

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1186

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1186

“Daddy, Mommy, look! Nigel is blushing! He’s blushing because I said what was on his mind! “

Nigel immediately retorted, “No, you didn’t! “ Nellie laid on Nigel. “I did, I did, I did! “

The two children happily fooled around. Luna and Joshua could not help but smile.

However, Neil, who had been in the corner, looking at them, furrowed his brows a little.

The next second, he kept the Rubik’s cube, stood up, and silently went upstairs. Luna noticed every single action he did. Her smile immediately stiffened.

After a moment, she took a deep breath, lowered her gaze, and looked at the man in the wheelchair.

Joshua was also looking at Neil leaving, clearly noticing Neil’s reaction. “I’ll go have a look, “ said Luna. She took a deep breath and followed Neil upstairs.

Neil silently headed upstairs and walked into the kid’s bedroom. He quietly climbed to the upper bunk bed and lied down on the bed, looking at the ceiling in a daze.

Luna carefully pushed the door and entered. The moment she entered, she noticed Neil staring at the ceiling.

Her heart ached a little.

Silently going back to his room, staring at the ceiling in a daze... These were Neil’s habits whenever he used to feel aggrieved back then.

Whenever Luna used to realize that, Neil would pretend that nothing had happened. He would force a huge smile at her, telling her that he was just thinking about life.

Thus...

Did that mean Nellie and Nigel playing together made Neil, who had lost his memories, feel aggrieved?

Luna bit her lip and entered.

When he heard sounds coming from the door, Neil immediately stood up.

When he noticed that it was Luna, he furrowed his brows. "Do you need something?"

Luna bit her lip.

It was the same Neil, who felt aggrieved.

Neil, back then, would smile when he saw her coming.

However, Neil, at that moment, would only ask her if there was anything in a frosty manner.

Luna had mixed feelings at the huge contrast. She took a deep breath and suppressed the emotions in her heart, slowly walking over and lifting her head, looking at Neil on the upper bunk bed.

"Why did you not stay downstairs? Why are you here looking at the ceiling in a daze?"

Neil swept her a cold glance. "Can't I stay here and think about life while looking at the ceiling?"

Luna paused for a while. "It's not that you can't. I just think that since you're already staying here, you should get along with everyone—"

"How do you want me to get along with everyone?" Neil looked at Luna like a little adult. His words were sharp and cold.

"Your two children have their parents to love them. They live happily and joyfully. What about me? My mother isn't here. My dad openly admitted that I'm not his son the night before.

"I have no one to turn to here, yet you want me to get along with those two fortunate, happy kids. Do you think that's possible?"

Luna was extremely disheartened upon seeing the coldness in Neil's eyes.

She bit her lip and muttered, "Neil..." "I'm not called Neil. I am Jake Landry."

Neil said once again, "Luna...or perhaps I should call you Aunty Luna. Uncle

Theo used to like you before. I don't hate you, too, since I've come in contact with you a couple of times.

"But I now know your true identity, and you know mine, too. You should be clear that my mother and I returned to Banyan City this time to seek revenge on you all.

"So, just save your hypocrisy and stop being pretentious. Please?"

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1187

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1187

Hypocrisy. Pretentious.

Luna could not help but retreat a step back upon hearing those words. She bit her lips and looked at the child in front of her closely.

This was her own child, Neil.

This was Neil who, the moment he knew what happened, would take care of her and his siblings.

Luna was just concerned for her son; what she got in return was being called a hypocrite and being pretentious. She knew that this was not Neil's intention. He would only say things like this because he had lost his memory.

Her heart ached nonetheless.

Luna suppressed the urge to cry, and she tried hard to force a smile.

"Jake, I'm just being concerned for you. It's alright if you don't like it.

Why

do you have to say such hurtful words?"

The hurt in Luna's heart made Neil's heart stutter a little. A kind of emotion similar to heartbreak arose in his heart inexplicably, which made him a little annoyed.

Neil took a deep breath. "Luna, I've already said that my mother and I are here to seek revenge. If you want to use caring for me as a tactic to betray my mother, you're being delusional. Stop wasting your effort. "I won't stay here forever either. A few days later, Joshua is taking me for a paternity test. I'll leave this place after that. I don't want to stay a minute longer with the Lynch family."

Luna clenched her fists tightly. She bit her lip and said, "Why do you think that I have other intentions just because I'm concerned for you?

"Can't I just comfort a saddened, aggrieved child because he got envious and jealous of other kids being happy yet unwilling to join them?"

Neil furrowed his brows tightly upon Luna's words.

"Who are you talking about, being envious and unwilling to join them?

I'm

not! "

Luna smiled. "If I'm wrong, then why are you blushing and being all frantic?"

Neil's face blushed even redder.

"Leave. If you don't leave, I'll find a chance and bully your children! "

Looking at Neil's stubbornness, Luna sighed. Even if he lost his memory, he was still her son. No one understood him better than her.

She crossed her hands around her chest and sat down by the side. "You won't do it."

Luna understood her son. Even if he had lost his memories, his kind-hearted character would not change.

"How do you know I won't do it?" Luna looked at his face.

"It was raining heavily last night, and Joshua and I weren't at home. You were staying with them. Last night was a good chance for you had you wanted to do something, so how could you have done nothing?"

Neil was instantly rendered speechless. He rolled his eyes at Luna. "I don't need to explain myself to you! "

Then, Neil immediately lay back down on the bed, faced the wall, and kept mum.

Seeing how he was ignoring her, Luna sighed. She took the blanket by the bed and draped it over him carefully before turning and leaving. Before closing the door, Luna sighed and said, "I know that you think we're the bad people right now, but you think for yourself. Nigel and Nellie are the same age as you, and they've done nothing wrong to you. They wouldn't be able to do anything bad to you and your mother. If you were to become friends with them, other than gaining happiness, you'd lose nothing." Then, Luna shut the door and left. Hearing the room door being shut behind him, Neil stared at the wall in front of him and sighed heavily. Actually, according to his mother's request, he should have taken action the night before.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1188
Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1188

However, Joshua's face inexplicably appeared on Neil's mind. What happened was... On the night of Luna's birthday, when Neil went to look for Joshua, Joshua did not even seem surprised. It was as if he long expected Neil would turn out. Neil did not bother saying much to him. He immediately picked up the knife and aimed it at Joshua's stomach. However, he could not do it. He knew that as long as he did what his mother asked of him, Uncle Theo would not suffer that much anymore. Neil also knew that Joshua, the man in front of him, was someone who had done something wrong to him. The scumbag who wronged his mother. It would not be a pity if Joshua died. He deserved it. However, the moment Neil picked up the knife, every fiber of his being resisted him. In the end, he still did not stab Joshua.

Looking at him hesitating, Joshua laughed. "Why? You can't do it?"
Joshua smiled and looked at Neil. "But if I'm not hurt, you'll be punished, right?"
Joshua's calm look made Neil, who had the knife in his hand, tremble involuntarily.
Joshua chuckled. "I don't know what plans you have in the future, but I hope you remember that you owe me this time."
Then, Joshua gripped Neil's hand and stabbed himself.
Neil's eyes widened. He looked at Joshua, releasing his hand from the knife.
Joshua's weak voice rang in his ears. "Remember, you owe me this. Now that you've hurt me, you can no longer hurt my family."
Neil, at that time, was so shocked that he was rendered speechless. It was only after a long while did he frantically turn around and leave.
Thinking back about that day, Neil closed his eyes. He thought Joshua would report to the police or seek revenge, but he did not.
Even if he had almost died and almost did not come around, he still did not go after Neil.
It was like the incident did not happen after Joshua gained consciousness.
The night before, because Neil was angry at Joshua for denying his identity publicly, Neil decided to renege on their deal. He immediately picked up the knife and walked to Nellie.
However, a voice in his heart kept stopping him loudly, so...he still gave up in the end.
Neil closed his eyes and sighed. He was still not cruel enough. He was not worthy of being his mother's son. No wonder she did not like him.
Coming out of the kid's room, Luna returned to her room and took a shower.

She went drinking with Anne and Bonnie the night before, and later on, she was drenched in the rain. The smell on her body was unpleasant. Coming out from the shower, her phone rang. It was a foreign number. Luna furrowed her brows. She hesitated for a while before picking it up. "My dear fiancée. Can't you recognize my voice? I'm your fiancé!" Michael's disgusting and lecherous voice came from the other end of the call. "I wanted to call you this morning, but the rain was too heavy, so I waited until the rain subsided to call you." Luna furrowed her brows and bore through the strong urge to hang up the call. "What are you calling me for?" "Of course, there's something." Michael's tone was rather cold. "I wanted to discuss with you our wedding date." Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1189 Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1189 Luna suppressed the detest in her heart. "Michael Lynch, I think you should be clear that our so-called engagement last night was only a ploy due to an emergency. I don't intend to marry you, and I don't want to discuss a marriage date with you either." "Is that so?" Michael, on the other end of the line, chuckled. "But, Luna, the news of our engagement and the photos of you trying to kiss me on stage last night is all over the news. If you were to look at any news channel in Banyan City, you'll receive the notifications." Michael bawled out in laughter. "I'll advise you to immediately meet me right now. Otherwise, I might tell the press how my fiancée is living with her fiancé's brother in the same house..." "Think about what that would do to your reputation." Luna squinted coldly upon hearing Michael's words. After a while, she bit her lip. "Address."

Michael, on the other end of the line, started laughing arrogantly once again.

“I’ll be waiting for you at Bamboo Palace! See you there, darling fiancée! “

Then, Michael hung up. Luna gripped her phone tightly, listening to the disconnecting tone, her mind thrown into chaos.

She turned on the news, and it was exactly like what

Michael had said. The headlines on all news channels online were about her engagement to Michael and the photos of them.

Some had even said that the engagement ceremony that night was a conspiracy between Luna and Michael. They wanted to embarrass Joshua at his engagement ceremony while asserting Michael’s status as the Second

Young Master of the Lynch family.

Luna felt doomed and helpless, looking at the news.

After a while, she simply got dressed and headed out straight away.

“Sir, Ma’am took a taxi to Bamboo Palace.”

Not long after Luna left, the butler knocked on the door and entered the study.

In the study, Joshua furrowed his brows tightly. Bamboo Palace? Who was she meeting at this hour?”

“There is also news from the men you sent to stalk Adrian and Michael. Adrian was still in the hotel, but Michael...

“He took a taxi to Bamboo Palace three minutes ago.”

Joshua narrowed his eyes. Luna was actually going to meet Michael?

What

do they have to talk about?

Joshua irritably put down the documents in his hands. He rolled his wheelchair and headed to the door.

“Get the car ready. We’re going to Bamboo Palace.”

Half an hour later, Luna walked into Bamboo Palace with the documents she had already prepared.

The moment she entered, Michael stood up in the corner and yelled loudly,

“My darling fiancée, over here! “

Instantly, all eyes in the restaurant were on Luna.

The patrons started discussing among themselves in hushed tones. "I saw the news today. They said that this man is Joshua's younger brother.

He even got engaged to Luna. I thought that it was fake news. Who knew..."

"How could she fall in love with such a perverted and lecherous-looking man?"

"You guys, I heard that they announced to the public that it was Luna getting engaged to Joshua. The photos were even of them both, but Luna suddenly changed her mind saying that she was getting engaged to Joshua's younger brother..."

