

Married At First Sight

Chapter 3249

Married At First Sight Chapter 3249-Jane touched Titus's head and said, "If you know your mistakes, you can correct them, and you'll be a good boy."

Titus nodded vigorously, he would change it.

As long as he made a mistake and an adult pointed it out, he would correct it.

Jane stood up straight and said warmly, "Let's go play."

Titus asked, "Mom, where is my sister? I want to play with her."

Titus only had one younger sister, Avah, and the rarest one was his younger sister.

Although those younger brothers were also very cute,.

"Her grandma took her out to play. Enzo is at the nanny's place. Do you want to play with him?"

After Titus thought for a while, he said, "I'm going out to find Avah. Enzo has a nanny and aunt to play with him, so he doesn't need me to accompany him anymore."

Enzo loved to cry.

These two children, Enzo and Avah, were harder to take care of. It was only when they were asleep that Titus found those youngers so cute.

Avah was cute, whether she was asleep or awake.

When he came back this time, he felt that Avah had grown up a little, and he couldn't help but kiss her several times when he saw her tender little face.

As expected of Titus's sister, she is the cutest in the world.

Jane smiled and said, "Okay, then go out and look for Avah. She should be in the yard."

“Mom, I’m out.” Titus ran out.

FC Manor was very big, but Titus often ran around in the villa, and he knew very well where the elders in the family liked to take their children. He was familiar with the roads and soon found Avah lying in the stroller, being pushed by her grandma.

Titus ran happily towards Avah, while Sonny followed Serenity and others into the hotpot restaurant.

“Sonny.”

As soon as the group entered the hot pot restaurant, Serenity heard a child calling Sonny’s name.

But the child only screamed twice and then didn’t scream again.

When the group was looking for a place to go, they happened to see Chelsea, George, Chelsea’s parents-in-law, and their three children sitting around, eating hot pot.

It was Lucas who called out Sonny twice.

In the past, Lucas liked to snatch Sonny’s toys and bully Sonny. After all, he was still young and would yell loudly when Sonny came in. But Chelsea covered his mouth.

Chelsea cursed Lucas in a low voice. “What are you calling? Just pretend you didn’t see it. If they come to join us, it will cost more money.”

Lucas unhappily pulled away the hand covering his mouth.

Chelsea covered Lucas’s mouth to prevent Lucas from shouting at Sonny. Serenity and others saw it.

Serenity, who knew Chelsea as a person, didn’t know what Chelsea’s action of covering Lucas’s mouth meant.

She picked up Sonny, and Sonny just waved to Lucas and called Brother Lucas, which was regarded as a greeting to the two cousins.

She didn’t walk over.

Was Chelsea still afraid that she would eat it?

It was because she was afraid that Serenity would come over and eat.

Serenity hugged Sonny and walked away with Jasmine and Abby. The location she chose was also far away from Chelsea's family, so far away that they couldn't see each other.