

Her Cold-Hearted Alpha chapter 91

A Revelation Or Two ALEJANDRO Her heart thudded as she fought back her tears at my refusal . I knew she wanted to run from me but I refused to let her go . I sat up and looked down at her . Although she was in my lap , she was still so much smaller than me . She bit her lip , looking away .

I placed a kiss on her forehead , inhaling her tempting scent . She was my fucking home , the place I wanted to be ... but I needed to tell her this now . " I don't know if there's ... " I trailed off . Fuck . How do I tell her that she's pregnant ... ? Since I woke up , I knew I had to fucking tell her , but how ?

" Alejandro ... What is it ? " She asked softly . " What do you think of pups ? " I asked bluntly . She blinked , looking confused . " Pups ? They're cute ... " Want to be a mama ? " Ok , fuck , that sounded stupid . It seemed Kiara thought so too when she blushed and let out an awkward laugh . " 1 " Umm yeah ... Let's not jump the gun ... " She said . I didn't miss her gaze dipping to my dick . " Not the best chat up line ... " " Yeah , I was making a fucking fool out of myself . How the fuck do I tell her ... ? I didn't even know how to be fucking nice . Maybe I should just do this how I usually would ... I gave her a mocking smirk .

" I don't need to have chat up lines ready when we both know I get you turned on without even having to fucking try . " I said arrogantly . She gave me a scornful gaze . " Yeah , I can see what kind of affect I'm having on you too . " She retorted . Ok , now we were going off fucking topic ...

I placed my hand on her thigh , stroking it to calm her spiking temper . " So ... about pups ... Not sure if you know or not , I'm not a werewolf , I'm a fucking Lycan . The rules of needing to mark someone to get them knocked up don't seem to apply to me " I said .

She raised an eyebrow and I took a breath . Here goes fucking nothing ... ” You’re already pregnant , sweetheart ” Yeah , being me was so fucking easy . Her face drained of colour as she clamped her hand over her mouth , her heart racing . Ok , now what the fuck do I do ? Shit , she’s going to freak the fuck out ... Stop thinking with your fucking head Al ... Just do what feels right . I let go of her waist and she tried to clamber off my lap , but I gripped her wrist , pulling her back so this time I was carrying her sideways as I wrapped my arms around her firmly . I was trying not to focus on her boobs .

She sure was fine . ” Look ... If you don’t want it , we can ... get rid of it . ” It actually fucking hurt saying those words . How the fuck could it hurt when I didn’t even know of its existence until last night ? I could hear her racing heart and I really wished I knew what the fuck was going through her mind . ” Do you want me to get rid of it ?

” She asked quietly , placing her hand on her stomach . Well , I sure as fuck wasn’t expecting that question . ” It’s your body ... your choice . What I want doesn’t fucking matter . ” I said without even having to think .

Yeah , I’d love to say keep it , but I had to remember she was only eighteen . Although it was common for our kind to have kids early , I still wanted her to be ready for it . We were already going through hell , and now we were adding a fucking pup to the mix , just to make matters worse ...

KIARA I couldn’t think straight . From the moment he said I was pregnant , I had gone into shock . Did he want it ? I knew instantly that I would never get rid of it , or even consider harm to come to it . I felt a warm fuzzy feeling fill me up before I asked him if he wanted me to get rid of it . ” My choice ... ” I said after he replied . ” Do you want pups ? ” I couldn’t bring myself to look at him .

” Before ? Na , not really . Yours , yeah ... But what I want shouldn’t influence your decision . ” He said in his same arrogant toné , 2 One I realised with time just hid his real emotions . ” So , if I were to keep it ...

You would support me ?

” I asked , trying to calm my pounding heart . His arms tightened around me . ” All the fucking way . ” He said huskily , resting his forehead against the side of my head . I looked up at him , my nose brushing his , making my heart pound . Although I knew the sheer reality of me being pregnant hadn't settled in , his words had .

He was making my heart melt with every small action he did . The memory of him and Jasmin felt so small compared to everything we had . I needed to just move on from it all and I think I could . I caressed my stomach , unable to believe that I had a life in there . My baby , our baby .

I looked up at him , paying attention to his short beard , his angled jaw and the arrogant pout that was always on his face . His onyx eyes were so dark you could barely differentiate the pupil from the iris . ” I forgive you . ” I whispered , ” Completely .

I want to move on from it all . I want to be with you , Alejandro . ” There I said it ... now it all depends on if he forgives me . I could hear his heart racing , his eyes full of surprise at my words , and something else that made my stomach flutter .

” Do you forgive me ? ” I asked softly . I saw concern settle in his eyes as he cupped my face in his calloused hand , caressing my cheek with his thumb . His intense gaze made my stomach flutter like crazy . ” There's nothing to forgive . But I don't want this pup to influence your decision . ” He said seriously . ”

It's not ... ” I said quietly as he looked away . Suddenly I realised that regardless of if I forgave him or not , it seemed he needed to forgive himself first .

” I don't think I've earned that yet .

” He said quietly . ” I hurt you too ... Al , please- ” He cut me off , his thumb rubbing against my lip . ” You should think over this decision too ... A pup can be fucking hard . I know you want to keep it , but don't rush your decision .

" He said , his gaze was fixed on my lips . My heart was pounding . " I know , but I'm sure you know by now that I make decisions very fast , and once I do , I don't back off .

" I said , now resting my head on his shoulder . Life was so full of surprises and one thing was clear , everyone's story was different . I just hoped I would get my happy ending too . " I know ... But I think we've both made enough rash decisions to learn to actually sit back and just think first for once . Can't believe I'm saying this fucking shit .

" He said making me smile . " Oh yeah ? When did the mighty Lycan king get so wise ? " I teased , looking up at him . " When he fucking fell in love so fucking hard that all he sees is his nympho queen." He said quietly, his eyes now meeting mine.

Responding To Him

KIARA

My heart thudded as he said those words . He loved me . He loves me .

