate Autumn I love the fact that I’m your first for everything I don’t care what experience you have or don’t have you are my mate my innocent little mate and I will always want you no matter what,”

With that, I leaned forward kissing her sliding my hand to the back of her head I deepen the kiss she fists my shirt tilting her head and giving me more access I slip my tongue past her lips I hear a soft moan come from her.

I break the kiss when I feel she needs air her eyes are still closed she breathing heavily and slowly she opens her eyes looking straight at me.

“Rest now I’ll be back,”

Kissing her forehead I stand walking to the door I pull it open before I walk out intake one more glance at her she smiles at me I give her a wink walking out and close the door.

Autumn

A few minutes after he closed the door did my heart returned to its normal rhythm.

I look around the room remembering the last time I was in here letting a small smile form thinking back to our conversation that day along with what we just talked about I still couldn't figure out what all happen at the hospital or how I had the confidence to walk up to him while he was that mad but I just felt like I needed to do something.

I was drawn to him when he was in that state I felt this pull to be close to him. I don't think I would ever be able to do something like that.

The feeling I got when he said he wanted me and the way he looked at me made my heart flutter.

I was lost in my thoughts of him I jumped a little when I noticed the door open.

Kelly pokes her head in.

Her eyes land on me sitting on the bed I smile at her. It feels like I haven't seen her in so long.

She comes in closes the door she sits on the bed.

"Oh my God I heard what happen at the clinic! are you alright? "

She signs to me, worries in her eyes she tilts her head looking at my cheek.

"I'm okay just a little sore," I sign back then rub my cheek.

"That looks like it really hurts I'm sorry we didn't reach you sooner," She signs I see her face drop like she was beating herself up.

I grab her hand giving it a pat.

" You guys saved me I should be thanking you, it's not your fault,"

"I thought Oscar was gonna k!!! that guy right there Brad and Nick had a hard time getting him off that guy,"

"Is Oscar okay?"

She shakes her head. "Yes he's fine just mad that someone almost took you from school, I'm so glad he decided to go after you"

I nod my head in agreement with her.

"It seems I'm gonna be out of school for two weeks can you get my assignments for me I don't want to fall behind in class,"

"Of course, I can! Wait are you staying in Alpha's room? Are you guys like together now?" She moved her hands so fast that I almost didn't see what she was asking.

I felt the blush creep up my cheeks.

I see her let a scream out she throws herself at me hugging me.

I groan with the force of being jarred my head still hurts and my cheek is still super sore.

She instantly let go pulling back to look at me.

"Sorry," she mouthed.

"It's okay. My head hurts," I say while closing my eyes. I suddenly felt tired like I could just sleep sitting up.

I felt the bed shift I opened my eyes Kelly had stood up she walked next to me grabbing my hand and helping me stand up reaching down and pulling the blankets back.

She slowly glided me to the spot having me get the bed pulled the covers back over me.

The mattress was so soft I felt like I was on a cloud. Letting out a small sigh I looked up at Kelly.

She smiled at me.

"Rest I'll come back later." She mouthed

Giving her a nod my eyes drifted close and before I knew it I was out.

(third person)

Standing back out of sight I saw Kelly come out of the room,

Dam it!

I wouldn't be able to get in there with Kelly hanging around I know she going to be in and out checking on that good-for-nothing girl.

I just don't understand what is so important about that girl she is so freaking plain she's not a fighter clearly. I saw what happened at school. If Oscar wouldn't have interfered she would be gone by now.

"What are you doing up here?"

I jumped startled at the voice next to me.

"Jeez, you scared me," I whispered

I hold my finger to my lips I didn't want Kelly to hear us.

Looking back toward the door Kelly was about to walk away but then Oscar came down the hall.

"Hey Oscar, if you're going to see her she's asleep," Kelly says to him as she points towards the door.

"No Alpha asked me to stand guard at the door till he returns, he's in a meeting with her parents and brother right now,"

"Ahh, Okay well I have patrol today I'm guessing your missing as you have orders,"

"Yeah sorry I was heading that way when Alpha linked me, I think Nick is filling in for me,"

"Ok, well I'll see ya later, bye,"

Kelly waves as she walks off.

"Later!" Oscars calls out as he turns taking his position in front of the door.

