

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1261

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1261

Luna stared at Samson, who was talking her ear off, and could not help chuckling. "You do know a lot, Samson."

Samson rolled his eyes at her. "Of course I do. My family is also one of the wealthiest and most influential families abroad alongside the Landrys and the Quinns, so how can I not know about gossip like this?"

With that, he pouted and said, "I can tell you're not interested in gossip like this at all, so I won't bother you any longer. It's almost time to get off work, anyway. You should go home and rest tonight. I'm still waiting for you to give me suggestions for my proposal tomorrow, so don't you dare be as absent-minded as you were today!"

Luna curled her lips into a smile. "Alright." It was already time to get off work.

The employees in the design department were already packing their bags to leave.

Luna remained seated alone in her office, her mind blank.

As soon as she closed her eyes, the image of the receipt she had found on Joshua's computer just now appeared in her mind, along with the note that read, (Payment].

Every time her mind cleared, she would recall Bonnie telling her that Jason had left on Joshua's private plane.

Luna felt as though she would go insane at any moment.

She took out her phone and called Bonnie. "I want to drink."

Bonnie remained silent for a moment, then asked, "Are you...sure?"

Bonnie knew better than anyone just how bad of a drinker Luna was.

When Luna got drunk,

she was often so wasted that she could not function.

"Of course." Luna let out a bitter chuckle. "I'm feeling a little frustrated."

Having heard this, Bonnie had no reason to refuse. "Alright then, I'll invite Anne as well."

An hour later, the three of them appeared in front of a bar.

Luna sat in a private room in the bar, clutching a bottle of beer.

Anne did not understand why Luna was upset and did not dare to ask her either, so she had no choice but to approach Bonnie surreptitiously. "What's going on?"

Bonnie let out a sigh and replied, "Aura told her something that turned out to be true, so Luna is upset about this."

Anne paused for a moment, then immediately understood.

This had something to do with Joshua.

Every time something like this happened, especially if it were something regarding Joshua,

Luna would get easily upset and agitated.

Anne let out a sigh and sat down next to Luna. "If something is bothering you, you shouldn't keep quiet about it. If I were you, I'd find Joshua and talk to him about this. Ask him whether he knew about everything, why he transferred money to Jason, and why he let Jason escape in his private plane.

“If everything turns out to be a misunderstanding, then this is a good way of resolving it.”

Luna, who was already wasted at that point, stared dazedly at Anne.

“What if... What if he said none of this was a misunderstanding...”

Anne pursed her lips. “If it’s not a misunderstanding, then no matter how good Joshua treats you, I advise you to break up with him. No matter how loyal he is to you now, he used to be a cold, heartless person!”

Bonnie frowned upon hearing this. “It’s obvious that Luna doesn’t want to break up with him. Otherwise, she wouldn’t be this upset.”

Truth be told, Bonnie understood exactly how Luna was feeling. Luna had loved Joshua for many years, and now that Joshua finally reciprocated, it was as though her sacrifices over these years had ultimately meant something. Should this incident ever reveal to Luna that Joshua was not as perfect as she made him out to be...

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1262

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1262

How could Bonnie bear to destroy Luna’s dream?

“Sometimes, you just have to rip the bandage off,” muttered Anne as she let out a sigh.

Then, she picked up Luna’s phone and dialed Joshua’s number.

The phone rang for a long time before it was finally answered. “Luna, didn’t I tell you not to call me?”

Aura was next to me just now.”

“Just because Aura was next to me means you won’t pick up Luna’s calls now?” scoffed

Anne, pursing her lips in disapproval. Then, she continued loudly, “ Joshua Lynch, Luna is drinking her sorrows away in a bar right now because of you. You know better than anyone how she gets when she’s drunk. Be here in an hour; Bonnie and I have something to ask you.

“If you don’t come within this hour, then we’ll bring Luna to flirt with the handsome guys downstairs.

That’s all from me. Goodbye!” With that, Anne hung up the phone.

On the other end of the line, Joshua, who was sitting in a restaurant, furrowed his brows when he heard the dial tone.

Luna was drinking her sorrows away because of him?

What made her so upset? Was it because of how close he and Aura were this afternoon?

This was all part of Luna’s plan. She was the one who came up with this strategy of hiding their relationship and playing along with Aura so she would be under the impression that she had everything under control and eventually bring out the antidote for Granny Lynch...

This was all part of Luna’s plan, was it not?

Joshua protested against this the entire morning, but Luna threatened not to speak to him ever again if he continued to refuse, so he had no choice but to give in.

It had barely been a day, yet why had Luna gotten so upset and jealous that she had to drown her sorrows in a bar? Joshua was the one who had to play along with Aura, yet Luna was the one upset instead.

“Joshua.” Aura sat down across from him after coming out of the washroom. “Who called you?”

Joshua regained his composure and curled his lips into a smile. “It was from the company.

They wanted me to return to work on some stuff, but I refused.”

Aura paused for a moment, then put on an understanding smile. “Since they’ve called you at this hour, this means that whatever it is must be urgent. Why did you refuse to help?”

Joshua lowered his head to continue eating. “I didn’t want you to think that I’m not putting my full attention on our date.”

Aura was delighted to hear this. “That’s okay. Even though you and I have only gotten back together today...we still have plenty of opportunities to spend time together in the future.

Don’t delay your work because of me.”

With that, she started ushering him to go back to work. “Go on. I can get home by myself later.”

Joshua pretended to be reluctant at this suggestion and contemplated for a moment. Then, finally, he gave Aura a few reminders to be careful before leaving.

After he left, Aura took out her phone triumphantly and dialed a number while watching Joshua’s retreating figure. “Sis, guess what? I’ve almost achieved my goal! Men are visual creatures and only have sex on their brains, after all!

“I went to Joshua’s room and laid there for a while this morning, giving him the impression that he slept with me last night, and his attitude toward me changed entirely.

“Not only did he suggest that we get back together for some time, but he even ignored Luna and almost refused to go back to work because of me! “

Aura continued in an excited tone, “Today, I witnessed with my own eyes how miserable

Luna looked, sitting in her office... Didn’t you say that after eating the poison you gave me, even undergoing psychological turmoil would cause the poison to take effect? I think she’s almost there now“ As soon as the poison takes effect, I’ll bring out the only antidote in the world and give it to Joshua so that he can use it to save Granny, right in front of Luna’s eyes...

“She’ll die with hatred for Joshua! “

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1263

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1263

When Joshua arrived at the bar, Luna was already so drunk that she was clinging onto Bonnie, spouting gibberish out of her mouth.

She cried and laughed at the same time and sometimes even mistook Bonnie as her father Joseph, reprimanding him for sending her biological sister away.

Sometimes, she mistook Bonnie as Neil and expressed her regret over failing to protect him.

However, most of the time, Luna clung to Bonnie and cried out Joshua's name, along with questions of „why“.

More specifically, questions of why did he give Jason money and why did he send Jason away.

“I know that deep down in your heart, you love me, but I don't understand... I don't understand! Since you love me, why did you ignore me even though I was sabotaged by someone else, and even...helped the culprit escape?”

This was what Joshua heard as soon as he stepped foot in the private room.

He furrowed his brows and immediately strode over to Bonnie's side.

Then, he released

Bonnie from Luna's grip and pulled her into his arms instead. “What on earth are you talking about?”

When did he ignore her when she needed help, and when did he help the culprit escape?