Oh , goddess ... " I ... " I couldn't reply when he suddenly kissed me , sending off strong currents of delicious sizzling sparks . A kiss that expressed everything that couldn't be put into words .

My stomach fluttered as I wrapped my arm around his shoulder and kissed him back . Pleasure consumed me , I could feel his desire , his want and his love for me . The honey taste of his mouth mixed with his scent was the perfect drug to make me high . I moaned softly , feeling him throb .

Our tongues fighting for dominance as his hand now caressed my waist . He pulled me tighter against him making me whimper , I turned in his arms so I was straddling him .

My core pressed against his dick and I couldn't stop myself from rubbing against him . He groaned against my lips , his grip tightening on my hips . " Fuck , we need to stop . " He said , breaking away from me . ” Why ? ” I asked , feeling my heart race . I wanted this ... ” Because now isn’t the right fucking time . I want to fuck you , Amore Mio. Trust me , way more than I could ever tell you .

But we need to take it slow ... I don’t want to fuck this shit up . Not more than I already have . ” Since when did he care ? I frowned , about to give a snarky reply when I realised , he was trying , for me . Even if I didn’t agree with him putting a stop to us , I could see the strength he’d needed to refuse me .

His grip on my hips was slightly painful . His eyes were flickering from red to black , the hunger for me clear in them , but he still fought it . ” I don’t want our pup to be the reason for your forgiveness ... that’s something I fucking need to earn .

” He said , his hand now cupping my neck , his thumb rubbing the spot he would one day mark me ... ” I forgive you though . ” I said softly . He smirked arrogantly . ” Does my girl want something ? ” He asked .

His words alone sent a rush of pleasure through me .

” Yes , you . ” I said pouting . ” One day soon , Amore Mio. I swear . I’m yours . ” He said , kissing my lips softly . My heart pounded at those words , I could see the love in his eyes and it felt overwhelming .

This felt like a dream Letting go of my neck , he kissed me in the corner of my mouth sensually . His one hand was caressing my waist but it was his other hand that was driving me crazy , as it slowly caressed my breast . His thumb flicked my hard nipple .

I gasped at the sudden move , but that soon changed to a soft sigh as his hand continued going lower . ”

Alejandro ... ” I whispered . ” Yeah ? ” He murmured , his fingers slipping into the band of my shorts . ” I ..

What are- nh ! ” His fingers rubbed against my damp panties , making me moan . He slipped his hand into them , his fingers found my clit , sending a strong current of pleasure through me .

I gripped his shoulder as he rubbed my clit in circular motions sending pleasure rushing through me . ”

Oh fuck ! ” I moaned . My eyes fluttered shut , letting my head fall back as pleasure consumed me .

Feeling the growing knot in my stomach , the pressure building as I got closer and closer to my release .

I could smell my arousal , see his eyes darken with desire and a low growl escaped him as he kissed my neck , sucking hard and making me cry out . The pain mixed with the illicit pleasure only made me throb harder . Soon I felt myself nearing . He dipped his fingers closer to my entrance , letting my juices coat his fingers before he rubbed my clit once again and a moan escaped my lips .

” I ’m coming ... ” I gasped , ” Oh fuck ! ” I cried out as my orgasm rushed through me . The euphoric feeling consumed me . My entire body felt oversensitive and I tried to pull away from his touch , whimpering as I failed .

He didn ’t stop his assault until another earth – shattering orgasm tore through me . ” Goddess ... ” I moaned as I rode out my orgasm , leaving my body feeling weak . He slowly caressed my pussy before removing his hand and wrapping his arms around my trembling body . I buried my head in his neck , getting my breath back ’as he squeezed my ass . Why was he pleasuring me

? Yet he wouldn ’t allow us to have sex ... What went through his mind ... ?

I kissed his neck , the urge to mark him filling me . I swallowed hard , moving myself slightly away from his neck . ” I don ’t appreciate you calling out to the goddess when I ’m the one pleasuring you , Amore Mio. ” He said , his lips brushing my ear . I smiled , feeling so content .

I just wanted to sit here and do nothing forever . ” Alejandro ... ” ”

Yeah ? ” ” I love you . ” I whispered , feeling his heart rate quicken . I did , I truly meant it . I didn ’t have the courage to say it before . But if he was able to , then why shouldn ’t I ? I loved him and that was all that mattered . His hold on me tightened as he inhaled my hair .

He tilted my head back and that rare small half – smile crossed his face , sending my heart exploding . ”

Only someone as caring as you could love a fucking monster .” He said , a slight flicker of sadness filled his eyes but it was gone as fast as it had come . I shook my head .” No. You are not a monster , and as much as I hate to mention her at this time , I’m not the only one who has loved you .

There are a few who have fallen for our king .” ” 1 ” They love the concept of power and being queen , not me . You’re the only one I want though .” He said , a small frown on his face .” The only one I’m fucking scared to lose .” ” You won’t lose me , I’m already in danger . I’m probably safest with you .

” I said , giving him a wry smile .” I fucking hope so .” He replied softly , before burying his head into my neck once more . I closed my eyes , letting myself savour this sweet moment . We stayed silent and I knew he’d refuse me if I offered him the favour in return .

so I simply snuggled against him , enjoying the warmth peeking through the gaps in the curtain . The calmness , the sound of his heart , the warmth of his body and his scent all soothed me . I was almost dosing off when he spoke .” The witch knew about your pregnancy ... She said the necklace would conceal . That fucking pendant masks the heartbeat , I checked last night .” He said , reaching for it .

” Really ?” I asked now sitting up .” Guess you will have to keep it on .” He said , slipping it over my neck , before tucking it into my top and between my breasts . Although I had a feeling he just wanted to touch them , as he smirked cockily at me when he flicked my nipple once again , sending another round of pleasure to my core .

” I wonder if this was how the witch concealed herself ?” I remarked , now looking at his tattooed chest .

I wanted to lick his pierced nipples . Enjoy every inch of the god before me ...” Probably fucking so .

