

Chapter 1057 His Medical Skills Are Better Than Mine

"How dare you go against me? I won't let you go this time!"

Because of that phone conversation with Trevor, Caitlin was so angry that she lost her temper in the office of Star Film and Television Company.

Recently, she had been failing to get what she wanted because of Trevor.

First, she failed to recruit Ivanna. Then, she colluded with Alec to drive the people of Sky Film and Television Company away. But in the end, she was the one who got scared and ran away.

And today, she sent Colson and his men to sabotage Trevor's new company. But Colson even worked for Trevor.

"I am a Sanderson. I don't believe that I can't deal with you!" Caitlin murmured to herself, gritting her teeth.

She shouted at her assistant angrily, "Check Sky Film and Television Company for me. I want to know what has happened to that damn company today."

Caitlin's assistant was so scared that she quickly went to investigate.

The fact that Nicolas appeared at Sky Film and Television Company was not a secret and could be found easily.

Of course, the Sanderson family was powerful in Barlowtown. So it was not surprising that they also found out even the fact that Trevor had cured Nicolas' chronic illness with his medical skills.

"Medical skills?"

Caitlin was a little surprised when she heard her assistant's report. Then a contemptuous look crept across her face.

"I see... Humph! I think Nicolas has gone gaga. He doesn't go to the hospital for treatment. Instead, he believes in a brat of an unknown origin. Levi is young and good at fighting. But medical skills? He must be a fraud! And Nicolas is a fool to believe him."

Caitlin contemplated for a while.

She thought that since Nicolas was backing Trevor up, it was indeed difficult to deal with the latter. But if she could sever the relationship between Trevor and Nicolas, things would be much easier for her.

Caitlin turned to her assistant and ordered, "Invite the most famous doctor in Barlowtown. I also want to visit Nicolas."

Her idea was very simple. She thought that as long as she could prove to Nicolas that Trevor was a liar, she could not only make him lose Nicolas' support but also had the chance to make Nicolas turn against Trevor.

By then, she didn't even need to do anything by herself. Sky Film and Television Company would be destroyed by Nicolas' anger.

With the use of money, it didn't take long for Caitlin's assistant to invite a famous doctor in Barlowtown over. Then Caitlin visited Nicolas with the doctor.

Coincidentally, Trevor was also in Nicolas' villa at the moment. So they met.

"Levi?" Hatred and anger appeared on Caitlin's fair face at once.

Trevor raised his eyebrows. He was here for Nicolas' physical examination. He was surprised to see Caitlin.

Nicolas' legs had just recovered, but he just kicked Colson.

It didn't matter what could happen to Colson. But it would be bad if Nicolas got hurt because of him.

But what was Caitlin doing here?

Upon seeing their reactions, Nicolas asked, "Do you know each other?"

Nicolas already knew the conflict between Caitlin and Trevor. But he still wanted to see why Caitlin suddenly came to visit him.

Caitlin said quickly, "Mr. Bowman, I just want to remind you to be careful. There have been many swindlers around recently. I heard that you found a young man to treat you. I am very worried, so I invited the most famous doctor in Barlowtown to examine you. Liars are so annoying. It's not a trivial matter. Aside from wasting your time, your health will also be jeopardized. You will suffer more."

Nicolas was a powerful general in his time. Even if he had already retired, no one in Barlowtown dared to look down upon him.

Caitlin didn't dare to be too presumptuous in front of Nicolas. So she could only imply in a voice dripping with sarcasm that Trevor was a liar.

"You brought a doctor over?" Nicolas asked with a frown.

Were there any doctors in the entire Barlowtown he couldn't make an appointment with?

The truth was, he had already seen all the famous doctors in Barlowtown. But only Trevor gave him hope that he could still be cured.

"Yes. The most famous doctor in Barlowtown is with me." Caitlin was so excited that she didn't notice the displeasure on Nicolas' face. She turned her head to the door and said, "Dr. Astley, please come in."

Trevor also looked at the door. And when he saw the doctor, the look on his face became a little strange.

He knew this doctor.

"Oh, the genius doctor is here. I'm so glad to see you again. Actually, since we met last time, I have been wanting to talk about medical knowledge with you," Armoni said, shaking hands with Trevor excitedly.

Trevor felt helpless upon seeing Armoni's enthusiasm.

Then, he turned to Caitlin and looked at her playfully.

At this moment, Caitlin looked embarrassed.

She didn't expect that the doctor she brought knew Trevor.

But to cover up her embarrassment, she had to interrupt them quickly.

"Dr. Astley, as a famous doctor in Barlowtown, I believe that your medical skills must be much better than this young man's. Hurry and check Mr. Bowman now."

As she spoke, Caitlin hinted at Armoni with her eyes.

But unexpectedly, Armoni didn't seem to understand what she meant. He said straightforwardly, "This doctor is much better than me when it comes to medical skills. He is a genius. I even feel ashamed of myself to be compared to him."

"What?" Caitlin pointed at Armoni. She wanted to say something, but she was at a loss for words. She rolled her eyes and almost fainted in anger.