“Luna's right.” Anne crossed her arms in front of her chest and placed Luna's phone on the table, displaying the receipt she had taken a photo of earlier as well as the evidence that Bonnie had found. “Mr. Lynch, even though Luna is drunk now, I still think you have some explaining to do.

“Come on, explain to me why. Six years ago, after Luna's accident, did you promise to pay Jason two million dollars and let him leave in your private plane after he went to you for help? Also, what does this note mean? What did you mean, payment?

What did you pay Jason for?“

Joshua furrowed his brows and picked up the phone on the table while consoling Luna at the same time.

Joshua frowned as soon as he saw the offshore account that had transferred money to Jason. “I had indeed transferred this sum, and I was the one who had written this note, but...“

He lifted his head and glanced at Anne who, at this moment, was trying to remain calm, even though she was just as nervous to hear his answer. “Did the account belong to Jason? I didn’t know that.“

Bonnie frowned upon hearing this. “Then why did you transfer money to him and even write „payment“ in the note?“

“Because...“ Joshua rubbed his brows. “This was the last time I transferred money to Mr.
Adrian Lynch.“

For a period of time after Luna’s accident, Joshua could not concentrate on anything and constantly sat on Bay Bridge in a daze for a whole day.

Sometimes, when he was not on Bay Bridge, he would stay home and drink, ignoring his work completely.

Granny Lynch was worried that Lynch Group would collapse in this state, so she immediately tracked Adrian down in hopes that he would take up the responsibility of the man of the household.

However, not only did Adrian ignore all the tasks related to Lynch Group after returning to Banyan City, but he even asked for money from either Granny Lynch or Joshua himself.

Joshua was frustrated by this and finally decided to ask Adrian how much he wanted and pay him the sum instantly.

At that time, Adrian had given him this account number and asked for two million dollars.

After making the payment to him, Joshua never paid Adrian another penny.

However, he did not know that the account Adrian had provided him...belonged to Jason instead.

As soon as she heard this, Bonnie could not help but furrowed her brows. “Don’t you think this excuse is too much of a stretch, Mr. Lynch?

“Even though I rarely make bank transfers like this, I still think that according to your status and wealth... you’d check the identity of the account holder before making any transfers, wouldn’t you?

“How could you not look into this matter when you discovered that the account didn’t belong to your father, even though you were supposed to make a payment to him?”

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1264

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1264

Joshua furrowed his brows slightly upon hearing this.

He lifted his head to glance at Bonnie impassively, then said, “You’re right. If it had been the past, I would’ve looked into this matter.”

With that, he lowered his gaze and wiped a tear from the corner of Luna’s eye gently.

“However, Ms. Craig, you should know that this happened shortly after Luna’s accident.

“I had lost my entire world and was not in a good mental state for a while. Please forgive me for not having the mood or the time to investigate the account holder’s identity and their relationship to Adrian. As for the private plane...

“If I remember correctly, I didn’t give much notice to anything that happened during that time, so maybe Granny Lynch passed over the ownership of the private plane to Mr. Adrian.”

Bonnie and Anne froze upon hearing this.

They exchanged glances. None of them had imagined the truth to turn out like this...

Initially, they wanted to summon Joshua and force him to explain everything while Luna was drunk and, at the same time, reprimand him for breaking her heart.

To their surprise...not only did he manage to explain everything, but he even showcased his love toward Luna right in front of them.

After a moment, Joshua fixated his penetrating gaze on them. “Are you sure that this account belongs to Jason, and are you certain that Jason had left Banyan City in my private plane at that time?”

Bonnie nodded in reply. "According... According to what Aura told Luna, yes.

"Jason had gone to Lynch Mansion and found Mr. Lynch. He was the one whom Mr. Lynch and Ms. Gibson had hired to murder Luna. As soon as he received the two-million-dollar payment, he left Banyan City in a private plane that night..."

Joshua, whose arms were wrapped around Luna at this moment, stiffened when he heard this.

Everyone knew that apart from himself, there was only one other person who went by „Mr.

Lynch."

It was his father, Adrian.

At that time, after Luna's accident, Joshua spent most of his time either on Bay Bridge or drinking in his bedroom at Blue Bay Villa.

How could he have appeared at Lynch Mansion?

On top of that, the receipt of payment, as well as the private plane...

Joshua clutched Luna tightly in his arms and felt a cold feeling seep through his heart.

This meant that six years ago, Adrian had already known how Luna had died.

He knew everything since the start yet still chose to help Aura pay Jason and help him escape.

No wonder six years later, Aura would always notify Adrian immediately whenever something happened, whether it was him falling unconscious or being trapped in the underground warehouse so that Adrian could fight for the Lynch family inheritance.

It turned out that...when Luna suffered her accident six years ago, Adrian and Aura had already started working together.

Joshua had initially thought that Granny Lynch's illness was due to poisoning when she met Aura in person at the engagement party, but according to this new revelation...

Joshua narrowed his eyes as he contemplated this possibility.

Maybe...Aura was not the one who had poisoned Granny Lynch at all!

As soon as he thought of this, Joshua let out an exhale and gently set Luna down. "Please help me take good care of Luna. I have some urgent things to take care of."

Anne immediately frowned. "Where are you going?" "I'm going to find Mr. Adrian Lynch."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1265

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1265

The lights coming out of Lynch Mansion shone brightly in the night sky. Due to her illness, Granny Lynch was lying against the sofa, looking feeble.

Nigel massaged her feet in silence while Nellie held a book and told Granny Lynch The Little Mermaid story.

On the other side of the sofa, Celia was holding a stack of photos of other girls and showing them one by one to Michael. "Michael, look: these are the suitable girls that Granny has picked out for you according to their status and identity. Take a look and let me know if there's any that you're interested in."

Michael, whose brain was still haunted by the image of the hickeys on Aura's body this morning, shoved the photos aside in frustration. "I don't want to! If you want it so desperately, look at them yourself!"

"How dare you!" Adrian slammed his glass down on the coffee table with a thud and shot Michael a cold glance. "Your Granny is so ill that she wishes to see you get married and settle down while she's still alive. I'm still waiting for you to get married so you can bring good luck into this family and help Granny get better soon!"

"Even if you don't want to, you still have to look through these girls' photos!"

Celia furrowed her brows upon seeing the stern look on Adrian's face and lifted her arm to stop him. "Don't talk to Michael like this. You'll scare him."

She poured a glass of water and placed it in front of Granny Lynch. "Mom, you should drink more water since your body is weak."

With that, she poured two more glasses of water and placed them in front of Nigel and Nellie. "Nellie, you've been reading stories to Great -Granny for a long time now. Your voice must be getting hoarse. Drink some water.

"You must be exhausted as well, Nigel. Come on, drink some water. Granny will pour you some more after you're done."

Nigel furrowed his brows slightly upon hearing this, then lifted his head to glance at Celia coldly. "Only my father's biological mother is considered my Granny. I think it's best I call you Grandma Celia. I'm afraid that it isn't good to call you Granny." Celia's face turned pale upon hearing Nigel's words.

A hint of hatred flashed through her eyes. She let out a snort of indignation but did not say anything in reply. Instead, she returned to Michael's side and continued showing him the rest of the photos.

Nigel helped Granny Lynch up to drink the water.

Nellie, who had been reading the stories for a long time, could not stand it anymore either.

She picked up the glass of water that Celia had poured and gulped it down.

"Nellie," Nigel called out, frowning.

However, Nellie shrugged and took no notice of this.

"It's okay."