"Tell me you aren't thinking of getting into that room are you?"

“Shh! Well, I’m not now, Not with him standing there,”

“You know the punishment for this, don’t you? She is his mate which makes her our luna,”

“I’ve been working hard to earn the Alpha’s attention he doesn’t ever look at me but this little girl walks in and has it just like that!”

“Well yes cause that’s how it works when you find your mate, plus you and everyone know Alpha never has any type of relations with anyone in the pack,”

” I don’t care, I would be so much better next to him than someone like her, she’s not even from our pack!”

“Your gonna get yourself banished or even killed if you try messing with Alphas mate, “

“No, I won’t I just need to come up with a plan this is gonna take some time,”

“Your playing with fire why don’t you just settle for your mate? And leave Alpha alone,”

“Because I would be a better luna and I deserve to get what I want and I have been wanting to be his mate forever and she gets him, It’s not fair!”

“Do you even hear yourself? Seriously you have really gone off the deep end,”

“You’re just scared to go after what you want and I’m not! If you not gonna help me then leave!”

“You know what no I’m not helping you I didn’t plan on helping you I actually like her and I’m not getting banished for you!”

Alphas Deaf Mate Chapter 36 - Tips

Reins

Stepping into my office I saw Matt sitting there head hung low his mate sitting next to him her hand rubbing circles on his back.

Zach sat there as well but unlike his father, he sat straight not even affected by my presence his eyes moved to look at me but he never moved an inch.

Kids got guts I'll give him that but he will know his place in my pack yes he is my mate, brother but I'm the Alpha.

Clearing my throat I walked to my desk and sat down leaning back.

Matt raised his head making eye contact with me. He stood dropping his eyes back to the floor.

"Alpha, please forgive me I acted out of line and I didn't know the full story, My role has always been to protect her my wolf took over when he smelled a male scent on her, which I'm not used to so I will take whatever punishment you put in place for me."

"Matt sit down please, "

He slowly sits back next to his mate she places her hand on his arm.

"I'm not giving you any punishment,"

Soon as I said those words his head snapped up to look at me I could see confusion in his eye.

"Alpha?"

"Look when Keaton linked me saying you were looking for me I knew you wouldn't be happy, but she is my mate I wouldn't do anything to hurt her, "

He began shaking his head yes as he was agreeing with me.

"But if you ever pull a stunt like that again you will be on night patrol duty for a month, and you will have to train the younger teenagers,"

That may not sound so bad but after two days of dealing with c0cky teenagers who think they know it all you will be pulling your hair out.

"Yes, Alpha I understand that won't happen again." He quickly says.

I turn my gaze to her brother who still hasn't moved or said anything.

I raise my eyebrow at him while his father and mother look at him.

Matt nudges his arm and then tilts his head in my direction.

Zach looks at me but I couldn't quite read his look.

"If you're expecting an apology from me then your gonna be waiting a while, I didn't do anything wrong I was only defending my father," His tone was steady never missing a beat.

"Zachary !" His mom scolds him.

"What? I mean I didn't attack him,"

He says to them.

"I only went to protect my family,"

Okay, I get what he's saying but not gonna be able to let this slide. I could feel my wolf clawing to come forward he didn't like the disrespect he was showing.

I stand causing them to be quiet walking around my desk I didn't say a word letting my wolf surface.

I let out a deep low rumble as I got closer to him

Zach attempted to hold my stare but his wolf wouldn't let him.

Dropping his eyes and baring his neck in submission.

"I wasn't coming to put forward a punishment but boy you are challenging me but showing disrespect in my pack, I will not settle for that do I make myself clear?"

"Yes Alpha,"

My wolf was happy with his submission letting me push him back.

"Now the other thing we need to discuss is Autumn wolf.

"Her wolf Alpha, her wolf is dormant,"

Her father spoke while looking over at his mate.

“She does have one, I felt her aura last night I don’t think she is as dormant as you think,”

They sat there looking at each other with shocked expressions.

“But we don’t understand her wolf has never made any signs of being there after the accident,”

“Well my only guess right now is it may be due to being around her mate, maybe her wolf could sense she was in danger and stayed hidden away till she felt her mate’s presence, with her being a silver wolf we don’t know seeing as there no other silver wolf alive to ask,”

“So what do we do?” Her dad asked.

