Chapter 14 A Weird Preference

The next day, Valerie received her school uniform. She put it on in the toilet in the school before going out.

She went into the principal's office to take textbooks before walking into the classroom.

She came to school by herself.

Kieran went to work at his company early in the morning.

Valerie walked to the bus station under Jayvion's concerned gaze.

When she got down from the bus, some of her classmates got out with her.

This confirmed that Valerie just came from an ordinary family.

The atmosphere in the classroom was quite delicate.

Some of the kids turned their heads to look at Valerie from time to time after they witnessed her boarding the bus yesterday.

Derek, who was sitting at the front, was dissatisfied with it.

He raised his head and glared at those people.

And they immediately stopped looking at Valerie.

"Thank you..."

"Don't mention it."

Valerie pouted, shrugged her shoulders, and ignored Derek's attitude.

At least, he helped her.

Today was a peaceful day compared to yesterday, and it wasn't that shocking to see Valerie taking a bus,

Walking to the entrance of the house. Valerie discovered two cars. parked the re.

She followed her intuition and hid behind a tree to peep at the cars.

Kieran got out of the car after getting off work.

And the person getting out of the other car was the younger son of the Horton family.

He was the boss of a leading entertainment company.

And he was only 24 years old.

His name was Bruce Horton.

He was in fashionable clothes, and all people could tell that he was a cool guy.

And the sunglasses he was wearing made him look like a hooligan.

“Bruce!”

The door to the villa opened.

Zoe trotted in front of Bruce excitedly

Bruce took off his sunglasses, bent down, and looked at Zoe happily and affectionately.

“Zoe, I’m back!”

He kissed Zoe hard while hugging her tight.

“Haha, Bruce, it itches!”

Zoe giggled and avoided Bruce, so he couldn’t rub against her.

“That’s enough. Get in, or you’ll make a fool of yourself.”

Kieran had a rare smile on his face, and he went forward to rub Zoe's head.

They went into the villa, and the door was slammed shut. The two cars. were driven into the garage.

All of them forgot about Valerie.

Valerie walked forward from behind the tree.

She then stood in place, wondering if she should get in.

When she was thinking if she should get into the villa, the door was opened again.

Jayvion walked out, looking around anxiously.

“Jayvion!”

She finally relaxed.

Valerie trotted in front of Jayvion.

“Ms. Valerie, you're finally home! I came out to look around when I didn't see you.”

Jayvion held Valerie in his arms and felt relaxed in his heart.

He saw how intimate Zoe was with the boys.

Valerie showed up soon after he got out.

It meant that she had been back for a while.

However, she didn't attract the boys' attention like she always did.

“Ms. Valerie, the dinner...”

“Jayvion, if they don’t come to me, just bring it to my bedroom.”

Valerie raised her head and smiled gently.

“Okay, Ms. Valerie.”

Jayvion was less concerned now.

He nodded to agree.

Valerie returned to her room and began to do homework.

After dinner, she continued doing homework.

Valerie was concentrating on her homework when she was startled by the sound of the door opening.

“Hey, Valerie, why are you here?”

Zoe was wearing a clean dress. The dress still had a tag on it.

Bruce must have bought this for her.

It must be a coincidence that Zoe was able to find her room.

“Well, I’m doing my homework.”

Zoe didn’t understand what this meant.

But she took a fancy to the pencil in Valerie’s hand and her workbook.

She walked into Valerie’s bedroom and approached her.

And she stared fixedly at her pencil.

“Valerie, what’s this?”

“This is a mechanical pencil. It’s dangerous. You can’t touch it.”

The tip of the pencil was sharper than that of an ordinary pencil.

Valerie pushed Zoe away to draw a distance from her and the pencil.

The pencil was away from her.

Zoe pouted with displeasure, and she was attracted by Valerie’s workbook.

“Valerie, what’s this?”

“This is a workbook.”

“Oh. Can I take a look at this?”

Valerie nodded and handed the workbook over.

“Wow...”

Zoe didn’t know what this was, but she liked it.

This exercise book was different from what her father had bought her

“Valerie, I like this so much! Can you give it to me?”

“Zoe, I can give you anything else but this one. I need it to finish my homework...”

Valerie stepped forward in a quandary, wanting to take away the workbook from Zoe’s hand.

Zoe ran out of the bedroom like a horse on the loose.

Valerie immediately frowned.

She jumped down from the chair and chased after Zoe.

Zoe was wearing a bright smile. It was the smile one would have after getting a loot.

But her legs were short. How could she be faster than Valerie?

Valerie soon caught up with Zoe and stood in her way.

“Zoe, be good, give this back to me.”

How weird her preference was.

She liked nothing but a workbook.

“No! I have it! It’s mine!”

Zoe tightly hugged the workbook that was even bigger than her. She bent over to prevent Valerie from touching it.

However, Valerie still grabbed the edge of the workbook through the gap.

A war started in the corridor.

They were fighting for a workbook..

“It’s mine!”