Even though Nigel had already reminded her countless times not to eat or drink anything that Celia had given, she thought it was alright. After all, she had seen Celia pour from the same jug that she used to pour for Granny Lynch.

If Granny Lynch was fine, then what was the worst that could happen?

When Joshua stepped into Lynch Mansion, the first thing he saw was Nellie and Granny Lynch drinking the water that Celia had poured.

A vein popped in his forehead, and he immediately lunged forward and snatched the unfinished glass of water out of Nellie's hand and put in a few drops of the medicine that he had been keeping in his pocket.

His guesses were correct.

The water in the glass turned green.

Joshua furrowed his brows and snatched the glass out of Granny Lynch's hand.

The water turned green as well.

“Daddy.” Nellie stared at the green water in shock and blinked as she asked, “What magic is this?”

Joshua scoffed. “This isn't magic. Grandma Celia has poisoned the water!”

The entire room fell into silence at this. Nigel and Nellie exchanged a glance.

A split second later, Nellie clutched her throat as she started retching.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1266

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1266

Nellie continued clutching her throat as she cried out to Nigel, “Quick, help Great -Granny get the water out!”

Nigel froze for a moment, then shook his head. “It's no use anymore...”

Great-Granny had been using this jug and glass for almost a year, and Celia was the one who had prepared the water for her during this time. If Celia had intended to poison her...then this day would not have been the first day.

“What are you talking about, Joshua?” Celia, who was sitting on the other side of the sofa, could not help but frown upon hearing this. She tossed the photos in her hand onto the coffee table and stared at Joshua with an accusatory expression.

“We’ve been living in peace all this while, and I was just pouring Granny Lynch and the children some water out of kindness. How could you accuse me of poisoning them as soon as you drip some paint into the water?”

Joshua curled his lips into a smirk, then proffered the medicine to her.

“Aunty Celia, let me introduce you to this. This is a drug testing substance that was provided to me by a famous doctor abroad. It’s formulated specially to detect the kind of poison that was given to Granny Lynch by the Landry family many years ago.”

With that, he poured a glass of water from the water dispenser machine next to him and put a drop of the poison testing substance into it.

However, the water did not change color at all.

The color drained from Celia’s face as she stiffened.

However, she still did not want to admit the truth. “Who knows if this is the same substance that you put inside Granny Lynch and Nellie’s glass? Don’t think that you can scare me with some color-changing paint!”

“That’s right.” Michael scoffed and chimed in, “I don’t even know where you got this paint.

Didn’t Luna put a few drops of this into the soup last night? The color was much darker than the color of the water just now.

“When I saw the greenish hue, I thought it was some special condiment, but there was no taste to the soup at all.

“If this paint can really detect poison, then why am I fine right now? it’s already been 24 hours since I drank that entire bowl of soup.”

Adrian immediately widened his eyes upon hearing this. He said in a shaky voice, “Michael!

You...you drank the soup that Luna poured a drug-testing substance into?”

Michael glanced at Adrian and Celia, who were as pale as ghosts, and said, “Why are you so worried? I’m fine.”

“What do you mean, you’re fine?”

It was clear that Michael had drunk the soup that Aura had poisoned. Celia was agitated by this and immediately dragged Michael out of the room. “Come! Go to the hospital with me!”

“I’m fine, really!”

“You’re fine now, but this is a slow-acting poison. It’ll only take effect when it’s achieved a certain concentration in your body after a while! How can I be sure that the poison won’t take effect inside you without undergoing a checkup? I’ll be worried sick!” Celia cried and brought Michael out of the room.

Their voices grew further and further away. The entire living room fell into silence.

As soon as Adrian lifted his head, he met Granny Lynch’s furious gaze. He let out an awkward cough and said, “Um, I’ll go check on Michael, too.” With that, he tried to escape.

However, Nigel stood up and blocked his path. “ Granddad, it seems like you’ve known all about the poison that Grandma Celia put into the water all along. Don’t you think you should stay and explain what your entire family is trying to do to Great-Granny and Daddy ?“

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1267

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1267

“Get out of my way! “

Adrian knew what was about to happen if he did not escape in time, so he immediately shoved Nigel out of his way. “F*ck off! You’re just as troublesome as your b*tch of a mother!

“

Nellie immediately widened her eyes upon hearing this. She stared at Adrian in shock, gaping. “ Granddad...”

Out of all three of Luna’s children, Nellie was the one who was the fondest of Adrian. Adrian had supported Nellie’s love of design in the past and even complimented her talent.

After discovering that Luna’s true identity was Moon, he summoned Luna to be Nellie’s teacher.

However, at this moment, Adrian had called both Luna and Nigel profanities.

Nellie bit down on her lip. Tears streamed down her face soundlessly as she said in a choked, shaky voice, “What am I to you then, Granddad?”

Adrian stiffened when he saw the tears trickling down Nellie’s face. He furrowed his brows, but before he could even answer, Granny Lynch shot Alfred a meaningful look, and he slammed the front door closed.

There was no escape.

“Adrian!” Granny Lynch snapped. Even though her face was pale as she laid against the couch, she still commanded a strong, domineering presence. “Can you explain what is going on?”

With that, she glanced at the glass of green water and tossed it at Adrian’s feet. “Did you really poison me?”

Adrian remained motionless and stared at Granny Lynch in fear.

“Mother, that’s not true at all. Please listen to me—”

“How are you going to explain this, Mr. Lynch?” Joshua narrowed his eyes and sneered at Adrian. “I’ve appointed countless specialists to look after Granny Lynch all this time, and the conclusion was that she had once again gotten poisoned by the same kind of drug that she encountered in the past.”

As he said this, Joshua’s expression darkened when he glanced at the water at Adrian’s feet.

The amount of poison in this glass of water was much more than the amount that Aura administered to Luna every day.

Celia was so agitated upon hearing that Michael too had drunk the soup from last night that she brought him to the hospital immediately. As for Granny, however... She had been drinking this high concentration of poison for a while... As soon as he thought of this, a pained expression flashed through Joshua's eyes. He turned and glared at Adrian. "I thought you were just a useless man and cared more about yourself, Celia, and Michael more than us, but I never thought you'd let Celia poison Granny. She's your mother, for God's sake! Where do you draw the line?"

Adrian's expression darkened upon hearing this. He turned his face away to avoid Joshua's gaze and replied, "I don't understand what you're talking about." "Do you really not know, or are you just pretending?" Joshua sneered. "I know that the reason Granny Lynch fell ill is that she was poisoned, but I always thought that Aura was the one who had done this to her when they last saw each other. I never thought that you'd be in on this as well and would try to kill Granny!"

At this moment, Granny Lynch slumped onto the sofa and started coughing violently. She was coughing so hard that tears began to stream down her face. She lifted her head to stare at Adrian with red-rimmed eyes. "What is going on, Adrian?"

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1268

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1268

"Have you been planning this with the Landry family?"

Adrian lowered his gaze but did not reply.

Granny Lynch was so agitated that she could not stop coughing and finally spat out a mouthful of blood. “Adrian Lynch! If you don’t answer me right now, I’ll kick you out of the house!”

As soon as he heard this, Adrian furrowed his brows and lifted his head to meet Granny Lynch’s gaze. “You’re right. I got this poison from Aura, and I was the one who poisoned you according to Aura’s instructions.”

He shrugged and plopped down in the seat across from Granny. “Aura said that the Landrys are still angry at you for chasing them out of Banyan City in the past, so they sent Aura back to take revenge.

“Therefore, as long as I cooperate with Aura and administer poison into your food, then take a video of your ill state, Aura will be able to show it to the Landrys and accomplish her mission.”