"Joshua must've been so embarrassed..."

The sounds of discussions in the restaurant came in waves. Luna clenched her fists tightly.

She took a deep breath and suppressed the anger in her heart and strode over to Michael.

"My darling fiancée, what took you so long?"

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1190

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1190

Luna just sat down in front of Michael when he laughed. He sipped on his tea as he shot Luna a wink.

"The reporters have been waiting for you for a long time! "

Luna paused a little before realizing outside the floor-length window of Bamboo Palace were a few paparazzi hiding in the dark, taking shots of them.

Luna furrowed her brows. "You called the paparazzi?"

"Of course." Michael smiled. "The status of me being the Lynch family's Second Young Master was reinstated by you last night, darling fiancée. You're so nice to me, and plus, you're my fiancée. Naturally, I'd want the whole world to know that we were on a date! "

Luna narrowed her eyes fiercely. She immediately drew the curtains.

"How despicable! "

Michael laughed. "Thank you for the praise."

He leaned back nonchalantly, looking at Luna. "But, let me remind you that I am now your fiancé. You can simply insult me in any way you like, but all these in other people's eyes are just us flirting with each other. "I, on the other hand, because you're willing to flirt with me, I'll treat you..."

Michael narrowed his eyes as he said in a low voice, "I'll treat you even better. I will not let go until our marriage."

Luna narrowed her eyes tightly. She knew that he was threatening her. She took a deep breath and looked at the arrogant man in front of her fixedly.

"Michael, last night was an accident. You should know that better than me.

Since the ruckus last night has already turned you into the Second Young Master of the Lynch family, known to all in Banyan City, from an illegitimate son with no standing, you should've already gotten what you wanted.

"You don't have to pester me or call me your fiancé anymore. The engagement we had the night before doesn't count."

Michael raised his eyebrows. "So it doesn't count just because you said so?

Everyone at the ceremony the night before saw it!"

Michael took his phone out and showed her the photo of Luna standing on stage, about to kiss him the night before.

"This photo clearly shows how much you like me. You said our engagement doesn't count. What? Are you trying to tell everyone how much of a b*tch you are? First, you tricked Joshua last night, and now you're deceiving me?"

Luna bit her lip harshly. She took a deep breath and looked at Michael.

"Michael, there are things I do not want to put things too bluntly. If you insist on remaining my fiancé, sure. Do you think I won't be able to find out about all your other girlfriends? Do you want me to gather them all and come at you?"

Michael's face turned pale upon Luna's words. He furrowed his brows and said in a suppressed tone, "How did you know about that?"

Actually, Luna knew nothing. She vaguely remembered Joshua saying that Michael was a scumbag who was going out with many women at the same time.

This sort of man should not be truly single at that moment.
Therefore, Luna deliberately took a bet and said such words. She seemed to have hit the jackpot.

Looking at Michael's frantic face, Luna took a deep breath and handed
the documents she had prepared to him.

"This is the agreement I made to call off the wedding. If you announce
the calling off the marriage amicably half a month later, I will give you two hundred thousand dollars."

Luna did not want an irrelevant person like Michael to affect her work of helping Neil regain his memory.

However, she did not expect that Michael merely swept a glance at the documents and threw them aside.

"Two hundred thousand dollars? What do you think I am?"

Luna narrowed her eyes. "Then, name your price."

"My price?" Michael sneered. "I want half of Joshua's fortune."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1191

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1191

Luna narrowed her eyes, looking at this man who thought too highly of himself.

It was because she did not want to get involved with people like Michael,

and that was why she was willing to offer money to settle this incident.

Luna did not feel that 200,000 dollars were little. After all, the engagement

was decided at the last minute the night before. From beginning to end, Michael did not lose out on anything.

Luna did not know where he got the courage and confidence from. How dare

he ask her for half of Joshua's fortune.

Luna took a deep breath, suppressing the rage in her heart as she then shot

Michael a dagger-like stare. "Michael, I know you want to go up against Joshua. I also know that you want the Lynch Group assets in his hands, but..."

Luna sneered. "You want to use my marriage as capital to get Joshua's assets? Aren't you being a little delusional? I'm the one making a deal with you. I'm the one who doesn't want to get married to you. Not Joshua. Do you think you'll be able to get half of Joshua's fortune from me?"

Michael changed into a more comfortable position. He leaned back gracefully on the sofa.

"Why won't I be able to?" He raised his brows and looked at Luna. "If it weren't for Aura Gibson's appearance, making you agree to get engaged with me, you'd already be Joshua's fiancée and his future wife.

"Getting Joshua to give out half of his fortune to redeem his wife back from me shouldn't be too much to ask for, right?"

Luna clenched her fists tightly.

Joshua and she were only getting a fake marriage. Even if the marriage was real, Joshua would never take half of his company's assets to joke around with Michael.

She was never important to Joshua. How could he possibly make such a huge sacrifice for her?

Luna took a deep breath and coldly glared at Michael. "Since you like to dream, dream on! After all, it's just a marriage contract. By then, if I'm not willing to get married to you, what can the Lynch family do? Tie me up?"

Then, Luna immediately picked up her documents, turned, and left.

Michael sneered. He immediately stood up and blocked her way.

"Darling fiancée, where are you heading off to? I'll send you."

Then, Michael said louder, "What? You said you're going to my brother's?"

Darling, you and I are engaged. Isn't it a little inappropriate for you to stay with my brother?"

This immediately caused a ripple. The once quiet restaurant immediately plunged into a cacophony of discussions because of what Michael said. The people around could not help but comment on them in hushed tones.

Hearing some of the harsh comments, Luna gritted her teeth. "Let me go!"

Michael smiled and blocked Luna's way in a thuggish manner.

"What if I don't?"

Luna narrowed her eyes. "If you don't, I'll call the police."

"The police?" Michael raised his hands and lifted Luna's chin, forcing her to meet his gaze.

"Are you getting the police to see us flirt between husband and wife?"

You're

my fiancée now. No matter what I do to you...can be explained as being flirtatious."

Looking at Michael's disgusting face, Luna bit her lip. Finally at her limit, she reached out and...

Slap!

The slap landed brutally on Michael's face. Luna released all of her pent-up anger from the moment she arrived until at that moment in that slap.

Michael's head turned to the side and retreated a few steps out of habit.

Just when he lost his footing and was about to fall, a hand supported him from behind.

It was a man in black who supported Michael from behind.

"Be more careful."

"Thank you." Michael tasted blood. He wiped the blood at the corner of his mouth while turning around to thank the man.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1192

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1192

"No need to thank me. I would've done it, too."

The man's voice was deep and charming. It had hints of mockery and teasing in them, too.

Michael paused for a while and subconsciously turned around to look.

The

man holding him up was no one else but his stepbrother, Joshua.

Joshua was sitting in his wheelchair. His gaze was flat.

“Second Young Master Michael, you really can’t take a beating, can you?”

Such a petite woman like Luna only slapped you once, yet you can’t even stand properly already. Adrian always emphasized health, so how did he bring you up so badly?”

Michael’s eyes widened. He licked his lips and looked at Joshua with rage in his eyes.

“Adrian is also your father! “

Joshua raised his brows and laughed. “Is he worthy to be my father?”

Then, Joshua rolled his wheelchair over to Luna and looked at her calmly.

“So you came here to flirt with him once the rain subsided?”

Joshua emphasized the word „flirt“. Luna pursed her lips. Clearly, Joshua had overheard Michael talking about being flirtatious a moment ago.

She took a deep breath and looked at the onlookers’ gaze. Her voice was calm. “Everyone, don’t be too startled. I „m just flirting with Michael—we’re just fooling around. He likes to be tortured. If I don’t hit him, he’ll be unhappy.“

Then, Luna raised her brows and looked at Michael.

“Am I right, my beloved fiancé? Although my slap was a little heavy, you don’t need to call the police, right?”

Michael glared at Luna angrily. He gritted his teeth and forced out the word,

“Yes.“

Luna suppressed her urge to laugh, and she held the documents close to her form. “I just remembered I had something to do. I’ll make a move first.“

Then, she strode away.

Looking at Luna leaving, Michael was so angry that he wanted to break things.

When he picked up the coffee cup, Joshua, who was in his wheelchair by the side, could not help but smile.

“I’ll have to remind you that the cup in your hands costs five thousand dollars. You can break it, but your father, Adrian, who is in a butt-load of debt, might not be able to help you with it.”

Joshua’s tone was low and aloof, without any emotions in them.

Michael sneered. “Even if my father can’t help me out, I’m still the Lynch family’s Second Young Master! I’ll just get the restaurant to bill it to the Lynch family!”

Then, just to show off his status, Michael threw the cup onto the floor.

Joshua laughed a little.

“Whoever acknowledged you as the Second Young Master of the Lynch family? Just because you hired a few reporters and went around saying you’re the Second Young Master, you became one for real?”

Joshua leaned back on his wheelchair, like an emperor sitting on his throne.

He announced coldly and arrogantly, “The one in charge of the Lynch family is me. The most respected person in the Lynch family is my grandmother.

“Your father, Adrian, is someone who had been kicked out of the Lynch family, and you dare to claim you’re the Second Young Master?”

Joshua looked at the staff of the restaurant by the side and said flatly, “This man who claims to be the Second Young Master of the Lynch family is a con.

He has no relationship with the Lynch family at all.”

Then, Joshua wheeled away gracefully.

Michael gritted his teeth and looked at Joshua’s back.

“What if I called off the marriage with Luna to exchange for the title of the Second Young Master of the Lynch family?” Joshua suddenly stopped in his tracks.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1193

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1193

Seeing Joshua stop, a hint of delight flashed across Michael’s eyes.

This trick worked! Joshua still cared about Luna!

Michael immediately took a deep breath and continued his threats,

“Joshua,

you might not know this, but Luna had offered me two hundred thousand dollars to call off the marriage, but I turned it down. If you're willing to recognize me as the Second Young Master of the Lynch family, I will— " Joshua sneered and turned around. He looked at Michael coldly.

"Why should I get you to call off the marriage?" Joshua interrupted Michael.

His deep gaze bore into Michael. His tone was aloof and condescending. "Since you like to be her fiancé so much, you can continue being her fiancé.

We'll take it slowly."

Then, Joshua turned his wheelchair around and left.

Michael was stunned momentarily before he angrily chased after Joshua.

"Don't you care about Luna? I am her fiancé, and I have the right to do things to her! "

Joshua did not even turn around. "Then, she has the right to do anything she wants to you, too.

"By the way." Joshua stopped in his tracks and said, " You do know that Luna and I have two children, right? The thing my two children hate the most is other people coming in between Luna and me. If you insist on being Luna's fiancé...

"Whatever the kids do to you, no one can deal with them."

Then, Joshua left.

"You! " Michael gritted his teeth. He wanted to chase after Joshua before he was stopped by a staff of Bamboo Palace.

"Sir, you haven't paid the bill. You also have to pay for the cup you broke."

Michael turned to glare at the waiter fiercely. "Don't you know who I am?

I'm the Second Young Master of the Lynch family! Why do I owe you?! "

The waiter sneered. "The Second Young Master who's not acknowledged by the master of the Lynch family. Who the hell do you think you are?"

Upon that, the people in the restaurant started mocking and laughing in hushed tones.