“I’m going to do some research, I have a friend I’m going to reach out to he may know something,”

“What is it we can do to help,”

“Matt I want you to go down with Keaton to try and get more information out of the guy who tried taking her from school we already know he’s from your old pack,”

“Yes Alpha,”

“Zach I want you to get with Oscar and put together a plan to find the guy Roberts, Oscar knows what he looks like he saw him at the mall that day he spoke to Autumn, we need to keep track of him I know he is here because of that crazy Alpha,”

“Yes Alpha,”

“Helen as for you is like you to stay with Autumn she will be out of school for the next two weeks Kelly with help you keeping an eye on her as I know she isn’t going to be happy with missing school,”

“Oh I know she won’t be but I will do as you asked Alpha,”

“Good I still want to pull her from school and have her do her studies here, also I want to have you all joined as a member of the pack soon as possible we don’t need to have the whole ceremony but we can go through the process,”

“Yes Alpha,”

Standing they give a small bow and then head out closing the door.

No sooner did the door shut than there was a knock.

“Come in,”

The door opens I see the person walk in she looked worried.

“Alpha I really need to speak with you,”

Roberts

I was finally healed from that brother of hers, I have been laying low but still have been keeping track of what's been going on. This job is turning out to be more trouble than I had originally thought. Still think I should keep her for myself she is quite the looker and oh-so innocent, That day when I spoke to her you could tell how sweet she is probably doesn't have a mean bone in her little body,

There's a knock on my door.

Hmm, that's odd,

Reach behind me to make sure I got my pistol stuck in the back of my jeans.

Walking over I pop the door open just enough to see and there stands a boy with his hands in his pockets.

“Who are you?” I asked

“Ah yes well im someone who can help you, “

“Help me?” I c0ck a brow up at him.

“Hmm, ” was all he said.

“Help me with what?”

“Well, why don’t we talk about that in a more private place than me standing out here,” He says while picking his hands up gesturing that he was still standing outside.

Stepping back I pull the door open. Stepping to the side letting him in as soon as he stepped in I slammed the door closed pulling my pistol out and placing the barrel against the back of his head.

“Woah, Hold up you’re not gonna want to do that,”

“Oh really, and how do you know what I want?”

“Cause my father is an Alpha and k!lling his son will start a war,”

“I don’t care who son you are but you came looking when you shouldn’t have,”

“I came to offer my help, I know you’re here to kidnap Autumn Collins,”

“Your point is what ?”

“Look your gonna want my help, No let me rephrase that, your gonna need my help,”

“Ha boy, I don’t need help I work alone and have been doing this job longer than you’ve been breathing, so you can see yourself out,”

I drop the gun and walk around to stand in front of him I nod my head toward the door.

“Out Now,”

He just chuckles and then steps past me sitting down in one of the chairs.

“Like I said your gonna need my help, I have information that your gonna need and right now Alpha Reins has security so tightly around her you will never get close,”

“I’ve already been close to her, I’ll do it again,”

He busts out laughing this little sh!t gonna get himself k!lled he keeps this up.

“What’s so funny boy,”

“You, you don’t even know that she is pretty much on lockdown at the packhouse she got hurt and now he’s keeping her there she not even attending school,”

” DAM IT!”

I growl out slamming my fist into the wall next to me.

sh!t, this kid is right as much as hate to say it im gonna need his help I’ve been keeping watch but not good enough.

“Alright, kid, spill what is it you know,”

Autumn

“Ugh, Mom how much longer do I have to be stuck in this room?”

I angry sign to her I was so ready to get out but she is like a hawk not letting me do anything, Kelly bring my a.ssignments each day for me and takes the ones I have completed back to school, I appreciate her doing that I would hate to fall behind but between her and mom as well as Oscar I don’t get a second to my self.

(Autumn, where are you going?

Oscar, why are you standing outside the door?

Alpha asked me to,

Why?

You will have to ask him but I can’t let you go walking around alone, I will accompany you till your mom gets back,

Oscar! I don’t need a babysitter,

Sorry Autumn but Alphas orders,)

That was the first day I was here and it’s been the same since Oscar was at the door mom and Kelly follow me all over of stay in here with me.