With that, he shrugged nonchalantly and added, “Aura even said that she has the antidote to this, but she wants to wait until a critical moment before she brings out the antidote. As soon as she does, you’ll get better after taking the antidote and resting for a few years.

Meanwhile, she can bring the recording back to the Landrys and show them what she accomplished.”

Adrian placed his hands on the sofa armrest and said triumphantly, “Isn’t this the best outcome?”

Granny Lynch clenched her hands into fists. “The best outcome?”
How could he say this so casually?

Since Aura belonged to the Landry family, Granny Lynch knew exactly what kind of people
they were, having interacted with them so many times in the past.
Would Aura really bring out the antidote, even though she claimed she would?

The Landrys had promised to send Granny Lynch’s daughter back, but did they follow through with it?

The only thing they sent back was a corpse!

Besides, even if Aura kept to her word and brought out the antidote, she would still need a few years to recover from this illness!

She was already more than 70 years old! How many more years did she even have to live?

“According to you, Mr. Lynch, the best outcome is poisoning Granny, and as soon as she dies, you’ll bring your wife and son over to fight for the inheritance against me...” Joshua sneered as he gazed at Adrian. “Am I right?”

The color drained from Adrian’s face.

Joshua was right. Aura’s main focus was making Luna’s life miserable.
She wanted to make both Granny Lynch and Luna fall ill at the same time and force Joshua to save Granny out of familial love, which would devastate Luna.

However, Adrian did not intend to follow Aura's plan at all. This was why he had allowed Celia to poison Granny Lynch.

What use was there to keep Granny Lynch around since she would only show them kindness if they took care of her?

At least, if she died, Adrian would have the freedom to fight for the inheritance for Michael!

Michael and Celia had already been through too much over the years. It was about time they sat back and enjoyed life at Lynch Mansion!

Adrian's refusal to answer was already an answer of its own.

"You— " Granny Lynch was so enraged that she clutched onto her chest while pointing at Adrian with another hand, shaking. "How dare you! I already wanted to chase the three of you out of the Lynch family, but because of my sudden illness, I softened and let you continue staying here instead, but it turns out... It turns out that you were the reason I even fell sick in the first place! "

Granny Lynch clutched her chest and spat out a mouthful of blood with a sputter, staining the coffee table red.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1269

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1269

Granny Lynch was immediately sent to the hospital.

Outside the emergency room, Adrian grabbed onto Joshua's collar in anger and glared at him. "If anything happens to Mother tonight, I won't forgive you! "

Joshua could not help but curl his lips into a smirk upon hearing this. He lifted his head to stare at Adrian coldly and said, a hint of contempt playing on his lips, “You deliberately let Celia put so much poison in Granny’s drink. Haven’t you been waiting for this day to arrive?”

“What’s wrong? Why are you so afraid that something bad would happen to Granny? Is it because everything happened so suddenly and didn’t go according to your plan, so Granny didn’t even have time to prepare a will?”

Adrian’s face blushed scarlet, then turned white, then blushed again. Then, after a moment, he gritted his teeth and glowered at Joshua. “She’s my mother! “

Joshua sneered, then turned around and grabbed Adrian’s collar instead. “Since when did you value family so much, Mr. Lynch? If you really cared about Granny, then why did you let Celia poison her in the first place?

“If you truly valued relationships, why did you help Aura in the first place and hide the truth six years ago, even though Luna had been nothing but kind to you?”

Adrian was so stunned by this question that he froze. Then, after a long time, he let out a snicker. “You found out about everything, didn’t you?”

Six years ago, after Luna suffered her accident, Joshua spent all of his time either on Bay Bridge or cooped up in Luna’s room, drinking.

At that time, like the rest of the citizens in Banyan City, Jason did not know that Joshua had been living at Blue Bay Villa ever since he got married. They only knew of Lynch Mansion.

Therefore, Jason arrived at Lynch Mansion, carrying evidence of Luna's murder to claim his payment for „ Mr. Lynch and Ms. Gibson's request."

Adrian managed to discover what had happened through Jason's description. Initially, he wanted to tell everything to Joshua, but before he could do so, Celia got in touch with him.

As soon as she found out about this, she suggested a better idea instead.

She suggested Adrian use his identity to trick Jason into thinking that Joshua was the one who had tried to kill Luna and send him off with the money.

Not only would this allow Joshua to be immersed in the grief of Luna's death, but they would be able to use this against Aura and gain some advantages.

On top of that, if Joshua could not move on from Luna's death, Adrian would be able to bring Michael back to Banyan City and inherit the Lynch family fortune.

However...

Soon after that, Michael was charged with sexual harassment in bars, so he had to go into hiding, and because of the will that Aura had faked, Joshua managed to recover from his grief successfully.

Adrian's plan did not manage to go on after all. However, he still remembered everything.

At one point, when Aura suspected that Joshua and Luna's relationship would improve,

Adrian even shared this secret with her so that she could use this to sabotage their relationship.

Judging from the way Joshua acted, Adrian guessed that Aura had finally come clean with the truth.

As soon as he thought of this, Adrian curled his lips into a small smile.

“You believe Luna had been nothing but kind to me? That’s just what you think! After you got married to her, I asked her for money because you refused to give me. Do you know how much she gave me? Only a few thousand dollars each time!

“She was already the renowned Mrs. Lynch at that time but gave only a few thousand dollars to an elderly in need! How stingy is that? What right do you have to say she was kind to me?”

Joshua furrowed his brows upon hearing this. He had no idea that Adrian had asked Luna for money in the past!

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1270

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1270

Even though he and Luna were married, she had never asked Joshua for money and did not like spending his money either.

Most of the time, she worked part-time selling her artwork online and did some simple sketches to earn money. Therefore, her monthly income was only several thousand dollars.

According to Adrian, this meant that Luna had given him most of her salary. However, he was still unsatisfied and instead thought that Luna had deliberately given him such a measly amount to humiliate him!

Joshua clenched his fists so hard that his knuckles cracked. “What right did you have to ask Luna for money?”

“She’s my daughter-in-law! You two were so close after your marriage, and you must’ve given her a lot of money! How could she send me off just like that? I didn’t think it was much of a pity even if she died!”

Joshua’s fist crashed against Adrian’s face with a slam.

This man was involved in Rianna’s death all those years ago, and even though he knew who the mastermind behind Luna’s murder was six years ago, he continued to help Aura.

As soon as he found out Joshua was hurt, he returned to Banyan City multiple times with his son in an attempt to fight for the inheritance.

He even attempted to kill Granny Lynch so that he could fake a will and steal the Lynch family inheritance from Joshua!

Joshua did not understand the use of allowing this man to live.

As soon as he thought of this, Joshua brought his fist down again to Adrian’s face.

Adrian did not see this coming and took a few steps back from the impact. Finally, he propped himself up against the wall with his arms, blood seeping out of the corner of his lips. “I’m your father, Joshua Lynch! Are you crazy?”

“I don’t have a father like you!” Joshua bit down on his lip forcefully, then grabbed onto Adrian and brought down more punches.

Again and again, he landed multiple blows on Adrian's body.

Seeing that Adrian was about to collapse soon, Nigel and Nellie, who had been silent all this while, immediately exchanged glances.

Finally, Nigel took out his phone and dialed Jude's number.

Ten minutes later, Jude hastily arrived at the scene. When he came, Joshua was still pressing Adrian down against the floor, landing more punches all over his body. Adrian lay against the marble floor, his entire face so red and swollen that he was no longer recognizable. However, Joshua showed no intention of stopping.

