

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4019

At this moment, in the banquet hall.

The scene of more than 400 people, not only was not noisy at all, but was silent.

There are two hundred participants who are officially participating in the auction, as well as two hundred accompanying people, and ten alternates who are ready to replace them at any time.

Among them, many people saw their familiar figures, but because of the strict discipline requirements at the venue, even if they saw their acquaintances, they could only use their eyes and nods to signal, while maintaining absolute silence.

Seeing the electronic clock hanging on the wall, the time has come to 7:40, and everyone can't wait to get up. There are still twenty minutes before the auction starts. Fierce fighting between!

At this moment, the entrance of the venue opened, and a beautiful woman wearing a white satin cheongsam stepped into the venue.

Her appearance caused the scene to let out an exclamation.

Rao is these well-informed top rich, and rarely has the opportunity to meet such a stunning oriental beauty.

And this woman with an unparalleled oriental temperament is Jasmine, the chairman of the Moore Group.

Jasmine, who was still a little nervous at first, was suddenly enlightened after Charlie's enlightenment.

She walked into the banquet hall with confident steps, crossed the red carpet between the left and right seats, and stepped onto the auction table.

Everyone's eyes followed her figure and followed her to the auction stage.

Afterwards, Jasmine stood in front of the auction stage, facing the microphone, and said with a dignified smile: "Welcome everyone to come from afar to participate in the first Huichundan auction. I am Jasmine, chairman of the Moore Group."

The audience instantly burst into thunderous applause.

These people have waited for too long and suppressed it for too long. Now, they are finally able to make some noises justifiably, and naturally they work very hard.

After the prolonged applause, Jasmine nodded slightly in gratitude, and continued: "Tonight's auction is co-organized by Moore's Group Ji Qingtang and Wade's Group Shangri-La Hotel, and I will also serve as tonight's auctioneer. The auctioneer will provide you with guidance and assistance related to the auction throughout the process."

Speaking of this, Jasmine paused for a moment, then continued: "Before the auction officially starts tonight, please give us a warm applause to welcome our three distinguished guests today!"

These people who participated in the auction did not know the relevant arrangements of the organizer, so most people did not know that there were VIPs at the auction tonight.

At this time, Jasmine said, "The first VIP is the Nordic Queen who just abdicated, the esteemed Lady Victoria Iliad!"

Outside the entrance, the old queen was pacing back and forth nervously.

Standing beside her were Lord Wade, the head of the wade family, and Orion Exeor, a feng shui master.

Lord Wade and Orion Exeor are naturally old acquaintances. The two didn't meet until they got here. Originally, both sides had a lot to say, but it was because the old queen was by their side, so the two of them said hello to each other. Besides, there is not much communication.

At this time, when the old queen heard Jasmine call her name, she hurriedly stood still, lightly stroked her chest, took a few deep breaths, and then gathered up her courage and walked into the banquet hall.