It turned out that the Lynch family did not recognize Michael as the Second

Young Master. It was Michael who hired the reporters to make news about him. He wanted to force the Lynch family's hand! However, he did not expect that not only did the Lynch family not fall for it, but his father was also banished from the Lynch family! The waves of laughter around made Michael's face fluctuate between turning pale and blue. He wanted to run, but he had no money. He could not escape at all. "You people better shut up!" Michael angrily roared. "Young Master Michael, why are you so angry?" Suddenly, a gentle woman's voice rang out. Michael paused for a while before looking in the direction from which the voice came. It belonged to Aura Gibson, the woman from the night before! Aura slowly approached him and passed a card to the waiter. "Charge it to this card, including the broken cup." Then, she could not help but glance at the waiter coldly. "Don't judge a book by its cover. Since he has the Lynch family blood in him, he'll be the master of the Lynch family sooner or later. Perhaps he'll be even greater than Joshua." The waiter accepted the card and immediately rushed to the counter. "Thank you." Michael looked at Aura gratefully. "You have great taste. I'll be better than Joshua sooner or later!" Looking at how smug he looked, Aura sneered. However, it was only a fleeting moment. After that moment, she smiled gently and patted Michael on the shoulder. "Of course, you're much more exceptional compared to Joshua. It's just not your time; you've only lost your rightful powers." Aura smiled and passed a business card to Michael. "Why don't we work together?”

Coming out from Bamboo Palace, Luna immediately got into Joshua’s Masevati parked by the entrance.

Soon after, Joshua, in the wheelchair, came out from the restaurant.

After

passing the wheelchair to Lucas, he got into the car slowly, clutching his stomach which had yet to recover.

“Do you have too much money and nowhere to spend it?”

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1194

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1194

The moment he got in the car, Joshua kept his gaze forward. His tone was indifferent when he spoke.

Luna paused for a while. She knew that he was talking about her planning to give Michael 200,000 dollars to call off the marriage.

She sighed and said, “I just didn’t want to cause more trouble.”

Michael was a scoundrel. The night before, because she was threatened and forced to agree to get engaged with him, the problems that arose after that would come one after the other.

Just like the so-called flirting that just happened, it would happen again.

It was because Luna foresaw that happening that she was willing to use
the

money to get Michael to call off the marriage.

At that moment, all she could think of was how to help Neil regain his memories and how to rescue Theo. She did not have any remaining energy

left to deal with Michael.

“But, if you have any display of weakness, he’ll only take more advantage of you.”

Joshua turned and looked at Luna closely with his deep gaze.

“You don’t have to be afraid of him from now on. If anything, I’m here.”

Luna was completely taken aback by those two short sentences. Her blood

froze. She lifted her head in a daze, meeting Joshua’s dark, black eyes.

After a while, she blushed and looked away. “This is my own matter...”

When she agreed to get engaged to Michael the night before, she did not seek his approval. How could she blatantly ask for his help at this point? “Luna.” Joshua looked at her deeply. “You and I are on the same team right now. If you’re distracted because of Michael, am I to help Neil regain his memories alone?” Luna bit her lip at Joshua’s words. That made sense. He said that he was going to help her solve the problem with Michael because he was afraid that she would be distracted. Luna thought that... She took a deep breath and nodded. “Thank you, then. I might have to rely on you in the future.” Joshua nodded. He closed his eyes and leaned back on the leather seat. “Lucas, drive.” The car moved. Luna looked out of the window. Joshua half-opened his eyes. He looked at her slender and gentle side profile from the cracks of his eyes, and his emotions whirled within him. When would she finally treat him as someone important to her and willingly accept his sacrifices? Blue Bay Villa. Dr. Rowena Shaw came to do a regular check-up on Nigel. The moment she entered the villa, she saw „Nigel“ sitting in the living area, playing with his Rubik’s cube. “Why are you here alone? Where is Nellie?” she said while putting the first aid kit down. She bent down in front of „Nigel“ and took his hand, drawing blood from him. Neil furrowed his brows and looked at the doctor in front of him, not saying anything. He only put his Rubik’s cube down and went along with her. Soon, Dr. Rowena had finished drawing blood. She started extracting other samples.

Neil looked at Dr. Rowena taking all sorts of apparatus to start testing, he could not help but furrow his brows and ask, "Shouldn't you draw Joshua's blood for the DNA test, too?"

Dr. Rowena furrowed her brows. She turned to look at him, confused.

"What DNA test? Nigel, am I not just giving you a regular check-up?"

Neil paused for a while before realizing his mistake. He looked at Dr.

Rowena, picked up his Rubik's cube, and continued playing with his head lowered.

"You've made a mistake. I'm not Nigel. I'm Jake Landry."

Dr. Rowena was completely stunned. She furrowed her brows and looked at the boy in front of her, who looked exactly like Nigel.

"Are you his twin brother?"

Neil did not even lift his head. "No. I'm his stepbrother. We have the same father."

Dr. Rowena was even more shocked. "Then why do you both look alike?"

"Because our mothers are sisters." Then, Neil lifted his head. "Is there a problem?"

Dr. Rowena paused for a while. She looked at the test results in front of her.

"Yes, there is. You and Nigel are definitely from the same set of parents."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1195

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1195

Neil furrowed his brows.

He looked at the female doctor in front of him rather strangely.

"How did you come to this conclusion?"

Dr. Rowena shrugged. She pointed at the indicators of the test she did a moment ago and showed it to Neil.

"Your blood is the same as Nigel's; there are two special types of protein in it. The two special types of proteins are inherited from your parents.

"Joshua, your father, has been my patient before. I've tested this on him before, too. He doesn't have those two proteins in him, so the two proteins you and Nigel have should've been inherited from your mother." Neil rolled his eyes at her. "I've already said that our mothers are biological sisters. There should be genetic material that is the same. Could you be wrong?"

Dr. Rowena furrowed her brows. It would be very rare for biological sisters to possess the same two proteins yet, at the same time, pass it on to the next generation.

If the boy in front of her and Nigel are not identical twins, it would be impossible for them to have the same two proteins at the same time. Dr. Rowena took a deep breath. Before she could think of how to explain such a complex concept to a Six-year-old, a child's voice rang from upstairs.

"Aura Gibson and my Mommy aren't biological sisters."

Nellie slowly walked down the stairs. "Aura has once told my Mommy that she was the wrong child Grandpa picked up from the orphanage."

Neil furrowed his brows tightly. Behind Nellie, Nigel also came downstairs with his laptop.

Both of them walked over to Neil and sat down next to him on each side. Nigel slowly stretched his hands out to Dr. Rowena. "Doctor"

Dr. Rowena nodded and immediately drew blood from Nigel to re-test.

Neil furrowed his brows and looked at Nellie. "But my Mommy said..."

Nellie pursed her lips. "If you don't believe me, find an opportunity to look for Aura. Go get her hair and nail samples, and then get Mommy's hair and nail samples.

"After all, Daddy said he's going to bring you to do a DNA test in the next few days. You could do it at the same time. Bring Aura and my Mommy's DNA along."

"You can check and see whether Aura and my Mommy are biological sisters or not. Then you can check and see whether or not you are Aura's biological son," said Nellie, shooting Nigel a wink afterward. That was not her main intention. If she were to get Neil and Luna to go for a DNA test, Neil would surely refuse. After all, he had lost his memories. He thought that Aura was his mother, that Luna and the rest were all his enemies. Neil would never believe that he was the enemy's child. On the contrary, he would think that they were deliberately trying to humiliate him. If Nellie were to say that Aura and her Mommy were not biological sisters, asking Neil to go and confirm it, he would surely have agreed to it. To get him to gather Aura and Luna's DNA samples, then do a DNA test with his... When the truth would get revealed right in front of his eyes, Neil would definitely believe his own identity! The more Nellie thought of it, the more she felt that she was brilliant. "It's a deal, Jake. I want to know as well. Mommy and Aura's characters are so different. Are they really biological sisters?" Neil furrowed his brows and looked at Nellie. He felt that Nellie's words were a little intentional that day. "I'll...think about it." Then, he took his Rubik's cube and immediately headed upstairs. When he returned to the kid's room, Neil was on his upper bunk bed, looking at the wall, flipping around. His mind was filled with what the doctor said a moment ago. "You and Nigel are definitely from the same set of parents." Neil closed his eyes. How could this be? However, if the doctor did not have any evidence, how could she say such a thing? Also, throughout the day being with them, Neil realized that other than looking exactly like Nigel, a lot of their habits were the same.

For example, Nellie had a sweet tooth, and she liked foods with a stronger taste. However, both he and Nigel did not like it. Another example was how when Nigel was in a bad mood, he also liked to stare at one spot in a daze...

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1196
Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1196

The more Neil thought of it, the more upset he became. It was as if there was a huge boulder sitting on his heart, something that he could not move away from nor ignore. After a long while, he could no longer take it. He picked his phone up and went to the backyard garden to make a call. When she picked up Neil's call, Aura had just left Michael. She was lying on the sofa in the hotel. Looking at the called ID, she frowned a little. If she recalled correctly, the night before, she and that little b*stard had set a time to only contact each other once every three days. Only a day had passed, yet he had already actively reached out to her? Aura narrowed her eyes and picked up the phone. "Mother."

On the other end of the line was Neil's voice. "Are you and Luna really biological sisters?"

Aura furrowed her brows. "Why are you suddenly asking this?"

Neil took a deep breath. He carefully said, "Just now, Nellie said that you and Luna aren't biological sisters

Aura narrowed her eyes. "Why are you suddenly talking about this?"

"Just now...a doctor came to Blue Bay Villa. She said Nigel and I should be biological brothers from the same set of parents. I do feel that Nigel and I have a lot of the same habits, likes, and dislikes, but I thought that it was because you and Luna are sisters. Then, Nellie said that you both aren't biological sisters..."

Neil bit his lip. The moment he finished what he said, he asked a little sheepishly, "Mother, should I have not bothered you with these questions?"

Should I have not asked you these questions?"

Aura was always strict and aloof with Neil. Whenever Neil used to have things on his mind, he would confide in Uncle Theo.

However, Uncle Theo had been locked up while Neil was living with the Lynch family, the enemy.

No matter what, he was just a six—year—old child, and he would not be able to process some emotions himself. Only then did he decide to call Aura after weighing it.

Aura, on the other end of the line, narrowed her eyes. She never would have thought that Neil would start suspecting these things when he had just stayed there for a day.

Aura initially thought that with Neil's natural trust in his mother, whether it was Luna or Joshua, no one would be able to persuade him otherwise within three days.

However, she had neglected Nigel and Nellie, those two little b*tches!

It was true that children were more likely to listen to their peers and be misled by them.

At that thought, Aura squinted. A new idea came to her.

"Jake. " Aura took a deep breath. She looked at the outside world through the windows in a fixed gaze.

"Actually, I never wanted to tell you this, but now that you've started suspecting Nigel's identity, I could only tell you the truth. The truth is..."

Aura sighed.

"I didn't just give birth to you back then."

Neil's eyes widened. "Mother, what do you mean?"

"When I was pregnant, the doctor said that I might have twins or triplets in my womb. But when I gained consciousness, it was only you left. All these years, I was unsure how many children I gave birth to back then...

"When I saw how Nigel looked so much like you, I also suspected whether Nigel is my son..."

Then, Aura took a deep breath and continued, "Jake, I recently found a DNA

Diagnostic Center that will produce results in the shortest time possible, but they said that if I wanted to do the quickest DNA test, the person in question have to be there at the center to draw blood...