The doctors and nurses stood all around them in the hallway, but none of them dared to stop Joshua.

Seeing that Jude had arrived, Nigel immediately approached him and dragged him over to where Joshua and Adrian were.

Jude furrowed his brows at this sight and immediately grabbed hold of Joshua, who had almost gone insane. "Joshua! Stop! Even if you beat him to death, it won't make Granny Lynch come out of the emergency room faster!"

Joshua finally let out a sigh of relief and unclenched his fists.

Adrian remained slumped on the floor for a long while before finally climbing up. He leaned against the wall and glared at Joshua coldly. "Aura said that this poison takes its effect whenever one undergoes extreme psychological stress, and it's fatal. "Joshua, the things you said in front of Granny today made her so stressed that she had to be admitted into the emergency room. If anything bad happens to her, you'll be the culprit!

“

As soon as he finished his sentence, the light outside the emergency room door turned off.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1271

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1271

Adrian glared at Joshua and strode forward to approach the doctor.

“How is she, doctor?”

“Don't worry, she's out of danger,” the doctor replied. He let out a sigh, glanced first at Adrian, then at Joshua. “It's just that she's unconscious now, and from my speculation, the earliest she'll regain consciousness is in about 6 hours.”

The doctor's words made Adrian's heart skip a beat. “Then...how about the worst-case scenario?”

The doctor shook his head but did not say anything in response.

The color drained from Adrian's face, and he took a step back.

No answer. This meant Granny Lynch might not even wake up at all.

How could this happen? He had not had the chance to fake her will yet.

Joshua was the one who possessed ownership over the entire Lynch family fortune, and even taking a small sum of money from him would be extremely difficult. If Granny Lynch died without a will, Adrian knew that he would not have a single chance to inherit any fortune from the family!

Adrian turned around and gave Joshua a murderous glare. “It’s all your fault!”

As soon as he said this, he fell into a brief silence and suddenly recalled that Aura still had the antidote.

If he managed to get the antidote, Granny Lynch would be able to regain consciousness soon.

As soon as he thought of this, Adrian took a deep breath and turned to leave without even giving Granny Lynch, who was wheeled out of the emergency room, a second glance.

”What a good-for-nothing b*stard.” Jude snapped as he shot Adrian’s retreating figure a murderous look. Then, after a moment, he turned around.

Joshua was standing next to Granny Lynch’s bed, holding onto her hand with red-rimmed eyes.

His penetrating gaze was fixated on Granny Lynch’s face, the sadness and regret in his eyes so deep that it seemed endless.

Jude sighed, went up to Joshua, and gave him a few pats on his back.

”He’s right. It’s all my fault,” muttered Joshua as he stared at Granny Lynch’s pale face and closed eyes. ”I always thought Granny was a mentally strong person. If I don’t let her know what kind of person Adrian and Celia are, she’ll never be awakened from the truth and keep on thinking that this was the kind of family I needed to be around after she died.”

As he said this, Joshua gently stroked Granny Lynch's wrinkled face. "I guess to me, family isn't that important at all. Who would've thought such a useless man as Adrian would mean so much to Granny..."

All these years, Adrian had never been a reliable person. He never contributed to any of Lynch Group's work, and he had never taken up a father's responsibility.

Joshua thought Granny Lynch had already gotten used to this and had been disappointed in him for a long time, but to his surprise...

Jude did not know how to console Joshua, so all he could do was let out a sigh and reply,

"Maybe the older people get, the more they'll value family."

After a few more check-ups to make sure Granny Lynch's condition had stabilized, Joshua followed the doctor as they wheeled her into the ICU.

After coming out from the ICU, Joshua made sure the doctor gave Nellie, who was poisoned too, a check-up as well.

Once confirmed that Nellie was fine, Joshua let out a sigh of relief and asked Jude to send Nellie and Nigel back to Lynch Mansion before giving Bonnie a call.

He had been busy almost all night. Despite this, he had not forgotten about the woman who was alone and sad in the bar because of Adrian.

At this moment, Bonnie and Anne had already moved a drunken Luna from the bar to a hotel room upstairs.

When Joshua entered through the door, a drunken Luna was clinging to Anne, sobbing and laughing at the same time. “Joshua... How could you let me suspect you? Why didn’t you explain to me what was going on?”

Joshua let out a helpless sigh, walked up to Anne, and pulled Luna out of her arms and into his. “How could I possibly explain if you never even asked me?

Hmm/”

He held her tightly and managed to coax her onto the bed.

Anne and Bonnie exchanged glances, then left the room unanimously.

”Luna. ” Joshua pulled her close to him and closed his eyes as he inhaled the scent of her hair.

He was not the same as Adrian.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1272

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1272

After what happened with Granny Lynch, Joshua could not possibly not worry and not blame himself.

Most importantly, he felt guilty for what had happened.

Ever since he was young, Granny taught him to have a strong heart.

Growing up, all he saw was Granny’s cold personality and strong mentality.

He never expected that one day...Granny Lynch would become so frail and weak.

Luna seemed to sense Joshua’s emotions and suddenly quieted down.

She bit her lip, turned around, and wrapped her arms around Joshua.

“You still have me with you...”

A sleepless night.

The following morning, Luna woke up as soon as the sun rose. She opened her eyes and let out a yawn.

She looked around at the foreign environment she was in and frowned. Just as she was about to get up and use the bathroom, she suddenly realized that there were someone else's arms wrapped around her. Even though she could not see his face, she knew immediately who it was.

Luna furrowed her brows.

When did Joshua get here? Did he not go for a dinner date with Aura last night?

All Luna remembered was that she had gone drinking with Bonnie and Anne.

Joshua probably sensed Luna's movement and slowly let go of her, his brows furrowed. As soon as he released her, he rolled over to face the other direction.

Luna was able to move again, but she was still very much confused about the whole situation. She got up, grabbed her phone, and went into the bathroom.

Initially, Luna wanted to give either Bonnie or Anne a call, but she was bombarded with a seemingly endless stream of messages as soon as she switched her phone on.

Anne had sent her a voice message.

Luna furrowed her brows and pressed play. Joshua's low voice rang out through the phone...

Luna's eyes widened in shock. Adrian was the mastermind behind Jason's escape six years ago ?

All of a sudden, Luna came to a realization, and she knocked on her head.

How could she forget that there were two „Mr. Lynch „ ? There was only one other person besides Joshua...

Luna let out an exhale and played the message once more.

The truth had finally surfaced.

She bit down on her lip and played the message again.

“You should know that this happened shortly after Luna"s accident.

“I had lost my entire world and was not in a good mental state for a while.“

Luna felt a surge of warmth spread through her heart as soon as she heard these two sentences uttered in Joshua"s low voice.

She exited the chat box with Anne, blushing.

The message at the top of the screen was from Nigel. Luna immediately frowned and opened it.

Nigel used a serious and short text to describe what had happened at Lynch Mansion and Granny Lynch the night before.

After learning what had happened, Luna was so shocked that she was rendered speechless for a long time.

Right at that moment, her phone rang. It was an unknown number. She frowned and answered the call.

“Hello, I"m Alfred, the butler from Lynch Mansion. I"m at the hospital now. Are you free to stop by ?

Granny Lynch had awoken, and the first thing she said when she woke up was that she wanted to see you.“

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1273

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1273

The call from Alfred came as a surprise to Luna. “Are you sure...

