

Chapter 5405

These two people have their own thoughts in their hearts. Jarvis feels that Jon is a real and powerful confidant of the Lord, so he is naturally worthy of his deep friendship;

And Jon also feels that the Lord has already had the attitude of letting the four earls contact the five military governors. Naturally, it is unavoidable to deal with the four earls, and the strength of the other party is much higher than himself, so it is also a good thing to have a deep friendship.

As a result, the two had a tendency to not hate each other, if it wasn't for Jarvis going to Cyprus at night, the two might even burn some yellow paper to worship a brother.

After lunch, at the kind invitation of Jon, Jarvis took a car ride with him after dinner and toured Naples.

Naples, which is located at the southern tip of the European continent, has a warm and pleasant climate. Even if they took a stroll around, it will make Jarvis feel happy.

In the evening, Jon held a banquet in person again and had a happy chat with Jarvis.

At the dinner table, the two also formulated a plan to explore the copper mines in Cyprus.

The first thing the two need to confirm is whether Zyron, the governor of the copper mine, has secret contacts with foreign enemies.

Therefore, the plan of the two is that when Jarvis secretly sneaks into the copper mine and starts to monitor Zyron secretly, Jon will issue a new secret order to Zyron, asking him to immediately send someone to Rome, Italy to perform a top-secret mission.

And Jon will also send experts to Rome in advance, waiting to secretly control the cavalry guards who come to carry out the mission, to see if they will be attacked or secretly collaborating with the enemy;

If Zyron has a problem, he will definitely contact the outside world through other means as soon as he receives the secret order. Once there is, he can grasp his current status, and then follow the vine to find organizations or individuals colluding with him internally and externally.

If Zyron is fine, and Jon finds nothing wrong with Cavalry Guards, then the last incident in Northern Europe is most likely not an internal leak.

After the two discussed the plan and were full of wine and food, Jon saw that it was almost time to go to the airport, so he said with a smile: "Master, this subordinate will take you to the airport!"

"Okay!" Jarvis stood up with a smile. Come on, patted Jon on the shoulder, and said seriously: "Brother Wu, you and I are both loyal to the Lord. In ancient times, we were colleagues."

"In modern times, we are colleagues. From now on, there is no need to be so polite between you and me. Call me brother Jarvis, and I'll call you brother Jon, from now on we two will be brothers."

Jon said with a flattered face: "That's really my honor, brother!"

After finishing speaking, he quickly filled the bottle again. Two glasses of wine, one of which was handed to Jarvis, excitedly said: "Brother, let's have another drink! I wish you a triumph in advance!"

"Going to Cyprus, I believe that I will be able to win the battle! If I can find out the problem, you will also have a share of the credit!"

Jon said quickly: "Oh, my good brother, brother, let me say something from the bottom of my heart, if this time you really find out the problem in Cyprus, you have solved a big problem for your brother! Otherwise, if I bring more losses to the Lord in the future, the Lord will definitely not let me go!"

Jarvis's expression was firm. He said calmly: "Don't worry, my brother. This time, there is a problem with Cyprus. Your brother will definitely find out the problem. If there is no problem with Cyprus, I will definitely tell the Lord to completely solve your troubles!"

He said gratefully: "Brother, let's not talk about anything else, it's all in the wine!"

Jarvis smiled and said: "Okay! I will drink this cup with my brother, this time we will definitely triumph!"

Nine o'clock in the evening.

A business jet took off from Naples Airport and headed to Larnaca International Airport in Cyprus.

Jarvis on the plane was very relaxed. In his opinion, going to Cyprus is no different from going to a chicken farm for ordinary people, and there is no need to worry about any danger.

Halfway through the flight, he suddenly took out his mobile phone, and using the internal communication software of Warriors Den, he sent a video call invitation to Jeremiah who was in the Far East.

Jeremiah didn't answer, but after rejecting his invitation, she replied, "What does Jarvis want me for?"

Jarvis said with a smile, "Jeremiah, that place in the Far East must be very boring, right? I went today to Naples, I found that the climate of southern Europe is very good, if there is a chance, we two might as well go there and have fun together."

Jeremiah said lightly: "Forget it, I prefer to be alone."

Jarvis replied as he said: "Jeremiah, why bother to reject me thousands of miles away? After so many years, you should know my sincerity to you. If you look around, is there anyone in the world who is more suitable for you than me?"

