

Chapter 5153

This staff auditorium, a building that had existed since the original purchase of the copper mine by the Warriors Den,

Was built in the 1980s and was mainly used for meetings,

Festivals and ceremonies for the employees of the copper mine.

After the Warriors Den took over, it allowed all the Cavalry guards to act as employees of the mine,

And most of the Cavalry guards' families to act as logistics, so the mine was superficially run quite well.

Even the occasional local government officials came to inspect the inspection but did not notice any abnormalities.

At this time, these Cavalry guards came to the staff auditorium,

Giving the impression that the copper mine is going to hold a mobilization meeting or summary meeting.

However, if you stand on the sidelines, you will soon find a problem, that is,

Among these uniformly dressed employees, there are more than 20 people holding a towel in their left hand.

And these people with towels have been vaguely excited in their hearts,

Because they feel that after tonight, each of them has the opportunity to go to the next level.

In addition to the vague throbbing excitement,

These people have also been keeping an eye on the others around them,

And are always ready to be asked for a towel.

However, what made them feel strange was that none of them came to ask about such an abrupt performance with a towel in hand.

Each person having a towel in hand, when seeing another person with no towel in hand,

There will be little eye contact with each other.

But for those who did not take the towel, it seems that they did not even look at their towels.

These people were a bit puzzled and did not understand why the others were so insightful,

All the way over, these people did not seem to be interested.

What they didn't know was that these people had actually been given orders to pretend,

To be oblivious to their strange behavior on the surface,

And later just wait for the envoy to drop his cup as a signal to deal with all these people around them, with towels in hand!

The Cavalry guards soon arrived.

After counting their respective men, the three banner chiefs made their respective reports to the chairman.

It was a pity that only the Cavalry Guards, who had made up their minds to break with the Warriors Den,

Knew that this chairman had become a puppet.

At this time, the chairman walked to the front of the stage and said in a loud voice,

“All Cavalry guards listen to the order to welcome the special envoy!”

Every Cavalry guard on the stage, at this time, shouted with emotion, “Greet the envoy!”

The men with towels in their hands were excited because they were thinking of the immediate success of their work.

The other Cavalry guards were excited because they wanted to be free,

From the control of the Warriors Den and realize the greatest dream of their ancestors.

Both sides had their own thoughts and were looking forward to the appearance of the envoy.

At this moment, Charlie, who was dressed in a black robe but did not use a hat to cover his face,

Stepped onto the stage under everyone’s gaze.

The puppet chairman respectfully took a few steps back, leaving the middle seat for Charlie.

Looking at the “special envoy” showing his true face for the first time,

No one felt anything unusual among the Cavalry guards who were divided into two camps on the stage.

After all, both sides have their own set of understanding of Charlie's behavior of revealing his true face.

Charlie was standing on the stage, looking down at the two hundred people below,

And said with a smile on his face: "Gentlemen, I believe that today is an extraordinary day for all of you,"

"A day to remember! It's also a day to build a successful career!"

The two parties on the stage, because they each have their own thoughts,

So when they heard these words, they were all more excited in their hearts.

Shane, who was holding the towel in his hand, and his colleagues who were holding the towel,

Each of them subconsciously held the towel in their hands tighter,

As if what they were holding was not a towel but a ticket to the next glory and fortune.

But they ignored the Cavalry guards around them who did not hold the towel,

Have begun to quietly gaze at them with the afterglow, ready to make a move on them.