“Dear not too much longer beside you have a doctor’s appointment coming up once he feels you have healed then you will be good to go,” She signed then pushed my work toward me as a sign I need to finish the work.

Groaning I grabbed the work flopping the book open and going back at it.

When Reins comes up here tonight we are going to talk. He is not going to keep me locked up that is for sure.

Reins sleep here at night but not in the bed he stays over on the couch if I’m having a bad dream about what happened he is right at my side he calms me down and waits for me to fall back to sleep then goes back to the couch.

Just as he is in my thoughts the door opens he walks.

Coming to the table he leans down and places a kiss on the top of my head sitting down.

“How’s the schoolwork?” He mouths to me.

I scrunch my face up at his words he knows how much I have been missing school and how I hate to be out,

His eyes look away moving to where my mother was sitting across from me.

Glancing at her I see she was talking to him but stopped when she saw me looking.

I feel his finger hook on my chin turning my face towards him.

“Not much longer please just bare with me, “

I look to mom, “Mom can you hand me my implant please,” I sign to her.

She nods standing she goes over to the dresser picking up. The next day after I was here Reins had my implant replaced for me.

She hands it to me, and I put it on and then look at him.

“I can’t Reins I need to go out and get some fresh air, Oscar won’t even let me walk down the hall alone,

I'm missing a lot of school Kelly brings me my work but I miss going and sitting in class I don't want to be treated differently, I feel like a prisoner!"

I see him look at mom she holds her hands up she knows how I feel about having different rules than others.

I see him sigh pinching the bridge of his nose.

"Okay, can we make a compromise?"

"Alright,"

"I will let up on you haven't to stay in here most of your time but you need to have someone with you at all times while outside this room,"

"Why Reins? What is going on please don't say it's nothing cause im not stupid why else would you have Oscar guarding the door and I have to have someone with me? Am I in danger?"

"Helen can you please give us a minute,"

"Sure thing," She walks past me and gives my shoulder a quick squeeze.

Once the door was closed he looked at me,

"I know I seem to be overdoing it but please believe me it's all for your safety with that guy showing up at your school now we just learned that your parent's old Alpha up and left his pack no word as to where he was going nothing not even his second in command knows where he is, I just don't want to take the chance of something happening to you again,"

I didn't know what to say I was shocked listening to what he all said, I know a little of that guy he spoke of not a lot just that he is obsessed with me and has been trying to take me away from my family. At the thought of someone taking me away, I felt a small ping in my chest I didn't want to be away from Reins and my family.

"Hey, hey, don't worry no one will get to you but this is why I have all these people around you for your safety and my sanity cause if anything would happen to you I would be lost,"

He cups my cheek rubbing his thumb across my cheek. I could feel the tingles go all over my face.

Closing my eyes I lean into his touch I've become more used to his touch and have found I long for it at the end of the day I miss him when he's gone.

"Alright, I promise I won't go anywhere alone, but what about school?"

"Let's see what the doctor all says at your check-up then we will talk about school,"

Giving him a smile I nod softly at him his eyes light up at that leaning in he kisses me,

Autumn

It was finally the day for my check-up and hopefully, Reins lightens up,

I do feel a lot better my bruises have healed my head hasn't been hurt as bad even though I get some pressure in the backside of my head,

I've been able to walk around the house but either Kelly or Oscar is always with me I don't mind really at least I get out of the bedroom,

I'm currently in the kitchen with Aunt Anna mom was with me for a while but she said she had to meet Chases Mate for some training, Dad and Zach have been busy helping Mr. Keaton look for the guy they call our old Alpha,

I did manage to get Oscar to agree to leave me here with Aunt Anna I was waiting for Reins anyway he was in a meeting with Chase.

I was sitting at the bar drinking some iced tea and listening to Aunt Anna talk while she was getting things ready for lunch. I see a couple of girls come in I remember them from the night of my party they don't even glance my way I just shrug it off looking back at Aunt Anna.

"So Autumn tell me how has is been with Reins? He treating you good?"

I start to answer her when suddenly I feel the cold water splash all down my side getting my shirt and pants wet.

The glass shattered on the floor.