“ ” So want to share how you ended up on the bed ?” I asked . He raised his eyebrow .” You fucking told me to join you .” He said , smirking . I knew for a fact that no matter how much I wanted to deny it , he wasn't one to lie . So , I simply rolled my eyes , feeling so content . I loved everything about him , right down to his cocky attitude . I leaned over and kissed his lips softly . " I don't know how I'm going to tell Dad about this ... I mean , Mom knows we did the deed , but Dad ... " I cringed at the very thought . " Oh , goddess ... Dad ... " He let out a throaty chuckle . " Now this shit is going to be fun ... Allow m e to do the honours ? " He said , looking at me with a devilish smirk that would put even Hades ' to shame . He was going to enjoy it , I could tell from that glint in his eyes . One thing I knew for a fact was that Alejandro loved to piss Dad off , and this was one thing I was sure Dad was not going to be pleased with ... Help me , goddess For surely I'm screwed.

Closer

ALEJANDRO I'm going to just admit that I was on cloud fucking nine hearing those words from her, feeling her soft, slender hands wrapped around me. She was fucking mine and although she refused to return home and was adamant about continuing this journey, I couldn't stay annoyed with her. She was strong and she didn't need m e to suffocate her like her dad and brother did all her fucking life.

She was a queen, with or without me, and yeah I was worried about her, but I'd be there with her. I won't let any shit come to her or our pup.

Yeah, that was still hard to get my head around, but I was sure fucking trying We had showered, eaten and were now back on the road. Kiara was quieter but I often saw her placing her hand on her stomach, smiling ever so slightly.

That shit confused me. How was she so happy already? In a fucking perfect world, having a pup way later would have been ideal. But nothing about this fucking world was perfect or ideal. I know I'm already thirty-four and I know some would say it's fucking time, but I could have waited a few more years.

Let her get to that place where she was ready and happy. I've fucked her up in more ways than one.

Maybe I needed to show I cared in some physical way that didn't involve pinning her against the wall and fucking her. Maybe do some mushy crap that girls liked.

The very thought made me internally cringe but I wanted to give her that fairy-tale night that I destroyed on the Blood Moon. Give her a memory to cherish...

"Al..." I looked at her. It seemed like she was going to join the small group that called me that. D "What do you think you will find in this forest?" "There's a high chance it's their main hideout." I said, frowning.

She looked surprised. "Then why go alone?" "Better chance to get in unnoticed, my aim is to see if I can gather any more intel before planning an attack." There's a chance we'll get caught .

" She said , frowning . " Yeah , but I didn't want to sacrifice countless men without even knowing what's there . With the new knowledge , I'm hoping I can get to the Rogue King .

If he gets it , maybe I can show him we are not the fucking enemy , and if that doesn't work then we kill him . Rogues don't follow anyone , this fucker's got them listening . If he's dead , it'll unravel that army .

Besides , I'm a Lycan , I usually work alone . Werewolves all submit to my command somewhat , well , all but you . " " And if the witch is there ? " She asked . " Guess we'll see when we get there ... Promise me one thing , if I tell you to run , you will . " I said , now dead serious . Her heart thudded .

" I already have a bad feeling about it . I can't abandon- " " Promise me , Kiara . " I said dangerously . We were going into the fucking unknown , and I knew the risks were high . I also knew that if worse came to worse , I could buy her enough time to run .

" How can you expect me to promise you- " " Fine , if not for me , do it for the pup . " I said quietly . I saw the hurt and fear in her eyes . " I have a way to alert Darien if shit goes wrong and they will come for you

But " Why does this feel like you know things won't go right ?! " She shouted , her eyes flashing a dazzling purple .

" Look , it's a fucking witch I don't know what to expect . You heard that spell bag , if you're caught , shits going to get way fucking worse . I need you safe . Amore Mio , don't make this fucking harder for me ?

Please .

" She looked down . " So ... You're asking me to leave you in danger and run ? " She said , " Could you do that if I asked you to ? " Fuck , why did she have to turn that shit back on me ? " You're pregnant . " I said firmly . " I won't die so fucking easily . It's just easier for m e if I'm alone . So worse comes to worst , if I say run , you run . " A lie , pregnant or not , I didn't want her to get hurt or risk her getting killed . She sighed but didn't answer me . I reached over , taking her hand in mine , kissing her knuckles softly .

I wouldn't go down that easily ... But I needed to be ready for shit ... We had stopped for lunch and picked up some food for later as well . Although we could eat raw meat in wolf form , I wasn't sure if Kiara would be up for that .

I was glad she was in early stages of pregnancy , meaning she could shift . Usually , she wolves wouldn't be able to shift after the ten – week mark .

So , if she needed to run she could . With her ankle , I just hoped she'd be ok . I had seen how her purple aura seemed to help her when we fought the Wendigos and although she seemed to be channelling and using her powers well , I didn't want to take risks .

I just had to fucking hope for the best . We had reached the forest a few hours later and I parked up on the outskirts of a human town nearby .

We got out of the car after applying anti scent spray . It didn't work for me as I could still smell her perfectly . It was the same with any of my men , but apparently it worked well for normal werewolves .

I took up a backpack containing a few bits that might come in handy and turned to face Kiara . " I got this made for you . " I said , holding out a foot long staff made of the strongest steel I could get my hands on . The centre had a leather grip , right next to a button . I held it out as she looked at it curiously . Pressing the button and allowing the two slim but very sharp spears to be extracted . At full height , it was about 6 feet . I had asked for this to be made before we even had sex ... I had thought it was ideal for her to carry if anything happened and she couldn't really walk around with a staff . She almost dropped it before she smiled . Her eyes shone as she spun it . " Oh wow Wait , you got this made just for me ? " " No for Selene . " I stated , crossing my arms . She rolled her eyes as she tested it on the ground . " It's strong and sturdy . " She said as she spun it , she threw it up and caught it . " And sharp enough to slice your fingers off , so careful . " I said . She nodded , brushing her finger over it as she admired the craftsmanship . " It's made of the strongest metal out there ; I hope you like it . " I said . She looked up at me and smiled . She pressed the button as she closed it and walked over to me , locking her arms around my neck . This feeling ... It felt foreign yet so perfect ... I pulled her close , the tingles felt so fucking good ... I sure as fuck could get used to this . " I don't like it , I love it . " She said , her fingers grazing my neck as she tugged me down and kissed my lips deeply . I kissed her back , my hand squeezing her ass and making her press herself into me . We kissed hungrily , both wanting more , and I lifted her up by her perfect behind , making her moan . I loved how she fought for dominance as I ravished her mouth , slamming her against the car . She gasped , but I knew I wasn't that rough . She looked up at me , her eyes a vibrant purple . " You like being rough , huh ? " She asked , twisting her hand painfully into my hair . A pain I fucking relished . " We both know you liked it . " I said huskily , wrapping one hand around her neck .

