

The Ex-Husband's Revenge chapter 2521

He knew that Leon offended Felton. The bouquet ended and Felton was upset with Leon before he left. Hence, Jensen was worried that Felton might plot to harm Leon.

To thank Leon for the alchemical pill he gave, Jensen intended to escort Leon back with Renee. With the two of them alongside him, he should be safe.

“It's fine! Thank you for offering, Mister Daglesh! I have something else to handle, so you should leave first,” Leon shook his head.

have anything to fear from Felton. Even if Felton was plotting something, there was no way he could harm Leon.

Because of that, Leon was not at all concerned about Felton. His true concern was the Rainbow Flower.

Felton was supported by the influential Farmers, whereas he was merely an outsider with no backers.

Once he left the venue and missed the chance to purchase the Rainbow Flower, the Western Boss and Felton would surely pressure the Feaks into selling it to them.

When that happened, it would be impossible for Leon to obtain it and this was not what he wanted.

Hence, he intended to speak to Jaxon in private after Felton left to see if he could purchase the flower.

Once he obtained the Rainbow Flower, even the Western Boss would struggle to take it away from him. That would be the safest option.

“Something else? Sure. I'll leave for now then,” Jensen said thoughtfully.

He did not know what Leon needed to do, but he did not need help. If that was the case, he should not overstay his welcome. Hence, he said goodbye to Renee and Leon and left.

After he left, Leon turned to look at Renee and Ariella.

He came with Renee, Ariella, and Jacob. Since Leon and Renee did not leave, the other two stayed as well.

“Miss Morrison, there’s something that I need to discuss with Mister Feaks! You and Miss Oxford should head back,” Leon said.

“Um, forget it, I’m staying here and leaving with you later. Ariella, you and Jacob should head home,” Renee said to Ariella.

After the conflict between Felton and Leon, Renee could tell that Felton had developed a deep resentment toward Leon. She was worried that Felton would harm Leon and could not possibly leave Leon behind.

Hence, she intended to wait until Leon was done and send him back to the hotel safely.

“Sure! Renee, Mister Wolf, we’ll leave now!” Ariell said and left with Jacob.

Soon, Renee, Leon, Jaxon, and a few bodyguards were the only people left in the hall.

Leon did not mind that Renee insisted on staying.

He only stayed behind to discuss the Rainbow Flower with Jaxon and it was not exactly top secret.

Since Renee wanted to wait, he decided to let her be.

“Mister Feaks, are you free now? There’s something I’d like to discuss with you.”

Leon approached Jaxon, who was commanding the guards to clean up.

Renee followed closely behind.

“Mister Wolf? What do you need?” Jaxon asked in confusion before ordering the guards to keep going and approaching Leon and Renee.

“I want to talk about the Rainbow Flower. I hope that you can sell it to me,” Leon said sincerely.

“I-” Jaxon was momentarily taken aback when he realized that Leon stayed behind for the Rainbow Flower.

Renee, too, was confused as to why Leon refused to leave and realized that Leon wanted to purchase the Rainbow Flower behind Felton’s back.

“Mister Wolf, I’m sorry, but I’ve mentioned that I need to speak with my grandfather about selling the Rainbow Flower. If he agrees to sell it, I’ll inform you in three days.” Jaxon smiled apologetically.

He only refrained from selling the flower to Leon to avoid crossing Felton.

Though Felton already left, the Fenners' power was formidable and Jaxon dared not to sell the Rainbow Flower to Leon in secret.

If Felton was offended by it afterward, both Jaxon and his family would suffer and he was not that foolish.

“Mister Feaks, don't rush to reject me! You can make your decision after hearing my terms out!” Leon said confidently.

He knew that Jaxon was wary of the Farmers' power and dared not to sell the Rainbow Flower to him. On top of that, as an ancient lineage of doctors, the Feaks were not short on money, so there was no amount of money he could offer to change Jaxon's mind.

However, Leon had far more than money to offer. So long as he offered something tempting enough, he was certain that he could convince Jaxon.

“What terms?” Jaxon was slightly baffled by his confidence.

“You've already witnessed the power of the Motherwort Pill! The most powerful pills in Cynthion Group for the moment are the Sun Pills and Motherwort Pills.

