Chapter 2731

Chapter 2731

"Mister Grimston, I've already told you that Hugh is in the Advanced Emperor State and that you are no match for him. You two just wouldn't believe me! What about now?" Renee smirked mockingly and looked at the two of them like they were fools.

"Well," Both Bucky and Aurelia finally realized the situation before them.

They assumed that Renee was bluffing about Hugh's power to defend him. However, if Hugh could injure Bucky with a single blow, he was likely in the Intermediate Almighty State or above.

They finally understood that Renee was telling the truth instead of bluffing. They merely been too arrogant and ended up underestimating Hugh.

"Damn it! How can this happen?" Both of their expression darkened.

They could not understand how a mere vice president managed to reach the Advanced Emperor state.

It was surreal.

Aurelia initially thought that her boyfriend was far better than Hugh and wanted to take this opportunity to embarrass Renee.

However, the reality proved her completely wrong.

The financial capability Hugh showcased during the auction and his power as a martial artist surpassed Bucky.

It was no wonder that he managed to win Renee over and Auralia was devastated.

"Mister Grimston, you wanted to even the scores, right? As you wish. Let's even the scores." Leon scoffed and strode toward Bucky, who was on the ground.

"What- what are you going to do?" Shocked, Bucky started to panic.

He lost to Leon and his arrogance faded without a trace in the face of absolute power.

"It's simple. You asked me to kneel and apologize, right? I'll give you a chance to do the same and I can act like this never happened. Otherwise, I won't show any mercy!" Leon said mockingly and used Bucky's words against him.

"What? Impossible!" Bucky was stunned.

For someone with his status, he could never kneel to someone else, let alone to a mere vice president.

Though Leon was formidable and was likely in the Advanced Emperor State, the Grimstons were powerful with an army of formidable martial artists.

For the Grimstons, crushing Leon would be as easy as crushing an ant. Hence, there was no way that he would submit to Leon, let alone kneeling to apologize.

Chapter 2732

Chapter 2732

"Impossible? Well, you asked for this? I gave you a chance. Since you won't take it, don't blame me for what I'm about to do." Leon sneered and narrowed his eyes maliciously.

"What? What are you going to do?" Sensing the malicious aura from Leon, an ominous feeling rose within Bucky.

"Since you won't apologize, I don't suppose you need those legs anymore. I'll be nice and break them for you!" Leon said coldly.

He then raised his leg, intending to land a blow on Bucky's knees.

"What? You- you wouldn't dare!" Bucky was terrified.

However, realization soon dawned on him and he regained his composure.

"Don't bother trying to scare me! I'm warning you! The Grimstons are powerful and not people that someone like you can afford to cross. If you dare to hurt me, the Grimstons will come after you!" Bucky roared and attempted to intimidate Leon with his family's power.

He knew that Leon was just a vice president who was not from any powerful family. Hence, he was no match for the powerful Grimstons and assumed that Leon was just trying to scare him.

There was no way that he would dare to do such a thing and Bucky was not at all worried.

"That's right! You better let Bucky go, or the Grimstons and the Underwoods will hunt you down,"

Aurelia agreed along, but her attitude remained arrogant.

She shared Bucky's thoughts and did not think someone as powerless as Leon would dare to harm them unless he had a death wish.

"You just won't give up. You two must have a death wish! Let's see if you can keep that attitude up later!" Leon laughed angrily.

He was never one to submit to threats.

He never met Bucky and Aurelia in the past and shared no grudges with them. Yet, they repeatedly undermined him.

Not only did they compete with him over the clear jadeite and green jadeite, but they also tried to bully him by force afterward.

Their actions were out of line and if they apologized for what they did, Leon would have considered forgiving them since they did not do anything else to him.

However, they did not seem to recognize their mistakes and remained arrogant, which enraged him.

Since they were determined to dig their graves, he saw no reason to hold back.

Without hesitation, he aimed at Bucky's knees and swung his leg.

"Why you!" Both Bucky and Aurelia lost their composure and were both shocked that Leon meant what he said.

Bucky did not expect Leon to disregard the power of the Grimstons.

This completely caught him by surprise and his heart sank.

Chapter 2733

Chapter 2733

"Hugh, wait!" Renee was taken aback and she spoke up hesitantly.

