

Belong to the Lycan Alpha by Jikanyotomare Chapter 10

Chapter 10

Lilac couldn't believe what she heard. How could he be so shameless?

"Seeing how shameless you are. I can't believe that you are the alpha." Lilac simply blurted out what was in her mind without thinking about it twice, which Hunter used it to add for his threat.

"That can be counted as an insult for the alpha. I don't know with your pack, but in my pack, if you are caught swearing at an alpha, you will get your tongue cut."

Hearing that, Lilac immediately bit her tongue to stop herself from complaining again. There was nothing good that came from butting head with this man.

Lilac had been really depressed lately, but it didn't mean she wanted to be tortured. Thankfully, her mind still worked just fine to be wise enough not to utter a single word anymore, just in case, she lost her control again.

"Why are you taking me here?" Lilac asked, she was mortified when Hunter took her inside a mansion. This place was the building that was occupied by the lycan during their stay in this pack and Lilac felt so overwhelmed when she saw there were so many lycan here. Their bodies literally towered above her.

"We will go to the party, you need to change your clothes," Hunter replied simply, as he strode across the hall with Lilac close to him.

Everyone bowed their head and glanced at Lilac curiously, because they had never seen their alpha to be with any woman, but right now, he took one into his bedroom? This was something that they had never imagined before.

More so, this woman was a werewolf. Did he actually like a smaller size? Most of the warrior talked to each other about this.

Meanwhile, Hunter took Lilac into his bedroom after he ordered a woman that looked like she was in her mid thirties, to get a new dress for Lilac.

“You don’t need to prepare anything for me, just take me back home, I have my own dress,” Lilac said. Luna Jasmine gave her a few pieces of proper clothes, which was good enough for tonight party

“I don’t like that ugly dress that you are wearing,” Hunter said without any scrupulous and once again left Lilac speechless. “I am tired to see such tacky color.”

“Our pack has our own style to dress up, just because our pack is not wearing the gloomy color like your pack, it doesn’t mean, our way to dress is ugly” Lilac felt a little bit offended when she heard what he said.

However, Hunter simply waved his hand and pointed his finger toward the bathroom. “You can change inside the bathroom, or you can change your dress here in front of me, I don’t mind either.”

Lilac felt her face was feeling hot again when she heard his reckless comment, how could there is someone, who talked very vulgar like him?

Not long after, that same woman came knocking on the door to give a deep blue dress to Hunter, the color was so dark, it almost like the night sky

You know the dark color in my pack is for a funeral,” Lilac said, as she received the dress. From the look of it alone, she knew the dress would be too big for her, but she wouldn’t complain about it Hunter should have already known about it too in one glance, but he gave it to her anyway.

“In that case, in your pack’s eyes, my pack has daily funeral then Hunter sat down on the single sofa and raised his brows. “You are welcome to change in front of me, Lilac”

“What if I don’t want to change the dress and go with you?” Lilac frowned. Her dress was only slightly disty, but if she was wearing the dress from Hunter’s pack, it would cause an uproar and she didn’t want to stir more attention toward her by coming to the party with the alpha from the lycan pack.

“I will demand the punishment for attacking an alpha. Because you have attacked an alpha, it will be a valid reason for me to attack your pack, since it’s a breach of peace treaty.” Hunter didn’t look like he took this matter seriously, but probably it was because that was how he used to be.

In any case, Lilac didn't dare to say otherwise, more so, it sounded so ridiculous to start a war just because she didn't want to change a dress. This man must be looking for an opportunity and excuse to continue his tyrant again.

Without saying much, Lilac went to the adjoint bathroom and changed her dress. The fabric of this dark blue dress was actually way more soft than the one huna Jasmine gave to her, it slid her body down to the floor and because of the length of the dress didn't suit her height, she needed to pull the side of the dress slightly, so it wouldn't sweep the floor.

It didn't take long for Lilac to get out of the bathroom and showed Hunter her oversized dress.

"This dress is not working on me," Lilac stated the obvious. "I will change into my old one."

However, before she could turn around and change her dress again, Hunter had stood up and approached her, he pulled her away from the bathroom and let her stand in front of a body length mirror, while he was standing behind her.

Lilac was surprised to see how face and smooth Hunter's move was, he didn't make any sound.

"You look so beautiful, Lilac," Hunter said in whispery tone against her ear, as he took a belt and wrapped it around her waist to make the length of the dress fit her height.

"Why do you act as if we have known each other before? You act so friendly to me." Lilac could see how her reflection was frowning.