"If you have the chance, could you secretly sneak Nigel and Nellie out? I want to...secretly have a DNA test with them to see if we're related."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1197

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1197

Neil clutched the phone tightly in his hand.

His heart raced wildly. After arranging with Aura to find an opportunity to get Nigel and Nellie out, Neil sat on the bench in the garden anxiously.

It seemed that his gut was not wrong. The doctor might not be wrong either.

Nigel and he were very likely identical twins. Perhaps even Nellie was born at the same time!

However, he was feeling complicated at such a thought. On one hand, he was happy that he could finally have real siblings.

On the other hand, he felt that Joshua and Luna were utterly pretentious the more he thought of the idea.

How could they pretend to be benevolent parents to other people's children?

During dinner, Neil unprecedentedly took food for Luna and Joshua.

Both Luna and Joshua were shocked yet delighted. Luna looked at Neil, and she then looked at Joshua. Joshua was also looking at her, and their eyes, filled with surprise, met.

Nellie, by the side, smiled and looked at them. She chuckled calmly. "Are you surprised? Let me tell you."

Nellie smiled while taking food for Neil. "Jake finally thought it through this afternoon! He thought that no matter what, we are family. A family should get along with each other! “

Then, Nellie winked at Luna. She placed the plate of cookies in front of Luna.

“Jake made this for me and Nigel this afternoon! It tastes great, so I kept some for both of you! “

Nellie enthusiastically chirped, “Daddy, Mommy, try some!”

Joshua looked at the plate of cookies calmly. He turned to look at Nigel and Nellie. “Have you had some already this afternoon?”

Nellie nodded seriously. “Mmh! “

Nigel, on the other hand, lowered his gaze and looked at the time. He said seriously, “Nellie and I ate the cookies around four-thirty in the afternoon. It has been two and a half hours since.”

Then, Nigel looked at Joshua. “Mr. Lynch, don’t worry. Any ordinary laxatives or poison should take effect within two hours. Nellie and I aren’t showing any symptoms of chest pain, headache, and diarrhea. There is no poison.”

Nigel’s words instantly turned the atmosphere at the dining table cold. Nellie and Luna’s jaws dropped. They never thought that Nigel would say such things.

Joshua slightly squinted. He let out a sigh of relief inconspicuously. Neil sneered. He immediately reached out and grabbed hold of the plate of cookies. “Since Mr. Lynch and Ms. Luna think I bear ill intentions of trying to poison you, then you don’t need to eat them! “

The visibly saddened Neil immediately lifted the plate, wanting to throw it backward.

Luna immediately held onto the other end of the plate and placed it back on the table.

“Jake, don’t be angry. They’re just joking. We... We’re not suspecting you of poisoning the cookies. “

Luna turned to look at Nigel. “Y—You just don’t understand Nigel. Nigel is a kid who likes to joke around. He’s just fooling around. Joshua doesn’t mean anything by that either.”

Neil laughed.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1198

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1198

“Whether Nigel is a kid who likes to joke, I can still see for myself. You guys just don’t trust me. Since you don’t trust me, why did you bring me here?”

Then, Neil struggled to grab the plate, but Luna pressed it down with force.

In the end, the plate could not bear the struggle, and it immediately slipped right out of both of their hands.

Crash!

The plate fell, and the cookies were scattered all over the floor.

The entire dining room fell into silence.

Neil smiled. “Great, now no one gets poisoned.” Then, he took a deep breath and strode upstairs.

He did not even swerve past the broken plate shards, and the pieces pierced through his slippers, stabbing into his feet. However, it was as if he did not feel any pain. Neil continued heading upstairs.

The kids’ room door slammed shut loudly.

By the dining table, the family of four looked at each other. After a long while, Luna looked at Joshua with rebuke. “Why did you have to ask such a question? “

Joshua looked at Nigel. “I only casually asked when you all ate the cookies.”

Nigel lowered his head, playing with his food while saying flatly, “Mr. Lynch, don't pass the buck. Since you asked us this question in front of him, he surely would've known what you were thinking. I was only stating the problem as it is."

Then, Nigel put his utensils down. "I don't think my reply had any problems."

Although Jake was Neil who had lost his memory, he was still one of Aura's people. He still hated the Lynch family.

Nigel even saw with his own eyes how Neil held a knife standing by Nellie's bed the night before.

Although he did not go through with it in the end, since he took the knife and went over regardless, that meant that he had the intention.

Nigel thought that being more on guard with someone like that was not wrong.

Looking at how Joshua and Nigel were unwilling to admit their mistakes, Luna sighed.

She reached out and picked up the crumbs of the cookies which fell on the table and placed them in her mouth.

It was sweet and aromatic.

It had the same taste as the cookies she had taught Neil when they were abroad!

Luna lifted her head in surprise. She coincidentally met Nellie's smiling gaze.

"It tastes great, right, Mommy? It's as great as the cookies Neil used to make! "

Nellie smiled. "So, even if Neil had lost his memories, he still remembered how to make the cookies you taught him! I think he should be able to regain his memories soon! "

Luna could not help but be delighted upon hearing what Nellie said.

Although

she did not know what was the fastest way to help Neil regain his memories, and even though he lost his memories, he still remembered the name she gave him and the things that she taught him.

How could Luna not be moved by that?

“Mommy.” Nellie lifted her head and told Luna about how Neil agreed to take Aura’s hair and fingernail DNA.

“I think Neil will believe us when the evidence is right in front of him! “

Joshua nodded and looked at Nellie. “This is a good idea, but how are you going to get Aura’s hair or fingernails for a DNA test with just a few of you little brats?”

Nellie pursed her lips. “Of course, we’ll be able to do it! Neil told us this afternoon that he knows where Aura is staying. Tomorrow, when Aura heads out, the three of us will sneak into her place to gather the DNA! “

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1199

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1199

Luna furrowed her brows.

Joshua, by the side, also coldly swept Nellie a glance.

“Only the three of you are going to get the DNA samples?” Joshua furrowed his brows. “Just get him to tell us where Aura is staying. I can just send my men to do it.”

Joshua thought that things like obtaining DNA samples would not need those three kids to do it.

Any bodyguard they had was professionally trained. They did things cleanly and swiftly, with no room for error.

“But Neil wants to head there himself.”

Nigel slowly lifted his head. “He said that Aura doesn’t stay in one place all the time. Also, she’s extremely guarded. If we’re to send men to do it, it’ll alert her sooner or later.

“But if he were to head there himself, Aura won’t be suspicious. She’ll only think that he wants to see her.

“As for bringing both of us...” Nigel looked at Nellie helplessly. “Nellie’s only afraid that Neil might not return after going to see Aura, so she thought of following him.“

Then, Nigel lifted his gaze and looked at Joshua. “Daddy, what do you think?”

Joshua furrowed his brows. He looked at Nigel meaningfully. “Are you done with your meal?”

Nigel paused for a while before putting his utensils down. “I was done long ago.”

“Push me upstairs.” Joshua rolled his wheelchair backward a little.

“We’ll talk in detail.”

Nigel nodded and ran over, grabbed Joshua’s wheelchair handles, and pushed him toward the elevator, albeit with difficulty.

Looking at the elevator door shutting, Luna sighed heavily. She wanted to say something when she noticed blood spots on the staircase.

She furrowed her brows tightly. The bloodstains...

She subconsciously looked at the broken plate. Sure enough, the blood trail started from there.

She immediately got up while calling for the servants to clean it up and instructed Nellie not to get down. Then, she went around the broken pieces and headed upstairs.

Upstairs in the kids’ room, Neil was biting on a towel, using tweezers to take out the broken pieces stuck in the sole of his foot.

He was in so much pain that he was sweating profusely, yet he did not let out a single sound.

It took him by surprise when Luna pushed the door open. He almost knocked over the bottle of alcohol on the table.

Luna immediately rushed over to catch it, so the bottle of alcohol did not spill to the ground.

“Thank you.” Neil reluctantly spat out. Then, he placed his feet, which had pieces of broken plate still lodged in them, down.

“Is there anything I can help you with?”

Luna looked at the pieces of the broken plate on the table and the bloodstains on Neil’s hands and feet. Her heart ached terribly.

Neil used to be a kid who would yell out loud whenever he was in pain.

He

liked to act like a spoiled child whenever he was in pain, asking his mother and sister for good food, asking his older brother to care for him.

Although he did it exaggeratedly, Luna knew he did it on purpose. He wanted to use his pain to liven the mood. At the same time, not let himself

feel so much pain.

However, at that moment, Neil bore through all the pain himself, biting on a towel dealing with his wounds...

In a way, this was Neil’s truest self when he was injured.

Luna sighed and walked over to Neil, sitting next to him. Neil furrowed his brows and looked at her.

Then, he retreated backward.

However, he was only a six-year-old child. How could he dodge a grown adult?

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1200

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1200

Luna immediately grabbed hold of Neil’s ankle, exposing his injured sole of the feet. There were still a few broken pieces lodged in them.

She sighed and clutched onto his ankle, while gently taking the broken pieces out of his feet with the tweezers.

“How could you be so careless?”

Neil was initially seated, but when Luna tugged at him, he was forced to lie back on the bed. He could not exert his strength. Luna clutched onto his ankle tightly. It was quite painful, so Neil just gave up struggling.

However, even though his body stopped struggling, he was still defiant in his speech. He furrowed his brows and looked at Luna.

“It’s none of your business whether I’m careless or not. I’ve already said to stop being a hypocrite and pretentious with me! I „m not Nigel or Nellie.

This

won“t work on me! “

Luna furrowed her brows. “Even if I“m being a hypocrite, even if I“m being pretentious, I“m helping you to clean your wound. What do you have to lose?

Why are you resisting it?“

When she took the final piece of the broken plate out, she took a cotton bud,

dipped it in alcohol, and helped Neil disinfect his wound.

“Furthermore, you“re hurt. I“m pretentious just because I care for you?

Should I just sit and watch you dress your own wounds badly, wait until it gets infected and you fall sick, and only then I“m not pretentious?

“Do you think you“re not worthy of compassion from others nor worthy of being concerned by others?“

Then, Luna slapped Neil“s butt. “I forbid you to say such nonsense anymore!

“

Her slap was not painful, but Neil“s eyes had tears in them. He did not know whether it was because his butt hurt or his foot hurt, or perhaps...what

Luna

said pierced through him.

She was right.

No one else had cared for him apart from Uncle Theo.

Neil could not remember the past, but his mother told him that it was because he was not obedient and did not listen to her, so the house exploded.

He caused a huge loss for his family and also made his and Uncle Theo“s body to deteriorate badly.

Uncle Theo still had repercussions from his illness.

That was why his mother did not like him. His mother“s bodyguards hated

him, too.

Ever since he could recall, whether he got hurt or fell, or even being whipped

by his mother...