She knew that Hugh was just a vice president who had no connection in the Western region.

The Grimstons and the Underwoods were both powerful families with armies of formidable martial artists, including some who were in the Almighty State.

Hugh, who was merely in the Advanced Emperor State, could not compare with them.

If Hugh recklessly broke Bucky's leg and enraged the Grimstons, this would not work well for him.

With that thought in mind, she wanted to tell Hugh to stop and let Bucky and Aurelia go.

However, considering how arrogant Bucky and Aurelia were, the fact they showed no remorse enraged

Hugh.

It would be unfair for Hugh if she asked him to stop.

Instantly, she could not decide what to do.

Just then, the situation shifted.

"Stop!" someone roared.

A formidable-looking middle-aged man charged toward them, followed by two elderly men.

The group of three arrived right before Leon within the blink of an eye.

"Who are you there?" Leon was slightly taken aback when he realized that the three men before him were all rather formidable.

He paused and stepped on Bucky's chest instead to pin him down.

"Dad, you came at the right time! Help me!" Bucky looked up and was overjoyed when he saw who they were.

He immediately struggled to get up to seek help, but Leon's leg pinned him in place so firmly that he could not move at all.

"So you're all from the Grimstons." Realization dawned on Leon and he finally realized that they were from the Grimstons.

Still, he did not expect them to show up all of a sudden and was slightly shocked.

"Bucky, what's going on?" The middle-aged man's expression darkened when he saw how Bucky was pinned on the ground and spotted the blood on his lips.

He knew that Bucky and Aurelia had come to purchase jadeites for their engagement party. However, they did not return after a long while.

He was starting to worry that something bad happened to them. Since this area was the territory of the Grimston and their mansion was located not far away, he led some people to check on them to find Leon about to attack Bucky.

Still, he just arrived and did not know what happened.

Leon looked unfamiliar and he could not tell if Leon was from any of the powerful families in the western region. Hence, he dared not to act recklessly.

"Uncle, this guy is Hugh Wolf. He's just a vice president in some small firm. Bucky and I were purchasing jadeite when we got into a fight with him," Not giving Bucky a chance to speak, Aurelia chimed in.

She merely mentioned that there were some conflicts while they were making a purchase, but did not bother to mention how she and Bucky undermined Leon.

Chapter 2734

Chapter 2734

"So he's just a vice president from a small firm! Kid, how dare you injure my son? You must be held responsible!" The middle-aged man, Gaston Grimston, glared sharply at Leon.

He thought Leon was a member of one of the prestigious families in the western region and assumed he merely fought Bucky over minor conflicts.

If that was the case, he could not interfere with a duel between two young martial artists. Therefore, he did not do anything earlier.

To his surprise, Leon was just a vice president of a small firm. Yet, he dared to cross the Grimstons and injure Bucky.

This was a blatant challenge and Gaston was furious.

"Mister Grimston, I'm afraid I disagree with you! It was Mister Bucky and Miss Aurelia who bullied

Hugh, yet you didn't even bother asking our sides of the story before you held Hugh accountable! Don't you think that's a bit inappropriate?" Renee stepped forward and defended Hugh with a displeased expression.

"Miss Morrison!" Gaston turned his head and finally noticed Renee.

Instantly, he was confused as to why Renee was there.

"Uncle, Hugh's Renee's boyfriend," Spotting the confusion on his face, Aurelia explained.

"I see! It's no wonder that he dares to cross the Grimstons. So he has the Morrisons backing him up!"

Gaston's expression darkened as he assumed that Leon was relying on the Morrisons.

It made sense as a mere vice president would not dare to cross the Grimstons otherwise.

Still, it did not matter if Leon had the support of the Morrisons. Though the Morrisons were the most powerful family in the western region, the Grimstons' influence and power were close behind, so they did not fear the Morrisons.

Besides, Leon was just Renee's boyfriend and there was no telling if he would get to marry her.

Gaston held a high status and even Renee could not rival him in that aspect, let alone Leon, who was yet to tie the knot with her.

Hence, he did not see Leon as a threat.