Granny Lynch wanted to see me?“ she asked.

In recent years, Luna and Granny Lynch's relationship had been complicated. Back when she was Luna Gibson, the moment she married Joshua, Granny Lynch treated her like an enemy, with nothing but hatred. She tried all kinds of ways to make Luna's life difficult, intending to drive her out of the Lynch family.

After Luna suffered her accident, underwent plastic surgery, changed her identity to Luna, and brought Neil and Nellie back to Banyan City, Granny Lynch thought she had bad intentions and even helped Aura make Luna's life difficult, too.

Shortly after that... Granny Lynch discovered that she was the same person as Luna Gibson, and as soon as she found out about the things had gone through, she changed her opinion.

She no longer mistreated her, and she sometimes even stood up for Luna. However, none of these changed the dynamic of their relationship, and they did not grow closer at all, to the extent that Granny Lynch would want to see her as soon as she woke up.

“Yes, Ms. Luna, you heard me correctly,” Alfred replied in a solemn tone. “Granny Lynch requested to see you.”

Luna was stunned. However, she did not hesitate and immediately replied, “Alright, I’ll be on my way.”

As soon as she hung up the phone, she let out an exhale. Then, after washing her face quickly, she turned around and strode out of the bathroom.

Outside the bathroom, Joshua had already woken up. At this moment, he was leaning against the headboard in exhaustion, checking his phone.

As soon as he saw Luna coming out of the bathroom, he smiled and said, “Granny is awake.”

Luna nodded. “I know. I wanted to visit her. Can you drive me over?” She did not mention to him that it was Granny Lynch that wanted to see her because she did not want him to over think this.

A glimmer of surprise flashed across Joshua’s face. Then, after a moment, he chuckled and got up immediately. He went into the bathroom to freshen up, then took Luna to the hospital.

To both their surprise.... As soon as they got off the hospital elevator, the first person they saw standing outside Granny Lynch’s ward was Aura.

When Aura heard their footsteps coming from the elevator, she turned around and saw Joshua and Luna together.

Aura furrowed her brows at this sight. Then, she strode toward the two of them and gave Luna a cold glare. "I wondered why Joshua wasn't home this morning. Now I know it's because someone tried to seduce him."

Aura grabbed onto Joshua's arm and gave Luna a triumphant look. "Oh, don't you know?"

This man is mine now.

"Luna, please be mindful and keep your distance from Joshua and me.

Otherwise, don't blame me for being rude when I chase you out of Blue Bay Villa!

"Aura warned.

Luna could not help curling her lips into a smile when she heard this.

"What makes you think you'll be the one chasing me out? What if it's the opposite way round?"

Aura frowned and turned to Joshua with a pitiful expression. "Joshua!

Look how she talks to me! She even wants to chase me out of Blue Bay Villa!"

Joshua feigned disapproval and lifted his head to shoot Luna a cold glance. "Aren't you here to see Granny Lynch? Why don't you go in first?"

With that, he turned to leave, pulling Aura along behind him. "Have you had your breakfast?" he asked.

"No, I haven't..." Aura replied.

Luna remained motionless as Joshua and Aura's voices faded away.

Finally, she let out a sigh of relief and walked into the ward.

It had been a while since she last saw Granny Lynch. At that moment,

Granny Lynch was lying on the bed, and she looked paler than the wall behind her. Her entire face was covered in wrinkles, as though she had aged ten years since the last time they met.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1274

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1274

“Luna. “ Granny Lynch sighed and slowly reached out to hold onto Luna’s. “Do you blame me back when Granny treated you harshly?” she asked.

Luna paused for a moment, then held onto her hand tightly and shook her head. “You’re an elder to the family; you took care of Joshua for so many years. How could I ever blame you for anything?”

“I „m not a responsible elder.“ Granny Lynch closed her eyes and sighed. “The truth is, you’re a good kid. I hated you...because you looked too much like the woman that I hate. Just too alike...”

Granny Lynch let out a bitter smile. Then, she replied with a hoarse voice, “That woman, she’s the reason why my daughter is dead. I „ll never forgive her.”

Luna frowned and asked dubiously, “Your... daughter?”

“Yes.“ Granny Lynch sighed in sorrow. “Other than Joshua, I had a daughter. When she was 18, she fell in love with the wrong man, and they ran away together. Later, she was killed by that woman. When I managed to get her back, even the corpse wasn’t complete...”

Granny Lynch closed her eyes, and tears started streaming from the corner of her eyes. “I hate that woman. When I saw your face, my first instinct was to hate you, and I did many things that I shouldn’t have done, but one thing is clear. You’re a good kid.

“Therefore, after I found out that the current Luna was the same person as Luna Gibson, I started to like you. It’s just that...the things that happened in the past still created misunderstanding between us.”

Granny Lynch sighed and added, “Thankfully, all the misunderstandings are cleared now.”

When her body started to show problems, she knew very well that someone had poisoned her.

During that time, Granny Lynch assumed that the person who had returned from abroad and looked the same as the woman she detested was the person that poisoned her.

Therefore, Granny Lynch went to Joshua’s house and claimed that Luna would eventually abandon Joshua and leave with the children. This was also why Granny Lynch pushed Joshua to grow closer with Adrian and Michael.

She understood too well...how important Luna was to Joshua. She was afraid that if Joshua found out Luna was the person who poisoned Granny Lynch, Joshua would be devastated.

However, when Joshua went to find Adrian the night before, the truth had been exposed. It turned out the person who had a relationship with the Landry's was Aura. Luna pursed her lips. She did not ask any further questions on what made Granny Lynch have the misunderstanding against her. Instead, she held Granny Lynch's hand tightly and said, "As long as you believe me, that's good enough for me." "I believe you." Granny Lynch lifted her head to look eyes with Luna. "I'm old now, and I can't take care of Joshua forever, but if you ask me, the only thing that prevents me from resting in peace is Joshua." Granny Lynch let out an exhale and said in a low, hoarse voice, her foggy eyes still fixated on Luna's face, "Luna, can you promise me one thing?" "Yes, tell me what it is." "Joshua's father and brother have become distant from him. After I'm gone, and if you leave him, he'll be...very lonely." Granny Lynch let out an exhale and continued, "No matter who you are or what you become in the future, please don't ever give up on Joshua."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1275

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1275

Luna's entire body stiffened. She gripped Granny Lynch's hand even tighter and reassured her, "Don't worry." "I..." Luna paused and took a deep breath. Suddenly, the recent memories of Joshua appeared in her mind, from all the things that Joshua did for her to Joshua's voice from Anne's message.

These made her even more determined to commit to him, so she replied earnestly, "I promise that no matter what happens in the future, I'll never give up on Joshua."

With the reassurance from Luna, Granny Lynch finally felt the sense of relief she wanted. She closed her eyes and let go of Luna's hand.

The machines around her started beeping. The doctors rushed into the room.

"The patient's condition is deteriorating! Get me some epinephrine!

Non-medical personnel,
please evacuate the room! "

Luna was pulled out of the room by Alfred. Soon after, Granny Lynch's bed was surrounded by doctors, trying to resuscitate her.

A drop of tear fell out of the corner of Luna's eye without warning.

Granny Lynch's condition had worsened yet, at the same time, she was also Joshua's closest family member.

Luna clenched both her fists, and she released herself from Alfred's grip. "You wait here. I will get Dr. Janet."

With that, she took a deep breath and got on the elevator.

Granny Lynch's condition could no longer wait. Luna had to gamble her luck.

