

Ex-Wife 1598

Chapter 1598

Stefan shrugged, glad that someone else was here to suffer through this too.

Xavier and Leia were both dramatic people, and because they hadn't gone through many difficulties like Stefan and Renee, they hadn't realized how meaningful and precious a relationship could be.

However, even though they could be childish sometimes and quarrelled often, it was obvious that they still cared deeply for each other.

Owen sighed in exasperation, unable to tolerate such drama. He waved and said, "That's enough, you two, we don't have much time. Let's stay focused, okay?"

Xavier and Leia immediately turned to glare at Owen. "You were the one who brought it up!" Owen had brought up Shirley for no reason, unknowingly adding fuel to the fire.

"No, I think this woman might be the answer to our problem, " Owen said seriously.

Stefan turned to Owen and asked sternly, "What do you mean?" He had initially assumed that Owen had wanted to gossip about Shirley, but Owen wasn't the type to create drama, so there had to be another reason he mentioned her.

"Don't you think she looks very much like Ms. Everheart?" Owen found Shirley's photo and enlarged it as he asked the others.

"Yes, you're right!" Xavier raised his brows and said eagerly,

She looks so much like Renee that Stefan chose her to be the female lead in 'Hunt my Everheart', a movie about pure love. Yes, they're two peas in a pod in certain aspects, which is why I..." He trailed off, suddenly realizing something, then glanced at Leia and kept quiet.

Leia was no fool. She calmly continued his elaboration." That's why you fell head over heels for her.

So, she's your second choice. You couldn't get your first love, so you found consolation in a woman who looks like her." She knew that Xavier had been deeply in love with Renee many years ago, and had even challenged Stefan, his closest friend. Unfortunately, it was just an unrequited love. After that, Shirley came out of nowhere, looking just like Renee. When Xavier rescued her, he was bewitched, and sacrificed all the resources of Universal Entertainment for her.

Leia's bestie was her beloved's first love. If this was a novel, Leia would have fallen out with Renee, but when she found out about it, she felt no jealousy or resentment at all. She merely found it a pity. If

Renee did not love Stefan that much, or if Xavier was bolder and more passionate, Renee might have found happiness with Xavier. At the very least, Leia felt that a shameless and funny person like Xavier would be good at making Renee happy.

"Okay, let's not talk about the past," Stefan interrupted sharply, not wanting to talk about it.