" So , tell me , who fucked you best ? " Shit question , but I wanted to hear it . Her heart hammered as she looked me straight in the eye . " You already know the answer to that . She whispered seductively .

I smirked . Now that was what I fucking liked to hear . " I still want to fucking hear it .

" I said , tightening my hold . Fuck , I wanted to forget everything and just fuck her . Even if I was trying , it wasn't fucking easy . " You . You are all I want , now and forever . "

Her Cold-Hearted Alpha chapter 94

The Forest KIARA We had been walking for a while , and with each step , the ominous feeling had only grown . The forest was approaching and the darkness that I felt from it made me sick to my stomach . "

You ok ? " Alejandro asked .

" " There's darkness here Al ... A lot of it We shouldn't have come here , not alone ... Something was at work here and it wasn't good . " I can sense that much . Is it magic ? " " Magic that has already embedded deep i In this forest ... I can't see any visible remaining magic from here anyway .

" I said as he took my hand , intertwining his fingers with mine as we continued . The closer we got to the forest , the worse the feeling got . Things were not going to go well ; I knew deep down that whatever we found would be something neither of us was prepared for . I just wish I knew more . " Alejandro ... " "

Kiara ... Do you want to go back ?

I can get you to safety first . " He said , looking at me with a deep frown on his face and concern in his eyes . There was no way I was going back ! I needed to stay with him . I shook my head , I wasn't scared , I just knew something bad was ahead .

We walked through the dense forest , over thick tree roots and I had to ignore the pain that shot up my ankle . I knew my aura did help me with that pain , but I couldn't use it here and risk the chance of getting caught .

I think I needed to get my training regime back in place when we got back , and I needed to learn to channel this power without the chance of attracting a swarm of Wendigo's . " Alright , get on my back , I'm going to run . " He said , his eyes glowing red .

" What is it ? " I whispered , as he turned and crouched , allowing me to grab onto his back . I wrapped my legs around his waist , inhaling his intoxicating scent . " Wolves . " He replied , making my heart thud as he broke into a run that took my breath away . He was fast . His speed was quicker than even what we could do in wolf form ... Maybe I was worrying for no reason . I closed my eyes , seeing if I could pick up anything past the rush of wind in my ears . But there was nothing that I could hear .

He stopped suddenly , crouching down . I tried to listen but heard nothing . " We've found something . " He whispered slowly , lowering his voice to barely a whisper . It was then I heard paws padding along , the crunch of leaves or gravel under their feet .

Then came the faint smell of rogues and the putrid rotting smell of a Manangal . " Make sure it's tied ! " Someone barked . Alejandro placed a finger to his lips , telling me to remain calm . There was the sound of scuffling , thudding and some roars along with growls before I heard the chilling shriek of the beast . " Careful ! " The same man growled . I guess they didn't have a mind link between them , considering they were all rogues . That would be one advantage for s later ... But then again , right now , neither did we ...

I looked at Alejandro , who was observing them , before he motioned me to follow .

We crept closer , remaining out of sight , soon the sounds and footsteps were all fading away . " There's a cavern entrance ahead . It's barely noticeable and pretty narrow . Let's follow . " He said . Opening the bag he was carrying , he took out two large vials . " What are those ? " " Sleeping gas , works perfectly on werewolves .

If I use these , I need you to cover your nose and hold your breath for 3 or 4 seconds . ” He said , shoving them into his pockets . I nodded slowly . I knew Alejandro had weapons crafted to kill the beasts and many other things , but looking at him like this reminded me of Hunters . They were practically non – existent here in the United Kingdom , but from stories I’ve heard , there were places where hunters were a lot stronger , who hunted our kind relentlessly and they used weapons similar to what Alejandro was holding . ” That’s ... a good idea ... ” I said . He gave me a cold smirk .

” I have fought alone for most of my life . I used to help Raf at times if the job looked good , but as a Lycan , werewolves can’t really keep up . Weapons and devices like these against those fuckers are the best shit to help get the job done faster . ” He said , now standing up . ” I see ... ” I said , ready to do this .

He looked down at me , now cupping my neck with one hand , sending a shiver of pleasure through me .

” Remember what I said . If I say run , fucking run . ” He said huskily . ” Ok . ” If I felt staying was better , I would stay . I reached up and locked my arms around his neck , pulling him closer .

He let go of my neck , snaking his arm around my waist instead and pulling me into him . Our bodies crushed together as our lips met in a passionate , deep kiss . My eyelids fluttered shut as I melted into him . I would never be able to get enough of this . I felt him throb against my stomach and I moved back slightly breathless . ” Getting turned on ? ” I teased .

” Can’t fucking blame me , I live on sex . When you’re teasing me by just being in the same fucking space , what did you think would happen ? ” He said , his eyes trailing over my body .

” Well enjoy , because you’re the one who refused me . ” I said smugly , licking my lips slowly . The next thing I knew , I was being pushed against the tree , with Alejandro kissing me roughly .