Only Uncle Theo would care for him.
Neil also slowly got used to such a life. He thought that in this world, other than Uncle Theo, no one else would care for him anymore. After all, even his mother would scold and beat him. This was why he thought Luna and Joshua were pretentious. How could a stranger care for him, a child whom his own mother hated, without any reason? However, at that moment, Luna treated his wound seriously and attentively. She was afraid that it would hurt him, so her actions were extremely gentle. Neil felt as if his heart had been pierced through. Soft, warm blood started flowing in, seeping through his entire body. That not only made him want to cry, but his body felt hot, too. After Luna dressed his wounds, she turned around and noticed the tear-stricken Neil. She smiled and gently patted his head. "That's more like it. You're only six years old. Children in pain need to let it out and cry. If you don't cry now, you won't be able to cry when you're grown up." Then, Luna pressed Neil down to bed and tucked him in. "Didn't you say you want to go get Aura's DNA tomorrow? Don't try to touch the ground with this foot tonight, or you won't be able to head out tomorrow." Neil bit his lip and looked at Luna in a daze. "Y—You... You're willing to let Nigel and Nellie follow me to get DNA samples from my mother?" If the DNA test tomorrow proved that Nigel and Nellie were like him, that they belonged to Aura... Luna...would be disappointed, right?

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1201
Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1201

"If you have the confidence that Nellie and Nigel won't get hurt if they tag along, of course, I „m fine with it.“ Luna smiled.

She gently ruffled Neil“s head. Her tone was gentle. “ You“re willing to get close to them, I“m quite happy about it, actually.“

Luna sighed and threw the tissue papers and cotton buds used to clean Neil“s wound into the bin. Then, she kept the first aid kit before turning and leaving.

Neil lay in bed looking at Luna leaving. He pursed his lips tightly. If Nigel and Nellie were to follow along the next day, he would definitely protect them with all his life.

This was Joshua, Luna, Nigel, and Nellie placing their trust in him. One could never be a person without credibility and limits.

However...

Neil closed his eyes. He could not imagine if the truth was like what his mother had said, none of the children belonged to Luna.

When the children leave her, she would feel extremely terrible, right?

The next morning.

During breakfast, Neil once again suggested he go look for Aura to get her hair and fingernails DNA samples, Joshua did not object.

Not only did he not object to it, but he also got Lucas to send a team of bodyguards to follow them.

Luna was quite happy to see the children getting along well with each other.

Although they were going to get something from Aura, which was a dangerous thing to do, Luna was willing to believe in Neil and Joshua“s team of bodyguards.

After breakfast, Neil took Nigel and Nellie along and left.

“Let“s go play! “ Nellie was in a little dress. She happily followed behind Neil.

Her face was filled with excitement. “I haven“t been out to play in such a long time! “

Looking at how she was prancing around like a chirpy bird, Nigel sighed and went with them.

When he was at the entrance, Nigel turned to look at Joshua. Joshua smiled tenderly at him. Nigel nodded before turning around and closing the door.

Sitting on the sofa, Luna heard the sounds of the cars starting outside. She frowned hard. "I thought you would have objected to it." She was indeed hoping Neil would get along with Nigel and Nellie, but she still thought that going to Aura to get her DNA sample was too risky for three kids.

Joshua calmly picked up his laptop, looking at the red dot slowly moving on the map, he smiled.

"It's a good chance to train the children. Why should I give this chance up? Also, we might have an unexpected gain from this."

Luna looked at him. "What unexpected gain?"

Joshua hesitated for a while before laughing. "That is, Neil's trust in us." Luna still did not quite understand. Joshua calmly explained, "Neil is an understanding child. Naturally, he knows that we would worry about Nigel and Nellie encountering danger if they followed him. But, none of us objected to it, we trusted him fully."

Luna paused for a while. "So, because of our trust in him, he would trust us too?"

Joshua smiled but said nothing. That was not the case at all. Neil's excuse was too unconvincing and lame. To bring the kids together to collect DNA samples as an excuse was quite far-fetched. However, it might be possible that for a six-year-old, that was the best excuse he could come up with in such a short time for being asked to take Nigel and Nellie along.

Joshua knew that Neil did this because Aura had demanded this from him. Just like the last time when Neil was at the beach, hesitating to stab him with the knife.

Joshua knew that Neil's character had not changed. Neil was still his and Luna's mature and understanding, gentle and kind-hearted child.

Aura seemed to have something in her hands that could be used to threaten Neil, forcing him to obey her.

Therefore, the night before, Joshua and Nigel had a chat in the study for a very long time. In the end, they decided to let Nigel and Nellie take the risk.

Joshua wanted Neil to completely escape from the clutches of Aura, not letting her threaten and use him anymore.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1202

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1202

The car drove for a very long time. In the back seat, Nellie shifted from bored to death from her initial excitement.

She pressed her head onto the window and looked at the scenery out of the window. A huge question popped up in her head.

Nellie turned to look at Neil. "Didn't you say we were going to the hotel?"

Why was the car heading to a more secluded place, it was even reaching the outskirts of Banyan City?

Neil looked at the address on his phone. He pursed his lips. "We'll be there soon."

The address that Aura gave was a very secluded place. Neil had also once suspected the address, but Aura said that the DNA Diagnostic Center was huge, they had to be built in places like the outskirts. After all, it took up a huge space and the city was not cheap.

Neil was convinced and no longer had any doubts about the address.

However, the car headed further into barren land. Where was the huge DNA Diagnostic Center?

Nellie looked at Neil a little anxiously. "Jake, did you take us to the wrong place?"

Neil bit his lips hard and looked at the huge building in front.

“It’s not wrong.”

Perhaps...the building in front is the DNA Diagnostic Center.

“The building in front is a factory that had been abandoned for many years.”

Nigel looked at the information on his tablet with a lowered head and said flatly, “Jake, does Aura, the one you call mother, stay in an abandoned factory?”

Something instantly exploded in Neil’s mind. The building in front was an abandoned factory?! Did they not agree they were going to the DNA Diagnostic Center? Did they not agree to get Nigel and Nellie to draw blood, to make sure that they were born from the same mother? Why were they brought to an abandoned factory?

Aura cried on the phone the day before, telling Neil how he had to bring Nigel and Nellie over because she missed her children too much.

Was that all fake?

Neil bit his lips tightly. He gripped his phone tightly in his hands. He sent a message to Aura.

(Mother, we’re almost there, but why is it the wrong address? There’s no huge lab at the address you gave.

Soon, Aura replied.

(Don’t ask so many questions. Just bring them to where I asked you to.

Who

are you to question me?]

Looking at the reply on his phone, Neil was completely bewildered.

Thus...his mother had lied to him, making him think that he was bringing them to do a DNA test. Turns out, he was kidnapping Nigel and Nellie!

Since his mother had already planned the kidnap early on, she must have known that Nigel and Nellie were not her children!

Neil bit his lips hard. Suddenly, the scene where Luna was smiling and agreeing to him taking Nigel and Nellie along appeared in his mind. Also, the scene where Joshua happily agreed when they were at the dining table a moment ago.

Neil held his phone tightly.

That family trusted him so much. He also thought that after the DNA test and knowing the truth, he would be able to bring them home.

However, at that moment...

Neil gritted his teeth hard, lifted his head, and looked at the driver.

“Stop the car!”

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1203

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1203

“I'm telling you to stop the car! “ Neil yelled at the driver manically.

However, the driver seemed to not have heard him. Not only did he not stop the car, but he also increased the speed.

Neil bit his lips and slammed on the car door. He glared at the driver.

“You

are my driver! Why are you not listening to me! “

The driver laughed, “Do you think I'm Theo Allen, that I would listen to whatever you said? Young Master, don't think too highly of yourself.

We're

Lady Aura's men. We only listen to her! “

Then, he slammed the gas. Soon, the car arrived right at the entrance of the abandoned factory.

Nellie's eyes widened. She looked at the car outside in shock. In the end, she turned around and looked at Neil.

“Nigel...Jake, you lied to us! “

Did he not say that they were going to the hotel where Aura was to gather her DNA samples? Why were they there at a deserted place?

There was nothing around except the abandoned factory in front of them.

How could Aura possibly be staying there?

Facing Nellie's confused gaze, Neil felt his face burning, like he had been slapped on the face a few times. It was hot and painful.

Nigel finally put down the laptop in his hands. He calmly looked at Neil.

“Is

this the hotel you speak of?”

Nigel narrowed his eyes and said, “Are you lying to us, or is the person you call mother lying to you?”

Neil gritted his teeth hard. He was speechless. If there was a hole in the ground, he would not hesitate to burrow himself in it.

How could his mother lie to him! Even if his mother were to tell him that she wanted to kidnap Nigel and Nellie to threaten Joshua, he might not have disagreed with her.

Why would she lie to him! Why did she lie to him!

At that moment, the huge door of the abandoned factory was opened.

A group of men in black swarmed forward, surrounding the car. The car of bodyguards that Joshua sent to protect Nigel and Nellie had been apprehended too.

Aura, in red, elegantly walked out of the abandoned factory holding an umbrella. She calmly instructed the men in black.

“Tie those two brats up! “

“Yes! “ The men immediately opened the door and roughly dragged Nellie and Nigel out of the car, tying them up with a rope.

Nigel and Nellie were tied and escorted into the abandoned factory.

Neil, who was witnessing all this, felt extremely bad like someone had driven a knife into his heart.

In the end, he slowly got out of the car. He looked at Aura confusedly.

“Mother, how could you...how could you lie to me?”

His clear eyes were filled with hurt.

“I’m your son. Why did you lie to me as well?” Aura frowned. “So what if I lied to you?”

Neil lifted his head. His heart was filled with rage and disappointment. “I promised Joshua and Luna that I will bring them back safely. You told me that it was only a DNA test to prove whether they had the same set of parents as me. You lied to me, how am I going...”

Slap!

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1204

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1204

Neil had barely finished speaking when Aura slapped him violently on the face.

“What? You’ve only been with Joshua for a day and you’ve already been led astray by them? Who the hell do you think you are? Why should I tell you my plans? You only have to remember that I am your mother! You will do what I tell you to do! Stop asking so many stupid questions! “

Then, Aura turned around and headed into the abandoned factory without looking back.

“Get yourself in here! “

Neil stood in the same spot clutching his red and swollen face. He looked at

Aura unconcerned for him. The scene where Luna was cleaning his wounds and slapping his butt inexplicably arose in his mind.

If...If only she was his mother. How great would that be?

Nigel and Nellie’s signal had been cut off.

Luna, who had been following the signal in the car, looked at the spot where the red dots vanished on the screen rather anxiously. “Why was the signal suddenly cut off?”

Joshua narrowed his eyes and looked at the screen. “It did not look like the signal was blocked or cut off. Nigel was the one who cut it off himself.”

Luna furrowed her brows. “Why would he do that?”

Joshua looked in front coldly. “It should be because he wanted to conserve power. Because the communication device he brought had exceptionally strong signals, it used up a lot of power too. Even if I had already installed the best battery, it could only last for a few hours.

“There could be two reasons why Nigel turned off the communication device to conserve power at this moment. One is because he thinks we can locate him, but we only need time, maybe a very long time, so he turned off the power on the communication device.

"The other would be..." Joshua's tone turned low. "He and Nellie were brought to a place where the signal would be weak and hard to transmit out.

Nigel plans to use the maximum power to send the signal in the most crucial moments, that's why he turned it off."

Then, Joshua turned to look at Lucas, who was typing away on the computer. "Have you located it?"

"Yes!" Lucas took a deep breath. "The last place Nigel went missing is an abandoned factory in the outskirts. It's an abandoned factory left by the Larson Group in Banyan City twenty years ago.

"Later on, because the Larson Group had been going up against the Lynch

Group playing dirty, Granny Lynch swiftly chased them out of Banyan City.

