

Chapter 972 Consider Himself Clever

"Forget it. Let it go."

Zakai did his best to restrain his anger so as not to lose his chance at getting Sally.

He decided not to fall out with Trevor for the time being. He masked his feelings.

However, Trevor had already read his mind and seen through his act.

"Dragon, I've collected enough money to invest in Glory Company. What next? I can't wait to get Sally."

Zakai thought he was successful in his cover-up.

Trevor smiled and said calmly. "No rush. Haste makes waste. Money is not enough.

You'll have to achieve certain things to strengthen the company and defeat your competitors. Only then will you be able to carry out the next phase of the plan."

Trevor didn't want to involve Sally in any of this, so he tried his best to turn Zakai's attention to Cyril.

"Gee." Zakai smacked his lips impatiently.

He cursed inwardly. He believed Dragon must be keeping his methods for picking up girls from him. He was mad. He decided to figure out a way to deal with Dragon.

Upon returning to the company, Zakai thought long and hard before finally coming up with a devious plan.

Putting on a serious expression, he called Trevor to his office.

He took out a big suitcase from the safe box behind him and made a show of setting it on the table.

"Dragon, I have an important task for you. Here is five million dollars in cash. I want you to open a bank account in your name and deposit the company's money into it."

"Deposit the money into my bank account?" Trevor asked, surprised.

Zakai was inwardly pleased, as he maintained his serious expression.

"If it was kept in my account, my father would easily find out, which could lead to trouble. Dragon, I trust you. That's why I'm entrusting this task to you. Don't let me down."

Zakai continued in a threatening tone, "Don't try to swindle me. You know the power the Sanderson family has? If you try anything funny, we will show you there's no escape from us. Be careful! No one steals from the Sanderson family."

Trevor was surprised at first, but he soon began to see what was going on.

Pretending to be scared and excited, he picked up the suitcase.

"Zakai, don't worry."

The two were acting, but Trevor's acting was more real.

In fact, Trevor sneered inwardly.

It seemed Zakai wasn't completely clueless. He knew enough to transfer the risk.

Zakai was worried that his embezzlement of Dooley's money would be exposed sooner or later, so he decided to deposit the rest of the money into Trevor's account.

If it was discovered, Trevor would be the scapegoat.

Nothing would be found in Zakai's account.

Trevor smiled knowingly.

Unfortunately, Zakai had gotten two things wrong.

Firstly, Trevor's identity was fake. All his certificates were faked. He had even planned ahead and created several other fake identities just in case of need before he left Mayfield.

Zakai wanted to put the money into Trevor's account, which had been opened with a fake identity.

Trevor sneered inwardly.

Secondly, Zakai thought the Sanderson family was untouchable and that no one dared to harm them.

But Trevor dared. He was not afraid of the Sanderson family; he wanted revenge!