Jeremiah asked in a bad tone: "Why do I need others to be suitable for me? You don't think that I still have any need for feelings today, do you? What is the use of feelings? Can it increase cultivation? Can it help me achieve longevity?"

Jarvis sighed, and said with an embarrassed smile: "Jeremiah, look at you, although feelings can't increase your cultivation level, and you can't gain longevity! No matter how much you and I practice, we can't live forever, since you will die sooner or later, why not take some time to enjoy the time?"

Jeremiah said coldly, "I'm sorry, I'm not interested in carpe diem."

Jarvis's tone became a little anxious, and he asked her: "You can't die as a grownup girl who has never been married, right? If you don't find a partner, at least you have to have a son and a half daughter, otherwise, after we die, who will set up a monument for us, who will kowtow and burn paper for us?"

Jeremiah said disdainfully: "Death is like a lamp going out. If I die, the best ending is to die without any worries. Let this body return to ashes and dust. As for setting up monuments and kowtow to burn paper, I will die like others, so what do you need to do?"

Jarvis realized that Jeremiah was on guard against him, he sighed helplessly and muttered: "It's hard to come to this world for a while, I don't want to die in obscurity. I want someone to remember me after I die."

Jeremiah replied with a smile: "Then quickly find a woman in the meeting to marry and let her give you a few children. After you die, your descendants will go to your grave and burn the paper."

Jarvis said bitterly: "Jeremiah, I have repeatedly hinted that you have found all kinds of reasons to prevaricate me. Am I so bad? I can't get in your Dharma's eyes."

Jeremiah said with a light smile, "You are joking, what virtue and ability I have, you value me so much, it's not that I look down on you, I just want to cultivate, If you can achieve longevity, you will have everything worth having in the world sooner or later;"

"If you can't achieve longevity, everything will be fleeting and cannot last forever. I don't like this kind of feeling."

Jarvis was stunned for a moment, then sighed: "Longevity! Is there something so easy to ask for? Even an old man who is as strong as the Lord doesn't have this ability, so you have to have the ability to reach the sky!"

Jeremiah said calmly: "Whether you ask for it or not is my business, whether you ask for it or not, It's a matter of heaven, and the two don't conflict."

After finishing speaking, Jeremiah sent another voice, saying: "Jarvis, although you and I are in the same robe, we are not in the same way after all, so I ask you to stop wasting time on me."

Jarvis was very depressed, but also mixed with sadness, anger, and dissatisfaction.

It's just that when Jeremiah talked about this, he really had no face to continue stalking, so he sighed and said dejectedly: "That's all, Jeremiah has great ambitions, I know I'm not good enough for you, today is the day truth coming out, and when we meet in the future, I ask you not to mind."

Jeremiah said with a smile: "I am very forgetful, I accidentally deleted this chat just now, and I can't even remember what you said just now."

Jarvis knew that Jeremiah was giving him a step, and he replied: "Since you deleted it and forgot about it, I won't mention it anymore. I hope that both of us can complete the task assigned by the Lord and return in triumph!"

Jarvis looked at these words, and his mood suddenly became very bad. Although he knew that Jeremiah would reject him, but after being rejected, he felt completely unacceptable.

He was not as humble and gentlemanly as he appeared in front of Jeremiah, on the contrary, he was narrow-minded and held a grudge against anyone who offended him. From his point of view, Jeremiah's rejection of him was a standard ignorance of flattery.

So he couldn't help cursing and muttering to himself: "Jeremiah, what the hell are you so proud of in front of me? You don't look down on me, do you? Just wait, I will find a chance for you to have fun under my cr0tch sooner or later!"

Then during the half-flight of flight, there was an evil fire in his heart that he had nowhere to vent. At 11:30 in the evening, the plane landed at Larnaca International Airport. Jarvis, who was trying to adjust his mentality, walked out of the airport empty-handed.

It was late at night at the airport at this time, and it was raining lightly in the southern part of Cyprus. Jarvis directly stopped a taxi at the gate of the airport and then drove all the way in the direction of the copper mine.

Before departure, Jon had shown Jarvis the specific location of the copper mine and the floor plan of the entire mine.

At this time, Jarvis had a clear understanding of the surrounding terrain and the internal structure of the mine.

According to his plan, he planned to sneak into the main office building of the copper mine from the periphery of the mine first, where Zyron lived.

After more than half an hour. A taxi stopped on the side of the road less than a kilometer away from the copper mine.