"Kid, out of respect for the Morrisons, I'll give you a chance. Let Bucky go now and break one of your arms as an apology. That way, I won't hold you accountable for injuring Bucky. Otherwise, I'll show you just how foolish it is to cross us!" Gaston stared maliciously at Leon.

"What? You want me to break my arm as an apology? What a joke!" Leon laughed angrily.

He thought that a senior like Gaston would be more reasonable and would not be as reckless as Aurelia or Bucky.

However, it seemed as though he was wrong.

Gaston judged him guilty without learning about the situation and now asked him to break his arm to apologize to Bucky.

This simply proved that he was just as unreasonable as Bucky and Aurelia, or even more so.

Leon was furious.

Chapter 2735

Chapter 2735

Leon was not the only one who was offended.

Renee, too, was infuriated by Gaston's unreasonable demand. "Mister Grimston, I've already made it clear that Mister Bucky and Miss Aurelia here picked on Hugh. This isn't Hugh's fault! It's bad enough that you don't reprimand them for doing such things, and now you're asking Hugh to break his arm as an apology? Don't you think you are out of line here?"

"So what if I'm out of line? He injured Bucky and I won't forgive him. All I'm asking is that he break his arm. Consider this a favor to the Morrisons!" Gaston said coldly.

If Leon belonged to the Morrisons or any other prestigious families in the western region, he would not do much to Leon out of concern for retaliation.

However, Leon was merely a vice president of a humble background, so he would not allow him to disrespect the Grimstons.

"Why you!" Renee's face paled from anger and she felt helpless.

Though she was the eldest daughter of the Morrisons, she was just a junior.

Meanwhile, Gaston was the leader of the second-generation martial artists in the Grimstons and the future heir of his family.

In terms of status and power, she could not rival with Gaston.

Since Gaston remained domineering and demanded that Hugh break his arm as an apology for injuring Bucky, she did not know how to respond.

"Kid, did you hear me? Let Bucky go and break one of your arms as an apology!" Gaston stared at Leon coldly.

He felt that he already had the situation under control, or at least that was what he thought.

Though he did not know the extent of Leon's power and could not figure out how a nobody managed to injure Bucky, he concluded that Leon could not be that formidable judging by his age. At most, he would only be slightly stronger than Bucky.

As the leader of the second-generation martial artists in his family, Gaston had long reached the Semi-

Almighty State and was not far from reaching the Almighty State.

With his current strength, Leon could not possibly rival him.

Hence, he decided to stand up for Bucky. Using the fact that Leon injured Bucky, he forced Leon to break his arm and assumed Leon had no choice but to obey.

"Very well! Mister Grimston, let's do it your way. Out of respect for the Grimstons, I'll let Mister Bucky go if he breaks one of his arms, otherwise, I won't show him any mercy!" Leon laughed angrily.

"What?" His words shook everyone to their core.

Aurelia thought that Leon would be intimidated by Gaston's presence and would let go of Bucky before breaking his arm to apologize.

To her bewilderment, Leon did not cave and instead faced up to Gaston.

This caught her by surprise and she could not figure out what gave him the courage to do such a thing.

Did Leon have a death wish?

Naturally, Renee felt the same as well.

Ever since Hugh defeated Felton, she assumed that Hugh was in the Advanced Emperor state. While this may mean that Hugh was unmatched amongst the youngest generation, he still could not hold a candle to martial artists of the older generation.

Meanwhile, Gaston was the leader of the second-generation martial artists in the Grimstons and the Semi-Almighty State.

Felton and Bucky could not be compared with Gaston, so there was no way that Hugh would stand a chance against him.

Yet, he seemed to have gone mad and challenged Gaston without the slightest hint of fear.

This was practically suicidal and Renee was shaken.

Chapter 2736

Chapter 2736

"Hugh, have you gone mad? Mister Grimston is the leader of the second-generation martial artists in his family. He's in the Semi-Almighty State, making him more powerful than you. You need to be careful," Renee recovered from the initial shock and whispered.

She assumed that Leon acted recklessly because he did not know how powerful Gaston was, so she decided to remind him and prevent him from enraging Gaston.

Crossing Gaston would not benefit Leon in any way.

"I haven't gone mad. He's just in the Semi-Almighty State and it's not that that's a big deal. I'm interested to see what he can do," Leon said in contempt.

