

Chapter 5043

Elaine endured a long twenty minutes in darkness and fear.

As the twenty minutes passed, Elaine rushed to the public phone on the side of the playground.

Seeing her desperately running, many prisoners watched with cold eyes.

Although many of them were eager to teach her a lesson, they were just starting to let loose.

There were many prison guards staring around, and they didn't dare for a while to immediately act on her.

According to the practice of the prison guards at Bedford Hills Correctional Institution,

In the first fifteen minutes and the last fifteen minutes of the one-hour release time,

It is necessary to focus on this group of prisoners,

Because according to their consistent experience,

The most frequent mode of escape from prison is,

In the middle of the prisoner's journey through the different areas.

From the cell to the restaurant, from the restaurant to the playground,

And from the workplace to the cell, these processes are generally the high-incidence stage of prison escapes.

It often happens that there are 20 people just now, but they pass through a certain area.

Note that there are only nineteen left.

Therefore, after they escorted the prisoners to the playground,

And before they are ready to bring the prisoners back to the cell from the playground,

The prison guards spend fifteen minutes to count the number of people,

And observe whether there is any abnormality in numbers.

As for the middle half an hour, it is the prisoner's free time.

In prison, fights are almost impossible to avoid.

Therefore, for managers, it is also a very important control method to set aside a little time,

Every day for prisoners to resolve conflicts.

If the prisoners are not given the opportunity to resolve their conflicts for a long time,

And let the prisoners squeeze out their dissatisfaction with hatred, it is often easy to cause big troubles.

If they are given the opportunity to have a meal with their bare hands every day, then basically nothing big would happen.

In the past few days, Elaine has used this half-hour of vacuum time,

To continuously establish her prestige and make herself the ghost in Bedford Mountain.

Right now, her biggest wish is to make a call to Charlie before the half-hour vacuum time,

And let him find a way to save her no matter what.

After running all the way, she was the first to pick up the public phone,

And then dial Charlie with trembling hands.

As soon as the call got through, she couldn't care less about losing face,

And cried and said, "Good son-in-law, when are you going to get Mom out!"

Charlie said on the other end of the phone, "Mom,"

"I have asked someone to say hello, today You must be released before the evening."

When Elaine heard this, she blurted out: "Ah?! We have to wait until the evening!"

"Good son-in-law, Mom is telling you the truth, I can wait at most ten minutes now."

"If you don't think of a way to save Mom, Mom may die here."

Charlie actually knew everything about her,

But at this time he still pretended to be surprised and asked,

“Mom, what happened? Aren’t you very happy in prison?”

Now, Elaine is no longer just trying to save face, she choked and said to him:

“My good son-in-law, the reason why I didn’t want to be so fast some time ago,”

“Was because I met a few Chinese friends inside. They not only have a good relationship with me,”

“But they were also very good at fighting. With them covering me,”

“I was very comfortable here...” Speaking of this, Elaine lamented:

“But...but I never dreamed that they would be released this morning.”

“Now they have been released from prison, but the people they offended before are waiting to get revenge on me!”

“If you don’t get your mom out quickly, those people will probably beat me to death!”

Charlie exclaimed, “Mom, you shouldn’t be in a gang in prison anymore. Right?”

Elaine said angrily: “That’s almost what it means... Good son-in-law,”

“Can you help me and save me right away... I am begging you.”

“Now! The situation is so urgent, Mom really can’t wait any longer!”
