

The Ex Husbands Revenge

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2568-“Elder Feaks, just remember that you asked for this. Since you refuse to see reason, don't blame me for what I'm about to do!” Leon narrowed his eyes coldly and took a step forward to launch the Earthly Plunder.

A powerful stream of energy gathered around his finger and was sent toward Roman.

“How arrogant. Know your place, kid!” Roman laughed angrily.

Based on the fight between Romeo and Leon, Roman could tell that Leon was. Though that might be too powerful for Romeo to handle, Leon could not rival Roman in terms of power.

As the leader of the Feaks, Roman had long reached the Semi-Almighty State and was even close to reaching the Almighty State.

Leon, who was still in the Emperor State, could not dream of comparing to him.

However, Leon arrogantly tried to face him head-on.

Considering how Leon was stopping them from rushing Jaxon to the hospital, he assumed that Leon was up to no good and did not intend to show mercy.

With this thought in mind, he did not hold back and intended to finish Leon off with a single blow, before rushing Jaxon to the hospital.

“He must have a death wish!” Romeo, who just stood up, and the elders sneered as they looked contemptuously at Leon.

They knew about Roman's true strength and did not think a youngster like Leon would stand a chance against him.

Romeo was embarrassed that he was repeatedly sent flying by a young man and his frustration led him to resent Leon.

Since he firmly believed that Leon was responsible for the murder, he desperately wished that Roman could finish Leon off immediately to avenge Jaxon and the guards.

However, reality was cruel and what happened next shook them all.

Baam!

Following a deafening sound, Leon's Earthly Plunder clashed with Roman's attack.

without the Dragon Pills and other tricks, his actual strength was merely at the His power could not rival Roman and there was no way he could fend off the attack.

Roman's true energy tore through his spiritual energy and darted toward him.

At the very last moment, Leon tilted his body to take the attack with his Mirror of Sovereign.

In his current level, the Mirror of Sovereign could fend off any attack in the Initial Almighty State or below. Since Roman was merely in the Semi-Almighty State, he could not possibly get through the Mirror of Sovereign.

After fending the attack off, Leon remained unscathed and unmoved.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2569-"Take this!" Leon extended another hand and launched yet another Earthly Plunder at the speed of lightning.

"What? That's impossible!" Roman was stunned when he sensed Leon's attack.

He initially thought he could easily defeat Leon with a single blow and did not hold back at all. To his bewilderment, his attack did not hurt Leon at all.

Not only did Leon fend it off, but he also took the chance to counter.

This had completely caught Roman by surprise. He wanted to dodge, but was still in the momentum of his initial attack.

At the very last moment, he gathered the remaining true energy within him and backed away from Leon's Earthly Plunder with his superior speed.

"Running so soon? You won't get away!" Leon scoffed and saw right through Roman's intention.

He took a huge step forward and launched the Phantom Steps. His attack got closer to Roman as he charged forward at a godly speed.

No matter how hard Roman tried, he simply could not get away from Leon.

"Damn it!" Roman's heart sank and he was left with no option but to launch a hasty counterattack.

Baam!

Following a deafening sound, Leon's Earthly Plunder tore through Roman's defense and sent him flying.

Roman landed on the ground and spat a mouthful of blood, clearly having sustained internal injuries.

"He was defeated? How is that possible?"

Romeo and the elders rubbed their eyes in disbelief.

They all knew how formidable Roman was and all assumed Leon had a death wish for challenging Roman head-on. However, reality had proven them completely wrong.

None of them expected things to turn out completely differently. Leon actually managed to defeat and injure Roman, who was in the Semi-Almighty State, with a single finger.

It was so surreal that they were all shaken.

"How could this happen..." Roman was just as shocked.

Placing a hand over his aching chest, he struggled to get up with a dark expression.

Based on Leon's speed and explosive power, he could tell that Leon was merely State he was in.

However, Leon somehow managed to defeat him with ease.

It was truly unbelievable and he could not figure out how Leon managed to do such a thing.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2570-“Elder Feaks, you can’t defeat me. I’ll give you one last word of warning. Mister Jaxon is severely injured and it would be too late by the time you get him to the hospital. I’m the only one who can save him. I would like for you to cease this nonsense or you will just make a fool of yourself,” Leon said calmly with his hands behind his back.

He knew that this was merely a misunderstanding and held back on Roman.

Had he not done so, Roman would have suffered far more than mild injuries.

However, if they refused to see reasons and delayed the perfect time for Jaxon to be revived, Leon had no choice but to exert all his strength.

“Why you... Don’t get smug, kid! You only managed to defeat me because you have a treasure in your possession. That’s not real strength.” Roman scoffed.

When he faced Leon directly, he could see that his true energy tore through Leon’s defense and struck him in the chest. However, Leon remained unscathed and did not even back away.

The only possible explanation to this would be that Leon had a defensive treasure in the Semi-Almighty State or above around his chest. Otherwise, he would not be capable of fending off the attack.

“No wonder! So this kid is using a treasure!”

Realization dawned on Romeo and the elders. They were all quite confused at first as to how a young man like Leon managed to defeat Roman with just a finger.

At that moment, they finally realized that Leon possessed a defensive tool at the Semi-Almighty State or above. It was because of this tool that he managed to defeat Roman.

Though the tool was powerful, its usage was likely limited to three times, so it would not actually be counted as true strength.

The Feaks instantly decided they had nothing to fear from Leon.

“Let us help you! As powerful as his treasure may be, he can’t possibly fight the three of us at the same time!” The two elders shouted, before striding to Roman’s side to surround Leon.

“Very well! Let’s work together and defeat him!” Roman nodded.

such powerful treasure in his possession, Roman would not be able to defeat Leon on his own. Hence, he could only work together with the elders.

The elders were two of the most powerful martial artists among the five elders in the family. They had also reached the Semi-Almighty State and were simply slightly weaker than Roman.

With three martial artists in the Semi-Almighty State, they could easily exhaust the limit of Leon’s treasure and defeat him.
