

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3029-Samira blushed and said, “The sons of the York family were all excellent. The elders of the York family are very open-minded. After a man marries a wife, he is loyal to the marriage and the family. The family tradition is excellent. Who doesn’t like a good man? I fell in love with Callum after meeting him a few times.”

Rylee actually agreed with Samira’s evaluation of Callum.

She said, “It’s your freedom to like Callum, but Callum is married now, so you should give up immediately.”

Samira muttered, “I like him first. Before I could figure out how to express my feelings, Camryn took the opportunity.”

Rylee chuckled. “Love doesn’t have a first-come, first-served basis. It’s all about fate. Those who don’t have fate, even if they’ve known each other since childhood and grew up together, can’t become husband and wife.”

Elisa met Zachary a few years before Serenity, and after several years of chasing Zachary with no results, Zachary got married to Serenity in a flash marriage.

Zachary would rather get married to a stranger than accept Elisa. Therefore, love does not have a first-come, first-served basis.

Rylee said, “I have never heard that you like Callum. You have never confessed your love to Callum, nor have you deliberately approached him.”

Rylee used to hide her identity and work outside the home, and she didn’t socialize much with people in the upper class. However, her mother was a rich lady who was active in the upper class. She heard a lot of gossip and news from her mother.

It was true that she had never heard of Samira’s gossip.

Samira said, “Every time I see Callum at a banquet, I always wander around within his sight.”

Rylee: “...”

Samira said jealously, "I'm always ridiculed by others because I'm unable to pursue Callum. I'm afraid that I will be ridiculed if I fail to pursue Callum, so I keep watching. Who would have thought that the blind woman, Camryn, who can't see, would marry Callum? She even succeeded."

If she had known it would be so easy to succeed, she would have boldly confessed her love to Callum and pursued him.

Rylee: "..."

After a while, Rylee said coldly, "As far as I know, it was Callum who approached Camryn first and then pursued her. Camryn rejected him for some reason that she couldn't see."

When Samira arrived, she became Camryn's first figure and wanted to fight Callum.

Rylee said, "You have known Callum earlier, but you have never confessed your love or pursued her. You have stayed put. Callum has never promised you anything. When he meets a girl who can make his heart beat, he takes the initiative to pursue her and gains happiness. You are jealous and unwilling. You brought it on yourself. It is your own fault. Samira, at the banquet at my house tonight, if you don't like Camryn, stay away from her. Don't try to bully her or ruin the reputation of my family's banquet. Don't blame me for being rude."

Rylee warned Samira, worried that Samira would bully Camryn out of jealousy. At the same time, she decided to stay away from Samira in the future and no longer wanted to associate with her.

Elisa was better; she had upright views, was cheerful, and behaved openly and aboveboard.

After Rylee warned Samira, she turned and walked towards the main house. She was not familiar with Camryn yet, but she would rather stay with Camryn all night than stay with someone like Samira.

Samira looked at Rylee's back, curled her lips, and muttered something. She didn't take Rylee's warning to heart, turned around, and walked away to say hello to other wealthy ladies she knew and get together to chat.