"After they left Banyan City, they even went to Sea City for a period.

They

gave birth to a daughter in Banyan City...before expanding their business abroad. The Larson Group had always been the one sponsoring Aura.

Those

men that had been called Aura Lady Aura were also people from the Larson

Group."

Luna could not help but furrowed her brows at Lucas' words.

She thought back about what Aura said to her before, about how she was the wrong baby Joseph Gibson picked up, and how she was an heiress of a wealthy family.

Turns out, she had already found her own family. No wonder she had such powers at that moment.

"I have no concern for the Larson Group."

Joshua looked at the abandoned factory they were approaching in front indifferently. "This factory had been abandoned for a very long time, could you still get any information out of it? Is there an underground basement or something like that, a place where it is hard to transmit a signal?"

“There is.” Lucas opened the information on the abandoned factory and said in a low voice, “The abandoned factory has a huge underground warehouse.

There is only one way into the warehouse. There is also...”

Lucas lifted his head. “There is also a huge sewer hole there.”

Joshua narrowed his eyes. “Head to the sewer hole, try to find a way in.

Nigel and Nellie must have been brought to the underground warehouse.”

Then, he turned to look at Luna. “Your Theo should be there too.”

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1205

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1205

The nerve on Luna's forehead throbbed fiercely!

She turned to look at Joshua. “What do you mean by that?”

Joshua calmly looked out of the car window. His voice was low but it had no whatsoever emotions.

“The fact that you could be threatened by Aura and be let by the nose, besides Neil, the other reason was Theo.

“Neil is still alright. He is Aura's bargaining chip to be used against me, so it's easy for us to see Neil and get him to stay by my side.

“But Theo is different. Besides you meeting him by the beach on that day, Theo has never shown his face once.

“Theo is Aura's hidden ace card. Not only could she use him to threaten you, but she could also even threaten Neil when needed.”

Then, Joshua turned to look at Luna. “Aura does not have many places in Banyan City. The abandoned factory here today is the only one.

According to my understanding of her, if she were to kidnap Nigel and Nellie, she would most likely tie them up and lock them up in the same place as Theo.”

Luna was stunned. At that moment only then did she realize what Joshua meant. She bit her lips and glared at Joshua rather angrily.

“You long knew that this incident today is a set up, right? You deliberately agreed to Neil this morning because of this? So, for you to locate Theo, you were going to risk Nellie and Nigel's life?"

Of course, it was important to find Theo, but did that mean that Nigel and Nellie were not important?

Getting the two six-year-old children in danger. Was this Joshua's plan?

Perhaps he had long predicted Luna's reaction, Joshua sighed and said, "This is Nigel's plan."

Luna was stunned. "Nigel's plan?"

"Yes."

Joshua rubbed his aching temple and said calmly, " Last night, Nigel and I were discussing in the study room for a very long time. Nigel was determined to take the risk, to take Nellie along to Aura's headquarters to find Theo. I was initially reluctant but Nigel said..."

Joshua closed his eyes, the scene where Nigel was standing in the middle of the study room with a stubborn look the night before appeared in Joshua's mind.

"I will try my best to protect Nellie and myself. Mr. Lynch, you have been in the business for so many years. You should know the concept of high risks and high rewards. If you don't let Nellie and I go this time, how long do you think it would take for us to find Theo?

"The last time, because of Theo, Mommy agreed to absurd demands like getting engaged to Michael Lynch! If we don't quickly find Theo, the next time would be Mommy being forced to marry Michael!

Are you willing to let that happen?

"I am yours and Mommy's child. I am willing to take Nellie along to risk it so that Mommy doesn't have to suffer so much in the future. Also, I have to get to the bottom of this. I want Neil to understand how untrustworthy Aura is as a person.”

At that thought, Joshua sighed, “Although Joshua is only six years old, he has his own opinions. I’m sure you’re clearer than me about his stubbornness in doing the things he wants to do.”

Luna was stunned by Joshua’s words. At that moment, she did not know what to say.

It was true. If Nigel wanted to do something, no one could stop him. Just like when they were abroad, when Nigel knew his sickness was incurable, he decided to take his life to lighten her burden.

Nigel’s defiance and stubbornness terrified not only her but even the doctors and nurses at the hospital. Everyone took turns persuading him, counseling him, and looking after him every single day, yet to no avail.

In the end, it was Luna taking his siblings along, crying in front of him for half a day, only then did he finally decide to properly live and survive for his family.

If entering the enemy’s camp that day was Nigel’s idea...

Joshua might not be able to properly persuade him otherwise.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1206

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1206

At that thought, Luna took a deep breath and looked at Joshua’s angular face.

“Since you agreed to let Nigel and Nellie get kidnapped by Aura, you have to guarantee that they are safe. If not...”

Luna glared at him. “I will hate you for the rest of my life.”

Joshua smiled. “If something were to happen to them today, I would hate myself for the rest of my life too.”

“Sir. “ Seeing how their conversation was finally at an end, Lucas said in a suppressed tone, “We have reached near the sewer hole.”

Joshua and Lune turned to look at the same time. In front of them was indeed a huge sewer hole.

Although it was huge, it could not fit an adult walking straight up.

A few bodyguards had got out of the car and entered the sewer with a bent body.

Joshua was silent for a while. He unbuckled his seat belt while instructing

Luna.

“You wait for us here. I have the same communication device as Nigel, but our communication device can’t connect directly. We need you to stay outside to keep watch. You stay in the car and watch over the receiving terminal of the communication device. I will leave a team of bodyguards here to protect you.”

Then, Joshua immediately got out of the car before Luna could even say anything.

Lucas noticed and immediately followed suit.

“Lucas! “ Seeing how Joshua had already entered the sewer hold, Luna bit her lips and grabbed Lucas”

arm. “Joshua...his injuries have not healed completely. You have to take good care of him.”

Lucas was silent for a while before nodding. “I will.” Then, Lucas immediately chased after and held Joshua”s arm.

Luna sat in the car. After seeing the group of men entering, she lowered her head and looked at the computer screen in front of her.

It was silent.

There was no news from Joshua nor news from Nigel.

The computer screen was still showing the map of the underground warehouse in the abandoned factory that Lucas found previously.

Luna bit her lips.

The warehouse was so huge. How long would they take to look for Nigel and Theo? She almost wanted to head in herself to look.

However, Luna understood clearly. She did not have a good body.

Following

them would only cause them more trouble.

Luna clasped her hands together, closed her eyes, and prayed non-stop.

At that moment, a static signal came from the computer. Luna immediately opened her eyes and looked at the screen. The signal was coming from Nigel”s communication device.

Soon, the static signal ended, what came next was Nigel”s anxious voice.

“Daddy, Mommy. I know where Uncle Theo is being locked up. He is in the small room on the most eastern side of the warehouse. Go and rescue him, quick! “

Luna was instantly stunned. She immediately said, “ Okay, okay, okay. I got

it. What about you all? Where are you all?“

“We are fine. Neil is leading us out to escape. Mommy, reinforcements are coming from behind. I can’t chat with you for too long. I’ll shut it off first! “

The moment Nigel finished his sentence a loud sound as if something heavy fell rang out from Nigel’s end.

Then, it was silent. The signal was cut.

Luna’s heart instantly sank. She contacted Joshua with trembling hands, telling them where Theo was. Her mind kept replaying the sound before the signal was cut.

Would Nigel and the rest be fine?

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1207

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1207

The air in the underground warehouse was foul. There was dust everywhere and it smelt like mold.

Because there was no source of light, it was dark everywhere.

Using his exceptional night vision, Neil held onto Nellie’s hand and quickly headed for the light.

Behind him, Nigel was holding onto Nellie’s other hand, following closely.

Behind them were the sounds of footsteps and people searching for them with a torchlight.

“Quick, over here! We have to find them quickly! How dare they hurt Lady Aura and escape with the other two brats! Jake Landry, you’re dead meat! “

“Lady Aura is your family. Why would you betray her for the two kids that you barely know?”

“Do you know what is the consequence of betraying Lady Aura?”

“Jake Landry, I know you can hear us! Quickly bring both of them back!

She

might still let you live! “

Hearing the commotions behind her, Nellie’s heart was about to pop out!

She and Nigel were kidnapped by Aura’s men a moment ago. After kidnapping them, Aura got her men to send her and Nigel to a small room.

There was a dirty man covered in blood being tied to the pole in the small room. When he heard their voices, the man lifted his head.

It was Uncle Theo! The Uncle Theo that went missing together with Neil! Nellie had never seen Theo in such a dirty, miserable, and disheveled state.

The moment Theo lifted his head and saw that it was both of them, he was shocked. Then, he smiled helplessly. He said in a hoarse voice, “Looks like Luna has more on her plate now. I hope she can cope.”

Nellie thought that she and Nigel would be locked up there. She did not expect that she would only enter for a while when Aura heard that a few cars were coming over and stopping at the entrance of the abandoned factory at that moment.

Aura hesitated for a while before getting her men to take Nellie and Nigel away from Theo’s room. She said that she was afraid others would be able to find her three aces at the same time.

Just when Aura was about to lock them up in a different room, just when she was talking to them harshly, Neil retrieved the knife that he had kept hidden on him all along and stabbed Aura.

Then, when Aura was in so much pain she could not talk, Neil immediately cut off the rope that was tying Nellie and Nigel. He then led them along and escaped.

They ran for a very long time.

Nellie looked at the back of Neil's head. A warm feeling inexplicably arose in her heart. She always thought that Neil must have been led astray by Aura, kidnapping her and Nigel.

However, she did not expect that Neil would betray Aura at the very crucial moment, leaving with them.

"Jake." Nellie bit her lips. She said in a suppressed tone, "Follow us back home, please? You've already hurt Aura. She will not let you go that easily."

Neil paused a little, not saying anything.

After a while, he grabbed Nellie's hand and continued onward.

"Let's get out first."

Luna had been waiting outside in fear for a very long time.

Other than the news she received from Nigel at the beginning, she had no longer received any news.

She lifted her gaze and looked into the distance. She saw a few cars parking by the entrance of the factory. A group of men was searching for something in the factory.

Luna narrowed her eyes. She noticed with her sharp eyes that the car door of the last car was opened.

The man that got out of the car was Jude Smith.

Luna was a little stunned before realizing that this was Joshua's cover. She stared at the screen while lamenting Joshua's thoroughness.

Aura would have guessed that Joshua would send men to rescue his children. If there was no ongoing commotion above ground by the factory's entrance, Aura would definitely suspect the sewer hole.

At that moment, people were searching on the ground in the abandoned factory, Aura would not have thought that Joshua's men would enter the underground warehouse through the sewers, even rescuing them out.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1208

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1208

After a while, someone came out from the sewer hole.

Zach and Yuri were on each side of a haggard and disheveled-looking man who was covered in blood.

Luna looked at the man. Tears instantly fell from her face! The man was Theo! Joshua had led his man and found Theo!

emaciated

"Ma'am."

After Zach and Yuri placed Theo in the car, Zach sighed heavily. "When we found Theo, we bumped into Aura's men. We fought for a long time...

"Right now, Mr. Lynch and Lucas are looking for Neil and the rest. We took Theo and came out first." Luna bit her lips. "Is Joshua injured?"

"No."

Theo was placed in the car. He had already passed out.

