

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3217-Evan sat down and said to Abby, "This is a hotel, of course, not the room you slept in. After you got drunk, I sent you back to your room, but not long after you lay down, you vomited and vomited all over the floor. Even the bed was a little dirty. I have to move you. You are really difficult to take care of when you are drunk. You should drink less in the future."

Abby: "I have no memory at all. I just remember drinking a lot of wine with you. The wine was really delicious. When I return to Hiribaty, you can give me a box to take back. When I am in a bad mood, I'll take a drink or two at my house."

"You still need some wine." Evan didn't believe that she was short of wine.

She must have a lot of good wine at home.

Abby: "I don't lack the wine, but I am very short of the wine you gave me."

Evan: "Okay, when you leave Wiltspoon, I will give you a box of the wine you drank last night, as well as Wiltspoon's specialties, and buy you some to take back. I can't let your trip go in vain."

Abby smiled and said, "Yes, you can't let me go in vain."

Then, she sat down next to Evan. After sitting down, she leaned on the sofa and said to Evan, "Evan, is there any honey here? Can you make me a cup of honey water to relieve my headache?"

"Didn't you say it doesn't hurt that much?" Evan said to her as he stood up, "I'm going to wash my face first." I'll make honey water for you later, and you can wash your face, too. If you want to take a bath, go back to your room and do so again. This is the presidential suite. My eldest brother often stays here. My eldest brother only agreed to let you stay here for one night. My eldest brother won't agree if you switch to the second person, even if my sister-in-law helps to talk."

Both his brothers and sister-in-law were aware that his grandma had selected Abby as her bride. Her brother and sister-in-law already considered Abby to be part of the family in their eyes.

After hearing Evan speak like this yesterday, Abby would think there was something wrong with those words.

Now that she knows that Evan is close to her and treats her well because of Grandma May, she doesn't think there is anything wrong with what Evan said. Serenity and Zachary probably regard her as a family member.

Abby looked at Evan's back as he walked out. Can she start a family with him?

He was good to her because of his grandma. But he has no real love for her.

She could still feel it. However, she was a little tempted, and she didn't want her temptation to end like this. She wanted to give it a try; could she beat her?

If she couldn't win, it would make her dumbfounded.

"I'll call Sister Seren later and thank her." Evan heard what she said, but he didn't respond to her.

That was a personal relationship between her and Serenity.

After washing, Evan notified the butler to bring breakfast. Then he made a glass of honey water and was about to bring it to Abby's room. Abby had already come out of the room.

Evan said, "The honey water is ready. I also asked the butler to bring breakfast. After you have breakfast, you can go back to your room to catch up on your sleep. If you sleep enough, you won't have a headache."

Abby hummed. She took the glass of honey water from his hand and thanked him.