Letting out a squeal I just up at the coldness startling Aunt Anna as well.

“Autumn!” She comes over with a towel and starts wiping my arm and pants off.

“What happen!” She asked I didn’t get a chance to say anything when the one girl appeared in front of me her hand held up with a shocked look on her face.

“I’m so sorry! I tripped and lost my grip,”

“Tori you need to be more careful,” Aunt Anna scolded her.

“It was an accident I didn’t do on purpose !” She shot back at her.

“It’s okay, I’m just going to go change,” I say while I turned walking out of the kitchen.

I made my way up to Reins’s floor I was looking down at my pants brushing at the wet spot when I suddenly pushed back by my shoulders.

Looking up I see the girl Rachel standing there her arms crossed over her chest with the other girl behind her they both had a smirk on their faces,

Riens

“Alpha we have found where Roberts has been hiding from what we found he’s been there a while also it seems he was injured,”

Keaton explains as the rest of us listen he had called saying he had information on Roberts so I called a quick meeting with Matt Zach and Chase as well just so he’s kept in the loop. After all, he is my gamma, and he and his mate have been training Helen, He told me Matt and Zach didn’t need the extra training they held their own,

“Injured? ” I say I look at Zach,

“We fought I got him a couple of times how bad I’m not completely sure,”

“What about that Alpha?”

“We haven’t found him yet, I reached out to his Beta but haven’t heard back yet,”

“Matt what about the guy in my dungeon?”

“His name is Chad Richards he’s a scout for Alpha Darrel pack he was one of them that tried taking Autumn at the hotel,”

“Did he give any information on what Alpha Darrel is up to?”

“Not much just that he hired Roberts and he is completely obsessed with Autumn he truly believes that she is his mate,”

“Not much to go on, does he know Darrel has left his pack,”

” No, I don’t think so,”

” Alright, Matt I want you to go down with Chase and tell him that Darrel has abandoned his pack and see if that gets him to talk more,”

“Keaton I want you to keep trying to reach the Beta until he answers you we need to know if he’s supporting Darrel or not,”

“Yes, Alpha!”

“Zach I want you to work with Keaton,”

“Yes Alpha,”

“Dismissed, “

They all start to get up when Matt stops he looks at me.

“Alpha?”

“Yeah, Matt what is it,”

“When were you want to do the joining ceremony?”

“Autumn has her check-up today if the doctor clears her we will do it this weekend, “

“Sounds good to me, the sooner the better then we don’t have any ties to that crazy Darrel,”

“I agree, but right now let me get down to

Autumn,”

They bow their heads turn and walk out.

I stand walking out behind them when suddenly I hear.

“ALPHA! Hurry Autumn in trouble!”

Alpha Darrel

I stand off in the shadows watching the door waiting for them to come out,

I had managed to track down that it Roberts just as I was approaching the door some young wolf showed up.

I could tell he was of Alpha bl00d just by his aura.

I heard him speak of Autumn and how he could help Roberts get to her, I was trying to hear what was being said in the room but that meant I needed to get closer and I didn’t want to be sp0tted.

Finally, the door opens and that young wolf walks out Roberts is with him he has a bag packed slung over his shoulder.

Where was he going?

Watching them get in their cars I make my way over to mine I’ll follow them and see what they are up to.

They drove for a while heading outside of town I kept a lookout while I followed I was in territory without permission with me behind an Alpha someone bound to sense me.

Turning down a back road we go about a mile down when I feel we are closing in on a border of a pack.

I pull over shut the car off get out listening for anything I move slowly through the woods when I hear a low growl.

Stopping I look to see the border patrol there are three of them, I just smirk letting my Alpha Arua come off me and watching them step back in submission.

The front one shifts back keeping his head lowered.

“Forgive us Alpha we didn’t realize you were an Alpha. Is there something we can help you with?”

” Who is your Alpha?”

“I’m sorry Sir but you are on our land and don’t know who the Alpha is?”

“You can take me to your Alpha,”

I see his eyes glaze over so I know he’s linking his Alpha.

“Yes Sir if you would follow me, The Alpha will see you.”

“Lead the way,”

He turns walking in front I follow him till we see a house off in the distance.