I couldn't even breathe at the speed of his assault on my mouth and lips .
I gripped his shoulders , trying to ignore his hard shaft pressing against me . I moaned softly , doing my best to keep my voice low , despite the dizzying effect of the delicious sparks that rushed through me . My core throbbed and I knew he'd smell my arousal .
I wanted him . So badly ... " Fuck love , do you want me to fuck your brains out right here . " He growled , squeezing my throat . I moaned , the move only added to how turned on I was feeling . " I wouldn't mind that ... " I said breathlessly .
Oh goddess , he was messing with my head . I just wanted him . Was this crazy ? I mean , we were at the enemies doorstep and all I wanted was to feel him between my legs ...
" I assure you , the moment I decide to ravage you ... I will not stop , not even when you scream for mercy ... I told you I'm a monster ... and I meant it . I'll be fucking you like a beast ... " His free hand massaged me between my legs and I felt m y cheeks burn as a sigh escaped my lips .
I already knew he was a beast when it came to sex and his words were only making m e throb . " I can't wait . " I said breathlessly , watching his eyes flicker from red to black .
He gave me a sexy arrogant smirk
" You were made for me . You're a fucking Nympho , Amore Mio. " He kissed my lips sensually before forcing himself back . I smiled , hearing those words from his lips just made me feel so special .
I took a deep breath to clear my head , the sexual tension that had seemed to overcome us now dissipating as we both focused on exactly where we were . " Right , let's get this shit done .
" He said , glancing through the trees as the setting sun cast shadows through the forest . He held his hand out to me and I took it with a smile as he picked up his backpack and w e snuck towards the entrance . I wonder what we'd find inside ...

The Dark Witch

ALEJANDRO

We moved silently . The darkness within the cavern surrounded every corner , and more than that , I could feel the evil that lingered . I kept a tight hold on her hand , my eyes , ears and nose keeping an sense out for the smallest sound . There were several tunnels branching off and even some doors . The further down we went , the more the place seemed to get deeper .

It was a fucking maze in here . The only problem was if Kiara had to escape ... I tried not to think of that , but this place was fucking confusing . ” The magic is getting stronger . ” She whispered to me .

I could sense the chilling darkness that was growing with every step , and it sure a s fuck wasn't due to the cold air that surrounded us . The sounds of growls and shrieks soon caught my ears , I slowed down as the noise only got louder . Slowing down further when the smell of Manangal's and Wendigo's filled my nose , we were getting closer to them

We turned a corner and I stopped as I looked at the lines of cages that were built into the stone . Each one held a Wendigo or Manangal . There were loads , I could see how the halls branched off in several places , and each one led to more cages .

Fucking hell , if these were ever released at once ... I didn't even want to think of that shit ... I frowned at the very thought . Kiara leaned closer , her lips brushing my ear , sending a shiver of pleasure through me . ” Shall I heal them ? ” She whispered .

” No ... We can't risk your powers being sensed . ” I murmured back . For all I knew , they already knew we were here . Although I was reigning in all my aura , there was still a chance ...

The biggest was the fact we were able to walk i n so easily . We continued silently until I saw the faint glow of light from somewhere far ahead and stopped . The very faint murmur of voices made me strain my ear , I needed to get slightly closer . I inched closer until the sounds began to make sense . I knew Kiara wouldn't be able to hear but I couldn't risk those talking , hearing us either . " long ! " A voice that I recognised spoke . I frowned . What the hell was happening ? How ... " Calm down . We had a deal ! " A deeper voice growled . I could sense the power from him and I wondered if this was the Rogue King . " A deal that cost me greatly ! You promised me revenge ! But all I got was the loss of my beloved ! " The man sobbed . " You will get the revenge you seek . Be patient . " The deeper voice came . " When ? Who more can I lose ? " I clenched my jaw , anger filling me , and it took my all not to snap . I felt Kiara's hand soothingly caress mine . I knew she sensed my anger , although she had no idea what was being said . " There is a lot you can lose Alpha . This is all for the greater cause . Do you really think the Lycan will allow you to live and rule your pack ? He doesn't care who dies . He doesn't care for any of us . " " I know ... I want to make another deal with you . " A deep guttural growl echoed around us and I knew Kiara probably heard that . " Making deals with me ?! Know your place . " He hissed . " You weren't even able to do a s I asked ! " " That's not true , I have done it ! Despite everything , I still did my part ! The pack is completely destroyed ! The news will reach the Lycan King very soon . " What pack ? This didn't make sense . What was their plan ? " Good ! Do not address him as a king , he is just a mutation ! A defect ! I am the true king ! " The man growled . So , my fucking assumption was correct . This man was definitely the rogue fucking king . I was the one fucking king , not because I was a Lycan , but because I enacted a fucking law and established order . Since my reign , pack fights and deaths have been fewer ... I've even offered rogues a pack to join " Y – yes of course ... Please , I have a deal I want to put forth " The Alpha pleaded . My anger was only growing . How many fucking snitches did I have around me ? What the fuck did the rogue – fucking – king offer that was better than what he already had ? I had treated him well despite his fucked up family's past . " What do you want ? " The would – be king spat . At least we had that in common , no fucking patience for fuckers . " The blessed wolf ... May I take her as my mate ? " @ My eyes flashed and I would have fucking gone and tore them to fucking shreds if Kiara's arms didn't wrap around my waist . I knew she was only acting on my emotions . How dare they even think that Kiara would be theirs ?! She was mine , only fucking mine . If anyone thought that she'd be with someone else , then they were in for a fucking disappointment . 9 A raucous laugh echoed down the halls . " You ? A pathetic , useless Alpha . Why do you think you deserve her ? Selene's blessing will be mine ! With her by my side , I'll be recognised as the true king . If you want to even be recognised as an Alpha , then you better obey me ! " " But ... " A menacing growl rumbled off the walls , and the Alpha went silent . I frowned . How much power did he have that he could make an Alpha submit ? " Is she ready to do her part ? " The king hissed . " She is , she won't fail us . " The Alpha said , sounding broken and defeated . But I didn't have one fucking ounce of remorse for the fucker . When I got my hands on him ... I was going to destroy him completely and disband his fucking pack . The son of a fucking coward , seemed to clearly be a fucking coward too ... And who the fuck did they mean by ' she ? ' I doubted it was the witch ... It was at that moment that Kiara tugged me . 2 Her eyes were wide and her heart was racing . I got so distracted I didn't even realise . " The witch is near . " She whispered . I knew a witch would sense us , regardless of how much our scent was disguised . Witches didn't need noses to catch something ... my gaze flickered to the metal chain tucked into Kiara's top .