With his overall strength reaching the Advanced Almighty State, even if the leader of the Grimstons appeared, they would not be able to harm him, let alone a second-generation martial artist like Gaston.

Hence, Leon did not see Gaston as a threat.

"Why you! How arrogant! You must have a death wish!" Gaston was infuriated by Leon's contemptuous attitude.

He fired up his true energy, preparing to crush the arrogant brat before him.

However, Leon still had Bucky pinned under his foot and if Gaston attacked Leon, Leon may harm

Bucky so Gaston could only suppress his anger for now.

"Kid, you have one final chance! Let Bucky go now or bear the consequences of your actions!" Gaston said coldly and released an overwhelming aura that swarmed Leon.

Since Leon held Bucky hostage, he could not make a move and decided to intimidate Leon into letting Bucky go, before dealing with Leon.

"Old man, who are you to tell me what to do? I'll repeat it. You have three seconds to decide if you want Mister Bucky here to break his arm, or if you want me to break his leg right now. Pick one. It's up to the two of you!" Leon said coldly and showed no sign of fear.

He then aimed his foot at Bucky's knee as though he was preparing to stomp on it.

He was hinting that he would break Bucky's leg if Gaston dared to cross him.

"You wouldn't dare! If you harm Bucky, I'll flay you alive!" Gaston's expression darkened, worried that Leon would break Bucky's leg.

However, Bucky was the only thing that was keeping Leon alive at the moment so Leon wouldn't dare to harm Bucky.

If he was not mistaken, Leon was merely trying to scare him.

With that thought in mind, Gaston relaxed and regained his composure.

Naturally, he was not the only person who thought that; so did Bucky and Aurelia.

None of them believed that Leon would harm Bucky unless Leon had a death wish. However, what happened next shook them to their core.

Chapter 2737

Chapter 2737

"You'll find out if I dare to do so soon enough! Old man, I've already given you a chance. Since you won't take it, don't blame me for what I'm about to do!" Leon scoffed.

Without hesitation, he stomped on Bucky's knees.

Snap!

Following a crisp sound, the bones on Bucky's knees were instantly shattered.

Bucky screamed and saw stars from the pain, coming close to fainting.

"Hugh, have you gone mad?" Renee was utterly shocked and gaped at him in disbelief.

Though Hugh was only in the Advanced Emperor state, making him far weaker than Gaston, at least he had Bucky as his hostage.

It was the best strategy to negotiate with Gaston using Bucky as the bargaining chip. That way, Hugh may be able to escape unscathed.

However, not only did Hugh not do so, but he also repeatedly challenged Gaston and even broke Bucky's leg in front of Gaston.

This seemed reckless and she was taken aback by Leon's actions.

"You!" Renee was not the only one who was shocked; So were Gaston and Aurelia.

None of them expected Leon to harm Bucky and they were all caught by surprise.

"How dare you hurt my son? I'm going to kill you!" Gaston snapped out of it and glared daggers at Leon.

Unable to suppress his anger any longer, he charged at Leon, wielding powerful true energy in his hands.

He was ready to tear Leon into pieces to vent his anger.

"Mister Grimston, wait!" Renee was terrified.

Without hesitation, she stood before Hugh in an attempt to protect Hugh or negotiate with Gaston to get Hugh an opportunity to escape.

This was the only thing she could do for Hugh at the moment.

"Get out of the way, or I'll kill you too!" The fact that Leon harmed Bucky completely enraged Gaston.

Overwhelmed by rage, he had no regard for Renee's status and sent a powerful wave of energy toward her.

"It's over," Renee's heart sank.

Though she managed to reach the Initial Emperor State with Hugh's help, she was still no match for Gaston, who was in the Semi-Almighty state.

In the face of such a powerful attack, she had no means to protect herself or dodge, so she could simply watch as the attack approached.

If she was not mistaken, she would at least be severely injured once she took the blow.

Devastated, she did not know what to do.

"Miss Morrison, step aside. I'll deal with this old man!" Leon reacted swiftly and grabbed her on the shoulder, before pulling her behind him.

Extending his finger, he launched the Earthly Plunder.

His energy transformed into a blade that extended out of his finger and he wielded it against Gaston's attack.

