

Chapter 1004 Julie's Awake

After Liam stitched up Julie's surgical wound, his mind slipped into a foggy state.

He wasn't fully asleep just then.

Liam's foggy mind sensed his body going through a rapid cycle of breaking down and rebuilding.

He sensed a breakthrough was near.

During that time, the troublesome green glow that had bothered Liam had been fully absorbed by him.

Suddenly, Liam found himself in a vast whirlpool. And then, abruptly, he was wide awake.

He quickly opened his eyes, and before even thinking of speaking to Shayla, he checked on Julie to make sure she was alright for now. Then, he shut his eyes again to assess his progress.

To his amazement, Liam discovered he had broken through his previous limits while unconscious!

His vitality had significantly improved.

Now, Liam had earned his place among the elite sixth-level Primogem Warriors.

With this new strength, he noticed the side effects of his armor were gone. From now on, he could wield his armor without restriction!

Liam credited his leap forward to the green light from Julie's body.

Now, he had already figured out what the green light was.

The green light was none other than a fragment of the legendary Heart of Life.

Such treasures were exceedingly rare. Most people could go their entire lives without encountering it.

Liam hadn't imagined finding such a treasure within Julie.

Furthermore, once Liam leveled up to a sixth-level Primogem Warrior, his newfound power was connected to the mighty life force of the Heart of Life. He could even feel additional powers within him, ready for discovery!

But then, he shelved these thoughts. Liam reopened his eyes to double-check Julie's state.

Only when he was sure Julie was stable did he let out a sigh of relief.

But Shayla was not pleased.

Seeing Liam wake up and immediately tend to Julie made Shayla feel overlooked, sparking her annoyance.

She tightened her lips and grunted softly in frustration.

To assist Liam and Julie, she had boldly disclosed who she really was to deal with the head of Rosefinch Hospital.

Liam heard Shayla's displeased huff, yet he chose not to address it.

At that moment, his focus was solely on Julie.

He understood that slowing down Julie's aging wouldn't be enough if he couldn't neutralize the poison's effects entirely.

Suddenly, an idea struck Liam.

He had now taken in the strength from a fragment of the Heart of Life. This meant he must have gained some of the Heart of Life's abilities!

With that thought, Liam pulled out his dagger and made a small cut on his wrist. Next, he let Julie swallow his blood directly from his wound.

After she ingested his blood, Julie's rapid aging seemed to slow down considerably.

But Liam's joy was short-lived. His expression turned serious, and he muttered, "This is only a temporary fix! If Julie's body starts rejecting my blood, then it's all for nothing! I need to find more primogem rocks quickly to transform Julie into a Primogem Warrior once and for all!"

Liam then turned to Shayla and asked her, "Shayla, what can you tell me about Rosefinch Tower? I need more primogem rocks to save Julie."

Shayla's lips twisted, showing a hint of jealousy that Liam hadn't seen before.

With a touch of sarcasm, Shayla said, "Oh, so you remember me now? To get you and Julie out of Rosefinch Hospital, I had to expose my identity!"

Liam found himself at a loss for words, knowing the sacrifices Shayla had made. He touched his nose in an embarrassed gesture and fell silent. Then, looking earnestly at Shayla, he said, "Shayla, I'm truly grateful to you."

He was obviously referring to how Shayla had risked everything to bring him and Julie out from Rosefinch Hospital and stood by their side.

Seeing Liam's humble appreciation, Shayla's mood visibly improved, and she flashed a pleased smile.

Shayla always flaunted her incredibly attractive looks in front of everyone.

It was the first time Liam had seen her look so innocent and genuine.

This made Liam even more embarrassed.

Just as he was struggling for words, a soft cough sounded from behind.

Chapter 1004 Julie's Awake

 +120 Points at most

Liam spun around, his heart leaping with joy.

Because the cough belonged to Julie!

Julie had awakened!

Our ads aim to provide better support for authors.