Finally, she reached Dr. Janet's office and pushed open the door. "Dr. Janet, do you still remember what I told you?"

Dr. Janet raised her eyebrows and glanced at Luna. "To alter your body's physical state to that of a poisoned person's would cause a lot of health consequences. Are...you willing to undergo that?"

Luna nodded.

Dr. Janet lowered her head to glance at the medical profile Luna provided. "I don't care whether or not this method could get the antidote for Granny Lynch first. Even if we succeed in getting the antidote, her age and body condition cannot guarantee that she'll be healthy from here on out. Do you think it's worth it to make this sacrifice for an old lady who might not even live long enough to reap the benefits? Not to mention, she's not your family."

Luna let out an exhale and replied, "But she's a relative of the most important person to me."

To Joshua, Granny Lynch was his only family member. This meant that for Luna, she was family, too.

Even if it could only prolong her life for a year, this effort would be worthwhile.

Dr. Janet glanced at Luna and noticed the stubborn look in her eyes. She knew there was no way she could convince Luna to stop, so she had no choice but to relent. "Since you have decided, then let's do it. But I have to warn you of the outcome... You might need three to five years to recover back to the state you are in now. Can you accept this?"

Luna nodded earnestly. “Yes.”

Joshua brought Aura to the restaurant across the hospital to have breakfast.

Aura bombarded him with questions as though she was already his wife.

“Last night...were you really at the office working?”

“No, I went to Lynch Mansion after that, and ever since Granny got admitted into the hospital, I’ve been taking care of her since.”

“Then how about Luna? Why did the both of you appear in the hospital together?”

“It was just a coincidence.”

“Then— “

Before Aura even got to finish her sentence, someone rushed into the restaurant. Lucas stormed into the restaurant in a panic and cried out, “Sir, something bad happened! “

Joshua furrowed his brows at this. “What happened?”

“Luna! “ Lucas was trying to catch his breath.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1276

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1276

“Luna is in the emergency room! Her situation is critical! “

A cold expression passed through Joshua’s eyes. “ What happened to her?”

“I don’t know! “ A confused Lucas was panicking. “ Doctor said her condition was worse than what happened to Courtney, just like...just like what happened to Granny Lynch!

“I just came out of the emergency room. The doctor wants me to find Luna’s next of kin to sign the operation consent form, but I don't know who Luna's next of kin is, so I came to you! "

Lucas' panic made a hint of triumphed flash through Aura's heart. She immediately stood up and said, " Why did you come to Joshua ?

"Joshua and Luna have no relationship whatsoever. You might as well come to me instead.

At least, I'm her sister."

With that, she strode in the direction of the door and said, "Let's go. I'd like to see what happened to my dearest sister."

Joshua's expression darkened as he watched Aura gracefully walk away. He quickly followed her and asked in a low voice, "What's going on? Is it that serious?"

Lucas was drenched in sweat. He wiped away the sweat on his head and replied in a hoarse voice, "Sir, I didn't lie to you. You told me before that if Luna pretended to be sick, I have to inform you as soon as possible and make it sound like it is worse than it is. I remembered it all, but this time...Luna doesn't seem like she is pretending.

"I saw her just now in the emergency room. She really looks like she's dying! "

Hearing this made Joshua stunned.

How did this happen? According to Luna's plan, she would pretend to get poisoned so that

Aura would believe she's poisoned and willingly give the cure to Granny Lynch, so how did this happen?

As soon as he thought of this, Joshua furrowed his brows. Then, he stepped forward, took Aura's hand, and rushed back to the hospital urgently.

When Aura felt Joshua's hand on hers, she could sense how desperate and anxious Joshua felt. She narrowed her eyes, and a cold expression passed over her face. Even though Joshua had claimed he did not care about Luna anymore, it seemed like deep down, he still had feelings for Luna.

This revelation made Aura's longing for Luna to die to grow even more intense.

Minutes later, the two of them arrived at the emergency room where Luna was being resuscitated.

The doctors were still trying to save her. The emergency room door kept opening and closing as doctors and nurses from different departments walked in and out. It was evident that the situation inside the room was not good at all.

Joshua could not hold it in anymore, so he grabbed hold of a doctor who came out from the room and asked, "How's the patient inside?"

The doctor shook his head, helplessness etched all over his face, and replied, "It's very bad, very bad.

"In all of my professional years, this is the first time I've ever seen a person's organs deteriorate so badly and so quickly. Please, let me go. I have to seek the hospital director's opinion on how to deal with this situation..."

With that, the doctor pushed Joshua's hand away, turned around, and left.

The doctor's statement made Aura even more excited. She grabbed the doctor's hand and asked in a gentle voice, "Ms. Luna's situation now...how is it compared to next door's Granny Lynch?"

"Their situation shows a lot of similarities." The doctor sighed. "But Granny Lynch's condition was a result of years of being poisoned. As for this lady...we do not know what caused this.

It seems like she was heavily poisoned. The doctor that prescribed the medication to her, Dr.

Janet, has disappeared. When we found Luna, she had already fainted.

Whether she can survive or not, it's entirely up to fate."

As soon as the doctor finished his sentence, the color drained from Joshua's face.

He stormed toward the emergency room like an arrow that was released from a bow.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1277

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1277

"Joshua!"

Seeing Joshua about to rush into the emergency room, Aura reached out to pull Joshua and shouted, "You're not supposed to go into the emergency room! You're not a doctor. If you go in, you'll be a disturbance to the operation!"

Joshua's eyes were red, and he insisted on going into the room. "I can't stop worrying!"

Luna had initially planned to ask Dr. Janet about the symptoms and eat some medication that would trigger the same reaction in her body to fake the illness, so why did she end up in the emergency room all of a sudden?

Why did Dr. Janet went missing?

“Sir.” Lucas stepped forward and held onto Joshua’s arm with Aura.

“Please calm down, and don’t try to go in. Luna is being saved...and the situation inside is bad.

If you go in, it’ll interrupt this critical timing for the doctors... Luna will be even more at risk!”

Lucas’ persuasion worked. Joshua regained control of his emotions and stopped acting up.

He sat down in a chair and wrapped his hands together, staring at the emergency room door with a penetrating gaze.

Luna had to be okay!

If he had known this would happen, he would never agree to this plan in the first place, even if Luna pleaded or threw a tantrum.

Aura sat down next to Joshua. Seeing the way his hands were clenched together as well as the anxious expression on his face, she felt as though an invisible hand was squeezing her heart.

He still very much cared for Luna. He still had not moved on!

Aura clenched her fists. Since he cared about her so much, then no matter what, she could not let Luna live!

Killing Luna was not just for her and her sister's status. More importantly, it was for her own good!

Aura was not planning just to take Luna's life. Instead, she wanted her to suffer in hatred and bring it with her to her grave.

Luna's operation lasted a whole day. Finally, at noon, the door to the emergency room was pushed open.

More than ten doctors, all drenched in sweat, wheeled a barely breathing woman out from the room.

The moment the door cracked open, Joshua had already stepped forward.

"Doctor, is everything okay?"

"She's stable for the time being."

The head doctor was wiping his sweat in relief as he sighed. "This kind of symptom is even more serious compared to what Granny Lynch suffered years ago. It took us so much manpower and time to get her body back to its normal level. Even though we still do not know how the outcome will be, we'll try our best to treat her."

The doctor glanced at Joshua and continued, "We'll prepare a special ICU bed just for Ms.

Luna. It's still being prepared. In the meantime, we'll place her in a normal ward. If there's anything you want to tell her, you can do it privately later."