A sliver of concern for my pup filled me . I pulled her close placing my hand on her stomach fleetingly didn't want her to know ... I was worried about them both . Fuck this feeling was foreign ... My heart thudded as I wrapped my arms around her tightly . Inhaling her intoxicating hazelnut scent before I moved back . " Time to get this shit done .

" I murmured , wrapping my arm around Kiara's waist . I lifted her off the ground , startling her as I broke into a run , heading straight towards the voices . In a flash , I was there , dropping Kiara to her feet .

Immediately she had her staff in hand , pressing the button to expand it , readying herself . I stared at the two men before me . One I had never seen before , but he was strong .

The aura of an Alpha surrounded him , despite the distinct scent of a Rogue , and what fucked me up the most was that he looked familiar ... Too fucking familiar for comfort . But first ... I snapped my gaze towards the other werewolf . " Alpha fucking Jake , " I spat venomously as Kiara gasped , looking at the man who had been cowering on the fucking floor . In panic or on instinct , who fucking knows , Jake lunged at us . Kiara's aura wrapped around her but I didn't want to deflect the fucker .

There was only one thing he deserved . Death . I ripped his neck clean off his body and tossed him aside like he was nothing , before he even had a chance to realise what had happened .

He was dead . My eyes now returned to the man before me . The King's shock vanished , his dark eyes flashing a brilliant gold as he growled . " Well , looks like the fake King has made his appearance . " He hissed resentfully . " I'm the one and only fucking King . Remember that . " I growled back . " One who cares for no one but himself . ” I could sense the sinister darkness approaching .

I needed to do this fast before she came . If the other witch’s assumption was correct , Endora could be manipulating the Rogue King . + ” Look ... I know we’ve never fucking met , but I’m here to help . We came to help cure the Wendigo’s willingly . We don’t need to fight . ” I said urgently . This wasn’t my fucking style , but as a king , I knew who came first . ” You don’t want to help , I know how you work . ”

He said coldly .

My eyes flashed . ” You don’t know us . I never knew I could reverse the process , but when we realised I could , we came here . ” Kiara added , sincerity clear in her eyes . It seemed she knew how to play along well . But I also knew she wanted to help .

” Does it look like she’s fucking lying ? ” I asked coldly . The sound of heels against the stone floor made me tense . She was here ... I saw Kiara’s colour drain , I knew it was the effect of the magic .

Magic that even I could feel so strongly now . It was pure darkness ... Even the darkest of beasts never carried so much evil ... My blood ran cold as the scent of the witch hit my nose .

The smell of a witch ... but mixed with that , was a scent I knew ... I turned slowly , my heart slamming against my ribs as the woman finally entered the cavern . > Her long black hair was woven into a braid over her left shoulder , her tanned skin contained several rune marks covering her left cheek , neck and hands .

Her dark chocolate – coloured eyes glittered as they met mine . I stepped back as a storm of emotions crashed down on me . Shock , confusion and disbelief mixed with so many more I couldn’t make out .

I felt fucking suffocated . How was this fucking possible ? ” It’s been a long time . ” Her strong , warm voice echoed off the walls . I ran a hand through my hair , trying to fucking make sense of this shit . I couldn't form a sentence and it wasn't because of the darkness she had brought with her .

I managed one word , my voice coming out hoarse and thick , laced with utter disbelief . " Mom ? "

Lies

I didn't even register Kiara's gasp as I placed my arm around her waist , holding her close . I stepped back

, placing distance between the Rogue King and I as I stared at the woman before me . It was her ... yet it wasn't ... I didn't know what to think .

That day , coming to and seeing those body pieces spread across the floor . Her hand ... Her ring ... The guilt that I had killed her ... I didn't want to believe it ... The woman I remembered as my mother was nothing like the woman before me .

She was ... kind ... sweet ... loving ... Rafael reminded me of her ... a lot .

Not only did I feel like my whole fucking life was a lie ... But it meant that even before her ' death ' ... She couldn't have love me ... or she wouldn't have made me go through that shit ... Through the pain and shock , I was feeling the stark truth that she had faked her death , and it hit me like a fucking hard slap across the face .

She had let me live with the guilt that I had murdered her . Because of that , I was afraid to be around those I cared for . I told myself I didn't care ... Shut everyone off ... My heart was pounding and if it wasn't for Kiara's presence , I don't know what I would have done .

All I know is if she hadn't done that ... I wouldn't have become so fucking closed off ... I had still killed the man who angered me but not the mother I loved . Or should I say the mother I thought I loved , it seems

I didn't even know her ... " Alejandro ...

" She spoke , a smile on her face . It made me sick . Despite her scent being familiar , I realised that I couldn't smell her wolf . Did she sacrifice it for power ? Just the way she had done for the women at Zidane's pack ? " Don't stand there and fucking call my name as if nothing happened . " I spat coldly , my aura fully unleashed as it filled the room like a blanket . I saw the flash on the rogue fucker's face at the level of my power . Yeah , he may be strong , but I was fucking stronger . " It was all for a cause , Alejandro ...

You have become the man I wanted you to become . " She said stepping closer . I saw Kiara's aura flare around her . " Stay away . " She growled . The power emanating from her was fucking strong .

It was blazing around her , but unlike last time when I couldn't even get close , it wasn't affecting me .

Sure , I felt the pressure , but it wasn't fighting against me . I watched the witch , not sure if I should call her Endora or Mathilde because I sure as fuck would never address her as Mom again ... She lost that right the moment she played dead .

