Chapter 13

I looked away from Ethan and focused on my food. Why was I so weak in front of him? I should not behave like that. That man destroyed me totally. Suddenly someone slammed a hand on our table. I flinched at the sudden action.

"How dare you stare at my boyfriend?"

I raised my head and saw it was Julie. She went to order but might see me looking at her boyfriend. But looking at someone was not a crime. I did not go to her traitor boyfriend or something. I was looking at him with hatred at that time.

"What do you mean?" I asked.

She bent her back and whispered to me,

"I know everything. He rejected you. You are no longer his mate. You don't deserve such a powerful Alpha like him either. You are nothing in front of him. Just look at yourself. Such an outdated ugly woman!"

I got mad at her. How could she say those things to me?

I stood up and moved from her. I glared at her.

"I don't have any intentions with your boyfriend. You can solely have him."

Her jaw dropped at my words. She did expect me to raise my voice in front of her.

"You!"

She rushed to me but was stopped by a boy.

It was Max, one of our seniors. He was a beta. Why would he come to help me?

"Stop creating scenes in front of others." Max said to Julie as he grabbed her wrist.

"Leave me, Max. She dared to raise her voice in front of me."

"Don't be silly." He said angrily.

Everyone was gathering around us as if some drama was going on here.

Ethan stood up from his seat after showing the drama of his girlfriend. I thought he would make his girlfriend understand that I was not in her way. However, again Ethan Iversen proved me wrong. He came and grabbed Max's hand which was holding Julie's wrist.

"Don't touch my girlfriend." His words came out coldly.

Max had to let go of Julie's hand. He could not argue with Alpha Ethan. He was everyone's future Alpha.

"Bay, I just told her to not look at you. Because she always stares at you. But instead of listening to me, she talked to me rudely just now. She made me feel insulted." Julie said furiously.

She was Ethan's girlfriend. So everyone started to call her Luna. She was already thinking of herself as the Luna of the Moonlight Crown pack. So when I talked back to her, she could not take it.

I looked at Ethan. I was waiting to hear what he would say in this situation.

"No matter who looks at me, my eyes are always on you. So stop caring about who is peeking at me. I am their Alpha, they can look at me or ask me for any help. You don't need to think about it."

"But Bay, you don't know about this type of girl. They can do anything to grab your attention."

"There is nothing special to her that can grab my attention."

I stared at him with painful eyes. Why was he doing this to me? Was rejection not enough? I wanted to slap him for what he had just said. He humiliated me in front of everyone.

Ethan did not give a glance at me. He held Julie's hand and left the cafeteria. Behind him, his friends followed and left.

I could not move from my place a little bit.

"Focus on what you were doing." I heard Max telling others. Though they went back to their tables, they kept glancing at me and talking about me.

"Are you okay?" Max asked me.

"Huh?"

I looked at him and then nodded my head. I felt depressed. Did I come back to school to feel this insult?

My blood was boiling. I could not tell how furious I was. My hatred for Ethan was increasing.

"I wanted to introduce Max to you. He is my new friend." Teresa told me.

I looked at her and then Max. "Thank you, Max."

"That's okay. Don't take her words in mind. She is a crazy woman. She got back Ethan after a long time so she is feeling insecure with every girl now."

I told Teresa that I wanted to leave. Inside me, I felt like crying.

"But there are three more classes left."

"I don't care. I am not feeling well, Teresa. You can attend the classes. Give me notes later, please."

"Okay, let me see you out."

I nodded at her. I smiled at Max. "Bye."

"Bye." He replied.

When I and Teresa went out of the cafe, we saw Ryan leaning beside the cafe's door.

"Have you thought about my proposal yet?"

I did not stop walking. Teresa frowned and asked, "Proposal? What proposal?"

Ryan smiled at her and walked beside her. "Oh hello! Who are you sweety?"

"Stop flirting with my best friend." I said. I felt annoyed. My mood was already ruined.

I thought I could remove Ethan from my head and mind. But he kept coming in front of me. Now he started to insult me too.

"Teresa, that's my name. But what is the proposal you are talking about to Allison?"

"It's something private, you know." Ryan said seriously.

Teresa was stunned by his tone. I almost believed in his solemn face until he laughed. "Don't be afraid of me. I am harmful only to boys. But with girls, my arms are always open for them." He winked at Teresa.

Teresa rolled her eyes. We came to the entrance area.

"Then I am leaving. See you tomorrow." I told her.

"Call me. I need to talk to you." She said and glanced at Ryan.

"Okay." I assured her.

"Don't disturb my bestie. You have all the girls around the school." She warned Ryan.

"Disturb or me? You must be dreaming, Sweety. I was only trying to help your silly best friend."

Teresa glanced at me. I nodded at her and she went inside.

I headed to the road to go to the bus station. I wanted to go straight home.

"Where are you going?" Ryan asked me.

"None of your business."

I walked past him. He turned and grabbed my hand.

"Hey! What are you doing?"

He dragged me to a black car and opened the door.

"You are going with me."
