

Chapter 5402

Jeremiah said without thinking: "Okay Lord!"

At this moment, the lord said again: "Okay, that's all I have to say. I hope you all will go all out and send back the good news as soon as possible. Whether it's capturing Maria or finding the enemy behind the scenes, I will reward you a lot!"

Almost at the same time, the four earls cupped their fists and respectfully said to the camera, "Thank you, Lord!"

The next day, the sky in Northern Europe just brightened.

Jarvis just opened his eyes when he received a message from a stranger.

The text message only had words, which read: Naples.

Jarvis knew that these must be the location of the Governor's Mansion of the Right Army.

Even if it wasn't, it should be the first stop on the way to the Governor's Mansion of the Right Army.

It's a bit sad to say that even Jarvis, who is one of the four Earls, doesn't know the exact location of the Right Army's Governor's Mansion, as well as the internal personnel structure.

In the Warriors Den, although the four earls were said to be second only to the Lord, they were limited to their personal strength.

Although the Lord attaches great importance to the four earls and has been holding them in front of other people in the Warriors Den, and even gave them a lot of pills and materials for improving their cultivation,

But in fact, he has been deliberately controlling them. The rights of the four earls in the Warriors Den will hardly give them the right to directly control any large-scale and organized organization of the Warriors Den.

Neither the dead soldiers, nor the knight guards, nor the overriding five-army governor's mansion obeyed any orders from the four earls.

And the real confidants of the Lord are not the four earls, but the governors of the five armies.

The structure of the five-army governor's mansion is the real core of the Warriors Den. Under each governor's mansion, there are a large number of personnel, industries, materials, weapons, and money.

Under each, there is at least one garrison of dead soldiers, thousands of them, hundreds of Cavalry, several Commissioner envoys, and special envoys.

In addition, there are many expatriates like Oscar's parents who have been dispatched all over the world, and many secret service personnel who have been placed in various countries and fields in a normal capacity like An's daughter-in-law.

Without the four Earls, the Warriors Den would only be missing four super masters with peak strength, but without the Fifth Army Commander's Mansion, the Warriors Den would be like losing its hands and feet.

Therefore, the Lord himself controlled the five-army governor's mansion and even kept guard against the four earls, and didn't want them to know too much about the five-army commander-in-chief's mansion.

Therefore, the four may be said to be the Four Earls, but they are actually the four mascots of the Warriors Den.

At this time, Jarvis didn't dare to have any delays. He hurriedly got up and left the hotel, called a business jet general aviation company, rented a Gulfstream plane at a price of 30,000 euros, and flew directly from Oslo City to Naples, a city in southern Italy.

During the flight, Jarvis has been analyzing the current situation of the Warriors Den and the current difficulties of the Lord.

As the four earls, he actually had many questions that he couldn't figure out.

Firstly, he couldn't figure out why the Lord was so obsessed with Maria; secondly, he couldn't understand how magical Maria's so-called ring could make the Lord so obsessed;

He had photographed Jermo killing Changying and his wife a few years ago, why he still couldn't forget An's family and even killed An's family suddenly after 20 years; he couldn't figure out why the Lord suddenly asked Jermo to look for the whereabouts of Changying's son.

However, although there are so many problems that he didn't understand, he has noticed an obvious change through these situations, that is, the Lord is now relying more on the four earls, and he has gradually begun to have more defenses against them than before.

Therefore, in Jarvis's view, no matter whether he can take advantage of the opportunity to make meritorious service, his future situation will be much better.

After a three-hour flight, his plane landed at Naples Airport.

This is the first time he has come to this city, but he has already heard about this city, which also benefits from the fact that football legend Maradona once played for Naples Football Club.

At this moment, at the Naples airport, his eyes were darkened, he didn't know where to go, and he didn't know who to turn to.

He had been waiting for the phone to ring, but until the moment he walked out of the airport, he still hadn't received any message.

At this time, a middle-aged man stepped up to him and said respectfully: "Jarvis, you have worked hard all the way, please follow me."

Looking at the person coming, Jarvis asked, "Who is your surname?"

What is your status in the Governor's Mansion of the Right Army?"

The man quickly said: "Jarvis, his subordinate is Chavren Yuan, the general of the Governor's Mansion of the Right Army!"

When he said this, he sighed in his heart: "What is the gap? This is the fcking gap. As one of the four earls, I came to this place and didn't know where to go or where to find the people."

"Who, but this person in front of me knows all my whereabouts, Lord, you guard us like you are guarding against thieves."

Chavren took Jarvis into a Maybach with a local license plate, and Chavren drove it himself carrying Jarvis to downtown Naples.

While driving, Chavren asked Jarvis: "Jarvis, have you ever been to Naples?"
"No."

Chavren shook his head: "This is the first time. Sometime I will take you to take a stroll around Naples."

Jarvis said lightly: "I still have important things to do, so I won't go shopping. I don't know where Jon is. I want to meet him as soon as possible." Chavren hurriedly said:

"The governor has already booked a banquet at the best Chinese restaurant in Naples, and is waiting to welcome you!"

Half an hour later.

The Maybach driven by Chavren stopped in front of a Chinese restaurant called Banyan Tree.

This restaurant is located at the bottom of a 40-story high-rise building. It is entered from the ground floor. There are three floors inside.

He personally opened the car door for Jarvis and led him into the restaurant quickly.

The two took the internal elevator to the third floor. As soon as they went out, several female service staff dressed in court bowed respectfully to the two,

And they also respectfully shouted in Chinese to greet Jarvis.

Jarvis didn't expect these people to know his identity. After being shocked, he suddenly discovered that these waitresses were all warriors without exception,

And the weakest ones had three stars, and the strongest ones had reached six stars.

Chavren led the way and said as he walked: "Jarvis came to the Governor's Mansion for the first time. Let me give you a general introduction. This restaurant is the property of the Governor's Mansion."

"It is open from the first floor to the second floor. The third floor is said to be a membership system, but it is not open to the public. The people who come here are all internal personnel of our Governor's, and in this store,"

"You don't have to worry about the risk of revealing your identity, because the staff here Without exception, they are all the children of dead soldiers, Cavalry guards, and members of other departments."

Jarvis asked in surprise: "Is this the Governor's Mansion of the Right Army?"

"Yes, not all of them." Chavren smiled slightly: "Actually This 40-story high-rise building is entirely our property. Although we have leased more than half of the area to local companies, the southern part directly above and below the restaurant has not been leased out."

"The top three floors are ostensibly leased to a shipping company, but in fact, that company is also ours, and this part is connected to the restaurant by a secret elevator. In fact, the top floor here is the residence of the Governor's. "

Jarvis was speechless.

While he was amazed at the size of the Governor's Mansion, he also felt that his speculation on the plane was confirmed. Chavren told himself the situation of the Governor's Mansion in detail as soon as he met him.

It must have been ordered by the Lord. It seems that the Lord will gradually loosen many restrictions on himself and the other three earls in the future...
