At Earth Star.

Liam's opponents were enjoying themselves.

In fact, many people here had come from Heaven Star.

They came here, belittling Liam in any way possible to gain favor here.

"That loser Liam is unbelievably arrogant! He bluntly declared that he doesn't take the Hoffman and Duncan families seriously. What a scoundrel!"

"You're right! He's just a mere general. How can he even think that he has the ability to take down such distinguished families?"

"Well, since Master Dotson is here, I doubt that he has the balls to barge in here and start a fight with us."

Hearing this, loud jeers echoed from the crowd. "Master Dotson can knock Liam's head off in just a single slap!"

The white-haired man, Dotson, grinned subtly at their flattery.

He said in a hoarse voice, "Liam doesn't deserve to be compared with me! I can effortlessly trample him like

The white-haired man, Dotson, grinned subtly at their flattery.

He said in a hoarse voice, "Liam doesn't deserve to be compared with me! I can effortlessly trample him like an insect!"

At this time, several servants standing beside Dotson bragged and cheered, "Master Dotson is a legendary Primogem Warrior! Being a second-level Primogem chance! Master Dotson won't even need to touch that bastard to incapacitate him!"

The bigwigs, who had been kicked out of the party at Heaven Star, immediately wore surprised and confident expressions when they realized how strong Dotson was. They believed that they had picked the right side.

However, while everyone was flattering Dotson, Liam suddenly appeared.

One of the bigwigs targeted by Liam couldn't help but burst into laughter when he saw the latter arrive. With a cold scoff, he taunted, "Hey, Liam. Have you heard that Master Dotson is here? Did you come to finally concede defeat and beg for mercy?"

Benedict sneered and said, "It's too late! You fucking loser! I dare you to oppose us right now, so I can watch you die! You said that you deserved to lead Salem? What a joke! You are a complete idiot who's bound to get a brutal beating!"

But the look on Liam's face didn't even change. He just ignored their comments with a blank face.

However, Carsen, who was by Liam's side, couldn't stand it anymore. If Liam wasn't going to speak, then he would do the talking. "Benedict, you asshole! Who do you think you are? You're brave enough to goad just because you have many others with you? Pathetic loser! Dotson, come down and prepare to die!" he roared as he stepped forward.

Hearing Carsen's strong words, everyone realized that Liam didn't come here to admit defeat. He was here to actually challenge Dotson!

Carsen's words instantly irritated Dotson. This was the first time in his life that someone had dared disrespect him, loudly cursing at him in public.

His face darkened to the extreme as he trembled in anger. The very next moment, he turned into a blurry shadow and appeared right before Carsen.

With a murderous look in his eyes, Dotson uttered in a low, cold voice, "You fool! It seems that you don't know how powerful a Primogem Warrior is. I'll give you a chance to apologize. If you kneel and bow down before me, I will be merciful enough to give you a quick death!"

Dotson's sudden appearance in front of Carsen surprised everyone present.

It only took him a blink of an eye to do it. Was this the power of a Primogem Warrior?

Seeing this, Casper, Lenny, and Elian seemed to have gained a gleam of hope.

The stronger Dotson was, the more likely that he could kill Liam.

At this time, a sneer of satisfaction showed in Lenny's face.

In his mind, Liam, despite being a prominent five-star general, should still be nothing compared to Dotson!

The bigwigs echoed sarcastically, "How ignorant you are to show up here! Master Dotson can kill you with a finger, you'll see! You'll regret that you even thought of going against him!"

Carsen was a straightforward person. He was extremely pissed off when he heard these people's mocking words.

The next second, he began to attack!
