An Understated Dominance by Marina Vittori Chapter 2227

Zhang Yiqing's magical methods amazed all the warriors.

They didn't expect that two simple talisman papers could be so powerful, and they could easily defeat the lion.

"Isn't it? Are you suppressing the killer leader?" Liu Hongxue's beautiful eyes widened, looking a little stunned.

She hadn't taken Zhang Yiqing seriously before, thinking that he was too young and not that strong.

However, the result surprised her. Before she could see the situation clearly, the violent lion had been beaten to the ground.

From the beginning to the end, Zhang Yiqing stood still and did not move, but simply waved his hands twice.

"Is this the strength of Longhushan's new generation of geniuses? It's really extraordinary!" Xu Yang exclaimed, secretly admiring him.

There are many magical powers in Longhu Mountain, among which the golden light spell, thunder method, and magical talismans are the most famous.

However, each of these three magical powers is extremely difficult to practice.

Most of the ordinary disciples of Longhu Mountain major in Golden Light Spell.

Only when you have mastered the Golden Light Curse can you practice the Thunder Technique.

Similarly, only after you have mastered the art of thunder can you be qualified to study magical talismans.

In other words, those who can use magical talismans must at least have mastered the golden light spell and thunder method.

And there are only a handful of people like this in Longhu Mountain!

Because normally speaking, the Golden Light Mantra and the Thunder Technique cannot be accomplished without fifty years of hard work.

On top of this, it would be even more difficult to be proficient in divine runes.

At such a young age, Zhang Yiqing was already able to control divine talismans with ease. His talent and cultivation were far beyond those of the so-called martial arts leaders like them.

“To be able to practice the magic talisman to the point where it can be used as an arm, at least to the level of Xiaocheng. To be able to reach this level at the age of seventeen or eighteen is really a monster!” Liu Rushuang shook her head. While she was shocked, her heart couldn’t help but rise. A sense of powerlessness arose.

As an elite disciple of the Sword Sect, she has always had her own pride.

However, what she saw and heard these days shocked her greatly.

Because there are so many geniuses, whether it is Dustin, Kuang Lang, or Zhang Yiqing, they are all much better than her.

Even if Chen Xingwen and Kuang Chao were killed, she might not be her opponent.

She, who was once the star of all stars, has become eclipsed in front of these real geniuses, like a minion.

It’s a bit sad.

“The rumors are indeed true. This little Taoist priest can definitely reach the top of the list of geniuses.” Yan Buqi squinted and muttered to himself.

If he had just heard about it at first, now he was sure that Zhang Yiqing was definitely more than enough to be selected into the list of geniuses.

“After finishing the work, you two, carry that guy back.”

After taking care of the lion, Zhang Yiqing yawned and then directed two Longhu Mountain disciples to clean up the scene.

The two of them responded, and just when they were about to carry the lion away, dustin suddenly stood up.

“Wait a minute.”

dustin stepped forward, stood in front of the lion, and said calmly: “Taoist priests, everything has a first-come, first-served basis. This guy is my prey. It’s not appropriate for you to take him away like this.” ?”
