Looking at these two, Ethan Smith immediately felt disgusted.

"Wow, Ethan, you're living in such a nice house now," Brenda Johnson commented as she looked around.

Ethan stared coldly at Brenda and said, "What do you want?"

"What's with that attitude? Can't I come to visit you if there's nothing wrong?" Brenda replied with a laugh.

The contrast in her attitude before and after made Ethan even more disgusted.

Ray Walters stood aside, unable to join the conversation, looking somewhat awkward.

Ethan turned and walked into the room.

Seeing this, Brenda quickly signaled to Sylvia Johnson.

Sylvia was reluctant, but she still followed Ethan into the room.

As soon as they entered the living room, Brenda exclaimed, "This house is so luxurious; it must be many times better than ours!"

Ethan snorted without saying a word.

"Ethan, we lived together for three years, and I can't just forget about those feelings," Brenda said playing the emotional card.

"Now that you've made it big, it's also related to our Johnson family's education, right?" Brenda shamelessly asked.

Upon hearing this, Ethan sneered, "The Johnson family's education? What did you teach me? Housekeeping or verbal abuse and beatings?"

Brenda's face flashed with embarrassment, and she laughed, "Oh, come on; those are all things of the past! Even if you and Sylvia are divorced, I will always consider you family!"

After saying that, Brenda yelled at Sylvia, "Go and pour Ethan a glass of water!"

As Sylvia walked forward to pour water for Ethan, she purposely tried to lean into Ethan's arms.

Fortunately, Ethan quickly dodged her.

Sylvia, who was supposed to land in Ethan's arms, fell hard on the floor.

"Ouch..." Sylvia covered her arm, showing a pained expression.

Then, she got up from the ground, glared at Ethan, and was about to lose her temper.

But Brenda hastily stopped her.

Brenda pulled Ethan aside and with a flirty expression said, "Ethan, I know you're upset about what happened, and I don't know how to make it up to you."

"If you're willing, you and Sylvia can be like that too," Brenda said with a malicious smile.

Ethan coldly asked, "Like what?"

"Like back when Sylvia and Gary Brown were sneaking around. Just consider it revenge against Gary," Brenda said, blinking her eyes.

Ethan suddenly felt nauseous.

He was disgusted with the Johnson family's true colors.

"Using your own body as capital, don't you feel ashamed?" Ethan said coldly.

"I'm not as perverted as Gary Brown, and besides, I find Sylvia disgusting to look at, so I'll leave her for Gary to enjoy himself," Ethan said mercilessly.

Hearing Ethan's words, Sylvia could no longer hold back.

She pointed at Ethan and cursed, "Ethan, you're really shameless! Have you forgotten how you used to fawn over me?"

"I was a fool back then, but it doesn't mean I'm still one," Ethan said coldly.

Sylvia clenched her teeth and said, "Fine, Ethan, you're nothing but a freeloader, a useless man who will rely on women for a lifetime! I want to see how long you can be so arrogant!"

Brenda, who was standing next to them, couldn't help but get irritated, but it was too late for the atmosphere to change.

So, Brenda changed her tone too and said, "Sylvia is right, you're like mud that can't hold up a wall, you'll be like this for the rest of your life!"

As expected, their ugly faces would never change.

Fortunately, Ethan no longer cared. He said coldly, "Get out, get out of here right now!"

Sylvia sneered with crossed arms, "You dare to curse me? Don't think you can do whatever you want just because you have the Taylor family backing you! Have you forgotten how Ray Walters beat you up last time? Don't make me call Gary Brown to have Ray come and beat you up again!"