I guess I'll go by her real fucking name ... She paused , and I didn't miss her tense at Kiara's power . " I am talking to my son , a son whose mate turned out to be most ideal ... "

She said , her eyes travelling over Kiara . " If you even for one fucking moment think that I'd ever side you , then you are fucking delusional . " I spat . " All these fucking years you've been alive ... " She smiled slightly .

" I had to do what was needed . " She said , her eyes glinting . The story the witch had told us about her past flashed through my mind . She had always been a hybrid ... but she kept it hidden . How ?

Concealment spell ? Probably ... " What the fuck is your plan ? " I growled . " To restore the correct king .

" The rogue fucker spoke . I looked at him , feeling my stomach fucking twist . I knew where this shit was going ... " Alejandro ... Meet your brother , Marcel . " Kiara gasped as I looked at him . Yeah , I was kind of expecting that ... He looked a lot like Dad ... and Rafael . I don't even know what to make of this shit ... " I don't get what's going on . " The Rogue , or should I say , Marcel said . Endora smirked slightly . Her eyes glowed and I felt the darkness growing . " You need not think . " She whispered , her voice seeming to come from every corner of the room . Kiara tensed as I watched Marcel's eyes glaze over . So , he was partially under her fucking control . " So , this is what you've done to your own fucking son ? Made him into a fucking puppet ? " " I've waited for far too long to let anything stand in my way . Alejandro ... Together we can rule more than just this country . " She said . Fucking psychotic bitch . Yeah , I knew once I was alone I'd feel this fucking betrayal , but right now ... I was fucking pissed . " Oh yeah ? What's your fucking plan then ? I asked venomously . KIARA I was shocked when Alejandro said ' Mom . ' The woman he had been beating himself up about killing was still alive , and worse , she was the one who was behind it all . I could sense his emotions . He was in turmoil , despite how his facial expression seemed just pissed off , I could sense the storm brewing within him . I held on to him , hoping that it helped somehow . Now looking at Marcel , I could see how much he looked like Rafael . They looked around the same age as well . " My plan ? If it's appealing , will you side with me ? " Endora asked , her eyes glimmering red as she looked at Alejandro . I could feel her magic seeping closer . It seemed she didn't know the extent to my ability . Even I didn't , but I would just watch for now ... " Depends . " Alejandro said . I knew he was smooth enough , but I saw from the small hint of a smirk on Endora's lips she wasn't stupid . " You have turned into a fine man , Alejandro . " She said , now playing with an amulet around her neck . Was that the one Janaina wanted ? I wonder what it does ... " Yeah , depends on what angle you look at that shit . " He growled . " What about Dad ? Is he dead or is the fucker alive ? " " You killed your father , Alejandro

. My mate ... ” Her eyes glimmered with tears that were utterly fake . I could feel her aura , sense her emotions and my annoyance was growing . ” Don't really care . He was a fucker . ” Alejandro said .

” Yes , of course . ” Endora agreed . No ... he wasn't . I looked at her sharply . She had made him that way

... I was sure of it . It was one of those things I could just sense ...

Alejandro frowned . ” Fine . So , what's your fucking plan and who the fuck is he ? Like , how did you have another son no one knew of ... ? ” ”

Rafael's younger twin . I was told by a seer witch that my second born would be a power that could rival anything . A child who would be powerful beyond measure , a king of our kind , one who would create his own kingdom and rule us all .

I misunderstood it and thought it meant Marcel . She meant my second pregnancy , not my second child

. Sadly , he was just an average Alpha . ” I didn't miss the bitterness in her voice .

” So , you fucking raised him to be a fucked up wannabe king ? ” He spat . ” Your father thought he died in childbirth and that was the plan , then when you were born . I didn't think much of it , waiting for Marcel to become what prophecy foretold . A king that I trained him to be . ”

” Wouldn't Dad have sensed the bond of a second son ? ” ” I'm a witch Alejandro , a hybrid . It isn't hard to cut a pack link and your father simply thought his son died ...

” Her tiny smile faded . ” But then you were such a strong pup and I realised that the prophecy was meant for you . I couldn't take you away from the pack as your birth had drained me of most my magic .

I was weak for years after , only hoping that I could keep my witch side a secret . I needed to leave to grow and regain my powers , by certain means ... ” I knew that she probably meant dark magic .

The world had a balance . Her birthing Alejandro and her powers diminishing were probably meant to be

, but she was working against the very rules and law of nature . ” So that's why no one knew ... and Dad never realised your truth ? ” Alejandro asked coldly . ” No. ” She said .

Lie . I knew that one was a lie ...

She had probably bewitched him too . A sudden thought came to me and I frowned ...

Did she instigate her mate against Alejandro , s o he would begin to feel hatred towards his own son ? To make Alejandro become hateful ?

Even though it was just an assumption , I was sure I could be right . It would fit right in ... ” So , why the fuck did you fake your death ? ” Alejandro spat icily . ” Like I said , a cause .

To make you stronger , to show you who you are . So , when the time was right , I would return and show you where you truly belong . We can rule together . Over all races .

The wolves , the witches and the vampires . With you , a Lycan leading us , the use of a blessed one and I

, one of the strongest witches in the world , we can become a force beyond reckoning ! “

Power

KIARA

” You’re fucking crazy . ” Alejandro said icily . She frowned slightly , her eyes glimmering . I let my aura out , allowing it t o swirl around our feet , keeping her dark magic at bay .

I wasn’t sure if I could fight her off , but ... I could try . I was working purely on instinct here . One thing was clear : She was derailing

Alejandro’s mind , trying to get into it and manipulate him .

Not only by words , but magic was at work here too . He was strong but I had to still b e careful . ” So , you won’t help me ? ” She asked , her face turning angrier . ” No. I’m not your fucking son , nor your fucking puppet .

You’ve been accountable for so many fucking lives lost . Do you think I’d ever agree ? Other countries know about me , they are setting up similar councils .