With that, the doctor glanced at a very weak and pale Luna and said, "But please don't take too long ; her condition can't be exerted. With her situation right now...she could die anytime."

These few statements from the doctor made Joshua's entire body stiffen. He turned around and looked at Luna, who was lying on the bed, barely showing any signs of life.

She...did not drink the poison that Aura made, right? How did she end up like this...?

The doctors quickly pushed Luna into the ward.

Joshua followed their instruction and put on a protective suit before entering the ward. He was the first to go into the room.

The room was so quiet that he could only hear the sounds of the medical equipment operating.

Joshua walked up to Luna's side and held her hand tightly. Then, he lowered his voice and said, "What happened?"

Luna was fine when he brought her in to visit Granny Lynch. He only went to have breakfast with Aura.

Just a few hours later...she was barely holding on.

What happened?

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1278

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1278

Luna curled her lips into a smile and reached out her hand to stroke Joshua's face. "Granny Lynch's condition is so dire that she even gave me instructions on what to do after she passed..."

Luna let out a cough and continued, “So I asked Dr. Janet to give me some drugs to fake the same illness that Granny Lynch has. As soon as I stop taking the medication, I’ll return to normal. Don’t worry... I won’t die.”

She clutched her chest with one hand while the other was still stroking Joshua’s face. “I didn’t know how miserable it felt to be so sick.”

Joshua’s expression darkened when he saw how forced Luna’s smile was. He furrowed his brows and asked, “Since Dr. Janet was the one who gave you the medication to fake this illness, then where did she go? Apparently, she disappeared, according to the doctors outside.”

Luna let out a bitter laugh. “Yes. Initially, Dr. Janet wanted to give me low doses of this drug, but I was afraid it wouldn’t fool Aura, so I asked her to use a higher dose instead...

“Dr. Janet was afraid that you’d get mad at her as soon as you saw how bad of a condition I was in, so she escaped.”

A hint of a smile crept across Luna’s pale face as she added, “Seeing how anxious you were, I guess this would be able to fool Aura as well. Please remember that as soon as Aura brings out the antidote and asks you who the save, you have to...you have to choose Granny.

“I’m fine. I really am.”

Joshua clutched Luna’s hand tightly. “Are you...are you sure? I’m already starting to suspect that Dr. Janet gave you the exact same poison that Aura used.“

“Of course it wasn’t.“ Luna chuckled. “If it was, how can I be so calm right now and even let you choose Granny over me?”

“Neil’s memory hasn’t recovered yet, and Nigel and Nellie are still young. As for you...”

Luna reached out her hand to caress Joshua’s face. “ You’ve just given me the marriage certificate and haven’t even hosted the wedding ceremony that you owe me yet. How can I die at this point?”

As soon as he heard this, Joshua lowered his head and heaved a deep sigh.

All of a sudden, someone knocked on the door. His time was up.

Joshua gripped Luna’s hand tightly and said, “Please remember what you said. Take good care of yourself

With that, he turned and left somewhat reluctantly.

Shortly after Joshua left, someone pushed the door open again. This time, the person who entered was Aura, who was wearing a protective suit as well, along with a doctor.

“My dearest sister, what has happened to you?” Aura sat down gracefully next to Luna.

She lifted her head to glance at the medical equipment hooked up on Luna and snickered. “I never thought you’d have to live on machines at such a young age.“

She raised her eyebrows and shot Luna a glance. “ How does it feel like, knowing you’re about to die at any second?”

Luna shot her a cold glance but did not reply. She was exhausted at this moment and did not have the energy to talk to someone like Aura.

Seeing that Luna remained silent, Aura curled her lips into a smirk.

“Look how pitiful you are.” She took out a phone and snapped a picture of Luna lying on her hospital bed.

With that, she chuckled, ignoring Luna’s angry stare. “Guess who I „m going to show this photo to? Why don’t I send it to Nigel and Nellie?

“If I remember correctly, they’re both at Lynch Mansion now, but

Lynch Mansion’s

designated car is parked at the hospital entrance right now, after sending

Granny Lynch into the hospital last night.

“There’s only one car left at Lynch Mansion. Do you think Nigel and Nellie will ask the driver to drive that car to see you? Oh, by the way, I forgot to tell you...

“Michael had cut off the brake cables of that car.”

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1279

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 1279

Luna’s eyes widened upon hearing this. She exclaimed in a hoarse voice,

“You—“

“Me?” Aura blinked innocently and continued, “ Actually, you shouldn’t worry, my dear sister. It’s just the brake cables; it’s not like they’ll definitely die. If they’re lucky, they might, but if they aren’t... they might live and be in a vegetative state for the rest of their lives, unable to speak or move.

“Worst case scenario, they might become two little cripples without a mother. As soon as my baby arrives, their father will abandon them, and they’ll be laughed at and belittled all their lives.”

Luna’s eyes were etched with fury. She knew that she could not die from this, and Dr. Janet had also confirmed with her that the only outcome of this drug would be health deterioration, but even so, she would be able to recover in a few years. Despite this, she could not move or step out the door at all! She could not see anyone from the outside world without a doctor’s permission!

If Nigel and Nellie found out about her state and ended up in a terrible accident after driving to the hospital in the broken car...she would not be able to forgive herself!

Aura could not help but let out a cackle when she saw how furious Luna was.

She sent the photo of Luna to both Nigel and Nellie, then left the room, still cackling. “Let’s see what happens, Luna. Do you think my only target was you all this while?”

“Even if those two good -for-nothing rascals don’t die alongside you, I’ll still make their lives a living hell!”

As soon as she finished her sentence, Aura slammed the door behind her. Luna’s chest tightened. Fury, worry, and helplessness enveloped her entire being.

She asked the doctor to let Joshua into the room, but the doctor refused to do so because she would soon be transferred into the ICU ward.

As soon as she was transferred, she would have only ten minutes of visiting hours each day.

Luna was soon wheeled into the ICU.

There was a large glass window outside the ward. Despite the distance, Luna could still make out Aura's figure on the other side of the glass, waving her phone at her.

Then, Aura leaned against Joshua's arms coyly and said something to him that Luna could not make out.

A drop of tear slid down Luna's face as she watched this scene unfold. She had already caught sight of what Aura was trying to show her when she waved her phone at her.

It was the chatbox between Aura and Nigel. Nigel...had already seen the photo.

Luna closed her eyes and prayed that Nigel and Nellie would not act on impulse.

Lynch Mansion.

After changing their clothes, Nigel and Nellie left the mansion.

The butler had arranged for one of the drivers to send them to the hospital in the last remaining car.

The car sped along the highway at breakneck speed.

Nellie said with red-rimmed eyes, "Nigel, Mommy must be in great pain. I want to see her..."

Nigel patted her back gently. He, too, was just as worried about their mother's condition.

The car whizzed past three red lights. However, Nigel soon realized there was something wrong with the driver.

He suppressed his concerns about Luna and asked, " Mr. Driver, what's wrong? Please don't drive so fast; safety is of utmost importance..."

The driver gripped the steering wheel tightly and was so nervous that his entire body trembled. " Young Master, the car's brakes...seem to have malfunctioned!"

What?

The color drained from Nigel's face when he heard this. The driver, too, was just as anxious as he was. " According to the direction we're traveling, we'll make a very sharp turn in a while..."

Nellie started wailing as soon as she heard this. " "

Nigel, we don't know how Mommy is doing, and now we're going to die on our way to see her ! "