Luna cleaned Theo's face. She was heartbroken. At the same time, she cocked her head to listen for any news coming from the receiver.

After a while, two more figures fumbled and stumbled out of the sewer hole.

It was Nigel and Nellie!

Luna agitatedly rushed out of the car and hugged them in her arms.

"I'm glad you're fine!"

Theo was rescued. Nigel and Nellie were not hurt. Joshua kept his promise!

However, Nellie, who just escaped death, was unhappy. She bit her lips and looked at Luna with teary eyes. "Mommy, Neil has been..."

Nellie sobbed, "Neil has been taken away by Aura!"

Luna instantly shuddered violently. She was too worried for Nigel and Nellie that she forgot to ask why Neil did not follow them out...

She bit her lips and bent down to pick Nellie up. She comforted Nellie, also comforting herself. "It's fine. Neil is Aura's son right now. She...would not do anything to him."

Nellie sobbed harder upon hearing what Luna said, " But Neil hurt Aura with a knife while trying to rescue us. Now that he has been captured, they will not let him go!"

The more Nellie said, the more tears fell. "Mommy, what should we do?"

Luna bit her lips hard. She lowered her head and looked at Nigel. "Is that true?"

"Hmm." Nigel's expressions were serious. He sighed heavily and said, "Nigel was tricked by Aura too. He never thought that Aura got him to bring us out because she wanted to kidnap us, so...he betrayed Aura and let us go."

Luna's heart sank violently upon Nigel's words. If things were like what Nigel and Nellie said...

Then, after Aura has captured Neil, she would definitely bully him and teach him a lesson!

At the thought that Neil might be in trouble, Luna's heart hurt as if she was stabbed. She wanted to rush in to bear the pain on behalf of Neil!

"By the way, Mommy, why are you alone?" Nellie lifted her head.

"Where is Daddy?"

Luna paused for a while. She turned back to look at the huge underground warehouse through the sewer hole. "He..."

Rumble!

Before Luna could finish her sentence, a loud exploding sound rang though coming from the underground warehouse.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1209

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1209

With the loud explosion, the entire underground warehouse started to shake.

Dust and debris were even falling from the sewer hole above Luna. Luna barely gave it any thought. She immediately carried Nellie and pulled Nigel along away from the sewer hole.

They went back to stand by the car. After gaining their footing for a very long time later, the exploding sounds and quakes coming from the underground warehouse finally stopped.

The explosion was intense. Even Jude's men in the distance fell to the ground from the violent quakes. Even the buildings above ground fell to ruins.

Luna looked at thick smoke coming out from the sewer hole in the distance.

Her heart was in suspense.

Neil and Joshua were still inside!

Looking at Luna's agitated face, Nigel furrowed his brows and comforted her,

"Don't worry about Neil. Neil will be fine. The explosion must have been done by Aura's men. Before the explosion, she must have relocated to a safer place.

"Although she's angry that Neil betrayed her, she would not do anything to Neil, because without Neil she would not have her final bargaining chip! Don't worry, Neil won't be in danger."

Then, Nigel took a deep breath. "Where's Daddy?" Luna closed her eyes. Her voice was trembling. "He and Lucas...are still inside."

Nigel and Nellie were instantly stunned. After a moment, Nellie's tears started falling.

"What should we do..."

"The explosion was so intense. How could Daddy and Uncle Lucas go through this? Daddy is still injured..."

Luna shut her eyes tight. She almost lost her balance.

Six years ago, she almost died. She knew how strong human life was. At the same time, she also knew how..fragile it was.

There were a lot of times where it was only a fine line between life and death.

Joshua's injuries only just turned for the better, yet he encountered such a huge explosion.

Would he be able to survive this...

At that moment, Luna's phone rang. It was from Jude. "Luna, Joshua is not picking up. We just encountered a huge explosion here. How is it going on your end?

"From my side, the explosion seemed to be underground. Joshua told me previously that he was going underground. Is there anyone still underground? Do you need me to get help?"

Jude's words were like a guiding light in total darkness. Luna finally had some hope.

She bit her lips hard. "I need your help... Jude, Joshua and Lucas are still underground..."

Upon hearing Joshua's name being mentioned, Jude shuddered for a while.

"Okay, I will immediately get people to head down to look!"

From a very far distance, Luna saw Jude's men heading toward the entrance of the underground warehouse.

After a while, more professional help appeared. Luna got Zach and Yuri to send Nigel, Nellie, and Theo back home with the car, then she walked over to where Jude and his team were.

At that moment, someone from the rescue team was reporting to Jude about the situation.

"The situation down there is rather complicated. The warehouse is quite huge, after that huge explosion, many passages have been blocked.

Several

other load

-bearing walls were also damaged. If we don't deal with it properly, the entire warehouse might fall in Jude rubbed the middle of his brows.

Listening to the person reporting, Jude was a little short-tempered.

"Don't tell me all this. Just tell me if you could rescue the people out!"

"We should be able to." The person from the rescue team sighed, "It's only...”

He looked at Jude. “You’re hoping that the people trapped below will be rescued alive?”

Jude glared at him coldly. “If not?”

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1210

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1210

The man from the rescue team sighed, “Then, I need more men. I suggest you get all of the rescue team in Banyan City over. Then, find a few more experts in geology and architecture. We have to discuss how we are going to rescue the people trapped below.”

Then, he added, “Of course, what I mean is to rescue the people who are still alive. Those that have died during the explosion, we can’t do anything about it.”

Jude was even infuriated at how calm he looked. “If Joshua Lynch is dead, I „ll make sure that all of you die together with him! Leave! “

Looking at Jude, who always used to be playful, calm, and mature, suddenly became so anxious and short-tempered, Luna clenched her fists tightly by her sides.

She took a deep breath. “Jude.”

Upon hearing a woman’s voice, Jude furrowed his brows. He turned around and noticed that it was Luna. He immediately showed a cheery expression.

“Don’t worry! I’ve already gotten the entire city’s rescue team. I even found geologists and architects. We will be able to rescue Joshua out in the shortest time possible! “

Luna bit her lips. Looking at the rescue team in discussion in the distance, she had a complex feeling.

“Hey, hey, don’t look at them.” Jude furrowed his brows and blocked Luna’s sight. “You can’t do anything to help here. I’m also worried for Joshua, but I am no professional rescue worker. I could only wait here. You'll still be waiting whether you're here or at home. Why don't you head home first?"

Luna shook her head stubbornly. She found a place to sit. "I know I can't help much, I also can't go down to look for him on my own, but I still want to wait here. At least, when Joshua comes up, I will be able to see him immediately."

Jude could not help but sigh at Luna's words. He could no longer find the words to persuade her to leave.

Jude looked at her meaningfully. His tone was low. "Then, you have to prepare for the worst to happen. "

Luna's tears fell upon hearing what Jude said. She sniffled her nose, "I know."

She knew what she might have to face, but she was still filled with hope waiting for him to come up.

Before Joshua went in, Luna got him to promise her to bring Theo out and get Nigel and Nellie out...

However, she forgot to tell him that most importantly he had to come out safe himself...

In a five-star hotel in Banyan City.

Aura was sitting on the sofa. She was swirling the wine glass in her hand while watching the TV, looking at the rescue teams trying to rescue people out from the underground warehouse. She frowned hard.

Her men sent news that Theo has been sent to the hospital. Nigel and Nellie were home too, yet Luna and Jude were still at the scene of the rescue. Who were they trying to rescue?

Aura narrowed her eyes. Could it be Joshua? If it was Joshua, things had become interesting...

Aura smiled and coldly swept a glance at Neil, who was being locked up in the catch. "The people that you let them leave when you were in the underground warehouse previously, was it Joshua? "

Neil's hands were tied. His mouth was stuffed. He could not say anything.

However, from those raging and loathing eyes, Aura had her answer. She gently chuckled and picked her phone up. "Michael Lynch, I have a huge gift for you..."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1211

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1211

The rescue effort continued throughout the night.

Because some of the underground access has been blocked by the explosion caused by the rocks, if they were to slowly move the huge rocks away, it would take time and effort. They were also afraid that Joshua and Lucas who were trapped underneath the ruins would not be able to hold on for much longer.

Therefore, in the end, under the advice of the experts, Luna and Jude got the rescue team to conduct directional blasting on the pathway blocked by rocks.

Directional blasting was not easy. They could not create too huge a vibration, yet they also need to be enough to clear up a path. They also could not get the rocks to fly everywhere, in case they hurt the people being stuck underneath the ruins.

Therefore, the entire night, all sorts of experts and rescue team members were seriously planning and executing them.

Jude, with bloodshot eyes, was there to oversee and coordinate everyone.

Luna was extremely anxious, yet she could not do anything to help. She could only contact Bonnie, asking her whether she could help get a coffee truck over.

After Bonnie knew of the situation at the scene of the rescue, she immediately sent a few food trucks over.

Every time Luna saw people coming out from underground, she would pass food, drinks, and coffee to them.

She also set up a few tents to let the exhausted rescue team members, who had been searching underground for a few hours, rest.

Luna and Jude did not shut their eyes for once the entire night. After a night's worth of effort, the passage underground was finally cleared. The rescue team swarmed in to search and rescue. Luna and Jude sat next to each other, looking at the rescue team heading underground. They comforted each other.

"Joshua will be alright."

"Yes, Joshua has not proposed to you nor given you a wedding yet. He won't die just like that."

Luna was stunned. She suddenly did not know how to reply to Jude.

Jude sighed and looked at Luna calmly. "What, do you still not believe that you actually have a place in Joshua's heart?"

Jude looked into the distance, his gaze was dimmed. "You always said that I like to help Joshua lie to you, but whether it was me or Joshua, we have never lied to you.

"Six years ago, when you met with the accident, Joshua was truly planning to acquire the most important international business deal, then return to Banyan City and confess to you. He was planning to propose to you and reorganize a wedding for you once more.

"At that time, he even told me that he thought he would never ever fall for a woman, but you're an exception. You defied his perception of a relationship.

"Do you remember back then you always wanted to bear Joshua a child?

You

went all around looking for alternatives, going to all the fertility clinics all around.

"But, that day Joshua told me, he said that he did not really care about children. He cares for you. He saw how much you had to suffer eating all those medications to get pregnant. He wanted to propose to you and give you a new wedding. He wanted to let you know that even without children, he won't leave you..."

Luna's fist clenched tightly by her side upon Jude's words. Tears fell silently.

She tried her best to suppress her emotion, not letting herself cry out loud.

It was still unknown whether Joshua was dead or alive, yet it was at this moment she heard about how Joshua felt about her previously.

Looking at Jude's serious expression, Luna's heart ached terribly as if a knife was stabbing into her non-stop. She turned her face away, not letting Jude see her tears.

At that moment, a red Ferrari stopped behind Luna and Jude with a swoosh.

Bonnie came out of the car anxiously. "Luna, something bad has happened!

"Luna and Jude looked at each other. They immediately stood up.

"What is it?"

"Michael Lynch!" Bonnie took a deep breath and took her phone out.

"I'm

guessing none of you would have the time to see your phone! Michael is causing trouble again!"

Bonnie tapped the news on the phone. "Look!"

The phone screen was broadcasting the setting up of a memorial service.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1212

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1212

The headline wrote, (LIVE: The President of the Lynch Group, Joshua Lynch, Died in an Accident. Funeral in Preparation].