“I informed the Alpha he said to bring you to his office,”

“Hmmm,”

I kept my eye open for any sight of Roberts or that young wolf.

They lead me in the door straight to the back of the house where he turned to open a door.

Stepping in I stopped at the people in front of me.

“You got five minutes to explain why you’re on my land!”

The guy sitting at the desk said while staring daggers at me.

I looked to Roberts who had a smirk on his face, well that son of a bh.

Autumn

I see a hand come in front of me I look to see that it was the Morgan girl I met at the party,

She gave me a smile looking at her hand I took it she helped me up look straight at me, "Are you okay?"

"Yes, thank you, "

I see her head turn then step next to me crossing her arms across her chest, Looking at that Rachel girl I see her with a scowl on her face,

"Really Morgan you're helping her!"

Looking at Morgan she lets out a huff,

"Yes, I am! "

I see the other girl step up next to Rachel

I don't remember her name,

"What the hell Morgan, your gonna drop your friends for her! " She yelled I cringe at how her voice was so shrill and I'm the deaf one,

"Oh shut it, Lisa besides I like her she's nice and you guys are nothing but bullies, and I'm not doing anything to get myself kicked out of the pack,"

I looked at Morgan and then back to the two girls that were fuming so bad I could see the some smoke rolling off them.

Rachel took a step forward shoving Morgan,

"Your such a traitor,"

Morgan pushed her back with more force then Rachel almost fell on her a.ss but Lisa caught her.

I don't know what happens or why but I suddenly felt angry,

Rachel's face became red Lisa touched her arm, "Calm down Rachel lets just go,"

Rachel smacked her hand away,

"You will pay for that," She stepped forward raising her hand to smack Morgan, bringing her hand down Morgan blocked it with her arm landing a punch straight to Rachel's face causing her head to snap backward.

Rachel steady herself when she looked back at us her eyes were black she shifted right there in front of us,

Snapping her jaw at us, Morgan shifted jumping in front of me, I could feel anger building in me I'd never felt this before,

The two Wolf's jumped at each other smashing into the walls as they wrestled each other the hallway wasn't big enough for the two Wolfs that were fighting,

The sudden need to step in became so strong I wasn't sure what I was doing it was like I was on autopilot, My body moved without me realizing what I was doing it was like I was standing outside a window looking in.

When they broke apart for a mere second I stepped in between them holding my hands out toward them. Morgan dropped her head instantly laying down, Looking at the other wolf Rachel stood there snarling at me I turned my body to face her fully not worrying about Morgan doing anything to me,

Rachel kept her stare with me when she didn't drop her head it angered me more when I feel a surge of power run through my whole body stepping closer to her I never looked away,

I see Lisa behind Rachel drop her head and then drop to her knees keeping her head down.

After a few seconds Rachel finally broke and dropped her head laying down whining as she laid her ears flat back,

Even though they all were down I still felt this power I was mad I was tired of people messing with me I just wanted to be normal I don't bother anyone I try to be nice to everyone I've met but people keep trying to hurt me.

If they wanted to hurt me then they are gonna feel pain.

I stepped closer to Rachel she has shifted back and was laying completely n.aked on the floor.

Just as I bent down to reach for her a hand grabbed mine pulling me up I came face to face with Reins, He cupped both my cheek making me look at him. His touch was firm but not hurting me I could see him talking but I couldn't hear him or make out anything he was saying.

Grabbing his wrist with my hand I just stood there looking at him he never looked away, slowly I felt myself calming down the power I felt was pulling back I felt my body relax he kept talking to me when I could hear him again I blinked a few times,

“Autumn you're okay just stay with my focus on me,”

Taking a breath in it was like a switch flipped and I went completely limp Reins quickly wrapped his arms around me holding me to him,

Reins

When I reached where Morgan had said they were I came to a dead stop looking at the scene in front,

Autumn was standing in between Morgan and Rachel, both have submit and was laying belly down on the floor they even shifted back, but what took me by surprise was Autumn.

She stood there her eyes were completely silver her skin was almost a porcelain color even her hair had turned silver and the power she was giving off was even to make any wolf submit I have to admit I felt the need to bare my neck to her and I'm an Alpha,

When I saw her walking toward Rachel I knew I had to step in you could see she was not in control I know Autumn wouldn't hurt anyone this was her wolf.

