

Alphas Deaf Mate Chapter 5 - Tips

0 6 minutes read

Autumn

I woke up feeling a little stiff after sleeping on the floor with just some blankets. But then I remember I was in my new room. I quickly sit up grabbing my phone looking at the time. It was just a little after ten. I normally don't sleep this late so I toss the blankets off getting up I grab some things from the small bag on the floor I head to the bathroom.

I wasn't able to shower seeing as all the towels were all still packed.

So I settled for splashing some water on my face wiping it with my shirt I wore to bed.

I got dressed heading downstairs. I started looking for my mom I see her in the kitchen. But I didn't see Dad or Zach anywhere. I quickly peeked out the front window seeing the moving truck is still closed up and the SUV was still here but Zach's car was gone.

Walking in she turned to see me.

"Where Dad and Zach," I signed to her.

"They went to do some errands quick they will be right back,"

"Oh," I mouthed to her.

Just then I felt my stomach grumble.

Mom must have heard it I seen her start to laugh. She waves for me to come over.

I got over to her I seen there is breakfast in take out containers on the counter.

Dad must have got it before he left.

I grabbed a paper plate and started piling food up. There wasn't a table or any chairs yet so I decided to go out back and see what the patio looked like.

To my surprise there was a built in bench along the one wall. Going over I sat down looking around.

The back yard was really big there was a outside bar and grill on the far side of the patio. I was really liking this place even more we love to have weekend cookouts.

I started eating just enjoying being outside you could tell the seasons were gonna starting to changing here. All the trees were begining to change colors. I thought about the winters here I know it's going to be colder then Tennessee of course we got snow but Montana was sure to get a lot more.

I seen mom come out with a plate in her hand she came over to see next to me. We ate in silence.

I finished before her getting up to throw my plate away mom grabbed my arm. I looked at her.

"Would you mind helping me unload some stuff from the truck while we wait for your father and brother," She signed to me.

"Yes," I simple signed.

She got up walking with me going in we placed our plates in a small bag mom had on the counter she closed up all the containers placing them in the fridge.

We walked out the kitchen heading towards the front door.

Reins

"Alpha, This is Matt Collins and his son Zach Collins,"

My beta introduced us.

I stretched my hand forward to the father.

"Reins Blackwood," I told him

"Pleasure to meet you Alpha Blackwood,"

We shake hands I offer a hand to the boy who grabbed it giving it a good hard shake.

“Alpha,” was all he said with a slight bow to his head.

I have to admit he had a good grip just from that hand shake I could tell this boy trains and he must train hard to have a grip like that. I could also tell the father had a strong aura about him. I would easily peg him as a Beta or Gamma rank.

“Alright let’s get to business shall we, I understand you and your family have recently moved here, I do have to ask what are your intentions with being here?”

The father Matt spoke first.

“Alpha we relocate because of our daughter, She is very special and very rare there are a lot of people who are looking for her and if they were to find her then it would be a disaster, For she can only be mated to her true mate, but there are people who are power hungry and want to take her as their chosen mate,”

With those words for some odd reason I felt my wolf become angry.

“What makes her so rare and special as you say,”

He looked to his son I seen the look of hesitation on the boys face. Which annoyed me and caused my wolf to become even more agitated. I started to loose my patience.

“If you wish to stay in my territory then you need to explain yourselves, For I do not allow rogues in my territory as of now I can consider you and your family rogues! So I suggest you explain!”

I all but gritted out. Why was I being so aggressive I know this isn’t my normal but my wolf was on high alert.

I see the father’s shoulder drop and both them bared their neck in submission.

“Please forgive us Alpha, It’s not that we don’t want to explain we are just afraid we have spent our whole lives protecting her I don’t want to loose another child,”

You could hear the hurt in his voice even the boy seemed to flinch at those words. What did they mean by loosing another child?

“I do apologize for my out burst, please finish,”

He takes a breath I see him pat the boy on his leg. He picks his head up looking at me.

“Autumn is the last silver wolf,”

I just sat there looking at him I was so shocked to say anything I glance over to see the same expression on my beta’s face as well.

I cleared my throat.

“So your saying that she is the last silver wolf? And you know this how?”

“Autumn first shifted at two years old that’s when we discovered this, She had become very ill for about a week then one day her fever sky rocketed my wife suddenly screamed for me when I came running into the room there sat a small wolf pup, She was completely silver with a small half moon on her forehead,”

“She shifted at two?” It was my Beta who had spoke he was completely at a loss.

“Yes, When we had her checked by the pack doctor he had confirmed that she was a silver wolf, We did a lot of research learning everything but what we didn’t know was our Alpha had found out and he wanted to lay his claim on her,”

Hear that I couldn’t help the low growl that came from my chest. What was wrong with that Alpha she was just a small child.

“So you took your family and ran?” I asked him I can understand his actions.

“Yes, But our old Alpha hasn’t not given up we are able to stay somewhere for about two years but then he always finds us,”

“And how old is your daughter now?”

“She is turning eighteen next week,”

Hmmm she old enough now to find her mate. That thought made my wolf stir a little.

“Have you thought of joining another pack for protection?”

“Yes we have but every time they find out about her that’s when trouble starts, we don’t even make it to join, But there’s more then just what she is,”

With that I felt alittle confused what more can there be.

“What would that be?” I asked with a raised eye brow.

“She don’t know about our kind, There was a accident that she was hurt very bad it caused her wolf to go dormant and she don’t remember anything about shifting, She is also Deaf,”

Dormant and she was deaf. What the hell has this girl been through.

All of a sudden I had this feeling come over me. I needed to protect this girl she and her family needed my help and I was definitely going to give it to them.

“It seems you and your family have been through a lot so I will offer you a chance to join my pack, We will protect her as well as the rest of your family,”

He looks to his son.

“We can’t keep running dad, She needs a safe place they are gonna catch us eventually,” The boy says to his dad.

I see him nod and I can see the worry on his face looking back to me.

“My wife’s human would that be a problem?”

“Absolutely not we have other members who’s mate are human, she would be safe her as well,”

“Alright Alpha, We except your offer,” He says with sound of relief and worry.

I extended my hand to him he reached out to shake it.

“Welcome to Midnight Moon Pack,”