The Motherwort Pills enhance the power of martial artists who possess dark energy or train with dark methods. The Sun Pills enhance the power of martial artists who possess light energy or train with light methods. If it's okay with you, I can offer three Sun Pills, money, and other pills like Premium Energy Nurturing Pills in exchange for the Rainbow Flower,” Leon explained.

“Sun Pills? Are you saying that this pill can enhance my power and get me past multiple barriers?” Jaxon was shocked.

Though the Feaks were not a lineage of martial artists and Jaxon did not reach On top of that, the Feaks were never short on herbs and with the help of multiple rare herbs, he long reached the Intermediate Overlord State and was The Sun Pill worked similarly to the Motherwort pill and

That way, he would rival Jensen and other younger martial artists.

Jaxon did not reach thirty yet and the sooner he reached the Emperor State, the more potential he would open up for the future.

This immediately caught his attention and he was tempted by Leon's offering.

"That's right. The Sun Pill can help martial artists in the Overlord or Emperor State past multiple barriers and they work well for martial artists in the Semi Almighty and Almighty States as well! If someone in the Semi-Almighty State takes the Sun Pill, it's almost guaranteed that they will get to the Almighty State!

If someone in the Almighty State takes it, it'll help increase the probability of a breakthrough when used properly." Leon nodded.

He was hardly lying.

Back in the southern region, John, Angus, and Henry were all in the Semi Almighty State and all reached the Almighty State with the help of the Sun Pills.

With that considered, using a heavenly herb on themselves would be a waste.

However, the Sun Pills were different as they rivaled supreme spiritual herbs in terms of effect.

If Jaxon was willing to accept three Sun Pills and other alchemical pills in exchange for the Rainbow Flower, this would produce three martial artists in the Almighty State in his family.

This would fit perfectly into their needs. Hence, Leon felt that trading with the precious Sun Pills seemed most tempting.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge chapter 2524-What? The Sun Pills can get martial artists in the SemiAlmighty State to the Almighty State? Are you sure?" Jaxon could not believe what he was hearing.

He initially thought that the Sun Pills and Motherwort Pills could only enhance the strength of weaker martial artists, thus allowing them to break through multiple barriers at the same time.

To his bewilderment, the Sun Pills could induce a breakthrough for martial artists in the Semi-Almighty State and the Almighty State.

As Leon guessed, even the strongest martial artists in the Feaks stopped at the Semi-Almighty State and struggled to get past the bottleneck of their training.

If the Sun Pills could counter the limitation of their training method and help them get to the Almighty State, the Feaks would be capable of creating their own Ultimate Power Class method.

Chandler did the same after reaching the Almighty State, and so could the Feaks.

With the Sun Pills, three martial artists would reach the Almighty State simultaneously and should be able to create an Ultimate Power Class method within a short period through training together.

This method would be more suitable for the Feaks and allow a big leap in every member's strength as a whole.

Within a matter of years, they may even become one of the most influential families.

This was the dream of Jaxon's grandfather and everyone in his family.

"Yeah, I'm sure!" Leon said.

"What!" Jaxon was utterly stunned.

As an ancient lineage of doctors, the Feaks accumulated tremendous wealth after decades of effort and their financial capability rivaled that of bigger families.

However, due to the limitation of their training method, their accomplishments in martial arts were not as ideal. It was always their weakness.

The three Sun Pills and other alchemical pills Leon offered could easily produce three martial artists in the Almighty State, allowing the Feaks to gain further power and make up for their weaknesses.

Instantly, Jaxon found himself wavering.

"Mister Feaks, I do want to purchase the Rainbow Flower. If these terms aren't enough, I can add more pills or money to sweeten the deal. What do you think?"

Leon said sincerely.

“It’s fine, Mister Wolf. These pills are enough as payment for the Rainbow Flower so you don’t have to add anything else! However, this matter concerns Felton and the Farmers and I need to think this through,” Jaxon said hesitantly and shook his head.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge chapter 2525-“It’s fine. Don’t worry, Mister Feaks. As powerful as the Western Boss may be, he is still under the control of the Dragon Corps! If you sell me the Rainbow Flower, the Dragon Corps will keep him in check!” Leon said.

