

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3222-Lydia glanced at the car's sound and continued to eat her barbecue.

"Grandma, I'm back."

Evan's voice sounded. He even got out of the car with a bouquet of flowers in his arms and called Grandma May as he came over, saying before she even got close, "It smells so good. In this weather, it's best to have a barbecue."

Winter in Wiltspoon was like this. Yesterday, it was so cold that people shivered, and old ladies didn't like to go out. Today, the temperature has risen. Now it's almost noon, the sun is shining in the sky, and it feels a bit hot.

In winter, they occasionally cook barbecue by themselves, but they usually have this leisure time during holidays.

Unlike Grandma May, she could eat and bake whenever she wanted, leisurely.

Evan thought that when he got married and had children in the future and his son could take over as soon as he became an adult, he would immediately leave the business to his son, retire early, and live the leisurely and comfortable old age life that his grandma had now.

Happier than the gods.

"Fourth Young Master." Sam smiled and said hello.

The old ladies who accompanied Grandma May, chatting about everyday things and gossiping, also smiled and said hello to Evan.

They envied Grandma May the most because she had nine grandsons. Except for the two youngest young masters who had not yet entered society, the other seven young masters all knew that they were the best among men and were very capable.

Even though the two youngest young masters have not yet entered society, their strong academic performance ensures they will not remain in the pool in the future.

Not only were the grandchildren excellent, but they were also very filial and kind to Grandma May.

The York family had great business, and Grandma May was really envious of them.

Usually they chatted with Grandma May, gossiped, or reminisced about the poor years, but Grandma May just listened and refused to talk because she lived better than them in that poor era, and she was all-powerful before.

Only an exceptional old lady could raise excellent children and grandchildren.

“Hello everyone.” Evan didn’t dare act like a fourth young master in front of these grandma’s old friends.

Grandma was able to stay quietly in the villa for a while, thanks to the company of these old ladies, who were her friends.

“Grandma, when I came back, I passed by the flower shop and thought the flowers were very beautiful, so I bought you a bouquet.” Evan handed the bouquet to Grandma.

Grandma May smiled and took the bouquet. “There are many flowers in the flower field.”

“Old madam, the bouquet given to you by the fourth young master is out of filial piety and wishes you health and happiness. It is different from the flowers in the flower field.”

“That’s right, that’s right.”

“If my grandson gives me a bouquet of flowers, I can laugh out of my dreams.”

Several old ladies praised Evan for his filial piety.

An old lady greeted Evan, “Fourth Young Master, come and eat grilled fish. Your grandma caught, cleaned, and grilled this fish. It’s very delicious.”

Grandma May said that the fish she caught would not be eaten by Evan, and she asked Sam to prepare fish and shrimp and bake them. In fact, she still left some for Evan.

Counting the time, Evan returned just after grilling the fish.

Evan sat down and said, “My grandma is an expert at fishing, and the grilled fish is also first-class.”

It seemed that Grandma was a master in all aspects.

No wonder none of the brothers could climb Grandma’s Mountain.
