

Chapter 1076 The Counterattack

---

Trevor grinned merrily as he watched television.

The press conference on the screen was still going on.

Caitlin and Kabir were both optimistic about filming the movie and seemed to agree that it would be superior to a similar production by Sky Film and Television Company.

Wilbert slammed his fist on the table and yelled, "Sky Film and Television Company is a company I am familiar with. The employees there are entirely unremarkable. I have reason to believe that they are a front for a money-laundering operation. How could such a company produce any good work? Perhaps they are trying to deceive the investor. Do they have what it takes to make a military film? They can't do it. They don't have the capacity."

Travis scoffed and added, "I auditioned for Sky Film and Television Company before I got the invitation from Star Film and Television Company. The company is in a mess, and its director is a young man who nobody knows about. They did not even have enough actors for the auction, and the ones there are not well-known. I'm very worried about their works."

The newly established Sky Film and Television Company received unprecedented attention after being criticized by Caitlin, a member of the Sanderson family, Kabir, a famous director from Barlowtown, Wilbert, an outstanding art school student, and the star, Travis.

At the sight of this, Trevor burst into fits of laughter.

These people made a fool of themselves. They had no idea how Trevor's company, the Sky Film and Television Company, would benefit significantly from this news conference.

Because they didn't expect that Asho, the world-famous director, had already reached cooperation with Trevor.

Such a notable person was enough to change the situation.

The news of Caitlin's press presentation prompted Trevor to call Asho immediately.

"What do you think?" Trevor asked.

With a chuckle, Asho remarked, "Take your time. Since it is in our best interest, why not give the news more time to gain publicity? When we publish the news, it will have a greater impact."

Trevor agreed. He smiled and said, "Then do as you said. Let's wait for the public opinion to grow wilder."

As a result, no one from Sky Film and Television Company spoke publicly about the situation.

They didn't even post any comments on the Internet, nor did they hold a press conference to fight back.

This silence undoubtedly cheered Caitlin up. She thought that Trevor was scared.

After a whole day of waiting, they still had not heard back from Sky Film and Television Company.

Caitlin and the others were so ecstatic that they popped champagne bottles at the hotel to celebrate.

"Our family owns Star Film and Television Company, and we have famous directors and actors working for us. We have the best team in Barlowtown. There is nothing special about Levi's company. Why would he bother to fight against us?" Caitlin laughed complacently.

"Yes, Miss Sanderson, you are right!" Travis agreed.

They all laughed and drank together to celebrate.

Just then, Wilbert's phone displayed a news alert.

He was about to ignore it, but a certain name caught his attention. "What the hell? Sky Film and Television Company is going to work with an internationally renowned director?"

Hearing this, Caitlin and the others were utterly shocked and horrified. "What did you say?"

They immediately put down their glasses and checked their phones.

They were awestruck by the sheer volume of messages they received.

"Asho Murray, a renowned director, is teaming up with Sky Film and Television Company to produce a new film."

"The most prominent company in the entertainment industry has doubts about Sky Film and Television Company, but the latter has since shown its worth."

"Errol Payne, a well-known actor, has shown interest in participating in Sky Film and Television Company's next project."

"The superstar, Lloyd Martel, expresses his intention to continue the cooperation with Asho Murray."

Superstars made it obvious that they want to work with Sky Film and Television Company.

Caitlin and the others watched the news with restless hearts.

It turned out that they were celebrating for nothing.

The relaxing atmosphere soon ended.

They looked like complete idiots. There was a lot of tension and shame.

Wilbert's face became red. Distressed, he frantically grasped his hair and screamed.

"How did Levi know where to get such a well-known international director? Why?"