Moving I grabbed her hand before she could reach Rachel pulling her up to face me I could see her much better.

Her eyes were all grey with white specs in them her skin was so white and flawless looking she was absolutely beautiful.

I held her face talking to her she was in a trance it took a few minutes to bring her out of it when she suddenly went limp, wrapping my arms around her and holding her to me.

Reaching down I scooped her up bridle-style, looking down at the girls who still haven't moved it's like they were frozen there.

"Get up," I growled at them.

Just then Keaton and Matt came down the hall.

Matt saw I held his unconscious daughter in my arms.

"What happen?" He says stepping in front of me and looking at his daughter.

"She passed out take her to my room,"

Pa.ssing him Autumn he took her holding her close to him he turned and walked down the hall,

Looking at the three of them.

"My office now!"

"Yes Alpha," they say in sync.

They take off heading to my office I looked at Keaton.

"Have Sophia bring them some clothes"

"Yes Sir," he says watching his eyes glaze over I knew he was linking her.

I start walking slowly toward my office giving Sophia a chance to get there before me I wasn't wanting n.aked women standing in my office.

"Alpha what happen back there?"

Keaton asked from behind me.

"I'm not entirely sure but I think that was her wolf Autumn seemed in a trance when I reached her, I think her wolf is not dormant anymore and is making an appearance but I'm not sure what brought her out this time, I felt her when she was in the hospital but it was nothing like that,"

“What’s your plan for those in your office?”

“Well Morgan I don’t think was trying to hurt Autumn,”

“Whys that?”

“She came to me a few days ago and told me she found Rachel up on my floor trying to get in the room with Autumn told me everything Rachel said to her,”

“I told Morgan to keep a low profile and follow Rachel and see what she is up to when she mind link me saying Autumn was in trouble, I thought the worse but seeing what just took place I definitely need to do more research,”

Reaching my office door it opened and Sophia walked out smiling.

“Alpha both girls are clothed and waiting,”

“Thank you, Sophia,”

She bowed then walked to Keaton kissing his cheek.

“See you later,”

He looked at me.

“Let’s get this over with,”

Lola

Waking up I stretched my arms above my head letting out a sigh when I freeze realizing I was in bed.

How did I get here? I felt the bed dip I see dad sitting down with a worried look. Forwarding my brows together I didn’t know why he was worried.

“Dad, what’s wrong?” I signed not feeling the implant on my ear anymore.

“Autumn you passed out do you remember anything? He signed back.

I took a few minutes then I recalled the fight with Rachel and Morgan and then anger filling and the feeling of wanting to hurt Rachel.

“What happens to them?” I signed quickly

He holds his hands to me.

“Calm down nothing happen to them Reins got there in time,”

“What happen why did you pass out?”

“I don’t know I remember Reins looking at me and now I’m here,” I signed to him

Just then the door opens Rein walks in he comes straight to me.

Sitting on the bed he grabbed my hand.

Place a hand on my cheek, I lean into his touch feeling those tingles.

“Are you alright ?” He mouthed to me.

Nodding my head a little.

He looked at dad and then hack at me.

Reaching forward he grabbed something off the end stand I noticed it was my implant. Taking it from him I put it on and give them a thumbs up.

“Autumn, can you tell me what happens?”

I explained it as I remembered it they both stood there listening once I finished

Neither one said anything.

“Please say something,” I asked them.

“Autumn I think your wolf is trying to surface, and it seems to show when you are having a strong emotion,”

“Why would it happen then?” asked him

“I’m not fully sure, but we will figure it out,”

I just nodded I didn't fully understand what was going on I didn't even know why I got so mad at Rachel it was just a surge that ripped through me,

"Hey hey," I felt a hand touch my cheek.

"Don't worry we will figure it out okay, I promise," He leaned up kissing my forehead,

"Okay, next I want to talk about the initiation to joining the pack, we need to do it soon, and by soon I want to do it tomorrow,"

"Tomorrow ?"

"Yes, I need it to be done, Autumn there's something else I want to speak with you about, Matt can you give us a minute please,"

"Sure, " He walked over placing a kiss on my head, He gave Reins a small bow walking out.

