

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3250-“Were those Chelsea’s family just now?” After sitting down, Jasmine asked Serenity.

Serenity said, “It should be her. She is living a very comfortable life and is dressed like jewels.”

Before Liberty got divorced, Chelsea went to the bookstore to complain to Serenity. Jasmine had met her several times.

Jasmine couldn’t even remember such a top-notch woman.

“is her.” Serenity responded calmly, “Lucas called out Sonny twice, and she even covered Lucas’s mouth to prevent us from eating him. She used to go to my sister’s house with her whole family to eat and drink every weekend. She wouldn’t help with anything, but would point fingers and pick on my sister.”

No matter how they changed, the Brown family was still the best. They really felt that Wiltspoon was too small, and people they didn’t like would always meet by chance once in a while.

Abby didn’t know those past events, so she didn’t ask; she just kept her ears open and listened.

Jasmine said, “Brown family is really weird. So many things have happened, and we thought they would change it. We thought too much.”

Sere said, “For a while, Chelsea was helping my sister, helping her target Jessica. That was because she rescued her little treasure. When Jessica went in, she thought she had repaid our kindness and was not like before. She often denigrated Brother Duncan in front of Sonny and said bad things about Brother Duncan. She didn’t want my sister and brother Duncan to get married smoothly.”

Jasmine immediately said to Sonny, “Sonny, you can’t listen to their nonsense. Your Uncle Duncan is a very good man who treats you and your mother very well. Don’t listen to your father and your aunt’s words.”

Sonny nodded sensibly. “Auntie, I know, I like Uncle Duncan the most now, and I also want Uncle Duncan to be my second father.”

Liberty told Sonny about his real father and stepfather. Sonny's stepfather was also his father. For his age, she said that if his mother married Uncle Duncan, then Uncle Duncan, as the stepfather, would have to raise him with his mother. This way, he would have done what he was supposed to do and raised him. Not being thankful is not a good trait for him to have. He should respect Uncle Duncan and be loyal to him.

He would not!

Duncan treated Sonny better than Hank.

In Sonny's young mind, Duncan occupied a more important position.

Hank spent too little time with Sonny. Sonny knew that Hank was his father, but his feelings for him were getting weaker and weaker.

Soon they started eating too.

Sonny sat between Serenity and Jasmine. The two of them brought Sonny food from time to time, and he ate happily.

Abby looked at Sonny and praised him: "Sonny is really sensible and well-behaved. A child of his age cannot sit still. He will move around, run around, and even cry."

However, Sonny only cared about eating. He ate with gusto and wouldn't be unable to sit still like other children.

Sonny said while eating, "My aunt said that food is the most important thing for people, so eat it first."

Abby chuckled. "Sister Seren, your nephew has been greatly influenced by you."

Serenity said, "I've been carrying him since he was a little kid, and he's almost four years old now, so it won't have much of an impact. When Sonny is playing, play freely, and follow the adults when going out. Then he will be well-behaved and not disturb us."

Abby said, "Children like this are really angels. When I get married, I hope to have an angel baby like Sonny."

Jasmine teased Abby, "You'd better catch Evan first."

Abby said while picking up food for herself, "He doesn't love me. I originally wanted to fight for it, but now I don't have much confidence anymore. Everyone says that the son of the York family is very devoted to relationships. If she falls in love with someone else, no matter how hard she tries, he will never fall in love with her."

Jasmine said to Serenity, "This is the second Elisa."

Abby said, "Don't you think what I said makes sense?"