“Well, I suppose you’re right!” Jaxon considered it and realized Leon was right.

The Dragon Corps was a special force that included countless powerful martial artists. So long as he secretly sells the Rainbow Flower to Leon, Felton and the Western Boss would only pick on the Feaks to vent their frustration. Under the Dragon Corps’ control, they would not be able to cause any actual damage.

“Mister Wolf, forgive me for being blunt, but this is a rather big deal and I still need to talk to my grandfather about the details! It’s getting late so you can go home to rest! You can come to me tomorrow morning and I’ll take you to my grandfather. Don’t worry. So long as the Sun Pills can get martial artists in the Semi-Almighty State to the Almighty State, my grandfather will agree to trade with the Rainbow Flower,” Jaxon said thoughtfully.

He informed Felton that he would keep Felton informed in three days. If he sold the Rainbow Flower to Leon in private, this would enrage Felton and the Feaks would face the wrath of the Western Boss.

Hence, he needed to seek approval from his grandfather for the final decision.

Moreover, he did not see with his own eyes what the Sun Pill could actually do and Leon was merely claiming that it would get martial artists in the Semi Almighty State to the Almighty State.

There was no way that Jaxon would risk enraging Felton and the Farmers and hand Leon the Rainbow Flower over an empty promise.

He intended to take Leon to his grandfather the next day so that he could prove the effect of the Sun Pill. If the Sun Pill could indeed get martial artists in the Semi-Almighty State to the Almighty State, his grandfather would surely agree to the trade and all issues would be resolved.

“Alright, it’s settled then!” Leon was overjoyed and felt relieved.

Though Jaxon did not agree to the trade right away, but he agreed to take Leon to his grandfather for negotiation.

This would achieve Leon’s goal, so he did not need to rush things.

“Mister Feaks, I’ll take my leave now then! See you tomorrow morning.” Since there was no other reason for him to stay, Leon bid his farewell to Jaxon.

“Sure! Goodbye, Mister Wolf, Miss Morrison,” Jaxon said with a smile.

With that, he watched as Leon and Renee left the hall.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge chapter 2526-After leaving the villa, Leon and Renee were about to head to the parking lot when they ran into Ariella and Jacob rushing toward them.

“Ariella? Did you and Jacob leave ahead of us? Why are you still around here?”

Renee was surprised to see them.

“Renee, hush! We were about to leave, but we spotted Felton in the parking lot.

He’s been waiting there. I think he’s upto no good. You two need to be careful!”

Ariella said in a low voice.

Leon challenged Felton multiple times during the bouquet and Felton seemed determined to stay in the parking lot.

Ariella instantly guessed that Felton was waiting for Leon to come outside.

Pure Energy Pill and she was grateful.

Hence, she turned back around to warn Leon so that he would not walk into Felton’s trap.

“What? Felton is still around? Oh no, he probably wants to hurt Hugh. We’re in trouble!” Renee was shocked.

She refused to leave Leon behind precisely because she was worried about Felton targeting Leon. To her surprise, what she expected was exactly what happened.

Felton was lingering in the parking lot and planning to hurt Leon.

During the bouquet, Felton refrained from harming Leon because the alchemical pills Leon presented gained the support of Jensen and the others.

Felton was outnumbered and had no appropriate excuse, so he could not harm Leon or he would be condemned by everyone else.

However, with the bouquet ending, most of the guests left, and without them here to support Leon, Felton no longer had any concerns.

“Yeah! Renee, Felton’s formidable amongst the younger generation. If you two head to the parking lot and run into him, who knows what would happen?”

Ariella said worriedly.

She did not know what Leon was capable of, but she knew that Leon was merely the vice president of Cynthion Group. He was not a descendent of any powerful family and considering how young he was, it was normal to assume that he was not that strong.

Felton, on the other hand, was the eldest son of the Fermers and one of the brightest martial artists in the younger generation. He long reached the Intermediate Emperor State and it was hardly an exaggeration to say that no one else apart from Hugo could defeat Felton.

Leon, who had no backers, would suffer a horrible fate if he was caught by Felton.
