

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3198-Serenity naturally introduced Zachary to Abby.

“Young Master York, I have admired your name for a long time.” Abby gave Zachary a polite greeting and extended her palm to shake.

For Evan’s sake, Zachary symbolically shook hands with Abby.

The couple first welcomed Abby to sit down on the sofa.

Evan sat beside Zachary. To conceal his inner thoughts, he hugged Sonny and let him sit on his lap. He would play with Sonny on occasion.

From the corner of his eye, he would fall on Abby from time to time.

After sitting for a while, Zachary informed the butler to come in, and everyone sat at the dining table.

Serenity took the menu from the butler, handed it to Abby, and said warmly, “Miss Du, please order. Just order whatever you like. The food in our hotel is still very good.”

Abby did not take the menu. She smiled and said, “Miss Hunt, you can just order. I’m not picky about food. I now reside at the Wiltspoon Hotel. I have also eaten at the restaurant here. The food is very delicious, with various cuisines. The dishes are all very authentic.”

Wiltspoon Hotel received guests from all over the country every day, including foreigners. The restaurant had dishes from all major cuisines. No matter where they were from, they could eat authentic hometown dishes here.

“Then, I’ll order it.” Serenity dined here with Zachary every day, and there was no need to look at the menu to order.

Knowing that Abby was from Hiribaty and that people there liked spicy food, she ordered a few spicy dishes. People in Wiltspoon didn’t like spicy food, so she also took care of her family and ordered a few non-spicy dishes.

Serenity asked, “Miss Du, do you drink?”

Abby smiled and said, “Miss Hunt, if you can have a drink with me, you can ask for two bottles of wine. You’re pregnant now, so you shouldn’t be able to drink.”

Serenity said, “It’s okay to let Evan have a drink with you. I need to wait until next year after unloading the goods before I can drink.”

Abby glanced at Evan and said, “Mr. York doesn’t dare drink with me. He’s afraid that he won’t be able to run fast if he gets drunk.”

Evan: “Miss Du is joking; why should I run away? I don’t get drunk that easily. I have a good drinking capacity.”

Abby said, “I thought Mr. York felt guilty when he saw me and wanted to run away.”

Evan: “Miss Du, you’re not a savage be*st, and you don’t eat people, so what should I be afraid of?” I have never done anything sorry to you, and I don’t feel guilty.”

Abby immediately apologized to Serenity and said, “Miss Hunt, let me change positions.”

Serenity: “Miss Du, please help yourself.”

Abby stood up and sat next to Evan.

Evan: “...”

He felt that his nerves were tense.

Well, he admitted that he actually felt guilty.

He was quite afraid of getting along with Abby.

He felt guilty because he often treated Abby like a monkey and felt sorry for her.

“Mr. York, it seems like your hair is standing on end.” Abby approached Evan with a smile, her beautiful eyes twinkling, teasing him.

Evan touched his hair and said, “My hair is too short, and it sticks up.”

Abby: "Oh, really, why do I think you're so nervous?"

Evan: "I'm not nervous. Why am I nervous?"

Abby looked at Evan with a half-smile but not a smile for a long time and then said to Serenity, "Miss Hunt, please order two bottles of strong liqu*r. I'll toast Mr. York a few drinks later and try to compete with Mr. York in terms of drinking capacity. Let's see who gets drunk first?"

Evan said, "Miss Du, you're a girl, and you're alone. It is best to drink less."

"Mr. York, I believe you will take good care of me when I'm drunk and won't let anyone take advantage of me." Besides, the Wiltspoon Hotel is one of the safest hotels in Wiltspoon. I don't believe you, but I believe in the York family, I believe in the Wiltspoon Hotel, and I believe in Young Master York and Miss Hunt."

Evan: "..."