

Chapter 4874

The car stopped at the entrance of the airport, and Charlie said to Stella:

“You have a special status, so don’t get out of the car.”

Stella hurriedly said, “Then Mr. Wade, you must pay attention to safety!”

Charlie tapped lightly and nodded, and after saying goodbye to her,

He pushed the door and got out of the car.

Then he took out a small suitcase from the trunk and walked into the airport without looking back.

This suitcase contains some new daily clothes that he bought yesterday.

He didn’t know what was waiting for him in Mexico,

But this time he was going to pretend to be a person who was unprepared for danger,

And he was going away, so naturally, he had to carry some personal belongings.

After coming to the counter to exchange the boarding pass,

Charlie went through the security check alone and arrived at the designated boarding gate early.

Because he bought economy class this time,

He could only find a vacant seat at the boarding gate and wait for the target to appear while waiting for boarding.

Ten minutes later, a middle-aged Asian man in his 40s hurried over.

Charlie recognized the other party at a glance, he was Abigail's son, Abren Lang.

Like Charlie, Abren carried a 20-inch suitcase with him,

But he had one more bulging shoulder bag than Charlie.

Abren, who is in his 40s, looks a little old, not only has his hair gray,

But also has a lot more wrinkles on his face than his peers.

From the state of the whole person, it can be seen that he should be at the lowest point in his life.

At this point, there were only five minutes left before boarding,

And there were already some impatient passengers lining up at the boarding gate.

Abren also dragged his suitcases and lined up at the back of the queue.

Seeing this, Charlie immediately stood up, pulled his suitcase and lined up behind Abren.

Afterwards, he pretended to be curious and asked him in Chinese, "Are you from China?"

"No." Abren shook his head, and said to Charlie very seriously:

"I am a Chinese-American and have been living here for many years."

Charlie frowned slightly, it seemed that Abren was not friendly,

So he asked curiously, "Did you immigrate here for work?"

Abren tidied up the collar of his shirt, with a bit of pride on his face and said,

"I'm a public student, but because of my outstanding grades,"

“They gave me a good opportunity to get a green card directly, so I chose to stay in the United States.”

Charlie nodded.

In fact, Charlie has read all of Abren’s information,

And the reason for asking again is that he wants to take the opportunity to get acquainted with him,

And by the way, he also took the opportunity to learn about this person’s character in the chat.

Charlie saw that he was very concerned about nationality on the one hand,

And on the other hand, he talked about his status as a public student back then and was very proud,

And he couldn’t help but feel a little disgusted in his heart.

In fact, he doesn’t like this kind of person very much.

There are indeed many graduates of famous universities in China, as well as those who study abroad at public expense, and finally, choose to stay overseas.

It is said that there are tens of thousands of Tsinghua graduates who choose to stay in Silicon Valley in the United States.

Of course, the matter of going and staying is all voluntary,

But Abren's situation is very different from other people.

After all, he is a public student who came to study abroad at the expense of the country.

So he should have returned after he had achieved something,

But he chose to stay. This kind of behavior is not moral in terms of character,

So it is difficult for Charlie to have a good impression of him.

Therefore, after a few words, he felt he didn't like him.

However, he did not get too emotional, but deliberately complimented the other party:

"The gold content of public students is said to be very high, you are really amazing!"

Hearing Charlie's praise, Abren's face was full of pride.

But his attitude towards Charlie was a lot more friendly, and he said with a smile:

“In our time, the requirements for public students were really high, and there were only a few places in a school.”

Charlie nodded, Curiously asked: “By the way, what are you going to do in Mexico?”

“Are you going to go on a business trip?”

Abren’s expression froze for a moment, and then he said unnaturally: “I... . I am going to work...”
