

Married At First Sight Chapter 3239

Married At First Sight Chapter 3239-Serenity said, “Since we are going to the bookstore, let’s not eat these things first and eat them with Jasmine. Her preferences are the same as mine. Now she can eat better than me. She is already pregnant, and the baby in her belly is exactly what she needs. When it comes to nutrition, she needs to eat several meals a day.”

Abby said, “Is she fat? I have seen female employees in my company. After pregnancy, their weight quickly soared, and they gained weight one after another. They say that after pregnancy, if you have pregnancy reactions in the early stages, you have to eat too much or you can’t eat. After you have no pregnancy reactions, you can eat very much, you can’t control your mouth, and you become fat. They say that many women will have large babies.”

Serenity quickly asked her, “Do you think I’m fat?”

She could eat it, too.

Abby said, “It’s not obvious that you’re pregnant. You just look a little rounder, not too fat.”

Serenity breathed a sigh of relief and said, “Fortunately, I still go to work and am busy outside every day. If I stayed at home to raise the baby, I would definitely be like a pig and become chubby.”

She insisted on going to work after her pregnancy. Not only was she busy with business, but she was also afraid that if she ate and slept at home every day, she would be turned into a pig.

She was in good health and had a good foundation in martial arts—a little better than ordinary women. Her plan was to rest at home until she was eight months pregnant and wait for the birth.

After giving birth, she must also seize the time to exercise, lose weight, and return to her pre-pregnancy weight.

Although Zachary said that no matter what she became, he would always love her,.

Serenity, however, did not want to indulge herself. She must know how to cherish herself and take care of herself.

When a man says something, it's okay to listen to it sometimes, but don't take it seriously.

Didn't Hank say that to her sister back then? Wasn't she also very kind to her sister? What happened next?

After Liberty got out of shape, Hank began to dislike her and started looking for a mistress outside.

Serenity said, "Pregnancy is not an illness. As long as you don't do heavy work, it's not a big problem. Many female employees in my company will continue to work until they are about eight months pregnant before taking leave. I have seen a workaholic employee who gave birth to a son. At that time, she persisted in taking a break until she was more than nine months pregnant, and she gave birth to her son within one week of leave.

After her son turned three months old, she quickly returned to the company to work. I even told her that she could take maternity leave until the child was six months old before returning to work, but she refused.

It's not that she doesn't want to take a leave; it's that she has life pressure and is afraid that her original position will be taken by someone else if she takes too long a maternity leave.

The workplace is very competitive. It takes a lot of hard work to reach a certain position. No one is willing to give up the position for which she has worked so hard for so long to others."

Abby choked and said, "That's right."

They were all in a superior position and did not understand the anxiety and pressure of the employees below them at work.

As soon as they left, the two of them walked out of Serenity's office carrying the fruits and snacks bought by Abby.

Serenity's chauffeur was chatting with the security guard on duty in the security room. When he saw Serenity coming out, he immediately walked out of the security room and faced Serenity and the others. With a smile on his face, he asked Serenity, "The eldest young lady is going out?"

Serenity: "Well, let's go to the bookstore."

The driver opened the door for Serenity and waited until the two people got in the car before he returned to the driver's seat.

The security guard on duty quickly opened the company's door.

Soon, the driver drove Serenity and the others out of the car.

After the car drove out of the company, it was quickly followed by a black car. These were the two bodyguards arranged by Zachary to protect Serenity.

Married At First Sight Chapter 3240-Serenity worked in the company, and they wandered around the company, always keeping an eye on her. As soon as Serenity left the company, they could immediately discover and protect her.

On the way, Serenity sent a message to Jasmine.

When the two of them arrived at the bookstore, Jasmine came out and watched Serenity get out of the car with a smile.

As soon as Serenity got out of the car, Jasmine stepped forward and took her arm affectionately, saying, "I thought you didn't want to come here just to take a look today; you're a busy man."

Serenity: "I'm not a busy person; Elisa is."

Jasmine said a little apologetically, "Three people should have divided the work and cooperated, but now many things have been given to Elisa alone."

Abby got off the car carrying fruit snacks.

Jasmine happened to ask Serenity, “Didn’t you say you would bring a beautiful woman over to let me get to know her?”

“No, get off the car.”

Jasmine looked at Abby.

Abby walked up to her and introduced herself gracefully: “Sister Jasmine, I am Abby Du. I come from Haishi. I have taken the liberty to come to disturb you.”

Jasmine let go of her friend, shook hands with Abby first, then took the bag from her hand and said with a smile, “Hello, Abby, Serenity told me about you; come to see me. I’m so happy that you spent so much money to buy so many things.”

Abby said honestly, “To be honest with you, I bought these things from shopping at noon and wanted to eat them with Sister Seren. I said I would come and see you, and Sister Seren asked me to bring these things over. The three of us eat together; it’s fun when there are many people.”

She immediately changed her name to Sister Jasmine, instantly closing the distance with Jasmine.

Jasmine laughed. “If you have good things, you have to share them with everyone. It’s hard to gain weight by eating alone.”

After exchanging glances with Serenity, she felt that Abby was honest.

At the same time, she also envied Serenity. Every time she added a sister-in-law, she added another friend. Each of Serenity’s sisters-in-law was a girl with excellent character.

Josh’s brothers hadn’t married yet, and Jasmine didn’t know if her future sisters-in-law would be easy to get along with.

All she knew was that Julian’s other half was a happy person.

Josh told her that in the future, if her sisters-in-law are easy to get along with, she should interact more with them. If her sisters-in-law are not easy to get along with, she should be told to have less contact with them and interact less with them. She only needs to have good relations with Kiera.

The future head wife of the Bucham family would be Kiera.

The two people greeted Abby and invited her to enter the store.

After Abby entered the store, she took a look at the environment. The bookstore was not large in square footage, but it was neatly organized and cleaned. Information books and extracurricular readings for each grade were separated. There were large labels on the book shelves to make it easier for students to find the books they wanted.

There was a lucky cat on the cashier counter, and a vase was placed against the wall. There were three lucky bamboos in the vase. The lucky bamboo leaves were green and growing vigorously.

There was also a novel on the table, which should be the book Jasmine was reading. The book was opened with the writing upside down.

She heard that Jasmine liked reading novels very much, so she and Serenity opened this bookstore in partnership so that they could make some money and read books.

There was a row of bookshelves in the store with various novels, but they were placed in the last row. Their usual business relied on the middle school in front of them. Students were very focused on studying, and parents generally didn't like students to read novels.

Occasionally, a few of the various novels on the row of bookshelves were sold or rented out, and most of them were read by Jasmine.