The subtitle wrote, (Second Young Master of the Lynch Family, Michael Lynch, Grief-Stricken.

Decides to Take Over the Lynch Group].

Looking at those two lines, Luna was so infuriated she almost passed out!

It was still unknown whether Joshua was alive or dead. Everyone was working as hard as they could to rescue them, yet Michael already went ahead and announced Joshua's death, even organizing a memorial service.

He was so grief-stricken that he wanted to take over the Lynch group?

He

should have just said that he wanted to quickly snatch over the Lynch group while it was still unknown whether Joshua was dead or alive! After the live broadcast, Bonnie played Luna a few other pieces of news. Each of them was of Michael crying saying Joshua had died. Some of them even had Adrian's appearance.

Adrian was facing the camera in tears, crying, " Joshua's health was not great previously. He had been unconscious for seven whole days before coming around. Now there is such a tragic accident. We can't even locate his body. As his father, I'm heartbroken!

"But, the Lynch group cannot survive a day without a president. If such a huge company falls because of Joshua's death, Joshua in heaven would not be pleased too! Therefore, I plan to bear through the pain and let my second son take over the Lynch group after Joshua's death. I will be there to guide him. We will expand the Lynch group business well as a consolation to Joshua in heaven."

Looking at the video on the phone, Luna was so furious she gritted her teeth hard.

"Bloody hell! " Jude, who was always well—mannered, swore. He threw the things in his hands on the floor.

"That bloody Adrian Lynch! Trying to take advantage of Joshua's accident to benefit his second son! How despicable! "

Luna remained in the same spot. Her mind was buzzing so loud that she could no longer hear the outside world clearly.

Jude's yells and Bonnie's sighs seemed to be happening in the very far distance.

Luna gritted her teeth. She clenched her fists tightly by her side then relaxed them. Then, she clenched them again.

Jude had already blocked the news, yet Adrian still found out about it.

However, why could he say such a thing even before Joshua was not dead yet?

Also, from the moment Joshua encountered the accident from the day before up to that point, Adrian had never come to the scene of the rescue once! Was he truly Joshua's biological father? How could such a person exist on this earth?

Bonnie looked at Luna and Jude helplessly. One was in a daze, the other was breaking things.

After a long while, Bonnie took a deep breath. "Now is not the time to throw a tantrum."

She looked at Luna and Jude closely. "There are two important things that need to be done right now.

One, get Joshua out. Whether he is dead or alive, we have to get him out quickly. If not, Adrian and Michael would successfully go on with the funeral!

"The other thing." Bonnie looked at Luna and Jude. "We have to stop them from taking away the Lynch Group's assets. Whether Joshua is dead or alive.

I'm sure he would be unwilling to let all of his fortunes fall into the hands of scumbags like Michael."

Luna bit her lips. She raised her gaze and looked at Bonnie. "But..."

No one knew whether Joshua was alive or dead right now. Adrian was Joshua's biological father. Michael was Joshua's younger stepbrother with the same father.

She and Jude were only Joshua's friends.

If Joshua did not stop them, how could both of them, who are outsiders, stop them?

Jude was silent for a while. In the end, his eyes fell on Luna.

"You can stop them."

Luna furrowed her brows. She was confused. "I'm only his ex-wife. Our divorce has already been..." "He was never divorced from you."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1213

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1213

Luna was completely stunned.

Not only Luna, even Bonnie, next to her also widened her eyes in disbelief.

They have never been divorced?! What about Joshua previously getting engaged to Aura and being together with Alice, then becoming Fiona's boyfriend...

Was that him having an affair while being married?

Jude saw the confusion in both women's eyes. He took a deep breath and explained, "Luna, like I just said. Six years ago, Joshua only had you in his heart. After your accident, every thought that you had died, buried in the deep sea.

"Joshua might have believed it deep down, but he still refused to accept it, so he has never truly applied for a death certificate for you. He only reported you as missing. It is also because of this...your marriage has always remained."

Jude sighed, "As for the incidents after that, Aura's engagement to him is because he wanted to take care of Aura according to your will, to get engaged with her. But, it's only an engagement. From the beginning, Aura had already said that they wouldn't get married. When Aura finally finds someone she likes, they would call off the engagement.

"Later on, Alice appeared. I'm sure you know this as well. Alice had been using your identity. He had always thought that Alice was you, so there was no need to divorce.

"After Alice, to cure Nigel, he agreed to Fiona to be her boyfriend. In fact, he has never liked Fiona before. It would be even more impossible for him to get a divorce because of her."

Jude fixed his gaze at Luna.

"If I remember correctly, your marriage certificate is still in the safe at the innermost part of Joshua's study room. The code to the safe is your marriage anniversary. As long as you retrieve your marriage certificate and rush to the memorial service, they won't be able to continue." Bonnie instantly understood what Jude meant. She immediately grabbed Luna's hand.

"Yes! If your marriage with Joshua has never been nullified, whether Joshua is dead or alive, you are entitled to half of his fortune! As long as you take the marriage certificate and stop Adrian and Michael as the legal wife of Joshua's, they would not be able to take away Joshua's fortune! "

Luna bit her lips and nodded. She always thought that Joshua would have gotten a death certificate for her and nullify their marriage after the announcement of her death.

However, she did not expect that he had not done so even after so many years.

He even put the marriage certificate in a safe at the innermost part of his study room, setting the code to the safe as...their marriage anniversary. Was it because, subconsciously, Joshua was not willing to split up with her?

At that thought, Luna's tears started falling once again. She wanted the rescue team to immediately rescue Joshua out right at that moment.

She had to ask him in his face.

Who was she to him!

"Luna!"

Seeing how Luna was not responding, Bonnie furrowed her brows. "We don't have much time. We still need to get to Blue Bay Villa to get the marriage certificate."

Jude looked at Luna and said calmly, "It's okay if you don't want to do this.

After all, these are only Joshua's assets. It has nothing to do with you. If you take the marriage certificate to the memorial service, it would affect you badly too. Since you had only gotten engaged to Michael a few days ago.

By

then you will be destroyed by the people on the internet..."

"I don't care."

Luna came to her senses. She took a deep breath, turned, and immediately left with Bonnie.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1214

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1214

Luna only took a few steps before turning around and looking at Jude. "If you can get Joshua out, get him to rush to the memorial service press conference at first notice. I don't want to deal with such a huge matter alone."

Then, Luna strode away. Bonnie immediately followed suit. Both women got in the Ferrare and sped away.

Jude stood in the same spot, looking until the car became a tiny red dot.

He

could not help but feel emotional.

Even with all the pretensions on the surface, Luna could not hide the fact that she still cared for Joshua.

Just when Jude was lamenting, a cacophony of voices came from the entrance of the underground warehouse.

"We found them! We found them! "

The rescue team carried two men out from the ruins. Joshua was lying on the stretcher. He was covered in dust and dirt, but fortunately, he did not suffer any injuries. He had only been underground for quite a long time, so he was rather dehydrated and deprived of oxygen.

The rescue team members had already passed an oxygen tank to him.

After

violently taking in two deep breaths, Joshua let out a long sigh. Although his face was filled with haggardness, he still looked spirited.

Joshua put down the oxygen tank, took a few sips of water, and swept a glance at Jude.

"Why are your eyes red? Were you crying?"

Jude was delighted yet furious. He gently punched Joshua on the shoulder.

“Yes, I was crying! I thought you were dead! “

“I won’t die that easily.”

Joshua smiled with difficulty. “It was Neil who saved me.”

Jude raised his eyebrows. “Neil has lost his memories. He is already one of Aura’s, yet he still could save you?”

“Hmm.” Joshua laughed, “I was surprised too.”

Initially, Joshua was following the sounds of the voices, taking Lucas along to look for Nigel and Nellie. However, when they were near, they bumped into Neil.

Neil signaled at them to not make a noise. He brought them into a small, secluded room.

Because of the structure and position of the small room they were in, they did not suffer any injuries from the explosion of the underground warehouse.

That was why Joshua and Lucas were considered unharmed.

“Every child of yours is a talent.” Jude could not help but get emotional.

Joshua laughed. He turned around and scanned his surroundings. He did not see the person he wanted to see.

Noticing his gaze, Jude furrowed his brows. “She has gone back to the Blue

Bay Villa. She went back to get your marriage certificate so that she could break up Adrian’s press conference where he would pass the Lynch Group’s assets to Michael.”

Joshua furrowed his brows tightly. “Have they gone mad?”

Jude took a deep breath. He searched for the news and showed it to Joshua.

“Have a look. They wanted to get this done before you were found. By then, if you were dead, it would be great. If you survive, you won’t be able to get it back.”

Joshua's eyes narrowed a little. He looked at himself, covered in dust and dirt. His clothes were torn. Then, he looked at Jude's smart navy blue suit.

"Lend me your clothes."

Why?

"Luna doesn't need to go there. I'll go."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1215

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1215

Bonnie's Ferrare was fast.

From the outskirts where the abandoned factory was to Blue Bay Villa, a journey that would usually take half an hour, Bonnie only needed less than fifteen minutes.

When they returned to the villa, Luna immediately got out of the car and crazily ran toward the study room.

Bonnie followed behind. Looking at Luna's anxious figure, she could not help but sigh helplessly. Ever since she knew Luna, she had heard Luna say countless times, such words like:

"I have not liked Joshua in a long time! "

"Joshua is the person I hate the most right now."

"I will never like Joshua in my entire life."

However, at that moment, when Joshua was in danger, Luna was more worried about him than anybody else. She was even willing to protect Joshua's hard work for many years. She was even willing to take the marriage certificate out, risking herself in the process.

It had to be mentioned. Even if Luna was forced into it, the news of Luna getting engaged to Michael had been spread everywhere. The entire city knew about Luna being engaged to Michael.

If Luna were to take the marriage certificate at that moment to cause trouble at the scene where Michael was about to take over Joshua's fortune... The consequences would be unimaginable.

At that thought, Bonnie sighed. She did not believe that Luna had not thought of this. However, Luna still rushed upstairs without any hesitation to retrieve the marriage certificate.

"Aunty Bonnie."

In the hall, Nellie got down from the sofa. She blinked her huge eyes at Bonnie and looked at her seriously.

“Have we found Daddy? Why did Mommy run upstairs in such a rush?”

Bonnie came to her senses. She lowered her head and hugged Nellie’s small figure.

“Your Mommy...is trying her best to protect the family.”

When Luna rushed into the study, she quickly located the safe. To others, it might be extremely hard to locate Joshua’s safe, but it was a piece of cake for her.

Six years ago, she had been cleaning his study daily with all her best efforts.

She was even clearer than Joshua about where his things were.

For the past six years, everything in the study remained the same.

Nothing

had been moved.

When she located the safe, Luna took a deep breath. According to Jude, the code to the safe was their marriage anniversary. She keyed in the pin.

Click!

The door to the safe was opened.

In it were two red booklets and a few photos. There were even two jewelry boxes.

Luna paused for a while. She took all the things out of the safe. The two red booklets were her marriage certificate with Joshua.

The photos were rare photos of them together. Back then, she would lean on him and smile sweetly.

The two jewelry boxes. One of them was a design she did when she was bored at home six years ago, before the accident. In the box was a ring with the first letter of their names engraved on the inside of the ring. J and L.

The other jewelry box was the one Joshua gave to her during her last birthday, but she threw it aside.