"Rein is something wrong? Did I do something?" Shaking his head he grabs my hand sliding closer to me.

"Autumn I wanted to ask you something,

I know that you are new to all this and still learning what we are,"

He stopped for a minute rubbing small circles on the top part of my hand,

"Reins what is it? Please you're making me worry,"

Lifting his eyes to meet mine.

"Autumn, would you let me mark you?"

Roberts

I watched as he stood there dumbfounded he didn't know what to say I must admit I'm shocked to see him standing there.

"He has something of mine," He says, while he points to me.

“And what might that be? Cause as far as I see he doesn’t have anything on him,”

” Well, that’s because he hasn’t finished the job I paid him for,”

“So you decide to do what come looking for him? Don’t you have people to do your dirty work, You are an Alpha, and yet you left your pack without your beta or your gamma travel alone to track down a single person?”

Alpha Brett asked raising an eyebrow at him,

Alpha Darrel scoffed at his words.

“I don’t have to explain myself to you! I’m not here for any business with you or your pack, I’m here only for him and what he was to deliver to me!”

Alpha Brett stood placing both hands on his desk leaning a little forward.

“Listen here you are in my territory my patrol found you on my land sneaking about if you do not wish to be thrown in my dungeon I suggest you begin to explain yourself,” Alpha Brett said through gritted teeth.

Alpha Darrel held his stare for a few before he broke and looked away,

“I hired him to bring mate back to me, but I hadn’t heard from him in days and decided id look for him myself, as for my pack my beta and gamma are in charge, she’s my mate so I figured if come for her myself,”

I heard someone snort next to me looks over and see Dan’s kid holding his laughter,

Alpha Brett looked at him scrunching his forehead.

“What so funny Dan?”

Holding his hand out waving it back and forth,

“Him, He thinks she his mate,”

“She who?”

Dan laughed again placing his hands on his knees as he bends over taking deep breaths then finally standing back up.

“The girl I told you about, Reins mate he thinks she’s his mate,”

“SHE IS MY MATE!” Alpha Darrel boomed out.

Alpha Brett looked at me “Who mate is she?”

Well, no use in lying screw it I wasn’t really gonna finish the job I was thinking of keeping her for myself she is definitely a looker.

“She Alpha Reins mate, but he seems to think she his mate to which he hired me to get her and bring her to him.”

Everyone got quiet I could see Alpha Darrel’s shoulder going up and down with every breath he took he was behind pissed if we weren’t standing in another Alpha office he would probably jump at me by now.

Alpha Brett looked back to Alpha Darrel then to me then at his kid, sitting back down and placing his elbows on his desk folding his hand together you could see he was thinking,

“So let me get this straight you want to kidnap and claim another Alpha mate and instead of doing it yourself you hired him, then got tired of waiting and come to get her yourself,”

“Yes, he stopped answering my calls I’ve waited a long time for her and I’m tired of waiting, “

“And you,” He pointed to me, “ I’m assuming you were not going to finish the job.”

I just shrugged at his words.

“She is quite the looker was thinking of keeping her myself actually,”

There was a low growl heard looking to Alpha Darrel he had that look as if he wanted to rip out my throat,

“Dan, how did you get mixed up in this?”

“Dad I’ve seen her at school ill admit she’s a looker I found out about Roberts trying to get to her and not only him but a guy was trying to take her from school the other week, so I figured why not help hit that Alpha where it hurts the most take his mate,”

“Dan you truly are an it are you even my kid? Why the hell would you go up against Alpha Reins you trying to start a war which we could not win!”

That Dan kid scoffed. ” Dad comes on aren’t you tired of living in that pack’s shadow? “

Alpha Brett stood walking around his desk stopping in front of his kid.

“You will do no such thing, I will not allow this to continue Alpha Reins pack is one of the strongest we are trying to keep an alliance with them not go to war! Over an issue that has nothing to do with our pack, we can’t afford to lose any of our warriors in a fight that does not pertain to us, you will step back and leave this alone do I make myself clear!”

Alpha Brett thunders out his command causing his kid the submit to him.

“Yes Father,” he said dropping his head

He then turned to Alpha Darrel.

“You will leave my territory immediately I don’t care where you go or what you do but are not welcome in my back or lands,”
