

Chapter 975 The Monster In The Dungeon

When Leandro heard the guest, Liam, insult the Hoffman family, he felt a wave of embarrassment wash over him.

He silently fumed at Liam, but with Shayla being so courteous to Liam, he couldn't let his displeasure show.

Finding himself in an awkward spot, Leandro tried to shift the conversation. "Master Shayla, we really hope you come out on top in the arena."

Shayla, however, just gave a cold snort and remained silent.

With Shayla not biting, Leandro felt his embarrassment deepen. Not seeing any other option, he and his group left the hall in low spirits.

Once they were outside, Leandro's demeanor shifted dramatically. His gaze turned icy as he looked back at the hall, his face twisted with bitterness.

He clenched his fists and muttered to himself, "Bitch! Just wait and see! Your arrogance won't last forever. One day, I'll be the one calling the shots in the Hoffman family, and you'll be my sex slave. You'll see what it's like to truly suffer. And that man, for disrespecting my family like that, he'll pay dearly."

After ensuring the Hoffman family members had left, Leandro made sure he was alone. Then, he headed straight for a long-abandoned kitchen.

He opened the door and walked to the back, where a fridge hid a secret passage.

Then, he descended into the hidden corridor.

There, it was filled with numerous primogems!

Suddenly, a soft glow enveloped Leandro, marking him as a Primogem Warrior.

Indeed, Leandro was one of the esteemed Primogem Warriors!

As he observed the primogem energy around him, Leandro's expression turned grim.

This was the result of an agreement with the Duncan family.

For a long time, Leandro had endured the Flame Gang to serve as the Duncan family's undercover agent in Pleeeyson.

In return, the Duncan family had granted him the status of Primogem Warrior.

Leandro envisioned dominating Shayla as his slave once the Flame Gang fell to the Duncan family, a sly grin spreading across his face.

Lost in thought, he had reached the deepest part of the secret room.

A unique dungeon lay before him.

Constructed entirely from rare metals, it contained a formidable inhabitant.

As Leandro entered the dungeon, a massive beast charged out of the shadows.

Covered in fur, with wildly bloodshot eyes and a frenzied aura, the beast was in a state of agitation. Additionally, infusion tubes were wrapped around the creature's body, adding to its fearsome appearance.

At the end of the infusion tubes hung a medicine jar filled with an anesthetic.

At that moment, the monster was letting out hoarse roars, clearly in immense pain.

Leandro watched the monster with a calm demeanor. He pulled a needle tube from his pocket and swiftly injected its contents into the jar.

The substance was a tranquilizer. This drug was designed to keep the monster from becoming uncontrollable while weakening its physical strength.

As the monster began to settle down, Leandro's face twisted into a sinister smile.

He counted on this monster as his ace to overthrow

Shayla.

The Duncan family was behind the creation of this beast.

Rumor had it that at its peak, the monster could take down any Primogem Warrior who hadn't surpassed their own boundaries.

After receiving the tranquilizer, the monster quieted down and slumped to the floor.

As the light shone on it, the creature slowly became visible.

Had Liam been there, he could have noticed a strange resemblance between the monster's face and Jaxtyn's!