We don’t need to do anything more . When it comes to witches , do whatever the fuck you want . But do not for one fucking second think I'd ever forgive you for all the crap you put me through ! I almost gave my mate up because of you ! He growled , his eyes blood red and his claws elongating . I felt the pure rage and anger rolling off him .

" Alejandro ... don't make a rash decision . One way or another , I have worked far too hard to let you or anyone else mess with my plans . I gave you the option to stand by my side , but if you wish to deny it , then it is your loss .

" She hissed . So , her true colours were coming out . I glanced at Marcel . We could show him the truth

... He was just a pawn ... Could I undo the magic on him just as I was able to reverse the Wendigo mutation ? There was only one way to find out . " You're messed up .

" Alejandro growled at his mother . I stepped back slowly , letting go of Alejandro's arm . Instantly

Endora's eyes snapped to me . I ignored her , pretending I was just engrossed in her words as I hugged Alejandro , slowly inching around him and leaning my head on his other shoulder . She looked away from me , glaring at Alejandro .

" I am doing what is our right . We are from the purest werewolf blood , Alejandro .

From the very line that the first Lycan was born of . This is our birth right . " Her voice sounded slightly unearthly and I felt the wave of power coming closer . I made sure to keep my own aura pressed against it . Whatever she was trying to do to Alejandro was not going to happen .

Not under my watch . " I'm going to have to burst your fucking bubble then . I will never side with you .

Not now . Not fucking ever . " Alejandro said quietly . " Alejandro ... If you are certain , then I will unleash hell upon every pack of wolves out there . " She said . " And I will be there to stop you .

" He said quietly , as I reached behind me and touched Marcel's arm , slowly channelling my power while maintaining a protective aura around us . It was clearly working as a barrier , keeping Endora's magic away from us , but doing both was proving harder than I thought ...

" Let me ask you three questions . Answer them honestly . " He said quietly . " I owe you nothing , Alejandro . If you do not wish to side with me of your own free will , then I will make sure you do by force . " Endora said coldly .

" Answer me first . Then do whatever the fuck you want . " He said coldly . " What do you want to know ?

" She asked just as coldly . It seemed his refusal had completely blinded her , and she was so angry she wasn't even paying attention to me .

I felt the magic seep away from Marcel but it took a chunk out of me . I felt tired , like I had just trained for a few hours I knew when the effect drained off , he would come back , but I wasn't sure if he'd realise Endora was in the wrong ... " Why did Dad hate me ? " Alejandro asked quietly . I motioned discreetly to Marcel not to move , hoping he understood . " You are born to be hated , and to rule . No one will ever love you , Alejandro . " Endora said snidely . " That's not true . " I answered icily , making her attention snap to me . I instantly wished I hadn't spoken ... If she told Alejandro the truth that I had assumed , then it would just hurt him even more ...

" Hmph , well maybe not . Perhaps I ... influenced him on how to behave I tried t o do it with Rafael but the boy seemed immune to spells . I guess he inherited some of my abilities . " She spat resentfully .

" So , you're saying you made Dad say all that shit ? You made him dislike me ? " Alejandro said , his heart racing at the revelation . My heart was breaking for him , I wanted t o take away all his pain . " All for a good cause , Alejandro . " Endora taunted .

" Now what else do you want to know ? " " Jake ... Why did he side with you ? " " Oh that pack owed me a life debt and w e witches always collect . His father worked for me and never repaid that debt , so Jake had to , but the fool was utterly useless .

" She spat . I frowned , I never sensed evil from him ... But then again , I only met him fleetingly . Perhaps he was just forced into this ... We would never know . But for him to have been a part of this plan all along , made my blood run cold . Her power was growing and I knew she was just buying time too . Alejandro seemed too stunned to even say anything . His turmoil filled emotions were swirling around him . I decided to take over , I had a plan to get Marcel on our side but for that he needed to hear the full truth . " Why did you lie to Marcel about the Wendigo's and Managal , when you were the one who created them ? " I asked . She laughed mockingly .

" You stupid bitch ! Why do you think ? It was all for the cause . When I have you , just wait to see what I create , an entire army of wendigo's I will rule alone , I need nothing or no one .

" She spat . Alejandro growled , snapping out of his trance . " You're wrong . You need me , don't you ? " I asked coldly . " Kiara . " Alejandro warned , I knew he didn't want her to direct her wrath on me , but I didn't really care . She had hurt my mate far more than she ever should have .

A mother is someone who fights the entire world for her children , not mentally abuses them as she had done . " So , it was all lies . " Marcel said quietly . Her look of surprise was one I would never forget . "

You ...

" Her eyes snapped to me and she whispered something . " Not this time . " I said , letting my power out . Taking a deep breath , I closed my eyes , letting my senses spread to every corner of the room .

I fuelled all my anger , pain and fury towards her for what she did to Alejandro , and I felt the flame ignite within me . " What are you doing ?! " She shouted . I opened my blazing eyes , just in time to see Alejandro lunge at her .

" No ! " I shouted . A black blast of power knocked him back , but he held his ground , pushing against her powerful force field . He shifted as his aura worked against her powers . The room was swirling with three different powers , each working to their full capacity .

A battle of power and wills .

" If you will not side with me , then there's no use for you ! " I felt the surge of power within me growing , the shrieks of the Manangal's and Wendigo's reacting to my filled my ears .

My heart thumped as Marcel rushed towards Alejandro , shifting as he rammed against the wall assisting him . " Look at that , the rogue mutt is helping his younger brother ! " Endora scoffed .

Those words alone let the blast of power roll off me , knocking everyone to the ground . Her powers dissipated as I rushed towards her , my staff raised . " If I were you I'd save my mate . " Endora hissed , whispering a spell . Her eyes glowed red .

I turned my head , my heart pounding in fear as I saw her powers wrap around Alejandro so fast he didn't have time to react .

He growled in rage as her power lashed into him , spearing him with a hundred knife – like blades created from magic . His blood splattered everywhere as he crumbled to the floor , shifting back into his human form .

" Alejandro ! " I screamed , my voice ringing off the walls of the cavern...