Chapter 2738

Chapter 2738

"Die, brat!" Gaston narrowed his eyes maliciously.

The fact that Leon broke Bucky's leg infuriated him and he wanted to take Leon's life.

Since Leon faced up to him and even dreamed of fending off his attack with a single finger, this worked to Gaston's advantage and he was not about to miss such an opportunity.

Changing into a different position, he extended his arm and wielded a powerful attack at Leon, intending to destroy Leon with a single blow to avenge his son.

"Die, you arrogant brat!" Bucky and Aurelia glared at Leon maliciously when they noticed that Leon was trying to face Gaston head-on.

Bucky wore a vicious expression.

Leon broke his leg and he resented Leon for it. He desperately wished that Gaston could kill Leon within an instant.

On the other hand, they learned from Renee that Leon was just in the Advanced Emperor State, which made him far weaker than Gaston in the Semi-Almighty State.

None of them thought that Leon could fend off an attack from Gaston's attack as it did not seem realistic.

Since Leon was now facing Gaston head-on, Leon would surely perish once he took the blow and that seemed to be the only way this would turn out.

Even the elderly men Gaston brought along felt the same.

They were skilled martial artists from the older generation and were far more perspective than Bucky and Aurelia.

Judging from Leon's speed and explosive power, they could tell that Leon was just in the Advanced Emperor State and could not be a match for Gaston.

Hence, they stood aside casually and waited for Leon's demise.

"It's over. Hugh's a dead man!" Renee paled, her heart sinking.

Since she did not know that Hugh was Leon, she mistakenly believed that Hugh was merely in the Advanced Emperor State.

He could not compare with Gaston, who was in the Semi-Almighty State, yet was forced to face Gaston directly to protect her.

If she was not mistaken, Leon would surely die and she was overwhelmed by despair.

However, what happened next shook everyone in the scene.

Baam!

Following a loud sound, Leon's attack and Gaston's attack clashed.

Since Leon's actual level was in the Advanced Emperor state, Gaston's attack tore through Leon's Earthly Plunder and slammed toward Leon.

Chapter 2739

Chapter 2739

Leon did not waver and took the blow with the Mirror of Sovereign.

Meanwhile, the Earthly Plunder tore through the weakest point of Gaston's attack and darted toward Gaston's chest.

Gaston needed a defensive tool like Leon. On top of that, he underestimated Leon and did not think there was a possibility that Leon could withstand his attack.

Hence, he was defenseless when Leon's Earthly Plunder pierced through his true energy.

By the time he realized what was happening, Leon's Earthly Plunder was merely inches away from him and it was too late for him to dodge.

"Oh, no!" He paled.

However, he was still a martial artist in the Semi-Almighty State and would not simply stand still when under attack.

At the very last moment, he summoned all the remaining true energy and tilted his body to avoid taking the blow in the chest.

Leon's attack ended up landing on his shoulder instead.

The Earthly Plunder struck and left a bloody wound on Gaston's shoulder.

He grunted in pain and paled, before backing up a few steps and falling onto the ground.

"What? Was he defeated? How's that possible?" Everyone, including Renee, Bucky, and Aurelia, rubbed their eyes in disbelief.

They thought that with Gaston's power, he could surely destroy Leon with ease.

To their bewilderment, they could not have been more wrong.

Leon remained unscathed and even managed to injure Gaston with a single blow.

This was so surreal that they were all shaken.

Renee, who thought that she knew Hugh and the extent of his power, was initially devastated because she thought Hugh was destined to die.

Yet, a miracle took place and Leon somehow managed to defeat Gaston with a single finger.

Amid her shock, she was both excited and pleasantly surprised.

"No, this can't be!" Gaston snapped out of it and held his shoulder as he struggled to get up from the ground, his expression dark.

Like the two older martial artists from the Grimstons, he could tell that Leon was in the Advanced Emperor State based on Leon's speed and explosive power.

This meant that Leon was far weaker than he was and should not be able to fend off his attack.

To his bewilderment, Leon succeeded in fending off his attack and even managed to injure him in the process.

This was so surreal that he could not figure out how Leon managed to accomplish that and could not bring himself to accept what just happened.
